Opposite	13:30 “But God raised him from the dead! 13:31 And he was seen many days by them who came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are his witnesses to the people. 13:32 And we declare to you glad tidings, how that the promise which was made to the fathers, 13:33 God has fulfilled the same to us their children, in that he has raised up Jesus again; as it is also written in the second psalm, ‘You are my Son, this day have I begotten you.’ 13:34 And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he said on this manner: ‘I will give you the sure mercies of David.’ 13:35 Therefore he says also in another psalm , ‘You shall not allow your Holy One to see corruption.’ 13:36 For David, after he had served his own generation by the will of God, fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption; 13:37 but he, whom God raised again, saw no corruption.
Complement	13:38 “Therefore, let it be known to you, men and brethren, that through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins; 13:39 and by him all that believe are justified from all sins , from which you could not be justified by the Law of Moses.
Complement	13:40 “Therefore beware, lest that condemnation comes upon you, which is spoken of in the Prophets: 13:41 ‘Behold, you despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a work in your days, a work which you shall never believe, though a man declares it to you.’ ”
Unique	13:42 And when the Jews went out of the synagogue, the Gentiles pleaded that these words might be preached to them the next Sabbath.
	13:43 And when the assembly was broken up, many of the Jews and religious proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas, who, speaking to them, persuaded them to continue in the grace of God.
	¶Complement The hostility of the Jews in Antioch encouraged Paul and Barnabas to turn to the Gentiles with the gospel (13:44 - 52)
Unique	13:44 And the next Sabbath day almost the entire city came together to hear the Word of God.
	13:45 But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy; and they spoke against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming.
Complement	13:46 Then Paul and Barnabas grew bold, and said, “It was necessary that the Word of God should first have been spoken to you; but since you reject it, and judge yourselves unworthy of Everlasting Life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles: 13:47 for so has the Lord commanded us, saying , ‘I have set you to be a light of the Gentiles’ , that you should be for salvation unto the ends of the earth.”
Complement	13:48 And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the Word of the Lord; and as many as had been appointed to Eternal Life believed. 13:49 And the Word of the Lord was published throughout all the region.
Opposite	13:50 But the Jews stirred up the devout and honorable women, and the chief men of the city; and raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their region; 13:51 but they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came to Iconium.
Opposite	13:52 And the disciples were filled with joy, and with the Holy Spirit.
	¶Complement The hostility of the Jews in Iconium forced Paul and Barnabas to flee for their lives to Lystra and Derbe (14:1 - 7)
Unique	14:1 And it came to pass in Iconium, that they both went together into the synagogue of the Jews; and they so spoke, that a great multitude both of the Jews and also of the Greeks believed.
	14:2 But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles, and made their minds evil affected against the brethren.
Complement	14:3 Therefore they stayed a long time speaking boldly in the Lord, who gave testimony to the Word of his grace;
Complement	and he granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands.
Opposite	14:4 But the multitude of the city was divided; and part held with the Jews, and part with the apostles.
Opposite	14:5 And when an attempt was made by both by both the Gentiles and Jews, together with their rulers, to mistreat and to stone them, 14:6 they were aware of it , and fled to Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and to the region that lies round about. 14:7 And there they preached the gospel.
	¶Unique After spending time with their new churches, Paul and Barnabas returned home to the church in Antioch (14:8 - 28)
Opposite	14:8 And a certain man sat at Lystra, powerless in his feet, being a cripple from his mother’s womb, who had never walked. 14:9 The same heard Paul speak, who steadfastly beholding him, and perceiving that he had faith to be healed, 14:10 said with a loud voice, “Stand upright on your feet!” And he leaped and walked. 14:11 And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, “The gods have come down to us in the likeness of men!” 14:12 And they called Barnabas, “Jupiter”; and Paul, “Mercury”, because he was the chief speaker. 14:13 Then the priest of Jupiter, which was before their city, brought oxen and garlands to the gates, and would have done sacrifice with the people; 14:14 which when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of , they tore their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out 14:15 and saying, “Men, why do you do these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and preach to you that you should turn from these vanities unto the living God, who made Heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all things that are in it: 14:16 who, in times past, allowed all nations to walk in their own ways. 14:17 Nevertheless he left not himself without witness, in that he did good, and gave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness.” 14:18 And with these sayings, they barely restrained the people, that they did not do sacrifice to them.
Opposite	14:19 And certain Jews from Antioch and Iconium came there, who persuaded the people; and, having stoned Paul, they dragged him out of the city, supposing him to be dead. 14:20 Nevertheless, as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, and came into the city.
Complement	And the next day, he went with Barnabas to Derbe; 14:21 and when they had preached the gospel to that city, and had taught many, they returned again to Lystra, and Iconium, and Antioch; 14:22 confirming the souls of the disciples: exhorting them to continue in the Faith, and that it was necessary for us to have entered into the Kingdom of God through much tribulation. 14:23 And when they had ordained elders for them in every Assembly, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they had believed.
Complement	14:24 And after they had passed throughout Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia. 14:25 And when they had preached the Word in Perga, they went down into Attalia. 14:26 And from there, they sailed to Antioch, from where they had been recommended to the grace of God for the work which they had fulfilled.
Unique	14:27 And when they came, and had gathered the Assembly together, they rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how he had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles.
	14:28 And they remained there a long time with the disciples.
	§Unique Conclusion: The apostles and elders held a council at Jerusalem (15:1 - 35)
	¶Complement The church leadership debated whether Gentile Christians should be forced to follow the Law of Moses (15:1 - 12)
Opposite	15:1 And certain men who came down from Judea taught the brethren, saying , “Unless you are circumcised after the manner of Moses, you are not able to be truly saved.” 15:2 Therefore when Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and disputation with them, they determined that Paul and Barnabas, and certain others of them, should go up to Jerusalem to the apostles and elders about this question.
Opposite	15:3 And, being brought on their way by the Assembly, they passed through Phoenicia and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles; and they caused great joy to all the brethren.
Complement	15:4 And when they came to Jerusalem, they were received by the Assembly and the apostles and elders; and they declared all things that God had done with them.
Complement	15:5 But there rose up certain of the sect of the Pharisees who believed, saying that it was necessary to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the Law of Moses.
Unique	15:6 And the apostles and elders came together to consider of this matter. 15:7 And when there had been much disputing, Peter rose up, and said to them, “Men, brethren: you know how that a good while ago God made choice among us, that the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the Word of the gospel, and believe. 15:8 And God, who knows the hearts, bore them witness, giving them the Holy Spirit, even as he did unto us. 15:9 And he put no difference between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith. 15:10 Now therefore why do you test God, to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? 15:11 But through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, we believe to be saved, even as they did .” 15:12 Then all the multitude kept silence, and gave audience to Barnabas and Paul, declaring what miracles and wonders God had done among the Gentiles by them.
	¶Complement The Gentile church at Antioch rejoiced to hear that they would not be forced to follow the Law of Moses (15:13 - 35)
Opposite	15:13 And after they held their peace, James answered, saying, “Men, brethren: listen to me. 15:14 Simeon has declared how God at the first visited the Gentiles, to take out of them a people for his Name. 15:15 And to this agree the words of the Prophets: as it is written, 15:16 ‘After this will I return, and rebuild the Tabernacle of David, which has fallen down; and I will rebuild its ruins, and set it up, 15:17 that the rest of mankind might seek after the Lord, even all the Gentiles, upon whom my Name is called,’ says [Jehovah], ‘ who does all these things. ” 15:18 Known to God are all his works from Eternity.
Opposite	15:19 “Therefore my decision is, that we do not trouble them that from among the Gentiles are turning to God; 15:20 but that we write to them, that they abstain from pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and from things strangled, and from blood: 15:21 for Moses of ancient generations has in every city them that preach him, being read in the synagogues every Sabbath day.”
Complement	15:22 Then it pleased the apostles and elders, with the whole Assembly, to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas: namely , Judas surnamed Barsabas, and Silas, leading men among the brethren. 15:23 And they wrote a letter by them after this manner: “The apostles and elders and brethren sends greeting to the brethren that are of the Gentiles in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia. 15:24 Forasmuch as we have heard, that certain who went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, ‘ You must be circumcised, and keep the Law ’ (to whom we gave no such command): 15:25 it seemed good to us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men to you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, 15:26 men that have hazarded their lives for the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ. 15:27 Therefore we have sent Judas and Silas, who shall also tell you the same things by mouth: 15:28 for it seemed good to the Holy Spirit, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things: 15:29 to abstain from food offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication; from which if you keep yourselves, you shall do well. Farewell.”
Complement	15:30 So when they were dismissed, they came to Antioch; and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the letter, 15:31 which when they had read, they rejoiced for the encouragement. 15:32 And Judas and Silas, being prophets also themselves, exhorted the brethren with many words, and confirmed them .
Unique	15:33 And after they had stayed a while, they were let go in peace from the brethren unto the apostles.
	15:34 Notwithstanding, it pleased Silas to remain there still. 15:35 Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antioch, teaching and preaching the Word of the Lord, with many others also.

	§Unique Introduction: The missionary ministry of Paul is transformed with a new partner, Silas, and a new helper, Timothy (15:36 - 16:5)
	¶Opposite Paul and Barnabas go their separate ways because of a disagreement over John Mark (15:36 - 41)
Unique	^{15:36} And some days afterward, Paul said to Barnabas, “Let us go again and visit our brethren in every city where we have preached the Word of the Lord, and see how they are doing.”
	^{15:37} And Barnabas determined to take with them John, whose surname was Mark.
Complement	^{15:38} But Paul did not think it was good to take him with them, who departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work.
Complement	^{15:39} And the contention was so sharp between them, that they separated one from the other.
Opposite	And so Barnabas took Mark, and sailed to Cyprus.
Opposite	^{15:40} And Paul chose Silas, and departed, being commended by the brethren to the grace of God; ^{15:41} and he went through Syria and Cilicia, confirming the Assemblies.
	¶Opposite Paul, Silas, and Timothy delivered the decrees of the assembly at Jerusalem to the new Gentile assemblies (16:1 - 5)
Opposite	^{16:1} Then he came to Derbe and Lystra;
Opposite	and, behold, a certain disciple was there, named Timotheus (the son of a certain woman who was Jewish, and believed in Christ ; but his father was a Greek); ^{16:2} who was well attested to by the brethren that were at Lystra and Iconium.
Complement	^{16:3} Him Paul wanted to go forth with him; and he took and circumcised him because of the Jews that were in those parts: for they all knew that his father was a Greek.
Complement	^{16:4} And as they went through the cities, they delivered to them the decrees to keep, that were ordained by the apostles and elders at Jerusalem.
Unique	^{16:5} And so the Assemblies were established in the Faith; and they increased in number daily.
	§Complement Body: Paul and his missionary team were imprisoned in Philippi and escaped a riot in Thessalonica (16:6 - 17:34)
	¶Unique The Holy Spirit opened a door to establish a new assembly in Philippi of Greece (16:6 - 15)
Opposite	^{16:6} Now when they had gone throughout Phrygia and the region of Galatia, and were forbidden by the Holy Spirit to preach the Word in Asia, ^{16:7} after they came to Mysia, they tried to go into Bithynia; but the Spirit did not allow them.
Opposite	^{16:8} And they, passing by Mysia, came down to Troas; ^{16:9} and a vision appeared to Paul in the night: a man of Macedonia stood, and pleaded with him, saying, “Come over into Macedonia, and help us.” ^{16:10} And after he had seen the vision, immediately we endeavored to go into Macedonia, concluding that the Lord had called us to preach the gospel to them; ^{16:11} therefore loosing from Troas, we came with a straight course to the island of Samothracia. And the next day we went to Neapolis, ^{16:12} and from there to Philippi; which is the chief city of that part of Macedonia, and a Roman colony; and we stayed in that city certain days.
Complement	^{16:13} And on the Sabbath, we went out of the city by a riverside, where prayer was customarily made; and we sat down, and spoke to the women who resorted there .
Complement	^{16:14} And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, who worshiped God, heard us ; whose heart the Lord opened, so that she attended to the things which were spoken by Paul.
Unique	^{16:15} And when she was baptized, and her household, she pleaded with us , saying, “If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and stay there .” And she compelled us.
	¶Complement Paul and Silas were imprisoned by the Roman authorities in Philippi over a false charge (16:16 - 40)
Unique	^{16:16} And it came to pass, as we went to prayer, a certain girl having a soothsaying demon met us, who brought her masters much gain by fortune-telling. ^{16:17} The same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, “These men are the servants of the most high God, who show to us the way of salvation!” ^{16:18} And she did this many days. But Paul, being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, “I command you in the Name of Jesus Christ to come out of her!” And he came out the same hour.
Complement	^{16:19} And when her masters saw that the hope of their gains was gone, they caught Paul and Silas, and dragged them into the marketplace to the rulers; ^{16:20} and they brought them to the magistrates, saying, “These men, being Jews, do exceedingly trouble our city, ^{16:21} and teach customs, which are not lawful for us to receive; neither to observe, being Romans.” ^{16:22} And the multitude rose up together against them; and the magistrates tore off their clothes, and commanded to beat them . ^{16:23} And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jailor to keep them safely; ^{16:24} who, having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the stocks.
Complement	^{16:25} And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises to God; and the prisoners heard them. ^{16:26} And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened, and everyone’s bands were loosed. ^{16:27} And the warden of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, he drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had fled. ^{16:28} But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, “Do yourself no harm: for we are all here!” ^{16:29} Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas. ^{16:30} And he brought them out, and said, “Sirs, what must I do to be saved?” ^{16:31} And they said, “Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ; and you shall be saved, and your household.” ^{16:32} And they spoke to him the Word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house. ^{16:33} And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and he was immediately baptized, he and all his family . ^{16:34} And when he had brought them into his house, he set food before them, and rejoiced, believing in God with all his household.
Opposite	^{16:35} And when it was day, the magistrates sent the sergeants, saying, “Let those men go.” ^{16:36} And the warden of the prison told this saying to Paul, “The magistrates have sent to let you go; now therefore depart, and go in peace.” ^{16:37} But Paul said to them, “They have beaten us openly uncondemned, being Romans, and have cast us into prison; and now do they thrust us out secretly? No indeed, but let them come themselves and bring us out.”
Opposite	^{16:38} And the sergeants told these words to the magistrates; and they were afraid, when they heard that they were Romans. ^{16:39} And they came and pleaded with them, and brought them out, and asked them to leave the city. ^{16:40} And they went out of the prison, and entered into the house of Lydia; and when they had seen the brethren, they comforted them, and departed.
	¶Complement The Jews of Thessalonica disrupted the work of Paul and Silas in Thessalonica with a riot (17:1 - 9)
Unique	^{17:1} Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews. ^{17:2} And Paul, as his manner was, went in to them; and three Sabbath days, he reasoned with them from the Scriptures: ^{17:3} explaining and alleging, that it was necessary for Christ to have suffered, and risen again from the dead; and that “this Jesus, whom I preach to you, is the Christ.” ^{17:4} And some of them believed, and consorted with Paul and Silas; and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few.
Complement	^{17:5} But the Jews who believed not (motivated by envy) took to them certain evil unemployed men; and they gathered a mob, and set all the city on an uproar; and they assaulted the house of Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people.
Complement	^{17:6} And when they did not find them, they dragged Jason and certain brethren to the rulers of the city, crying, “These that have turned the world upside down have come here also, ^{17:7} whom Jason has received; and these all do contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying that there is another King, one Jesus.”
Opposite	^{17:8} And they troubled the people and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things.
Opposite	^{17:9} And having received bail money from Jason and the others, they let them go.
	¶Opposite Many of the noble Jews of Berea believed in Christ (17:10 - 15)
Unique	^{17:10} And the brethren immediately sent Paul and Silas away by night to Berea; who, coming there , went into the synagogue of the Jews.
Complement	^{17:11} These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the Word with all readiness of mind; and they searched the Scriptures daily, to see whether those things were true.
Complement	^{17:12} Therefore many of them believed in Christ ; also of honorable women who were Greeks; and of men, not a few.
Opposite	^{17:13} But when the Jews of Thessalonica discovered that the Word of God was preached by Paul at Berea, they came there also, and stirred up the people.
Opposite	^{17:14} And then immediately the brethren sent away Paul to go as it were to the sea; but Silas and Timotheus remained there still. ^{17:15} And they that conducted Paul brought him to Athens; and receiving a command to Silas and Timotheus to come to him with all speed, they departed.
	¶Opposite Few of the pagan Greeks of Athens believed in Christ (17:16 - 34)
Opposite	^{17:16} Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city wholly given to idolatry; ^{17:17} therefore he reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews and the religious persons, and in the market daily with them that met with him.
Opposite	^{17:18} Then certain philosophers of the Epicureans, and of the Stoics, encountered him; and some said, “What will this seed-picker say?” And others said , “He seems to be a proclaimer of strange gods”, because he preached to them Jesus, and the resurrection. ^{17:19} And they took him, and brought him to Areopagus, saying, “May we know what this new doctrine is , whereof you speak? ^{17:20} For you bring certain strange things to our ears; therefore we would like to know what these things mean.” ^{17:21} (For all the Athenians and strangers who were there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell, or to hear something new.)
Complement	^{17:22} Then Paul stood in the midst of Mars’ hill, and said, “ You men of Athens, I perceive that in all things you are very religious: ^{17:23} for as I passed by, and beheld your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, ‘TO THE UNKNOWN GOD.’ Therefore whom you ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you.
Complement	^{17:24} “God that made the world and all things in it (seeing that he is Lord of Heaven and earth) does not dwell in Temples made with hands; ^{17:25} neither is worshiped with men’s hands (as though he needed anything, seeing he gives to all life, and breath, and all things). ^{17:26} And he has made of one blood all nations of men to dwell on all the face of the earth; and he has determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation, ^{17:27} that they should seek the Lord (if perhaps they might feel after him, and find him, though he is not far from every one of us): ^{17:28} for in him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain also of your own poets have said, ‘For we are also his offspring.’ ^{17:29} Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, we should not think that the Godhead is like gold, silver, or stone, sculptured by art and man’s imagination. ^{17:30} And the times of this ignorance God overlooked, but now commands all men everywhere to repent, ^{17:31} because he has appointed a Day, in which he will judge the world in righteousness by that Man whom he has ordained; of which he has given assurance to all men , in that he has raised him from the dead.”
Unique	^{17:32} And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked; and others said, “We will hear you again of this matter .” ^{17:33} So Paul departed from among them. ^{17:34} Nevertheless, certain men joined with him, and believed; among whom was Dionysius the Areopagite, a woman named Damaris, and others with them.
	§Complement Conclusion: The Lord opened a door for Paul in Corinth; and another in Ephesus, on his way to Antioch (18:1 - 22)
	¶Complement The Lord blessed Paul's missionary efforts in the Greek city of Corinth for eighteen months (18:1 - 11)
Opposite	^{18:1} After these things Paul left Athens, and came to Corinth; ^{18:2} and he found a certain Jew named Aquila, born in Pontus, lately come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla (because Claudius had commanded all Jews to depart from Rome); and he came to them. ^{18:3} And because he was of the same trade, he stayed with them, and worked: for by their occupation they were tentmakers. ^{18:4} And he reasoned in the synagogue every Sabbath, and persuaded the Jews and the Greeks.
Opposite	^{18:5} And when Silas and Timotheus came from Macedonia, Paul was pressed in the spirit, and testified to the Jews that Jesus is the Christ. ^{18:6} But when they rebelled, and blasphemed, he shook his garments, and said to them, “Your blood is upon your own heads. I am clean; from henceforth I will go to the Gentiles.”
Complement	^{18:7} And he left there, and entered into a certain man's house, named Justus, one that worshiped God, whose house joined hard to the synagogue.
Complement	^{18:8} And Crispus, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his household; and many of the Corinthians hearing the gospel , believed, and were baptized.
Unique	^{18:9} Then the Lord spoke to Paul in the night by a vision, saying “ Be not afraid, but speak; and hold not your peace: ^{18:10} for I am with you. And no man shall set on you to hurt you: for I have many people in this city. ” ^{18:11} And he continued there a year and six months, teaching the Word of God among them.
	¶Complement Paul returned to the church at Antioch after stopping at a synagogue in Ephesus (18:12 - 22)
Opposite	^{18:12} And when Gallio was the deputy of Achaia, the Jews made insurrection with one accord against Paul; and they brought him to the judgment seat; ^{18:13} saying, “This man persuades men to worship God contrary to the Law of Moses .” ^{18:14} And when Paul was now about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, “If it were a matter of wrong or wicked lewdness, O you Jews, reason would that I should bear with you. ^{18:15} But if it is a question of words and names, and of your Law, you see to it : for I will be no judge of such matters .” ^{18:16} And he drove them from the judgment seat.
Opposite	^{18:17} Then all the Greeks took Sosthenes, the chief ruler of the synagogue; and they beat him before the judgment seat; and Gallio cared for none of those things.
Complement	^{18:18} And after this , Paul stayed there yet a good while; and then he took his leave of the brethren. And he sailed from there toward Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila (having shorn his head in Cenchrea, because he had a Nazarite vow).
Complement	^{18:19} And he came to Ephesus, and left them there; but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews.
Unique	^{18:20} When they asked him repeatedly to stay a longer time with them, he did not agree. ^{18:21} But he bade them farewell, saying, “I must by all means keep this feast that is coming in Jerusalem; but I will return again to you, if God will.” And he sailed from Ephesus; ^{18:22} and when he had landed at Caesarea, and gone up, and greeted the Assembly in Jerusalem , he went down to Antioch.

Acts, Chapter 2:3:	The Gentiles of Ephesus violently opposed the efforts of Paul to teach the Word (18:23 - 20:38)

	$Unique Introduction: Aquila, Priscilla, and Paul guided disciples of John to a more accurate understanding of the gospel (18:23 - 19:7)
	¶Opposite Aquila and Priscilla guided Apollos to a more accurate understanding of the Way of God (18:23 - 28)
Unique	^{18:23} And after he had spent some time there , he departed; and he went over all the country of Galatia and Phrygia in order, strengthening all the disciples.
Complement	^{18:24} And a certain Jew named Apollos, born at Alexandria, an eloquent man, and mighty in the Scriptures, came to Ephesus.
Complement	^{18:25} This man was instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in the spirit, he spoke and taught diligently the things of the Lord, knowing only the baptism of John.
Opposite	^{18:26} And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue; whom when Aquila and Priscilla had heard, they took him to them , and explained to him the way of God more accurately.
Opposite	^{18:27} And when he was disposed to pass into Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him; who, when he came, helped them much who had believed through grace: ^{18:28} for he mightily convinced the Jews, and that publicly, demonstrating through the Scriptures, Jesus to be the Christ.
	¶Opposite Paul guided twelve disciples of John to a more accurate understanding of the gospel (19:1 - 7)
Opposite	^{19:1} And it came to pass, that while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul, having passed through the upper coasts, came to Ephesus; and finding certain disciples, ^{19:2} he said to them, “Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?” And they said to him, “We have not so much as heard whether there is any Holy Spirit.”
Opposite	^{19:3} And he said to them, “Into what then were you baptized?” And they said, “Into John’s baptism.”
Complement	^{19:4} Then Paul said, “John truly baptized with the baptism of repentance; saying to the people, that they should believe on him who should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus.”
Complement	^{19:5} When they heard this , they were baptized in the Name of the Lord Jesus.
Unique	^{19:6} And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Spirit came on them; and they spoke with foreign languages, and prophesied.
	^{19:7} And all the men were about twelve.
	$Complement Body: The silversmiths in Ephesus instigated a riot against Paul and his preaching against idolatry (19:8 - 20:12)
	¶Opposite Paul worked for two years to train his converts in Ephesus in the Word of God (19:8 - 12)
Unique	^{19:8} And he went into the synagogue, and spoke boldly for the space of three months, disputing and persuading the things concerning the Kingdom of God.
	^{19:9} But when some were hardened, and believed not; and they spoke evil of that way before the multitude, he departed from them.
Complement	And he separated the disciples, reasoning daily in the school of one Tyrannus.
Complement	^{19:10} And this continued by the space of two years, so that all they who dwelt in Asia heard the Word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.
Opposite	^{19:11} And God performed special miracles by the hands of Paul, ^{19:12} so that from his body were brought to the sick handkerchiefs or aprons;
Opposite	and the diseases left them; and the evil spirits went out of them.
	¶Opposite The failed exorcism by the sons of Sceva resulted in a great revival in Ephesus (19:13 - 20)
Opposite	^{19:13} Then certain of the vagabond Jews, exorcists, took upon themselves to call the Name of the Lord Jesus over those who had evil spirits, saying, “We command you by Jesus whom Paul preaches!” ^{19:14} And there were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jew, and chief of the priests, who did so.
Opposite	^{19:15} And the evil spirit answered and said, “Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are you?” ^{19:16} And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.
Complement	^{19:17} And this was known to all the Jews and Greeks also dwelling at Ephesus;
Complement	and fear fell on them all, and the Name of the Lord Jesus was magnified.
Unique	^{19:18} And many that believed came, and confessed, and showed their deeds. ^{19:19} Many of them also who practiced witchcraft brought their books together; and burned them before all men ; and they counted their price, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver.
	^{19:20} So the Word of the Lord grew mightily and prevailed.

	¶Complement While Paul was staying in Ephesus, the silversmiths instigated a riot against him (19:21 - 28)
Unique	^{19:21} After these things were ended, Paul purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem; having said, “After I have been there, I must also see Rome.”
Complement	^{19:22} So he sent into Macedonia two of them that ministered to him, Timotheus and Erastus;
Complement	but he himself stayed in Asia for a season.
Opposite	^{19:23} And the same time, there arose no small stir about the Way: ^{19:24} for there was a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith who made silver shrines for Diana, which brought no small gain to the craftsmen, ^{19:25} whom he called together with the workmen of like occupation; and he said, “Sirs, you know that by this craft we have our wealth. ^{19:26} Moreover you see and hear, that not only at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul has persuaded and turned away many people, saying that they are not true gods which are made with hands, ^{19:27} so that not only this our craft is in danger to become despised; but also that the temple of the great goddess Diana should be despised, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Asia and the world worships.”
Opposite	^{19:28} And when they heard this , they were full of wrath; and they cried out, saying, “Great is Diana of the Ephesians!”
	¶Complement The mob of angry idolaters praised their idol Diana loudly and enthusiastically (19:29 - 20:1)
Unique	^{19:29} And the whole city was filled with confusion; and, having caught Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul’s companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the city theater.
	^{19:30} And when Paul would have entered in to the people, the disciples did not allow him; ^{19:31} and certain of the leaders of Asia, who were his friends, sent messages to him, asking him that he would not adventure himself into the theatre.
Complement	^{19:32} Therefore some cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused; and the greater part did not know why they came together.
Complement	^{19:33} And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward; and Alexander beckoned with the hand, and would have made his defense to the people. ^{19:34} But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, “Great is Diana of the Ephesians!”
Opposite	^{19:35} And when the town clerk had appeased the people, he said, “ You men of Ephesus, what man is there that does not know how that the city of the Ephesians is a worshiper of the great goddess Diana, and of the image which fell down from Jupiter? ^{19:36} Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, you ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rashly: ^{19:37} for you have brought here these men, who are neither robbers of temples, nor yet blasphemers of your goddess. ^{19:38} Therefore if Demetrius, and the craftsmen who are with him, have a matter against any man, the court days are open, and there are proconsuls: let them bring a charge against one another. ^{19:39} But if you inquire anything concerning other matters, it shall be determined in a lawful assembly: ^{19:40} for we are in danger to be called in question for this day’s uproar, there being no cause whereby we may give an account of this gathering.” ^{19:41} And when he had said this, he dismissed the assembly.
Opposite	^{20:1} And after the uproar ceased, Paul called the disciples, and embraced them , and departed to go into Macedonia.
	¶Unique Paul raised Eutychus from the dead while preaching in Troas in Asia Minor (20:2 - 12)
Opposite	^{20:2} And when he had gone over those parts, and had given them much exhortation, he came into Greece; ^{20:3} and he stayed there three months.
Opposite	And when the Jews laid wait for him, as he was about to sail into Syria, he purposed to return through Macedonia. ^{20:4} And there accompanied him into Asia Sopater of Berea; and of the Thessalonians, Aristarchus and Secundus; and Gaius of Derbe, and Timotheus; and of Asia, Tychicus and Trophimus: ^{20:5} these going before waited for us at Troas. ^{20:6} And we sailed away from Philippi after the days of unleavened bread; and we came to them to Troas in five days, where we stayed seven days.
Complement	^{20:7} And upon the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread, Paul preached to them, ready to leave the next day; and he continued his speech until midnight.
Complement	^{20:8} And there were many lights in the upper chamber, where they were gathered together. ^{20:9} And there sat in a window a certain young man named Eutychus, having fallen into a deep sleep; and as Paul was long preaching, he sank down with sleep, and fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead. ^{20:10} And Paul went down, and fell on him, and embracing him , said, “Trouble not yourselves: for his life is in him.”
Unique	^{20:11} Therefore when he came up again, and had broken bread, and eaten, and talked a long while, even until break of day, so he departed.
	^{20:12} And they brought the young man alive; and were not a little comforted.
	$Complement Conclusion: Paul preached a final message of warning to the elders of his church at Ephesus and said goodbye (20:13 - 38)
	¶Complement In Miletus, Paul preached a message of warning to the elders of his church at Ephesus (20:13 - 31)
Opposite	^{20:13} And we, having gone before by ship, sailed to Assos; there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, minding himself to go on foot.
Opposite	^{20:14} And when he met with us at Assos, we took him in, and came to Mitylene. ^{20:15} And we sailed from there, and came the next day over against Chios; and the next day we crossed over to Samos, and stayed at Trogyllium; and the next day we came to Miletus: ^{20:16} for Paul had determined to sail by Ephesus, because he would not spend the time in Asia: for he hurried, if it were possible for him, to be at Jerusalem the Day of Pentecost.
Complement	^{20:17} And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the Assembly. ^{20:18} And when they came to him, he said to them, “You know, from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons, ^{20:19} serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears, and temptations, which befell me by the lying in wait of the Jews;
Complement	^{20:20} “ and how I kept back nothing that was beneficial to you , but have shown you, and taught you publicly, and from house to house, ^{20:21} testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.
Unique	^{20:22} “And now, behold, I go bound in the spirit to Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there: ^{20:23} except that the Holy Spirit witnesses in every city, saying that chains and afflictions await me. ^{20:24} But none of these things move me; neither do I count my life dear to myself, so that I might finish my racecourse with joy, and the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God.”
	¶Complement Paul said goodbye to the elders of his church at Ephesus (20:32 - 38)
Opposite	^{20:25} “And now, behold, I know that you all, among whom I have gone preaching the Kingdom of God, shall see my face no more; ^{20:26} therefore I take you to record this day, that I am pure from the blood of all: ^{20:27} for I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God.
Opposite	^{20:28} “Therefore take heed to yourselves, and to all the flock (over which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers), to shepherd the Assembly of God, which he has purchased with his own blood: ^{20:29} for I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock. ^{20:30} Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them. ^{20:31} Therefore watch, and remember, that by the space of three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears.”
Complement	^{20:32} “And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the Word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified.
Complement	^{20:33} “I have coveted no man’s silver, or gold, or apparel. ^{20:34} Indeed, you yourselves know, that these hands have ministered to my necessities, and to them that were with me. ^{20:35} I have shown you all things, how that so laboring you should support the weak, and remember the words of the Lord Jesus: how he said, “ It is more blessed to give than to receive. ”
Unique	^{20:36} And when he had spoken this, he kneeled down, and prayed with them all.
	^{20:37} And they all wept much; and fell on Paul’s neck, and kissed him; ^{20:38} sorrowing most of all for the words which he spoke, that they would see his face no more; and they accompanied him to the ship.

	$Unique	Introduction: Paul continued traveling to Jerusalem, in spite of opposition of the Holy Spirit through other believers (21:1 - 14)
	¶Opposite	Paul and his missionary band sailed from Asia Minor to Tyre, where they stayed with a church for a week (21:1 - 6)
Unique	21:1	And it came to pass, that after we left them, and had launched, we came with a straight course to Coos; and the day following to Rhodes, and from there to Patara.
	21:2	And, finding a ship sailing over to Phoenicia, we went aboard, and set forth.
Complement	21:3	Now when we sighted Cyprus, we left it on the left hand; and we sailed into Syria, and landed at Tyre: for the ship was to unload her cargo there.
Complement	21:4	And, finding disciples, we waited there seven days; who said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem.
	21:5	And when we had accomplished those days, we departed and went our way; and they all brought us on our way, with wives and children, until we were out of the city; and we kneeled down on the shore, and prayed.
Opposite	21:6	And when we had taken our leave one of another, we boarded the ship; and they returned home again.
	¶Opposite	Paul refused to listen to the urgings of other believers not to go up to Jerusalem (21:7 - 14)
Opposite	21:7	And when we had completed our voyage from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais, and greeted the brethren, and stayed with them one day.
Opposite	21:8	And the next day we that were of Paul's company left, and came to Caesarea; and we entered into the house of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the seven; and stayed with him. ^{21:9} And the same man had four daughters, virgins, who prophesied.
Complement	21:10	And as we stayed there many days, a certain Prophet, named Agabus, came down from Judea. ^{21:11} And when he came to us, he took Paul's belt, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, " Thus says the Holy Spirit: 'So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man that owns this belt, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.' "
Complement	21:12	And when we heard these things, both we, and they of that place, urged him not to go up to Jerusalem.
Unique	21:13	Then Paul answered, "What do you mean to weep and break my heart? For I am ready, not only to be bound, but also to die at Jerusalem for the Name of the Lord Jesus."
	21:14	And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, "The will of the Lord be done."
	$Complement	Body: Paul demonstrated his faithfulness to the Law, but was attacked by unbelieving Jews in the Temple (21:15 - 22:21)
	¶Unique	Paul declared to the other apostles at Jerusalem what God had done among the Gentiles by his ministry (21:15 - 19)
Opposite	21:15	And after those days, we packed our belongings;
Opposite		and we went up to Jerusalem.
Complement	21:16	Also there went with us some of the disciples of Caesarea;
Complement		and they brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an old disciple, with whom we would lodge.
Unique	21:17	And when we came to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly.
	21:18	And the following day Paul went in with us to James, and all the elders were present. ^{21:19} And when he had greeted them, he declared particularly what things God had done among the Gentiles by his ministry.
	¶Complement	The apostles told Paul to demonstrate his fidelity to the Law before the zealous Jews in the church (21:20 - 26)
Unique	21:20	And when they heard it , they glorified the Lord.
		And they said to him, "You see, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are who believe in Christ . And they are all zealous of the Law; ^{21:21} and they are informed of you, that you teach all the Jews that are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses: saying that they should not circumcise their children; neither walk after the customs.
Complement	21:22	"What is it therefore? The multitude must necessarily come together: for they will hear that you have come. ^{21:23} Therefore do this that we say to you: we have four men who have a Nazarite vow on them; ^{21:24} take them, and consecrate yourself with them, and be at charges with them, that they may shave their head. And all may know that those things, whereof they were informed concerning you, are nothing; but that you yourself also walk orderly, and observe the Law.
Complement	21:25	"As touching the Gentiles which believe, we have written and concluded that they observe no such thing, except only that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from strangled things , and from fornication."
Opposite	21:26	Then Paul took the men.
Opposite		And the next day, purifying himself with them, he entered into the Temple, to signify the completion of the days of purification, until an offering would be offered for every one of them.
	¶Complement	The Roman tribune rescued Paul from being killed by the zealous Jews in the Temple (21:27 - 39)
Unique	21:27	And when the seven days were almost ended, the Jews which were of Asia, when they saw him in the Temple, stirred up all the people, and laid hands on him, ^{21:28} crying out, "Men of Israel, help! This is the man, that teaches all men everywhere against the people, and the Law, and this place.
		And furthermore he brought Greeks also into the Temple, and has polluted this holy place." ^{21:29} (For they had seen before with him in the city, Trophimus an Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the Temple.)
Complement	21:30	And the entire city was agitated; and the people ran together, and they took Paul, and dragged him out of the Temple; and at once the doors were shut. ^{21:31} And as they prepared to kill him, news came to the tribune of the Roman garrison, that all Jerusalem was in an uproar; ^{21:32} who immediately took soldiers and centurions, and ran down to them; and when they saw the tribune and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul.
Complement	21:33	Then the tribune came near, and took him, and commanded him to be bound with two chains; and he demanded to know who he was, and what he had done. ^{21:34} And some cried one thing, and some another, among the multitude; and when he could not know the certainty for the tumult, he commanded him to be carried into the castle. ^{21:35} And when he came upon the stairs, it was so, that he was carried by the soldiers because of the violence of the people: ^{21:36} for the multitude of the people followed after them, crying, "Away with him!"
Opposite	21:37	And as Paul was to be led into the castle, he said to the tribune, "May I speak to you?" Who said, "Can you speak Greek? ^{21:38} Are you not that Egyptian, which before these days made an uproar, and led out into the wilderness four thousand men that were murderers?" ^{21:39} But Paul said, "I am a man who is a Jew of Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, a citizen of no obscure city.
Opposite		"Now, I ask you, allow me to speak to the people."
	¶Opposite	Paul testified that he was a zealous persecutor of Christians before he was met Jesus Christ (21:40 - 22:10)
Unique	21:40	And when he had given him permission, Paul stood on the stairs, and beckoned with the hand to the people. And when there was made a great silence, he spoke to them in the Hebrew language, saying, ^{22:1} "Men, brethren, and fathers, hear my defense which I make now to you!"
	22:2	(And when they heard that he spoke in the Hebrew language to them, they kept the more silence.)
Complement		And he said, ^{22:3} "I am truly a man who is a Jew born in Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, yet I was brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, and taught according to the perfect manner of the Law of the fathers, and was zealous toward God, as you all are this day.
Complement	22:4	"And I persecuted this Way to the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women: ^{22:5} as also the high priest bears me witness, and the whole council of elders; from whom also I received letters to the brethren; and I went to Damascus, to bring them that were there bound to Jerusalem to be punished."
Opposite	22:6	"And it came to pass, that, as I made my journey, and came near to Damascus about noon, suddenly there shone from Heaven a great Light round about me. ^{22:7} And I fell to the ground, and heard a voice saying to me, ' Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me? '" ^{22:8} And I answered, 'Who are you, Lord?' And he said to me, ' I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom you persecute. '" ^{22:9} And indeed they that were with me saw the Light, and were afraid; but they did not hear the voice of him that spoke to me.
Opposite	22:10	"And I said, 'What shall I do, Lord?' And the Lord said to me, ' Arise, and go into Damascus; and there it shall be told you of all things which are appointed for you to do. '"
	¶Opposite	Paul testified that the Lord Jesus sent Paul away from Jerusalem to preach to the Gentiles (22:11 - 21)
Opposite	22:11	"And when I could not see for the glory of that Light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Damascus. ^{22:12} And one Ananias (a devout man according to the Law, having a good reputation of all the Jews who dwelt there) ^{22:13} came to me, and stood, and said to me, 'Brother Saul, receive your sight.' And the same hour I looked up upon him.
Opposite	22:14	"And he said, 'The God of our fathers has chosen you, that you should know his will, and see that Just One, and should hear the voice of his mouth: ^{22:15} for you shall be his witness to all men of what you have seen and heard. ^{22:16} And now why do you delay? Arise, and be baptized, and wash away your sins, having already called upon the Name of the Lord."
Complement	22:17	"And it came to pass, that when I returned to Jerusalem, even while I prayed in the Temple, I was in a trance.
Complement	22:18	And I saw him saying to me, ' Hurry, and get out of Jerusalem quickly: for they will not receive your testimony concerning me. '"
Unique	22:19	"And I said, 'Lord, they know that I imprisoned and beat in every synagogue them that believed on you; ^{22:20} and when the blood of your martyr Stephen was shed, I also was standing by and agreeing to his death; and I guarded the clothing of them that slew him.'
	22:21	"And he said to me, ' Depart: for I will send you far from here unto the Gentiles. '"
	$Complement	Conclusion: Paul used his citizenship against the Romans and his heritage as a Pharisee against the Sanhedrin (22:22 - 23:11)
	¶Complement	Paul frightened the Romans soldiers with the news that he was a natural-born Roman citizen (22:22 - 29)
Opposite	22:22	And they listened to him until this word; and then lifted up their voices, and said, "Away with such a man from the earth: for it is not fit that he should live!"
Opposite	22:23	And as they cried out, and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the air, ^{22:24} the tribune ordered him to be brought into the castle. And he ordered that he should be examined by scourging, that he might know why they cried so against him.
Complement	22:25	And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said to the centurion that stood by, "Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Roman citizen , and uncondemned?" ^{22:26} When the centurion heard that , he went and told the tribune, saying, "Be careful what you do: for this man is a Roman."
Complement	22:27	Then the tribune came, and said to him, "Tell me, are you a Roman?" He said, "Yes." ^{22:28} And the tribune answered, "With a great sum I obtained this freedom." And Paul said, "But I was born a Roman citizen ."
Unique	22:29	Then immediately they left him who would have examined him; and the tribune also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Roman; and because he had bound him.
	¶Complement	Paul caused great division among the Sanhedrin by identifying as a Pharisee (22:30 - 23:11)
Opposite	22:30	On the next day, because he was willing to know the real reason that he was accused by the Jews, he released him from his bonds. And he commanded the chief priests and all their council to appear, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.
Opposite	23:1	And Paul, earnestly beholding the council, said, "Men, brethren: I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day." ^{23:2} And the high priest Ananias commanded them that stood by him to strike him on the mouth. ^{23:3} Then Paul said to him, "God shall smite you, you whitewashed wall! For do you sit to judge me after the Law, and command me to be smitten contrary to the Law?" ^{23:4} And they that stood by said, "Do you revile God's high priest?" ^{23:5} Then Paul said, "I did not know, brethren, that he was the high priest: for it is written, ' You shall not speak evil of the ruler of your people. '"
Complement	23:6	But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, "Men, brethren! I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee; of the hope and resurrection of the dead am I called in question!"
Complement	23:7	And when he had said this, there arose a disagreement between the Pharisees and the Sadducees, and the multitude was divided. ^{23:8} For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection; neither angel, nor spirit; but the Pharisees confess both. ^{23:9} And there arose a great cry; and the scribes that were of the Pharisees' part arose, and protested, saying, "We find no evil in this man! But if a spirit or an angel has spoken to him, let us not fight against God."
Unique	23:10	And when there arose a great dissension, the tribune, fearing lest Paul would have been pulled in pieces by them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and bring him into the castle.
	23:11	And the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, " Be of good cheer, Paul: for as you have testified of me in Jerusalem, so must you also bear witness at Rome. "

	§ Complement	Introduction: Paul's nephew helped him to escape a Jewish conspiracy to kill him (23:12 - 35)
	¶ Opposite	Paul's nephew reported the conspiracy to kill Paul to the Roman tribune (23:12 - 22)
Unique		^{23:12} And when it was day, certain of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink until they had killed Paul; ^{23:13} and they were more than forty who had made this conspiracy. ^{23:14} And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, “We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul. ^{23:15} Now therefore you with the council signify to the tribune that he bring him down to you tomorrow, as though you would inquire something more perfectly concerning him; and we, before he comes near, are ready to kill him.”
Complement		^{23:16} And when Paul's nephew heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the castle, and told Paul.
Complement		^{23:17} Then Paul called one of the centurions to him , and said, “Bring this young man to the tribune: for he has a certain thing to tell him.” ^{23:18} So he took him, and brought him to the tribune, and said, “Paul the prisoner called me to him , and asked me to bring this young man to you, who has something to say to you.”
Opposite		^{23:19} Then the tribune took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him , “What is that you have to tell me?” ^{23:20} And he said, “The Jews have agreed to ask you that you would bring down Paul into the council tomorrow, as though they would inquire something of him more perfectly. ^{23:21} But do not yield to them! For there lie in wait for him more than forty men of them; who have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink until they have killed him. And now they are ready, looking for a promise from you.”
Opposite		^{23:22} So the tribune let the young man depart, and charged him , “ See that you tell no man that you have shown these things to me.”
	¶ Opposite	The Roman tribune sent Paul to Caesarea under heavy guard (23:23 - 35)
Opposite		^{23:23} And he called two centurions to him , saying, “Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Caesarea, and seventy cavalry, and two hundred spearmen, at the third hour of the night; ^{23:24} and provide them beasts, that they may set Paul on, and bring him safe to Felix the governor.”
Opposite		^{23:25} And he wrote a letter after this manner: ^{23:26} “Claudius Lysias to the most excellent governor Felix: greeting. ^{23:27} This man was taken by the Jews, and would have been killed by them. Then I came with an army, and rescued him, having understood that he was a Roman. ^{23:28} And when I would have known the cause for which they accused him, I brought him forth into their council, ^{23:29} whom I perceived to be accused of questions of their Law, but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death or of chains. ^{23:30} And when it was told me how that the Jews laid wait for the man, I sent him immediately to you; and I gave command to his accusers also to say before you what they had against him. Farewell.”
Complement		^{23:31} Then the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris.
Complement		^{23:32} On the next day, they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the castle; ^{23:33} who, when they came to Caesarea, and delivered the letter to the governor, presented Paul also before him.
Unique		^{23:34} And when the governor had read the letter , he asked of what province he was. And when he understood that he was from Cilicia, ^{23:35} he said, “I will hear you, when your accusers have also come.” And he commanded him to be kept in Herod's judgment hall.
	§ Complement	Body: Paul defended himself before the Roman governors and king Agrippa, who sent him to Rome (24:1 - 27:44)
Unique		^{24:1} And after five days Ananias the high priest descended with the elders, and with a certain orator named Tertullus, who informed the governor against Paul. ^{24:2} And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him , saying, “Seeing that by you we enjoy great quietness, and that very worthy deeds are done to this nation by your providence, ^{24:3} we accept it always, and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness. ^{24:4} Notwithstanding, that I be not further tedious to you, I ask of your courtesy that you would hear us briefly. ^{24:5} For we have found this man a plague, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes; ^{24:6} who also has gone about to profane the Temple; whom we seized, and would have judged according to our Law. ^{24:7} But the tribune Lysias came, and with great violence took him away out of our hands; ^{24:8} commanding his accusers to come to you: by examining of whom you yourself may take knowledge of all these things, whereof we accuse him.” ^{24:9} And the Jews also assented, saying that these things were true.
Complement		^{24:10} Then Paul, after that the governor had beckoned to him to speak, answered, “Forasmuch as I know that you have been a judge to this nation for many years, I do even more cheerfully answer for myself, ^{24:11} because you may understand, that there are yet but twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem to worship. ^{24:12} And they neither found me in the Temple disputing with any man; neither raising up the people; neither in the synagogues, nor in the city; ^{24:13} neither can they prove the things of which they now accuse me. ^{24:14} But this I confess to you, that after the way which they call heresy, so worship I the God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in the Law and in the Prophets. ^{24:15} And have hope toward God, which they themselves also allow, that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust. ^{24:16} And herein do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offense toward God, and toward men.
Complement		^{24:17} Now after many years I came to bring gifts to my nation, and offerings. ^{24:18} Whereupon certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the Temple; neither with multitude, nor with tumult; ^{24:19} who ought to have been here before you and object, if they had anything against me; ^{24:20} or else let these same here say if they have found any evil doing in me while I stood before the council; ^{24:21} unless it is for this one voice, that I cried standing among them, ‘Touching the resurrection of the dead am I called in question by you this day.’”
Opposite		^{24:22} And when Felix heard these things, having more perfect knowledge of the Way, he deferred them, and said, “When Lysias the tribune shall come down, I will know the uttermost of your matter.”
Opposite		^{24:23} And he commanded a centurion to guard Paul, and to let him have liberty; and that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister or come to him.
	¶ Opposite	For two years, Felix tried to persuade Paul to bribe him for freedom, but failed (24:24 - 27)
Opposite		^{24:24} And after certain days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, who was a Jewess, he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the Faith in Christ.
Opposite		^{24:25} And as he reasoned of righteousness, self-control, and Judgment to come, Felix became afraid; and he answered, “Go your way for this time; when I have a convenient time, I will call for you.”
Complement		^{24:26} He hoped also that money would be given him by Paul, so that he might release him.
Complement		Therefore, he sent for him frequently, and communed with him.
Unique		^{24:27} But after two years Porcius Festus came into Felix's office; and Felix, willing to show the Jews favor, left Paul bound.

	¶ Complement	Paul appealed to Caesar to prevent his assassination by Jews on the road to Jerusalem (25:1 - 22)
Unique		^{25:1} Now when Festus came into the province, after three days he ascended from Caesarea to Jerusalem. ^{25:2} Then the high priest and the leaders of the Jews informed him against Paul; and they begged him, ^{25:3} and asked for favor against him, so that he would send for him to Jerusalem, laying wait in the road to kill him. ^{25:4} But Festus answered that Paul should be kept at Caesarea; and that he himself would depart there shortly. ^{25:5} “Therefore,” said he, “let them which among you are able, go down with me ; and accuse this man, if there is any wickedness in him.”
Complement		^{25:6} And when he had stayed among them more than ten days, he went down to Caesarea; and the next day, sitting on the judgment seat, he commanded Paul to be brought. ^{25:7} And when he came, the Jews which came down from Jerusalem stood round about, and laid many and grievous complaints against Paul, which they could not prove. ^{25:8} While he answered for himself, “Neither against the Law of the Jews; neither against the Temple, nor yet against Caesar, have I offended anything at all.”
Complement		^{25:9} But Festus, willing to do the Jews a favor, answered Paul, and said, “Will you go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me?” ^{25:10} Then Paul said, “I stand at Caesar's judgment seat, where I ought to be judged. I have done no wrong to the Jews, as you know very well: ^{25:11} for if I am an offender, or have committed anything worthy of death, I do not refuse to die. But if there are none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me to them. I appeal to Caesar.” ^{25:12} Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, “Have you appealed to Caesar? Unto Caesar you shall go.”
Opposite		^{25:13} And after certain days king Agrippa and Bernice came to Caesarea to greet Festus. ^{25:14} And when they had been there many days, Festus declared Paul's cause to the king, saying, “There is a certain man left in bonds by Felix. ^{25:15} About whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me , asking for a judgment against him. ^{25:16} To whom I answered, ‘It is not the way of the Romans to deliver any man to die, before that he who is accused has the accusers face to face, and has opportunity to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.’ ^{25:17} Therefore, when they came here, without any delay on the next day I sat on the judgment seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth. ^{25:18} Against whom when the accusers stood up, they brought no accusation of such things as I supposed; ^{25:19} but had certain questions against him of their own superstition; and of one Jesus, who was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive. ^{25:20} And because I doubted of such manner of questions, I asked him whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these matters. ^{25:21} But when Paul had appealed to be reserved to the hearing of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept until I might send him to Caesar.”
Opposite		^{25:22} Then Agrippa said to Festus, “I also want to hear the man myself.” “Tomorrow,” said he, “you shall hear him.”
	¶ Complement	Paul appealed to Christ as the reason for all that he did in his life (25:23 - 26:32)
Unique		^{25:23} And on the next day, when Agrippa came, and Bernice, with great pomp, and they had entered into the place of hearing, with the tribunes, and principal men of the city: at the command of Festus, Paul was brought forth. ^{25:24} And Festus said, “King Agrippa, and all men who are here present with us: you see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews have dealt with me, both at Jerusalem, and also here: crying that he should not live any longer. ^{25:25} But when I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death, and that he himself has appealed to Augustus, I have determined to send him. ^{25:26} Of whom I have nothing certain to write to my lord. Therefore I have brought him forth before you, and especially before you, O king Agrippa, that, after examination, I might have something to write: ^{25:27} for it seems unreasonable to me to send a prisoner, and not thereby to signify the crimes laid against him.”
Complement		^{26:1} Then Agrippa said to Paul, “You are allowed to speak for yourself.” Then Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himself, saying, ^{26:2} “I think myself happy, king Agrippa, because I shall answer for myself this day before you touching all the things whereof I am accused by the Jews: ^{26:3} especially because I know you to be expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews; therefore I urge you to hear me patiently. ^{26:4} My manner of life from my youth, which was at the first among my own nation at Jerusalem, know all the Jews ^{26:5} (who knew me from the beginning, if they would testify), that after the strictest sect of our religion I lived as a Pharisee. ^{26:6} And now, I stand and am judged for the hope of the promise made by God to our fathers: ^{26:7} to which promise our twelve tribes, serving God earnestly day and night, hope to come; for which hope's sake, king Agrippa, I am accused by the Jews. ^{26:8} Why is it considered incredible by any of you, that God raises the dead? ^{26:9} I truly thought with myself, that I should do many things contrary to the Name of Jesus of Nazareth. ^{26:10} Which thing I also did in Jerusalem; and many of the saints did I shut up in prison, having received authority from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I gave my vote against them . ^{26:11} And I punished them often in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly insane against them, I persecuted them even to foreign cities. ^{26:12} Upon this, as I went to Damascus with authority and commission from the chief priests, ^{26:13} at midday, O king, I saw in the road a Light from Heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them who journeyed with me. ^{26:14} And when we had all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking to me, and saying in the Hebrew language, ‘ Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads. ’ ^{26:15} And I said, ‘Who are you, Lord?’ And he said, ‘ I am Jesus whom you persecute. ’ ^{26:16} But rise, and stand upon your feet. For I have appeared to you for this purpose: to make you a minister and a witness both of these things which you have seen, and of those things in the which I will appear to you; ^{26:17}delivering you from the people, and from the Gentiles, to whom now I send you: ^{26:18}to open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to Light, and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them who are sanctified by faith that is in me. ’
Complement		^{26:19} “Therefore, O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision; ^{26:20} but I showed first to them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do works demonstrating their repentance. ^{26:21} For these causes, the Jews arrested me in the Temple, and prepared to kill me. ^{26:22} Therefore having obtained help of God, I continue to this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying no other things than those which the Prophets and Moses said should come: ^{26:23} that Christ would suffer, and that he would be the first that would rise from the dead, and would show light to the people, and to the Gentiles.”
Opposite		^{26:24} And as he thus spoke for himself, Festus said with a loud voice, “Paul, you are crazy! Much learning has driven you insane.” ^{26:25} But he said, “I am not crazy, most noble Festus; but speak forth the words of truth and soberness. ^{26:26} For the king knows of these things, before whom also I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him: for this thing was not done in a corner. ^{26:27} King Agrippa, do you believe the Prophets? I know that you believe.” ^{26:28} Then Agrippa said to Paul, “Almost you persuade me to be a Christian.” ^{26:29} And Paul said, “I would to God, that not only you, but also all that hear me this day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except for these chains.”
Opposite		^{26:30} And when he had spoken this, the king rose up, and the governor, and Bernice, and they that sat with them. ^{26:31} And when they had gone aside, they talked between themselves, saying, “This man is doing nothing worthy of death or of chains.” ^{26:32} Then Agrippa said to Festus, “This man might have been set at liberty, if he had not appealed to Caesar.”
	¶ Unique	Paul was transported under guard by a ship from Asia Minor, which crashed on the island of Malta (27:1 - 44)
Opposite		^{27:1} And when it was determined that we would sail into Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners to one named Julius, a centurion of Augustus' band. ^{27:2} And entering into a ship of Adramyttium, we set sail, intending to the south by the coasts of Asia (one Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us). ^{27:3} And the next day we landed at Zidon. And Julius treated Paul courteously, and gave him liberty to go to his friends to obtain care.
Opposite		^{27:4} And when we had launched from there, we sailed under Cyprus, because the winds were contrary. ^{27:5} And when we had sailed over the sea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we put to Myra, a city of Lycia. ^{27:6} And there the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing into Italy; and he put us into it. ^{27:7} And when we had sailed slowly many days, and with difficulty came over against Cnidus, the wind not allowing us, we sailed under Crete, over against Salmone; ^{27:8} and, passing it with difficulty, we came to a place which is called “The Fair Havens”; near to it was the city of Lasea.
Complement		^{27:9} Now when much time was spent, and when sailing was now dangerous, because the fast was now already past, Paul admonished them , ^{27:10} and he said to them, “Men, I perceive that this voyage will be with harm and much damage, not only of the cargo and ship, but also of our lives.” ^{27:11} Nevertheless the centurion believed the master and the owner of the ship, more than those things which were spoken by Paul. ^{27:12} And because the haven was not suitable to winter in, the greater part advised to depart from there also, if by any means they might attain to Phoenix, and there to winter (which is a harbor of Crete, and lies toward the southwest and northwest). ^{27:13} And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, loosing from there , they sailed close by Crete. ^{27:14} But not long afterward there arose against it a tempestuous wind, called Euroclydon. ^{27:15} And when the ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we let her drive. ^{27:16} And running under a certain island which is called Cauda, we were barely able to keep control of the boat; ^{27:17} which when they had taken up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and, fearing lest they should run aground at Syrtis, they lowered the ship's gear, and so were driven. ^{27:18} And we were exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next day , they lightened the ship; ^{27:19} and the third day we cast out the equipment of the ship with our own hands. ^{27:20} And when neither sun nor stars in many days appeared, and no small tempest lay on us , all hope that we would be saved was then taken away.
Complement		^{27:21} But after long abstinence, Paul stood up in their midst, and said, “Sirs, you should have listened to me, and not have loosed from Crete, and to have gained this harm and loss. ^{27:22} And now I exhort you to be cheerful: for there shall be no loss of any man's life among you, but only of the ship. ^{27:23} For this night, the angel of God stood by me (whose I am, and whom I serve), ^{27:24} saying, ‘Fear not, Paul; you must be brought before Caesar; and, lo, God has given you all them that sail with you.’ ^{27:25} Therefore, sirs, be cheerful: for I believe God, that it shall be even as it was told me. ^{27:26} Nevertheless, we must be cast upon a certain island.”
Unique		^{27:27} But when the fourteenth night came, as we were driven up and down in Adria, about midnight the shipmen determined that they drew near to some country; ^{27:28} and they sounded, and found it twenty fathoms; and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again, and found it fifteen fathoms. ^{27:29} Then fearing lest we would have fallen upon rocks, they cast four anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day. ^{27:30} And as the sailors were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under pretense as though they would have cast anchors from the bow, ^{27:31} Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, “Unless these men remain in the ship, you cannot be saved.” ^{27:32} Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off. ^{27:33} And while the day was coming on, Paul urged them all to eat, saying, “This day is the fourteenth day that you have waited and continued fasting, having taken no eating; ^{27:34} therefore I urge you to take some food: for this is for your health, because not a hair shall fall from the head of any of you.” ^{27:35} And when he had spoken this, he took bread, and gave thanks to God in presence of them all; and when he had broken it, he began to eat. ^{27:36} Then they were all cheerful, and they also took some food. ^{27:37} And in all the ship, we were two hundred and seventy-six souls. ^{27:38} And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat into the sea. ^{27:39} And when it was day, they did not know the land; but they discovered a certain creek with a shore, into which they were minded, if it were possible, to thrust in the ship. ^{27:40} And when they had taken up the anchors, they committed themselves to the sea, and loosed the rudder bands, and hoisted up the mainsail to the wind, and made toward shore. ^{27:41} And falling into a place where two seas met, they ran the ship aground; and the bow stuck fast, and remained unmoved, but the stern was broken with the violence of the waves. ^{27:42} And the counsel of the soldiers was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape. ^{27:43} But the centurion, willing to save Paul, kept them from their purpose; and commanded that they who could swim should cast themselves first into the sea , and get to land; ^{27:44} and the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship. And so it came to pass, that they all escaped safely to land.
	§ Unique	Conclusion: Paul was transported to Rome by ship, where he explained the Kingdom of God to the Jews of Rome (28:1 - 31)
	¶ Complement	Paul was transported to Rome from Malta on a ship of Alexandria, Egypt (28:1 - 16)
Opposite		^{28:1} And when they had escaped, then they knew that the island was called Malta. ^{28:2} And the barbarous people showed us no little kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us every one, because of the present rain, and because of the cold. ^{28:3} And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, a viper came out of the heat, and fastened on his hand. ^{28:4} And when the barbarians saw the venomous beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves, “No doubt this man is a murderer; whom, though he has escaped the sea, yet vengeance does not allow him to live.” ^{28:5} But he shook off the beast into the fire, and suffered no harm. ^{28:6} Nevertheless they expected him to swell with inflammation, or fall down dead suddenly; but after they had observed a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was a god.
Opposite		^{28:7} Now in the same area were possessions of the chief man of the island, whose name was Publius, who received us, and courteously lodged us three days. ^{28:8} And it came to pass, that the father of Publius lay sick of a fever and dysentery: to whom Paul entered in, and prayed, and laid his hands on him, and healed him. ^{28:9} So when this was done, others also, who had diseases in the island, came, and were healed. ^{28:10} who also honored us with many honors; and when we left, they loaded us with such things as were necessary.
Complement		^{28:11} And after three months, we left in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the island, whose ensign was Paul and Pollux. ^{28:12} And landing at Syracuse, we stayed there three days.
Complement		^{28:13} And from there, we circled around, and came to Rhegium; and after one day the south wind blew, and we came the next day to Puteoli; ^{28:14} where we found brethren, and were asked to stay with them seven days; and so we went toward Rome.
Unique		^{28:15} And from there, when the brethren heard of us, they came to meet us as far as Forum Appii and Three Inns; whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage. ^{28:16} And when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard; but Paul was allowed to dwell by himself with a soldier that guarded him.
	¶ Complement	Paul explained the Kingdom of God to the Jews of Rome (28:17 - 31)
Opposite		^{28:17} And it came to pass, that after three days, Paul called the chief of the Jews together; and when they came together, he said to them, “Men, brethren: though I have committed nothing against the people, or customs of our fathers, yet was I delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans. ^{28:18} Who, when they had examined me, would have let me go, because there was no cause of death in me. ^{28:19} But when the Jews spoke against it , I was compelled to appeal to Caesar (not that I had anything to accuse my nation of). ^{28:20} Therefore for this cause I have called for you, to see you , and to speak with you , because for the Hope of Israel am I bound with this chain.”

Unique		^{28:30} And Paul dwelt two whole years in his own rented house; and he received all that came in to him: ^{28:31} preaching the Kingdom of God, and teaching those things that concern the Lord Jesus Christ, with all confidence, no man forbidding him.

Opposite		2:6But one in a certain place testified, saying, “What is man, that you are mindful of him? Or the son of man, that you visit him? 2:7You made him a little lower than the angels; you crowned him with glory and honor, and set him over the works of your hands; 2:8you have put all things in subjection under his feet.”
	¶Complement	The messenger of Salvation paid the ultimate price for your soul on the cross (2:8b - 13)
Unique		For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him.
Complement		But now we do not yet see all things put under him.
Complement		2:9But we see Jesus, who for a short time was made lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honor, that he, by the grace of God, should taste death for every man.
Opposite		2:10For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons to glory, to make the Author of their salvation complete through sufferings.
Opposite		2:11For both he that sanctifies and they who are being sanctified are all of the same flesh ; for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brothers, 2:12saying, “I will declare your Name to my brothers; in the midst of the Assembly will I sing praise to you.” 2:13And again, “I will put my trust in him.” And again, “Behold I and the children whom God has given me.”
	¶Opposite	God the Son humbled Himself to become part of the race of Abraham to make reconciliation for sin (2:14 - 18)
Unique		2:14Seeing then, as the children have shared of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise shared the same, so that through death he would destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil; 2:15and deliver them who, through fear of death, were all their lifetime subject to slavery.
Complement		2:16For truly he did not take on himself the nature of angels;
Complement		but he took on himself the fleshly seed of Abraham.
Opposite		2:17Therefore, in all things, he was obligated to be made like his brothers, so that he might be a merciful and faithful High Priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people:
Opposite		2:18for in that he himself has endured being tempted, he is able to help them that are tempted.
	¶Opposite	Christ was worthy of more glory than Moses because He is a Son instead of a servant (3:1 - 6)
Opposite		3:1Therefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus; 3:2who was faithful to him that appointed him, as also Moses was faithful in all his house.
Opposite		3:3For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, considering that he who has built the house has more honor than the house itself: 3:4for every house is built by some man , but he that built all things is God.
Complement		3:5And Moses truly was faithful in all his house as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken afterward.
Complement		3:6But Christ is faithful as a Son over his own house;
Unique		whose house are we, if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm unto the goal.
	$Complement	Conclusion: Do not harden your heart against Christ or you will never have rest for your soul in this world (3:7 - 4:13)
	¶Complement	Do not harden your heart against the will of God to embrace Christ as your Messiah (3:7 - 19)
Opposite		3:7Therefore, as the Holy Spirit says, “Today, if you will hear his voice: 3:8harden not your hearts, as in the rebellion, in the day of temptation in the wilderness: 3:9when your fathers tested me, proved me, and saw my works forty years.
Opposite		3:10“Therefore, I was grieved with that generation; and I said, ‘They always go astray in their heart; and they have not known my ways.’ 3:11So I swore in my wrath, ‘They shall not enter into my rest.’”
Complement		3:12Take care, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief in departing from the living God. 3:13But exhort one another daily, while it is called “Today”, lest any of you become hardened through the deceitfulness of sin. 3:14For we become partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence steadfast unto the goal.
Complement		3:15While it is said, “Today if you will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the rebellion.” 3:16For some rebelled, when they had heard the Gospel ; nevertheless not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.
Unique		3:17But with whom was he grieved forty years? Was it not with them that had sinned, whose carcasses fell in the wilderness? 3:18And to whom did he swear that they would not enter into his rest, but to them that did not believe? 3:19So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.
	¶Complement	You will have no peace or rest for your soul without trusting in Jesus your Messiah (4:1 - 13)
Opposite		4:1Therefore, let us fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it: 4:2for the Gospel was preached to us, as well as to them; but the Word preached did not benefit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it . 4:3For we who have believed in Christ do enter into rest: as he said, “So I swore in my wrath, ‘They shall not enter into my rest.’”
Opposite		Although the works were finished from the foundation of the world: 4:4for he spoke in a certain place of the seventh day on this manner, “And God rested the seventh day from all his works.” 4:5And in this Scripture again, “They shall not enter into my rest.”
Complement		4:6Therefore, seeing it remains that some must enter into it, and they to whom it was first preached did not enter in because of unbelief: 4:7again, he limits a certain day, saying in David, “Today, after so long a time.” As it is said, “Today if you will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.” 4:8For if Joshua had truly given them rest, then he would not have spoken afterward of another day.
Complement		4:9Therefore there remains a rest to the people of God: 4:10for he that has entered into his rest, he also has ceased from his own works, as God did from his.
Unique		4:11Therefore, let us be eager to enter into that rest, lest any man falls after the same example of unbelief: 4:12for the Word of God is living and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword; piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow; and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart; 4:13neither is there any creature that is not exposed in his sight, but all things are naked and opened to the eyes of him to whom we must give account.

The Way (Hebrews), Chapter 1.2: God the Son returned into Heaven to be our Great High Priest according to the order of Melchizedek (4:14 - 7:28)
$Complement	Introduction: Jesus Christ could understand our weaknesses and serve as our perfect High Priest (4:14 - 5:10)
¶Opposite	God the Son became a real, sinless human being with compassion for the weakness of humanity (4:14 - 5:3)
¶Opposite	God the Son was called by God his Father to become a High Priest according to the order of Melchizedek (5:4 - 10)
$Complement	Body: Melchizedek received tithes from Abraham and Levi, so his priesthood was superior to Aaron (5:11 - 7:17)
¶Opposite	These Jews were immature believers who needed to move from animal sacrifices to the Finished Work of Christ (5:11 - 6:8)
¶Opposite	The unconditional oath of God to Abraham gives us strong consolation to us, who have fled for refuge to Christ (6:9 - 20)
¶Complement	Melchizedek was the priest of the most High God: the king of righteousness, and the king of peace (7:1 - 3)
¶Complement	Melchizedek was so great that even Abraham paid tithes to him, and Levi implicitly did also (7:4 - 10)
¶Unique	The Law of Moses has been changed to transfer the office of the High Priesthood from Aaron to Jesus Christ (7:11 - 17)
$Unique	Conclusion: The Priesthood of Jesus was superior to the priesthood of Aaron for two reasons: (7:18 - 28)
¶Complement	Because of the oath of God making Him High Priest (7:18 - 22)
¶Complement	Because He did not need to make a sacrifice for sin for himself (7:23 - 28)

	$Complement	Introduction: Jesus Christ could understand our weaknesses and serve as our perfect High Priest (4:14 - 5:10)
	¶Opposite	God the Son became a real, sinless human being with compassion for the weakness of humanity (4:14 - 5:3)
Unique		4:14Seeing then that we have a great High Priest that has passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession.
Complement		4:15For we have not a High Priest who is unable to sympathize with our infirmities; but he was in all points tempted like as we are , yet without sin.
Complement		4:16Therefore, let us come boldly to the Throne of Grace, that we may obtain mercy; and find grace to help in time of need.
Opposite		5:1For every high priest taken from among men is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins; ^{5:2} who can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the Way, because he himself also is surrounded by weakness.
Opposite		5:3And for this reason (as for the people, so also for himself), he should offer an animal sacrifice for sins.
	¶Opposite	God the Son was called by God his Father to become a High Priest according to the order of Melchizedek (5:4 - 10)
Opposite		5:4And no man takes this honor to himself, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.
Opposite		5:5So also Christ did not glorify himself to be made a High Priest; but he that said to him, “ You are my Son; today have I begotten you. ” ^{5:6} As he says also in another Scripture , “ You are a Priest into the Ages according to the order of Melchizedek. ”
Complement		5:7Who in the days of his flesh, when he had offered up prayers and supplications with strong crying and tears to him that was able to save him from death (and was heard in that he was afraid), ^{5:8} though he is the Son of God , yet he learned obedience by the things which he suffered.
Complement		5:9And having been made complete, he became the Author of eternal salvation to all them that obey him;
Unique		5:10called by God a High Priest, according to the order of Melchizedek.

	$Complement	Body: Melchizedek received tithes from Abraham and Levi, so his priesthood was superior to Aaron (5:11 - 7:17)
	¶Opposite	These Jews were immature believers who needed to move from animal sacrifices to the Finished Work of Christ (5:11 - 6:8)
Unique		5:11Of whom we have many things to say; but hard to explain, seeing you are hard of hearing. ^{5:12} For when for the time you should be teachers, you need someone to teach you again which are the first principles of the Oracles of God. And you have become those that need milk, and not solid food. ^{5:13} For every one that uses milk is unskilled in the Word of righteousness, because he is a spiritual baby; ^{5:14} but solid food belongs to them that are spiritually mature, even those who by reason of habitual use have trained their senses to discern both good and evil.
Complement		6:1Therefore, leaving the basics of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on to completeness in the New Covenant : not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward [Jehovah] God; ^{6:2} of the doctrine of washings, and of laying of hands on the animal sacrifice , and of resurrection of the dead, and of Eternal Judgment. ^{6:3} And we will do this, if God permits.
Complement		6:4Because it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Spirit; ^{6:5} and have tasted the good Word of God, and the powers of the world to come: ^{6:6} if they shall fall away, to renew them again to repentance: seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.
Opposite		6:7For the earth which drinks in the rain that comes often upon it, and brings forth herbs useful for them by whom it is dressed, receives blessing from God;
Opposite		6:8but that which bears thorns and briers is rejected, and near to cursing, whose end is to be burned.
	¶Opposite	The unconditional oath of God to Abraham gives us strong consolation to us, who have fled for refuge to Christ (6:9 - 20)
Opposite		6:9But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we say this: ^{6:10} for God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labor of love, which you have shown toward his Name, in that you have ministered to the saints, and are ministering now . ^{6:11} And we desire that every one of you shows the same diligence, to the full assurance of hope unto the goal; ^{6:12} that you be not lazy, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises.
Opposite		6:13For when God made promise to Abraham, because he could swear by no greater, he swore by himself, ^{6:14} saying, “ Surely blessing I will bless you, and multiplying I will multiply you. ” ^{6:15} And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.
Complement		6:16For men truly swear by the greater; and an oath for confirmation is for them an end of all dispute.
Complement		6:17Therefore God, willing more abundantly to show to the heirs of promise the immutability of his counsel, confirmed it by an oath; ^{6:18} that by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us.
Unique		6:19Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast; and which enters into that within the veil; ^{6:20} where the forerunner has already entered for us, that is , Jesus, having become a High Priest into the Ages according to the order of Melchizedek.

	¶Complement	Melchizedek was the priest of the most High God: the king of righteousness, and the king of peace (7:1 - 3)
Unique		7:1For this Melchizedek, king of Salem, was priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings; and blessed him ^{7:2} (to whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all);
Complement		first, being by interpretation, King of righteousness;
Complement		and after that also King of Salem, which means, “King of peace”:
Opposite		7:3without father, without mother, without lineage, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life;
Opposite		but made like the Son of God, remaining a priest into perpetuity.
	¶Complement	Melchizedek was so great that even Abraham paid tithes to him, and Levi implicitly did also (7:4 - 10)
Unique		7:4Now consider how great this man was , to whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the plunder;
Complement		7:5and truly they that are of the sons of Levi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a command to take tithes of the people according to the Law (that is, of their brethren), though they come out of the loins of Abraham.
Complement		7:6But he whose descent is not counted from them received tithes from Abraham; and blessed him that had the promises. ^{7:7} And without any contradiction the inferior is blessed by the better.
Opposite		7:8And here men that die receive tithes; but there he received them ; of whom it is witnessed that he lives.
Opposite		7:9And as I may so say, Levi also, who receives tithes now , paid tithes in Abraham then : ^{7:10} for he was still in the loins of his father, when Melchizedek met him.
	¶Unique	The Law of Moses has been changed to transfer the office of the High Priesthood from Aaron to Jesus Christ (7:11 - 17)
Opposite		7:11Therefore, if perfection came by the Levitical priesthood (for under it the people received the Law), what further need was there that another priest should arise according to the order of Melchizedek, and not be called according to the order of Aaron?
Opposite		7:12For the priesthood being transferred, there is made of necessity a change also of the Law.
Complement		7:13For he of whom these things are spoken pertains to another tribe, from which no man has officiated at the altar.
Complement		7:14For it is obvious that our Lord arose out of Judah, of which tribe Moses spoke nothing concerning priesthood.
Unique		7:15And it is still far more obvious, that another Priest arises according to the likeness of Melchizedek; ^{7:16} who is made, not according to the Law of a carnal Commandment, but according to the power of an endless life: ^{7:17} for he testifies, “ You are a Priest into the Ages according to the order of Melchizedek. ”
	$Unique	Conclusion: The Priesthood of Jesus was superior to the priesthood of Aaron for two reasons: (7:18 - 28)
	¶Complement	Because of the oath of God making Him High Priest (7:18 - 22)
Opposite		7:18For there is truly an annulment of the Commandment going before for its weakness and unprofitableness: ^{7:19} for the Law made nothing perfect;
Opposite		but the bringing in of a better hope made us perfect in Him , through which we draw near to God.
Complement		7:20And seeing that he was not made High Priest without an oath ^{7:21} (for those priests were made without an oath):
Complement		but this Jesus was made High Priest with an oath by him that said to him, “ [Jehovah] swore and will not repent, You are a Priest into the Ages according to the order of Melchizedek. ”:
Unique		7:22by so much more , Jesus was made a guarantee of a better Covenant.
	¶Complement	Because He did not need to make a sacrifice for sin for himself (7:23 - 28)
Opposite		7:23And truly, they were many priests, because they were not allowed to continue by reason of death;
Opposite		7:24but this Jesus , because he continues into the Ages, has an unchangeable Priesthood; ^{7:25} therefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he always lives to make intercession for them.
Complement		7:26For such a High Priest was fitting for us; who is holy, innocent, undefiled, separate from sinners, and having become higher than the heavens;
Complement		7:27who does not need, as those Levite high priests, to offer up a bloody sacrifice daily (first for his own sins, and then for the people’s): for he already did this once for all time, when he offered up himself.
Unique		7:28For the Law makes men temporary high priests who have weakness; but the Word of the oath, which was written after the Law was given , has ordained the Son, who has been perfected into the Ages.

The Way (Hebrews), Chapter 1.3: Look back to the Finished Work of Christ on the cross for your spiritual completion (8:1 - 10:31)
$Unique Introduction: Jesus is the High Priest in Heaven of the New Covenant, which has replaced the Old Covenant (8:1 - 13)
¶Opposite Jesus is the High Priest of the true Tabernacle in Heaven with the responsibility to offer something to God the Father (8:1 - 5)
¶Opposite The Old Covenant was replaced by the New Covenant, because the Jews did not continue in it (8:6 - 13)
$Complement Body: Jesus fulfilled the type of the Day of Atonement with his sacrifice on the cross, once for all time (9:1 - 10:14)
¶Unique The Day of Atonement ceremony by the priest of Aaron was temporary, imperfect, and repeated every year (9:1 - 10)
¶Complement The New Covenant was dedicated by Christ once with his own blood (9:11 - 17)
¶Complement The Old Covenant was dedicated by Moses once with the blood of calves and goats (9:18 - 22)
¶Opposite Jesus entered into the Holy place as the High Priest with his blood to put away sin, once for all time (9:23 - 28)
¶Opposite Jesus became the final sacrifice for sin on the cross to replace the Old Covenant with the New (10:1 - 14)
$Complement Conclusion: Enter into the Holiest by the blood of Jesus or else (10:15 - 31)
¶Complement Enter now into the Holiest by the blood of Jesus as a priest yourself (10:15 - 22)
¶Complement Or you will face the consequences of your rebellion against God (10:23 - 31)

	$Unique Introduction: Jesus is the High Priest in Heaven of the New Covenant, which has replaced the Old Covenant (8:1 - 13)
	¶Opposite Jesus is the High Priest of the true Tabernacle in Heaven with the responsibility to offer something to God the Father (8:1 - 5)
Unique	^{8:1} Now of the things which we have spoken, this is the main point: we have such a High Priest, who is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens: ^{8:2} a minister of the Sanctuary and of the true Tabernacle, which the Lord pitched and not man.
Complement	^{8:3} For every High Priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices;
Complement	therefore it was necessary that this man have something also to offer.
Opposite	^{8:4} For if he was on Earth, he would not be a priest, seeing that there are Levite priests that offer gifts according to the Law, ^{8:5} who serve according to the example and shadow of heavenly things;
Opposite	as Moses was admonished of God when he was about to make the Tabernacle: for, “ See, ” says he, “ that you make all things according to the design shown to you in the mountain. ”
	¶Opposite The Old Covenant was replaced by the New Covenant, because the Jews did not continue in it (8:6 - 13)
Opposite	^{8:6} But now, he has obtained a more excellent ministry, seeing that he also is the Mediator of a better Covenant, which was established upon better promises:
Opposite	^{8:7} for if that first Covenant had been faultless, then no place would have been sought for the second.
Complement	^{8:8} For finding fault with them, he says, “ Behold, the days are coming,’ says [Jehovah], ‘when I will make a New Covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah; ^{8:9}but not according to the Covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt: for they did not continue in my Covenant, and I disregarded them,’ says [Jehovah]. ”
Complement	^{8:10} “ For this is the Covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days,’ says [Jehovah], ‘I will put my Laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts; and I will be to them God, and they shall be to me a people. ^{8:11}And they shall not teach every man his neighbor, and every man his brother, saying, ‘Know [Jehovah]’: for all shall know me, from the least unto the greatest: ^{8:12}for I will be merciful to their unrighteousness; and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.”
Unique	^{8:13} In that he says “a New Covenant ”, he has made the first Old. Now that which is decaying and growing old, is ready to vanish away.
	$Complement Body: Jesus fulfilled the type of the Day of Atonement with his sacrifice on the cross, once for all time (9:1 - 10:14)
	¶Unique The Day of Atonement ceremony by the priest of Aaron was temporary, imperfect, and repeated every year (9:1 - 10)
Opposite	^{9:1} Then, truly, the First Covenant also had ordinances of divine service, and an earthly Sanctuary: ^{9:2} for a Tabernacle was made: the first, in which was the candlestick, and the table, and the showbread, which is called the Holy Place.
Opposite	^{9:3} And after the second veil, the Tabernacle which is called the Holiest of all, ^{9:4} which had the golden censer, and the Ark of the Covenant overlaid all over with gold; in which was the golden pot that had manna, Aaron’s rod that budded, and the tablets of the Covenant; ^{9:5} and over it the cherubim of glory shadowing the mercy seat: of which we cannot now speak particularly.
Complement	^{9:6} Now when these things were thus ordained, the priests always went into the first Tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God .
Complement	^{9:7} But into the second went the high priest alone once every year; but not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people.
Unique	^{9:8} The Holy Spirit signifying by this, that the way into the Holiest of all had not yet been revealed, while the first Tabernacle was still standing;
	^{9:9} which was a copy for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, that could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience, ^{9:10} which stood only in food and drinks, and various washings and fleshly ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation.
	¶Complement The New Covenant was dedicated by Christ once with his own blood (9:11 - 17)
Unique	^{9:11} But Christ, having come forth a High Priest of good things to come, through a greater and more perfect Tabernacle not made with hands (that is to say, not of this building);
	^{9:12} neither with the blood of goats and calves, but with his own blood he entered in once into the Holy Place, having already obtained Eternal Redemption for us .
Complement	^{9:13} For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifies to the purifying of the flesh, ^{9:14} how much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the Eternal Spirit offered himself without spot unto God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?
Complement	^{9:15} And for this reason, he is the Mediator of the New Covenant: that by means of death for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the First Covenant, they who are called might receive the promise of Eternal inheritance.
Opposite	^{9:16} For where there is a will, there must also of necessity be the death of the one who made the will: ^{9:17} for a will has force after men are dead;
Opposite	otherwise, it has no strength at all while the one making the will is alive.
	¶Complement The Old Covenant was dedicated by Moses once with the blood of calves and goats (9:18 - 22)
Unique	^{9:18} Therefore, even the First Covenant was not dedicated without blood:
	^{9:19} for when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the Law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water and scarlet wool and hyssop;
Complement	and he sprinkled both the Book and all the people, ^{9:20} saying, “ This is the blood of the Covenant which God has commanded to you. ”
Complement	^{9:21} Also, he sprinkled with blood both the Tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry.
Opposite	^{9:22} And almost all things are by the Law purged with blood.
Opposite	And without shedding of blood, there is no forgiveness of sin .
	¶Opposite Jesus entered into the Holy place as the High Priest with his blood to put away sin forever (9:23 - 28)
Unique	^{9:23} Therefore, it was necessary that the copies of things in the heavens should be purified with these animal sacrifices ;
	but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.
Complement	^{9:24} For Christ has not entered into the holy places which were made with hands, which are the copies of the true;
Complement	but into Heaven itself: now to appear in the presence of God for us.
Opposite	^{9:25} Nor did he enter so that he might offer himself many times, as the high priest enters into the holy place every year with blood of others ^{9:26} (otherwise he would have suffered many times since the creation of the universe). But now, once for all time in the consummation of the Ages, he has appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.
Opposite	^{9:27} And as it is appointed to men once to die (but after this the Judgment), ^{9:28} so also Christ was offered once for all time to bear the sins of many; and to them that look for him, he shall appear the second time apart from sin unto salvation.
	¶Opposite Jesus became the final sacrifice for sin on the cross to replace the Old Covenant with the New (10:1 - 14)
Opposite	^{10:1} For the Mosaic Law, having a mere shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices (which they offer year by year into perpetuity) make the comers with them complete. ^{10:2} For then would they not have ceased to be offered? Because the worshipers once purged should have had no more conscience of sins.
Opposite	^{10:3} But, in those sacrifices , there is a reminder again of sins every year. ^{10:4} for it is impossible that the blood of bulls and of goats could take away sins.
Complement	^{10:5} Therefore when he comes into the world, he says, “ Sacrifice and offering you did not desire; but a body have you perfected for me, ^{10:6}because in burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin, you have had no pleasure. ^{10:7}Then I said, ‘See, I come (in the volume of the Book, it is written of me) to do your will, O God.”
Complement	^{10:8} Above when he said, “ Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings for sin you did not desire; nor did you have pleasure in it ” (which are offered by the Law), ^{10:9} then he said, “ Behold, I come to do your will, O God. ” He takes away the First Covenant , that he may establish the Second: ^{10:10} by which we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all time.
Unique	^{10:11} And every Levite priest stands daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins.
	^{10:12} But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins into perpetuity, sat down on the right hand of God, ^{10:13} from henceforth waiting until his enemies are made his footstool: ^{10:14} for by a single offering he has perfected into perpetuity them that are being sanctified.
	$Complement Conclusion: Enter into the Holiest by the blood of Jesus or else (10:15 - 31)
	¶Complement Enter now into the Holiest by the blood of Jesus as a priest yourself (10:15 - 22)
Opposite	^{10:15} Therefore the Holy Spirit also is a witness to us: for after he had said before, ^{10:16} “ This is the Covenant that I will make with them after those days,’ says [Jehovah]: ‘I will put my Laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them; ^{10:17}and their sins and iniquities will I remember no more.”
Opposite	^{10:18} So, where there is forgiveness of these things , there is no more need for an offering for sin.
Complement	^{10:19} Therefore, brethren, having boldness to enter into the Holiest by the blood of Jesus, ^{10:20} by a new and living way, which he has consecrated for us through the veil (that is to say, his flesh);
Complement	^{10:21} and having a permanent High Priest over the House of God,
Unique	^{10:22} let us draw near to God with a true heart, in full assurance of faith: having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water.
	¶Complement Or you will face the consequences of your rebellion against God (10:23 - 31)
Opposite	^{10:23} Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering (for he is faithful that promised);
Opposite	^{10:24} and let us consider one another, to provoke unto love and to good works; ^{10:25} not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is , but exhorting one another ; and so much the more, as you see the Day approaching.
Complement	^{10:26} For if we deliberately continue sinning after we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remains no more sacrifice for sins, ^{10:27} but a certain fearful looking for judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries.
Complement	^{10:28} He that despised Moses’ Law died without mercy under two or three witnesses. ^{10:29} Of how much worse punishment, do you suppose, shall he be thought worthy, who has trodden the Son of God under his foot; and has counted the blood of the Covenant, with which he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and has outraged the Spirit of grace?
Unique	^{10:30} For we know him that has said, ““ Vengeance belongs to me; I will repay,’ says [Jehovah]. ” And again, “[Jehovah] shall judge his people.”
	^{10:31} It is a dreadful thing to fall into the hands of the living God!

	$Unique	Introduction: Genuine conversion to Christ produces good fruit that remains (10:32 -39)
	¶Opposite	Genuine conversion to Christ in the heart produces perseverance in the Faith in spite of affliction and opposition (10:32 -34)
Unique	10:32	But call to remembrance the former days; in which, after you were enlightened, you endured a great fight of afflictions:
Complement	10:33	partly, while you were made a spectacle both by reproaches and afflictions;
Complement		and partly, while you became companions of them that were so used.
Opposite	10:34	For you had compassion on me in my chains;
Opposite		and you took joyfully the spoiling of your goods; knowing in yourselves that you have in Heaven a better and an enduring substance.
	¶Opposite	The Lost turn away from Christ, but the Just shall live by faith (10:35 - 39)
Opposite	10:35	Therefore, do not cast away your confidence, which has great payment of reward:
Opposite	10:36	for you need patience, that, after you have done the will of God, you might receive the promise: 10:37 for yet a little while, and he that shall come will come, and will not delay.
Complement	10:38	Now, it is written : “ The just shall live by faith ”;
Complement		but if any man draws back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him.
Unique	10:39	But we are not of them who draw back to destruction; but of them that believe to the preserving of the soul.

	$Complement	Body: The Patriarchs and Moses looked forward in faith to the Promised Land and the promised Messiah (11:1 - 29)
	¶Opposite	The Patriarchs before the Great Flood obeyed God by faith (11:1 - 7)
Unique	11:1	Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen: 11:2 for by it the elders obtained a good testimony.
	11:3	By faith, we understand that the Ages were framed by the spoken Word of God, so that things which are seen were not made by things that are visible.
Complement	11:4	By faith, Abel offered to God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts; and by it he being dead still speaks.
Complement	11:5	By faith, Enoch was removed, so that he would not see death; and was not found, because God had taken him away: for before his removal, he had this testimony, that he pleased God.
Opposite	11:6	But without faith, it is impossible to please him : for the one coming to God must believe that he exists; and that he is a rewarder of them that eagerly seek him.
Opposite	11:7	By faith, Noah, being warned by God of things as yet unseen, moved with fear; and he prepared an Ark to the saving of his household; by which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith.
	¶Opposite	The Patriarchs after the Great Flood obeyed God by faith (11:8 - 16)
Opposite	11:8	By faith, Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he would after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing where he was going. 11:9 By faith, he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a foreign country; dwelling in tents with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise: 11:10 for he looked for a city which has foundations, whose builder and maker is God.
Opposite	11:11	By faith also, Sara herself received strength to conceive seed; and she delivered a child when she was past the age of menopause : for she judged him to be faithful who had promised. 11:12 Therefore, from one man (and him as good as dead), were born as many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable.
Complement	11:13	These all died in faith, not having received the promises; but having seen them far away, they were persuaded of them , and embraced them , and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the Earth.
Complement	11:14	For they that say such things declare plainly that they seek a country.
Unique	11:15	And truly, if they had been mindful of that country from which they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned.
	11:16	But now they desire a better country , that is, a heavenly; therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God: for he has prepared a city for them.

	¶Complement	Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob prophesied the future of their sons by faith (11:17 - 22)
Unique	11:17	By faith, Abraham, when he was tested, offered up Isaac; and he that had received the promises offered up his only begotten son 11:18 (of whom it was said, that “ In Isaac, your seed shall be called ”); 11:19 accounting that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead; from whence also he received him in a figure.
Complement	11:20	By faith, Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come.
Complement	11:21	By faith, Jacob, when he was dying, blessed both the sons of Joseph; and he worshiped, leaning on the top of his staff.
Opposite	11:22	By faith, Joseph, when he died, made mention of the departure of the children of Israel;
Opposite		and he gave a command concerning his bones.
	¶Complement	Moses refused to enjoy the pleasures of sin in Egypt by faith in his future reward (11:23 - 26)
Unique	11:23	By faith, Moses, when he was born, was hidden three months by his parents: for they saw he was a beautiful child;
		and they were not afraid of the king’s command.
Complement	11:24	By faith, Moses, when he was grown, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh’s daughter;
Complement	11:25	choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season;
Opposite	11:26	considering the reproach of Christ to be greater riches than the treasures in Egypt:
Opposite		for he focused on the payment of his future reward.
	¶Unique	Moses and Joshua forsook Egypt and led Israel to the Promised Land by faith (11:27 - 31)
Opposite	11:27	By faith, he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible.
Opposite	11:28	By faith, he kept the Passover, and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the firstborn might touch them.
Complement	11:29	By faith, they passed through the Red Sea as by dry land , which the Egyptians attempting to do were drowned.
Complement	11:30	By faith, the walls of Jericho fell down, after they were encircled seven days.
Unique	11:31	By faith, the prostitute Rahab did not perish with them that believed not, having welcomed the spies with peace.

	$Complement	Conclusion: The saints of God lived and died by faith (11:32 - 40)
	¶Complement	The saints of God won great victories by faith (11:32 - 34)
Opposite	11:32	And what more shall I say?
Opposite		For the time would fail me to tell of Gideon, and Barak, and Samson, and Jephthah; David also, and Samuel, and the prophets:
Complement	11:33	who by faith subdued kingdoms, worked righteousness, obtained promises;
Complement		stopped the mouths of lions, 11:34 quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword;
Unique		out of weakness were made strong; became valiant in fight; and turned to flight the armies of the aliens.
	¶Complement	The saints of God suffered and died by faith (11:35 - 40)
Opposite	11:35	Women received their dead raised to life again; and others were tortured; not accepting deliverance, that they might obtain a better resurrection.
Opposite	11:36	And others had trial of cruel mocking and scourging; indeed, also of chains and imprisonment.
	11:37	They were stoned, were sawn in two, were tested, and were slain with the sword.
Complement		They wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins: being destitute, afflicted, and tormented 11:38 (of whom the world was not worthy).
Complement		They wandered in deserts, and mountains, and dens and caves of the Earth.
Unique	11:39	And these all, having obtained a good report by faith, did not receive the promise;
	11:40	God having provided something better for us, that they apart from us should not be made complete.

The Way (Hebrews), Chapter 1.5: Become completed Jews in Jesus Christ your Messiah (12:1 -13:25)
$Complement	Introduction: Obey the will of Jehovah your God and embrace Jesus Christ as your Messiah (12:1 - 13)
¶Opposite	Keep your eyes on Christ and follow his example of obedience to become a completed Jew (12:1 - 4)
¶Opposite	Endure the discipline of your Heavenly Father to become a completed Jew (12:5 - 13)
$Complement	Body: See that you do not refuse the will of your God, who is a consuming fire (12:14 - 13:17)
¶Unique	Remember Esau who did not value his inheritance (12:14 - 17)
¶Complement	The Law of Moses caused fear; but the blood of Jesus brings eternal peace with God (12:18 - 24)
¶Complement	Do not refuse Him that speaks from Heaven, for He is a consuming fire (12:25 - 29)
¶Opposite	Continue to observe the moral Laws of Moses (13:1 - 7)
¶Opposite	As priests of God, separate yourselves from the world unto Christ (13:8 - 17)
$Unique	Conclusion: Serve God in your local Assembly (13:18 - 25)
¶Complement	The Lord Jesus make you complete in every good work to do his will (13:18 - 21)
¶Complement	Greet all those in the Lord (13:22 - 25)

	$Complement	Introduction: Obey the will of Jehovah your God and embrace Jesus Christ as your Messiah (12:1 - 13)
	¶Opposite	Keep your eyes on Christ and follow his example of obedience to become a completed Jew (12:1 - 4)
Unique		12:1Therefore, seeing we also are surrounded with such a great cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which so easily snares us ; and let us run the racecourse that is set before us with patience; 12:2looking unto Jesus, the Author and Finisher of our faith;
Complement		who, for the joy that was set before him, endured the cross, despising the shame;
Complement		and he is now seated at the right hand of the throne of God.
Opposite		12:3For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest you are wearied and faint in your minds.
Opposite		12:4You have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin.
	¶Opposite	Endure the discipline of your Heavenly Father to become a completed Jew (12:5 - 13)
Opposite		12:5And you have forgotten the exhortation which speaks to you as to children, “ My son, despise not the discipline of [Jehovah], nor faint when you are rebuked by him: 12:6for whom [Jehovah] loves he disciplines, and scourges every son whom he receives. ” 12:7If you endure discipline, God deals with you as with sons: for what son is he whom the father does not discipline?
Opposite		12:8But if you are without discipline, of which all are partakers, then you are illegitimate, and not truly sons of God .
Complement		12:9Furthermore, we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us , and we gave them reverence.
Complement		Shall we not much rather be in subjection to the Father of spirits, and live? 12:10For they truly disciplined us for a few days after their own pleasure; but he for our spiritual good, that we might be partakers of his holiness.
Unique		12:11Now, no discipline seems to be joyful for the moment, but painful; yet afterward, it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who experience it.
		12:12Therefore lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees; 12:13and make straight paths for your feet, so that the lame part cannot be dislocated; but rather can be healed.
	$Complement	Body: See that you do not refuse the will of your God, who is a consuming fire (12:14 - 13:17)
	¶Unique	Remember Esau who did not value his inheritance (12:14 - 17)
Opposite		12:14Follow peace with everyone;
Opposite		and holiness, without which, no man shall see the Lord.
Complement		12:15Looking diligently, lest anyone falls short of the grace of God, lest any root of bitterness springing up troubles you , and by it many are defiled.
Complement		12:16Lest there be any fornicator, or godless person : such as Esau, who, for one morsel of food, sold his birthright.
Unique		12:17For you know how that afterward, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: for he found no change of mind in his father , though he sought it earnestly with tears.
	¶Complement	The Law of Moses caused fear; but the blood of Jesus brings eternal peace with God (12:18 - 24)
Unique		12:18For you have not come to the mountain that might be touched, and that burned with fire; nor to blackness, and darkness, and tempest;
		12:19and the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of the words of God ;
Complement		which they that heard it begged that the Word would not be spoken to them anymore: 12:20for they could not endure that which was commanded: “ And if so much as a beast touches the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a javelin. ”
Complement		12:21And so terrible was the sight, Moses said, “I exceedingly fear and tremble.”
Opposite		12:22But you have come to mount Zion, and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem; and to an innumerable company of angels, 12:23to the festive gathering and Assembly of the firstborn, who are written in Heaven; and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of the righteous ones made perfect;
Opposite		12:24and to Jesus the Mediator of the New Covenant; and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaks better things than the animal sacrifice of Abel.
	¶Complement	Do not refuse Him that speaks from Heaven, for He is a consuming fire (12:25 - 29)
Unique		12:25See that you do not refuse him that speaks: for if they did not escape who refused him that spoke on Earth, much more shall we not escape , if we turn away from him that speaks from Heaven.
Complement		12:26Whose voice then shook the Earth;
Complement		but now he has promised, saying, “ Yet once more, I will shake not the Earth only, but also Heaven. ”
Opposite		12:27And this word , “ Yet once more, ” signifying the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain.
Opposite		12:28Therefore, we receiving a Kingdom which cannot be shaken, let us utilize grace, by which we may serve God acceptably, with reverence and godly fear: 12:29for our God is a consuming fire!
	¶Opposite	Continue to observe the moral Laws of Moses (13:1 - 7)
Unique		13:1Let brotherly love continue; 13:2be not forgetful to host strangers: for thereby some have hosted angels unknowingly.
		13:3Remember those who are in bound in chains , as bound with them; and those who suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in the body.
Complement		13:4Marriage by all is honorable, and the bed undefiled; but fornicators and adulterers, God will judge.
Complement		13:5 Let your conduct be without covetousness; and be content with such things as you have: for he has said, “ I will never leave you, nor forsake you. ” 13:6So that we may boldly say, “ The Lord is my helper ”; and I will not fear what man can do to me. ”
Opposite		13:7Remember them who rule over you, who have spoken to you the Word of God;
Opposite		whose faith follow: considering the end of their conduct.
	¶Opposite	As priests of God, separate yourselves from the world unto Christ (13:8 - 17)
Opposite		13:8Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, and today, and into the Ages. 13:9Be not carried about with various and strange doctrines: for it is a good thing that the heart is established with grace.
Opposite		But not with foods, which have not benefited them that have been occupied in it.
Complement		13:10We have an altar, of which they who serve the Tabernacle, have no right to eat: 13:11for the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the Sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned outside the camp; 13:12therefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered outside the gate. 13:13Therefore, let us go forth to him outside the camp, bearing his reproach: 13:14for here we have no permanent city, but we seek one to come.
Complement		13:15By him, therefore, let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually; that is, the fruit of our lips giving thanks to his Name.
Unique		13:16But to do good, and to share, forget not: for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.
		13:17Obey them that rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account to God ; that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you.
	$Unique	Conclusion: Serve God in your local Assembly (13:18 - 25)
	¶Complement	The Lord Jesus make you complete in every good work to do his will (13:18 - 21)
Opposite		13:18Pray for us: for we trust that we have a good conscience; in all things, willing to live honestly.
Opposite		13:19But I encourage you the rather to do this, that I may be restored to you even sooner.
Complement		13:20Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting New Covenant, 13:21make you complete in every good work to do his will;
Complement		working in you that which is well pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ;
Unique		to whom be glory into the Ages of the Ages. Amen.
	¶Complement	Greet all those in the Lord (13:22 - 25)
Opposite		13:22And I exhort you, brethren, endure the Word of exhortation: for I have written a letter to you in few words.
Opposite		13:23Know that our brother Timothy has been set free; with whom, if he comes shortly, I will see you.
Complement		13:24Greet all them that rule over you, and all the saints.
Complement		They of Italy greet you.
Unique		13:25Grace be with you all. Amen.

The Way (Romans), Chapter 2.1: Both Jews and Gentiles have rejected the one true God and will be judged by the moral Law of Moses (1:1 - 2:16)

¶Opposite	Paul longed to go to the saints in Rome to teach them the Word of God (1:8 - 12)
¶Opposite	Paul was not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ (1:13 - 17)
¶Complement	Sinners have suppressed the truth of the one true God Jehovah which is revealed in nature (1:18 - 23)
¶Complement	Because of their rejection of Him, God gave sinners up to the evil passions of their flesh (1:24 - 32)
¶Unique	The hypocrite cannot escape the righteous Judgment of God (2:1 - 4)
$Complement	Conclusion: God will judge every person according to their works and according to the Law of Moses (2:5 - 16)
¶Complement	God shall judge every person equally according to their own works (2:5 - 12)
¶Complement	God will judge every person equally according to the Law of Moses (2:13 - 16)

	$Unique	Introduction: The exalted positions of the apostle Paul and of the saints in Rome (1:1 - 7)
	¶Opposite	Paul was a servant of Jesus Christ and was called his apostle (1:1 - 4)
Unique		1:1Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ;
Complement		called to be an apostle separated to the Gospel of God (^{1:2} which he had promised before by his Prophets in the Holy Scriptures);
Complement		1:3concerning his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord:
Opposite		who was made of the seed of David according to the flesh,
Opposite		1:4and was declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the Spirit of Holiness, by the resurrection from the dead.
	¶Opposite	The believers in Rome were beloved of God and were called his saints (1:5 - 7)
Opposite		1:5By whom, we have received grace and apostleship for obedience to the Faith among all nations for his Name
Opposite		1:6(among whom, you also are the called of Jesus Christ):
Complement		1:7to all that are in Rome,
Complement		beloved of God, called saints:
Unique		Grace to you and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

	$Complement	Body: Sinners are condemned to Hell before a holy and righteous God (1:8 - 2:4)
	¶Opposite	Paul longed to go to the saints in Rome to teach them the Word of God (1:8 - 12)
Unique		1:8First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that your faith is being proclaimed throughout the whole world.
Complement		1:9For God is my witness, whom I serve in my spirit in the Gospel of his Son, that without ceasing, I make mention of you always in my prayers;
Complement		1:10making request, if somehow, now finally, I might have a prosperous journey by the will of God to come to you.
Opposite		1:11For I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift, to the goal that you may be established;
Opposite		1:12that is, that I may be comforted together with you by the mutual faith of both you and me.
	¶Opposite	Paul was not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ (1:13 - 17)
Opposite		1:13Now, I do not want you to be ignorant, brethren, that many times I purposed to come to you (but was hindered until now), that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among other Gentiles.
Opposite		1:14I am a debtor, both to the Greeks, and to the Barbarians: both to the wise, and to the foolish.
Complement		1:15So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the Gospel to you that are at Rome also.
Complement		1:16For I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ, because it is the power of God unto salvation to everyone that believes: to the Jew first, and also to the Gentile.
Unique		1:17For in it, the righteousness of God is revealed from saving faith to mature faith: as it is written, “The just shall live by faith.”

	¶Complement	Sinners have suppressed the truth of the one true God Jehovah which is revealed in nature (1:18 - 23)
Unique		1:18For the wrath of God is revealed from Heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who suppress the truth in unrighteousness;
Complement		1:19because that which may be known of God is manifest in them: for God has shown it to them.
Complement		1:20For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his Eternal power and Deity, so that they are without excuse.
Opposite		1:21Because when they knew the one true God, they did not glorify him as God; neither were they thankful;
Opposite		but they became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened: ^{1:22} professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, ^{1:23} and changed the glory of the incorruptible God into an image made like corruptible man, and birds, and four-footed beasts, and creeping things.
	¶Complement	Because of their rejection of Him, God gave sinners up to the evil passions of their flesh (1:24 - 32)
Unique		1:24Therefore, God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonor their own bodies between themselves;
		1:25who exchanged the truth of God for the Lie; and they worshiped and served the created thing more than the Creator, who is blessed into the Ages. Amen.
Complement		1:26For this reason, God gave them up to vile affections: for even their women changed the natural use into that which is against nature.
Complement		1:27And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another: men with men doing that which is shameful, and receiving in themselves that repayment of their error which was appropriate.
Opposite		1:28And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not right; ^{1:29} being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, and maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, and malignity; being gossipers, ^{1:30} slanderers, haters of God, spiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents; ^{1:31} without understanding, promise breakers, without family affection, implacable, and unmerciful.
Opposite		1:32Who knowing the Judgment of God, that they who commit such things are worthy of death, not only continue to do them, but also approve of them that do them.
	¶Unique	The hypocrite cannot escape the righteous Judgment of God (2:1 - 4)
Opposite		2:1Therefore you are inexcusable, O man, whosoever you are that judges:
Opposite		for when you judge another, you condemn yourself: for you that judge do the same things.
Complement		2:2But we are sure that the Judgment of God is according to truth against them which do such things.
Complement		2:3And do you think this, O man who judges them which do such things, but do the same, that you shall escape the Judgment of God?
Unique		2:4Or do you despise the riches of his goodness and forbearance and longsuffering: not knowing that the goodness of God leads you to repentance?
	$Complement	Conclusion: God will judge every person according to their works and according to the Law of Moses (2:5 - 16)
	¶Complement	God will judge every person equally according to their own works (2:5 - 12)
Opposite		2:5But according to your hardness and unrepentant heart, you accumulate for yourself wrath, for the Day of wrath and revelation of the righteous Judgment of God;
Opposite		2:6who will repay to every man according to his works: ^{2:7} to them, who by patient continuance in well doing seek for glory and honor and immortality: Eternal Life.
Complement		2:8But to them that are contentious and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness: indignation and wrath, ^{2:9} tribulation and anguish upon every soul of man that does evil (of the Jew first, and also of the Gentile);
Complement		2:10but glory, honor, and peace to every man that works good (to the Jew first, and also to the Gentile).
Unique		2:11For there is no respect of persons with God: ^{2:12} for as many as have sinned without the Law shall also perish without the Law; and as many as have sinned in the Law shall be judged by the Law.
	¶Complement	God will judge every person equally according to the Law of Moses (2:13 - 16)
Opposite		2:13Because the hearers of the Law are not just before God;
Opposite		but the doers of the Law shall be justified.
Complement		2:14For when the Gentiles (who do not have the Law), do by nature the things contained in the Law, these, having not the Law, are a Law unto themselves;
Complement		2:15who show the work of the Law written in their hearts;
Unique		their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts the meanwhile accusing or else excusing one another:
		2:16in the Day when God shall judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ according to my Gospel.

The Way (Romans), Chapter 2.2: Both Jews and Gentiles can only be justified through faith alone in the New Covenant Finished Work of Christ (2:17 - 5:21)
$Complement	Introduction: Even the most religious person possible is condemned by the Law of Moses (2:17 - 3:8)
¶Opposite	The proud Jew's profession of faith in God is destroyed by his breaking of the Law of Moses (2:17 - 29)
¶Opposite	God is always righteous in everything that He does, including judging sin (3:1 - 8)
$Complement	Body: Justification from sin is by faith alone in the Finished Work of Christ without the works of the Law or circumcision (3:9 - 5:8)
¶Unique	Both Jews and Gentiles can be justified through their faith in the Finished Work of Jesus Christ (3:9 - 31)
¶Complement	Abraham was justified by faith alone without works (4:1 - 8)
¶Complement	Abraham was justified by faith alone before he was circumcised (4:9 - 15)
¶Opposite	The faith that Abraham exercised to be justified is the same faith that we must exercise to be justified from all sin (4:16 - 25)
¶Opposite	The object of our faith must be Jesus Christ who died in our place and made the atonement for our sins (5:1 - 8)
$Unique	Conclusion: The origin of sin and the impact of the Finished Work of Christ on the cross for all those who believe (5:9 - 21)
¶Complement	The sin of Adam caused the deaths of him and all of his descendants (5:9 - 14)
¶Complement	The gift of salvation through Christ gives righteousness and eternal life to all who believe in Him (5:15 - 21)

	$Complement	Introduction: Even the most religious person possible is condemned by the Law of Moses (2:17 - 3:8)
	¶Opposite	The proud Jew's profession of faith in God is destroyed by his breaking of the Law of Moses (2:17 - 29)
Unique		^{2:17} Behold, you are called a Jew, and rest in the Law of Moses , and make your boast of God; ^{2:18} and you know his will, and approve the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the Law. ^{2:19} And you are confident that you yourself are a guide of the blind, a light of them which are in darkness, ^{2:20} an instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, which have the form of knowledge and of the truth in the Law.
Complement		^{2:21} You therefore who teaches another, do you not teach yourself? You that preach that a man should not steal, do you steal? ^{2:22} You that say a man should not commit adultery, do you commit adultery? You that abhor idols, do you commit sacrilege? ^{2:23} You that make your boast of the Law, through breaking the Law, do you dishonor God? ^{2:24} For “ the Name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you ”, as it is written.
Complement		^{2:25} For circumcision truly benefits, if you keep the Law; but if you are a breaker of the Law, your circumcision is effectively made uncircumcision.
Opposite		^{2:26} Therefore, if the uncircumcision keeps the righteousness of the Law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision? ^{2:27} And shall not uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfills the Law, judge you, who by the letter and circumcision transgress the Law?
Opposite		^{2:28} For he is not a true Jew, which is merely one outwardly; neither is that true circumcision, which is outward in the flesh; ^{2:29} but he is a true Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God.
	¶Opposite	God is always righteous in everything that He does, including judging sin (3:1 - 8)
Opposite		^{3:1} What advantage, then, does the Jew have? Or what benefit is there of circumcision?
Opposite		^{3:2} Much every way; most importantly, because the written Oracles of God were entrusted to them.
Complement		^{3:3} But what if some did not believe? Shall their unbelief nullify the faith of God? ^{3:4} Certainly not; indeed, let God be true, but every man a liar! As it is written, “ That you might be justified in your sayings, and might overcome when you are judged. ”
Complement		^{3:5} But if our unrighteousness exalts the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who takes vengeance? (I speak as a man.) ^{3:6} Certainly not! For then how shall God judge the world? ^{3:7} For if the truth of God has more abounded through my lie unto his glory, why then am I also judged as a sinner?
Unique		^{3:8} And not (as we are slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say), “Let us do evil, so that good may come”; whose judgment is just.
	$Complement	Body: Justification from sin is by faith alone in the Finished Work of Christ without the works of the Law or circumcision (3:9 - 5:8)
	¶Unique	Both Jews and Gentiles can be justified through their faith in the Finished Work of Jesus Christ (3:9 - 31)
Opposite		^{3:9} What then? Are we Jews better than Gentiles ? No , not at all: for we have already demonstrated both Jews and Gentiles, that they are all under the curse of sin : ^{3:10} as it is written, “ No one is righteous; no, not even one. There is no one that understands; there is no one that seeks after God; they have all gone out of the Way; they have together become unprofitable. There are none that do good; no, not even one. Their throat is an open tomb; with their tongues they have used deceit; the poison of asps is under their lips, whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness; their feet are swift to shed blood. Destruction and misery are in their ways, and they have not known the Way of peace. There is no fear of God before their eyes. ” ^{3:19} And we know that whatsoever things the Law says, it says to them who are under the Law, so that every mouth may be shut, and all the world may become guilty before God; ^{3:20} therefore, by the works of the Law, no flesh shall be justified in his sight: for by the Law is the knowledge of sin.
Opposite		^{3:21} But now, the righteousness of God apart from the Law is revealed (being witnessed by the Law and the Prophets): ^{3:22} even the righteousness of God which is through faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference, ^{3:23} because all have sinned, and fallen short of the glory of God; ^{3:24} being justified freely by his grace through the Redemption that is in Christ Jesus; ^{3:25} whom God has displayed publicly, to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the passing over of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God; ^{3:26} to declare, I say , at this time his righteousness, so that God might be just, and the justifier of him who believes in Jesus.
Complement		^{3:27} Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what Law? Of works? No, but by the Law of faith; ^{3:28} therefore, we conclude that a man is justified by faith apart from the works of the Law.
Complement		^{3:29} Is he the God of the Jews only? Is he not also the God of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also, ^{3:30} seeing that there is one true God, who shall justify the circumcision by faith, and the uncircumcision through the same faith.
Unique		^{3:31} Do we then make the Law void through faith? Certainly not! In fact, we establish the Law.
	¶Complement	Abraham was justified by faith alone without works (4:1 - 8)
Unique		^{4:1} What shall we say then that Abraham our father (according to the flesh) has found? ^{4:2} For if Abraham was justified by works, he has something to glory in .
Complement		But not before God:
Complement		^{4:3} for what does the Scripture say? Abraham “ believed in [Jehovah]; and his faith was credited to him for righteousness. ”
Opposite		^{4:4} Now, to him that works, the reward is not reckoned of grace, but of debt.
Opposite		^{4:5} But to him that does not work, but believes on him that justifies the ungodly, his faith is credited for righteousness. ^{4:6} Even as David also describes the blessedness of the man, to whom God imputes righteousness without works, ^{4:7} saying, “ Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered. Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin. ”
Unique		^{4:9} Does this blessedness then come only upon the circumcision, or upon the uncircumcision also? For we say that faith was credited to Abraham for righteousness. ^{4:10} How then was it credited? When he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.
Complement		^{4:11} And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had while he was still uncircumcised, so that he might be the father of all them that believe (though they are not circumcised), so that righteousness might be imputed to them also;
Complement		^{4:12} and he is the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had while he was still uncircumcised.
Opposite		^{4:13} For the promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham or to his seed through the Law of Moses , but through the righteousness of faith.
Opposite		^{4:14} For if only they which are of the Law are heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of no effect; ^{4:15} because the Law works wrath: for where no Law exists, there is no transgression.
	¶Opposite	The faith that Abraham exercised to be justified is the same faith that we must exercise to be justified from all sin (4:16 - 25)
Unique		^{4:16} Therefore, justification is by faith, that it might be by grace, to the end that the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the Law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham.
Complement		Who is the father of us all: ^{4:17} as it is written, “ I have made you a father of many nations ”, before him whom he believed (that is God, who gives life to the dead, and calls those things which are not as though they were); ^{4:18} who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, “ So shall your seed be. ”
Complement		^{4:19} And being not weak in faith, he did not consider his own body now dead, when he was about a hundred years old; neither yet the deadness of Sarah's womb. ^{4:20} He doubted not at the promise of God through unbelief, but was strong in faith, giving glory to God; ^{4:21} and being fully persuaded, that what he had promised, he was also able to perform; ^{4:22} and therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness.
Opposite		^{4:23} Now, it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him;
Opposite		^{4:24} but for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead; ^{4:25} who was delivered for our offenses, and was raised again for our justification.
	¶Opposite	The object of our faith must be Jesus Christ who died in our place and made the atonement for our sins (5:1 - 8)
Opposite		^{5:1} Therefore, being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ; ^{5:2} by whom also we have access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and rejoice in assurance of the glory of God.
Opposite		^{5:3} And not only this , but we glory in tribulations also, knowing that tribulation works patience; ^{5:4} and patience, experience; and experience, assurance; ^{5:5} and assurance does not shame us , because the love of God has been poured out in our hearts by the Holy Spirit which was given to us.
Complement		^{5:6} For when we were yet without strength, in due time, Christ died for the ungodly:
Complement		^{5:7} for rarely will one die for a righteous man; yet perhaps for a good man, some would even dare to die.
Unique		^{5:8} But God demonstrated his love toward us; in that, while we were still sinners, Christ died in our place.
	$Unique	Conclusion: The origins of sin and the impact of the Finished Work of Christ on the cross for all those who believe (5:9 - 21)
	¶Complement	The sin of Adam caused the deaths of him and all of his descendants (5:9 - 14)
Opposite		^{5:9} Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him: ^{5:10} for if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life.
Opposite		^{5:11} And not only this , but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the Atonement.
Complement		^{5:12} Therefore, as by one man, that is, Adam , sin entered into the world, and death through his sin; and so death passed upon all men, because all have sinned.
Complement		^{5:13} For until the Law was given to Moses , sin was in the world; but sin is not imputed when there is no Law.
Unique		^{5:14} Nevertheless, death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned after the likeness of Adam's transgression, who is the type of him that was to come.
	¶Complement	The gift of salvation through Christ gives righteousness and eternal life to all who believe in Him (5:15 - 21)
Opposite		^{5:15} But not as the offense, so also is the free gift: for if, through the offense of one, many are spiritually dead, much more the grace of God and the gift by grace (which is by one man, Jesus Christ) has abounded to many.
Opposite		^{5:16} And the gift is not as it was by one that sinned: for the judgment was by one to condemnation, but the free gift is of many offenses unto justification: ^{5:17} for if by the offense of one man, death reigned by one; much more they, who receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness, shall reign in Life by one, Jesus Christ.
Complement		^{5:18} Therefore, as by the offense of one, judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so, by the righteousness of one, the free gift is offered unto all men unto justification of Life:
Complement		^{5:19} for as by the disobedience of one man, many were made sinners; so by the obedience of one, many shall be made righteous.
Unique		^{5:20} Moreover the Law entered, so that sin might abound; but where sin abounded, grace abounded much more, ^{5:21} that as sin has reigned in spiritual death, even so might grace reign through righteousness into Eternal Life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Way (Romans), Chapter 2.3: The daily sanctification of believers through the Holy Spirit (6:1 - 8:39)
$Unique	Introduction: After salvation, yield your bodies in obedience to God to have victory over sin (6:1 - 23)
¶Opposite	After salvation, yield your bodies to be baptized by immersion, to walk in the likeness of his resurrection (6:1 - 7)
¶Opposite	After baptism, yield your bodies to God every day to have continued victory over sin (6:8 - 23)
$Complement	Body: The Holy Spirit gives life and peace to the believer and guarantees his resurrection to Eternal Life (7:1 - 8:23)
¶Opposite	Believers are married to Jesus Christ and divorced from the Law of Moses, so that we might bring forth fruit unto God (7:1 - 6)
¶Opposite	Bring your thoughts into captivity to Jesus Christ to be victorious over temptation (7:7 - 25)
¶Complement	The Holy Spirit brings life and peace to the believer who walks in obedience to Him instead of the flesh (8:1 - 8)
¶Complement	The Holy Spirit dwells in the body of the believer in Jesus Christ to give Eternal Life before and after death (8:9 - 13)
¶Unique	The universe and believers groan in pain from the presence of sin; but one day, it will be redeemed (8:14 - 23)
$Complement	Conclusion: The believer is kept eternally secure by the election of God the Father and the love of Christ (8:24 - 39)
¶Complement	The believer is kept eternally secure by the election of God the Father (8:24 - 30)
¶Complement	Nothing in this world can separate the believer from the love of Christ (8:31 - 39)

	$Unique	Introduction: After salvation, yield your bodies in obedience to God to have victory over sin (6:1 - 23)
	¶Opposite	After salvation, yield your bodies to be baptized by immersion, to walk in the likeness of his resurrection (6:1 - 7)
Unique		6:1What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, so that grace may abound?
		6:2Certainly not! How shall we, who died to sin, live any longer in it?
Complement		6:3Do you not know, that as many of us as were baptized with reference to Jesus Christ were baptized as a sign of his death? 6:4Therefore, we were buried with him by baptism with reference to death, so that, in the same manner as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father: even so, we also should walk in newness of Life.
Complement		6:5For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall also walk in the likeness of his resurrection.
Opposite		6:6Knowing this, that our old man was crucified with him , that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin:
Opposite		6:7for he that is dead has been freed from sin.
	¶Opposite	After baptism, yield your bodies to God every day to have continued victory over sin (6:8 - 23)
Opposite		6:8Now, if we died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him, 6:9knowing that Christ, having risen from the dead, dies no more; death has no more dominion over him: 6:10for in that he died, he died unto sin once; but in that he lives, he lives unto God. 6:11In the same manner, consider yourselves also to be dead indeed to sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Opposite		6:12Therefore, let not sin reign in your mortal body, so that you obey the lusts of the flesh ; 6:13neither yield your body parts as instruments of unrighteousness to sin; but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your body parts as instruments of righteousness unto God. 6:14For sin shall not rule over you: for you are not under the Law of Moses , but under grace.
Complement		6:15What then? Shall we sin, because we are not under the Law, but under grace? Certainly not. 6:16Do you not know, that to whom you yield yourselves servants to obey, you are his servants to whom you obey: whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness? 6:17But thanks to God, that you were the servants of sin; but you have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered to you. 6:18Being then made free from sin, you became the servants of righteousness.
Complement		6:19I speak after the manner of men, because of the weakness of your flesh: for as you have yielded your body parts servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity, even so now yield your body parts as servants to righteousness unto holiness: 6:20for when you were the servants of sin, you were free from righteousness.
Unique		6:21What fruit then did you have in those things of which you are now ashamed? For the end of those things is death. 6:22But now, being made free from sin and become servants to God, you have your fruit unto holiness, and the end Everlasting Life.
		6:23For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is Eternal Life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

	$Complement	Body: The Holy Spirit gives life and peace to the believer and guarantees his resurrection to Eternal Life (7:1 - 8:23)
	¶Opposite	Believers are married to Jesus Christ and divorced from the Law of Moses, so that we might bring forth fruit unto God (7:1 - 6)
Unique		7:1Do you not know, brethren (for I speak to them that know the Law), that the Law rules over a man as long as he lives?
		7:2For the woman which has a husband is bound by the Law to her husband as long as he lives; but if the husband is dead, she is released from the Law of her husband. 7:3So then, while her husband is living, if she is married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress; but if her husband is dead, she is free from that Law, so that she is not an adulteress, although she is married to another man.
Complement		7:4Therefore, my brethren, you also were made dead to the Law by the crucified body of Christ,
Complement		that you should be married to another, even to him who was raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit to God.
Opposite		7:5For when we were in the flesh, the motions leading to sins, which were by the Law, worked in our body parts to bring forth fruit unto death.
Opposite		7:6But now, we have been delivered from the Law, that being dead in which we were held, that we should serve in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter.
	¶Opposite	Bring your thoughts into captivity to Jesus Christ to be victorious over temptation (7:7 - 25)
Opposite		7:7What shall we say then? Is the Law sin? Certainly not! I did not know sin, but through the Law: for I would not have known lust, except the Law had said, “ You shall not covet. ” 7:8But sin, taking occasion by the Commandment, produced all kinds of evil desire in me. For apart from the Law, sin was dead: 7:9for as an infant , I was alive once apart from the Law; but when the Commandment came, sin revived, and I died spiritually . 7:10And the Commandment, which was ordained to life, I found to be unto death: 7:11for sin, taking occasion by the Commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me . 7:12Therefore the Law is holy; and the Commandment is holy, and just, and good.
Opposite		7:13Then, was that which is good made death to me? Certainly not! But the Law magnified sin, so that it might be shown to be sinful: working death in me by that which is good, so that sin by the Commandment might become exceedingly sinful. 7:14For we know that the Law is spiritual; but I am carnal, sold as a slave to sin. 7:15For what I do, I do not understand: for what I wish to do , that is what I do not do; but what I hate, that is what I find myself doing. 7:16If then, I do that which I do not wish to do , I agree with the Law that it is good. 7:17So then, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwells in me. 7:18For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh), dwells nothing good: for I want to do good, but how to perform that which is good, I do not find. 7:19For the good that I want to do, I do not do it ; but the evil that I do not wish to do , that is what I find myself doing. 7:20So if I do that which I do not wish to do , it is no longer I that am doing it, but sin that dwells in me.
Complement		7:21Therefore, I find concerning the Law, that when I desire to do good, evil is always present with me: 7:22for I delight in the Law of God according to the inward man; 7:23but I see another law in my body parts, making war against the Law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my body parts.
Complement		7:24O wretched man that I am! Who shall deliver me from this dead body? 7:25I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Unique		So then with the mind, I myself serve the Law of God; but with the flesh, I serve the law of sin.

	¶Complement	The Holy Spirit brings life and peace to the believer who walks in obedience to Him instead of the flesh (8:1 - 8)
Unique		8:1Therefore, there is now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit: 8:2for the Law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has made me free from the Law of sin and death.
		8:3For what the Law of Moses could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh: God, sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh, 8:4so that the righteousness of the Law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit.
Complement		8:5For they that walk according to the flesh think about the things of the flesh; but they that walk according to the Spirit think about the things of the Spirit.
Complement		8:6For having a carnal mind is death; but having a spiritual mind is life and peace.
Opposite		8:7Because the fleshly mind is hatred against God: for it is not subject to the Law of God; neither indeed can it be .
Opposite		8:8So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.
	¶Complement	The Holy Spirit dwells in the body of the believer in Jesus Christ to guarantee his resurrection to Eternal Life (8:9 - 13)
Unique		8:9But you are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if it is true that the Spirit of God dwells in you. Now if any man does not have the Spirit of Christ, he is not one of his children .
Complement		8:10And if Christ is in you, the body is dead because of sin, but the Spirit is Life because of righteousness.
Complement		8:11But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwells in you.
Opposite		8:12Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, but not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh: 8:13for if you live according to the flesh, you shall die.
Opposite		But if, through the Spirit, you are constantly mortifying the deeds of the body, you shall live.
	¶Unique	The universe and believers groan in pain from the presence of sin; but one day, it will be redeemed (8:14 - 23)
Opposite		8:14For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God: 8:15for you have not received the spirit of slavery again to fear; but you have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, “Papa, Father!”
Opposite		8:16The Spirit itself bears witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God, 8:17and if we are children, then we are heirs: heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ (if it is true that we suffer with him , that we may be also glorified together).
Complement		8:18For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us: 8:19for the earnest expectation of the creation waits for the manifestation of the sons of God.
Complement		8:20For the creation was made subject to vanity: not of its own will, but by reason of him who has subjected the same in hope, 8:21because the creation itself also shall be delivered from the slavery of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God.
Unique		8:22For we know that the whole creation groans and travails in pain together until now.
		8:23And not only the creation , but ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, namely , the redemption of our body.
	$Complement	Conclusion: The believer is kept eternally secure by the election of God the Father and the love of Christ (8:24 - 39)
	¶Complement	The believer is kept eternally secure by the election of God the Father (8:24 - 30)
Opposite		8:24For we were saved in hope; but hope that is seen is not hope: for what a man sees, why does he still hope for it ?
Opposite		8:25But if we hope for that which we do not see, then do we with patience wait for it .
Complement		8:26Likewise, the Spirit also helps our infirmities: for we do not know what we should pray for as we should; but the Spirit itself makes intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.
		8:27And he that searches the hearts knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because he makes intercession for the saints according to the will of God .
Complement		8:28And we know that all things work together for good, to them that love God: to them who are the called according to his purpose.
Unique		8:29For those whom he foreknew, he also predestinated to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren.
		8:30Moreover, those whom he predestinated, he also called them; and whom he called, he also justified them; and whom he justified, he also glorified them.
	¶Complement	Nothing in this world can separate the believer from the love of Christ (8:31 - 39)
Opposite		8:31What, then, shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us?
Opposite		8:32He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?
Complement		8:33Who shall lay anything to the charge of God’s elect? It is God who declares us righteous.
Complement		8:34Who is he that condemns? It is Christ who died for our sins ; but more than that, was raised again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also makes intercession for us.
Unique		8:35Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? 8:36As it is written, “ For your sake, we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter. ”
		8:37No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us: 8:38for I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, 8:39nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

The Way (Romans), Chapter 2:4: The final sanctification of Israel after the Return of Christ (9:1 - 11:36)
§Unique	Introduction: Most Jews have rejected the Gospel, despite being stewards of the truth of God (9:1 - 13)
¶Opposite	Paul wished that he could go to Hell so that his fellow Israelites according to the flesh could be saved (9:1 - 5)
¶Opposite	The children of the Promise are the true seed of Israel, not the children of the flesh (9:6 - 13)
§Complement	Body: God has elected a remnant of the Jews to be saved (9:14 - 10:21)
¶Unique	God has mercy on whom He will have mercy (9:14 - 18)
¶Complement	God has power over his own creation, to make one vessel to honor and another to dishonor (9:19 - 24)
¶Complement	The prophets prophesied that a remnant of Israel would be chosen by election (9:25 - 33)
¶Opposite	The righteousness of God can only be obtained through faith in the Finished Work of Jesus Christ (10:1 - 15)
¶Opposite	Israel heard the Gospel that was preached everywhere, but rejected it (10:16 - 21)
§Complement	Conclusion: Jehovah blessed the Gentiles with stewardship of the Gospel for now, but he will save Israel in the Millennium (11:1 - 36)
¶Complement	The Gentiles have been temporarily blessed with stewardship of the Gospel because of the election of God (11:1 - 24)
¶Complement	Jehovah will save Israel in the Millennial Kingdom and restore them to his favor as before (11:25 - 36)

	§Unique	Introduction: Most Jews have rejected the Gospel, despite being stewards of the truth of God (9:1 - 13)
	¶Opposite	Paul wished that he could go to Hell so that his fellow Israelites according to the flesh could be saved (9:1 - 5)
Unique		9:1I say the truth in Christ (I lie not, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Holy Spirit),
		9:2that I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart:
Complement		9:3for I could wish that I myself were accursed from Christ for my brethren:
Complement		my kinsmen according to the flesh, who are Israelites.
Opposite		9:4To whom pertains the adoption, and the Shekinah glory, and the Covenants, and the giving of the Law, and the service of God , and the Promises;
Opposite		9:5of whom are the fathers; and out of whom according to the flesh is the Christ, the One who is over all: God, who is blessed into the Ages. Amen.
	¶Opposite	The children of the Promise are the true seed of Israel, not the children of the flesh (9:6 - 13)
Opposite		9:6 However, it is not as if the Word of God has failed: for they are not all Israel, which are of Israel; 9:7neither, because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children;
Opposite		but, “In Isaac shall your seed be called.”
Complement		9:8That is to say , they which are the children of the flesh: these are not the children of God;
Complement		but the children of the promise are counted for the seed: 9:9for this is the Word of promise: “At this time will I come; and Sarah shall have a son.”
Unique		9:10And not only that , but when Rebecca also had conceived by one, even by our father Isaac 9:11(for the children being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, so that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calls), 9:12it was said to her, “The older shall serve the younger.”
		9:13As it is written, “I loved Jacob, but hated Esau.”
	§Complement	Body: God has elected a remnant of the Jews to be saved (9:14 - 10:21)
	¶Unique	God has mercy on whom He will have mercy (9:14 - 18)
Opposite		9:14What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousness with God?
Opposite		Certainly not! 9:15For he says to Moses, “I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy; and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.”
Complement		9:16So then, election is not of him that wills, nor of him that runs, but of God that shows mercy.
Complement		9:17For the Scripture says to Pharaoh, “Even for this same purpose have I raised you up, that I might show my power in you, and that my Name might be declared throughout all the Earth.”
Unique		9:18Therefore he has mercy on whom he will have mercy ; and whom he chooses, he hardens.
	¶Complement	God has power over his own creation, to make one vessel to honor and another to dishonor (9:19 - 24)
Unique		9:19Then you will say to me, “Why does he still find fault? For who has resisted his will?”
Complement		9:20No, but, O man, who are you to contradict God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it , “Why have you made me this way?”
Complement		9:21Does not the potter have power over the clay, of the same lump to make one vessel to honor, and another to dishonor?
Opposite		9:22 What if God (determining to show his wrath, and to make his power known) endured with much longsuffering the vessels of wrath, having prepared themselves for destruction,
Opposite		9:23so that he might make known the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had before prepared unto glory, 9:24even us, whom he has called: not of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles?
	¶Complement	The prophets prophesied that a remnant of Israel would be chosen by election (9:25 - 33)
Unique		9:25As he says also in Hosea, “I will call them my people, which were not my people; and her beloved, which was not beloved.
		9:26And it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said to them, ‘You are not my people’, there shall they be called the children of the living God.”
Complement		9:27Isaiah also cries concerning Israel, “Though the number of the children of Israel are like the sand of the sea, only a remnant will be saved : 9:28for he will finish the work, and cut it short in righteousness; because a short work will the Lord make upon the Earth.”
Complement		9:29And as Isaiah said before, “Unless the Lord of hosts had left us a seed, we would have been as Sodom, and been made like Gomorrah.”
Opposite		9:30What shall we say then? That the Gentiles, which did not follow after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith.
Opposite		9:31But Israel, which followed after the Law of righteousness, has not attained to the Law of righteousness. 9:32Why? Because they did not seek it through faith, but (as it were) through the works of the Law : for they stumbled at that Stumblingstone, 9:33as it is written, “Behold, I lay in Zion a Stumblingstone and Rock of offense; and whosoever believes on him shall not be ashamed.”
	¶Opposite	The righteousness of God can only be obtained through faith in the Finished Work of Jesus Christ (10:1 - 15)
Unique		10:1Brethren, my heart’s desire and prayer to God for Israel, is that they might be saved: 10:2for I bear them witness that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge: 10:3for they, being ignorant of God’s righteousness, and seeking to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves to the righteousness of God.
		10:4For Christ is the fulfillment of the Law for righteousness to every one that believes in him .
Complement		10:5For Moses describes the righteousness which is of the Law, that “the man which does those things shall live by them.”
Complement		10:6But the righteousness which is of faith speaks on this manner, “Say not in your heart, ‘Who shall ascend into Heaven?’” (That is, to bring Christ down from above .) 10:7Or, “Who shall descend into the deep?” (That is, to bring up Christ again from the dead.)
Opposite		10:8But what does it say? “The Word is near you, even in your mouth, and in your heart”; that is to say , the Word of faith (which we preach), 10:9that if you shall confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus, and shall believe in your heart that God has raised him from the dead, you shall be saved: 10:10for with the heart, man believes into righteousness; and with the mouth, confession is made into salvation: 10:11for the Scripture says, “Whosoever believes on him shall not be ashamed.” 10:12For there is no difference between the Jew and the Gentile: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him: 10:13for it is written , “whosoever shall call upon the Name of the Lord shall be saved.”
Opposite		10:14How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? And how shall they hear without a preacher? 10:15And how shall they preach, unless they were sent? As it is written, “How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the Gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!”
	¶Opposite	Israel heard the Gospel that was preached everywhere, but rejected it (10:16 - 21)
Opposite		10:16But they have not all obeyed the Gospel: for Isaiah says, “Lord, who has believed our message?”
Opposite		10:17So then, faith comes by hearing; and hearing by the Word of God.
Complement		10:18But I say, “Have they not heard about the one true God ?” Yes truly, “Their sound went into all the Earth, and their words to the ends of the world.”
Complement		10:19But I say, “Did not Israel know?” First Moses says, “I will provoke you to jealousy by them that are not a nation ; and by a foolish nation will I anger you.”
Unique		10:20But Isaiah is very bold, and says, “I was found by them that sought me not; I was made manifest to them that asked not after me.”
		10:21But to Israel he says, “All day long, I have stretched forth my hands to a disobedient and argumentative people.”
	§Complement	Conclusion: Jehovah blessed the Gentiles with stewardship of the Gospel for now, but he will save Israel in the Millennium (11:1 - 36)
	¶Complement	The Gentiles have been temporarily blessed with stewardship of the Gospel because of the election of God (11:1 - 24)
Opposite		11:1I say then: Has God cast away his people? Certainly not! For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin. 11:2God has not cast away his people, which he foreknew. Do you not know what the Scripture says of Elijah? How he makes intercession to God against Israel, saying, 11:3“Lord, they have slain your prophets, and undermined your altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life.” 11:4But what is the answer of God to him? “I have reserved to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Baal .” 11:5Even so then, at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace. 11:6And if by grace, then is it no longer of works; otherwise grace is no longer grace. But if it is of works, then it is no longer grace; otherwise, work is no longer work.
Opposite		11:7What then? Israel has not obtained that which he seeks for; but the election has obtained it; and the rest were blinded until this day; 11:8according as it is written, “God has given them the spirit of slumber: eyes that they might not see, and ears that they might not hear, until this day.” 11:9And David says, “Let their table be made a snare, a trap, a stumblingblock, and a retribution to them; 11:10let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see; and bow down their back always.”
Complement		11:11I say then: Have they stumbled that they should fall permanently ? Certainly not! But rather , through their fall, salvation has come to the Gentiles, in order to provoke them to jealousy.
Complement		11:12Now if their fall is the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them is the riches of the Gentiles, how much more their fullness? 11:13For I speak to you Gentiles, seeing that I am the apostle of the Gentiles, I magnify my office, 11:14if by any means, I may provoke to emulation them which are my flesh, and might save some of them. 11:15For if the casting away of them is the reconciliation of the world, what shall the receiving of them be , but life from the dead? 11:16For if the firstfruit is holy, the lump is also holy ; and if the root is holy, so are the branches. 11:17And if some of the branches were broken off, and you, being a wild olive tree, were grafted in among them, and with them, you partake of the root and fatness of the olive tree: 11:18boast not against the branches. But if you boast, know that you do not sustain the root, but the root sustains you.
Unique		11:19You will say then, “The branches were broken off, so that I might be grafted in.” 11:20Well, because of their unbelief, they were broken off, and you stand by faith. Be not high-minded, but fear: 11:21for if God spared not the natural branches, beware lest he also does not spare you.
		11:22Behold, therefore, the goodness and severity of God: on them which fell, severity; but toward you, goodness, if you continue in his goodness; otherwise, you also shall be cut off. 11:23And they also, if they do not remain still in unbelief, shall be grafted in: for God is able to graft them in again. 11:24For if you were cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and were grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree: how much more shall these, which are the natural branches , be grafted into their own olive tree?
	¶Complement	Jehovah will save Israel in the Millennial Kingdom and restore them to his favor as before (11:25 - 36)
Opposite		11:25For I do not want you to be ignorant of this mystery, brethren (lest perhaps you are wise in your own conceits), that blindness in part has happened to Israel, until the fullness of the Gentiles comes in.
Opposite		11:26And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, “The Savior shall come out of Zion, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob: 11:27for this is my Covenant to them, when I shall take away their sins.”
Complement		11:28As concerning the Gospel, they are enemies for your sakes; but as touching the election, they are beloved for the fathers’ sakes: 11:29for the gifts and calling of God are without repentance by him .
Complement		11:30For as you, in times past, have not believed God, yet now have obtained mercy through their unbelief, 11:31even so now, these also have not believed, so that through your mercy, they also may obtain mercy: 11:32for God has confined them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all.
Unique		11:33O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are his Judgments, and his ways past finding out!
		11:34For who has known the mind of the Lord? Or who has been his counselor? 11:35Or who has first given to him, and it shall be repaid to him again? 11:36For of him, and through him, and to him, are all things; to whom be glory into the Ages. Amen.

The Way (Romans), Chapter 2.5: The sanctification of believers through the Assembly of Jesus Christ (12:1 - 16:27)
$Complement	Introduction: Be a Christian everyday, both inwardly and outwardly (12:1 - 21)
¶Opposite	Be not conformed to this world, but transformed by the renewing of your mind (12:1 - 5)
¶Opposite	Live the teachings of the Bible in your daily life (12:6 - 21)
$Complement	Body: Do not separate from or judge other believers over non-essential beliefs like food (13:1 - 15:29)
¶Opposite	Be in subjection to human laws and governmental authorities (13:1 - 7)
¶Opposite	Live for the future and not in the past (13:8 - 14)
¶Complement	Live and let live for Christ over issues of food and observance of a particular day of the week (14:1 - 21)
¶Complement	We that are strong should bear the infirmities of the weak believers (14:22 - 15:7)
¶Unique	Help missionaries to reach other parts of the world for Christ (15:8 - 29)
$Unique	Conclusion: Avoid heretics and give glory to God for the Gospel of Christ (15:30 - 16:27)
¶Complement	Avoid those who preach a message that is contrary to the Scriptures (15:30 - 16:20)
¶Complement	Give glory to God for the Gospel of Christ (16:21 - 27)

	$Complement	Introduction: Be a Christian everyday, both inwardly and outwardly (12:1 - 21)
	¶Opposite	Be not conformed to this world, but transformed by the renewing of your mind (12:1 - 5)
Unique	12:1Therefore, I exhort you, brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies as a living sacrifice: holy and acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service.
Complement	12:2And be not conformed to this age;
Complement	but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may discern what is that good, acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

Opposite	12:3For I say, through the grace given to me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly, according as God has dealt to every man the measure of faith.
Opposite	12:4For as we have many parts in one body, and all parts do not have the same function: 12:5so we, being many , are one body in Christ; and individually, we are parts one of another.
	¶Opposite	Live the teachings of the Bible in your daily life (12:6 - 21)
Opposite	12:6Having, then, gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us: whether it is prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith; 12:7or ministry, let us wait on our ministering; or he that teaches, on teaching; 12:8or he that exhorts, on exhortation; he that gives, let him do it with sincerity; he that rules, with diligence; he that shows mercy, with cheerfulness.
Opposite	12:9 Let love be without hypocrisy. Abhor what is evil; cling to what is good. 12:10 Be tenderly affectionate one to another with brotherly love; in honor, preferring one another. 12:11Not lagging in enthusiasm, but fervent in spirit, serving the Lord; 12:12rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continuing steadfastly in prayer; 12:13distributing to the necessity of saints; given to hospitality.

Complement	12:14Bless them which persecute you; bless, and curse not. 12:15Rejoice with them that rejoice, and weep with them that weep. 12:16 Be of the same mind one toward another. Do not be arrogant, but condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits.
Complement	12:17Repay no man evil for evil. Do things honestly in the sight of all men. 12:18If it is possible, as much as lies in you, live peacefully with all men.
Unique	12:19Beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give room to wrath: for it is written, “ Vengeance is mine; I will repay, says [Jehovah]. ” 12:20Therefore, if your enemy hungers, feed him; if he thirsts, give him drink: for in so doing, you shall heap coals of fire on his head.
	12:21Be not overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

	$Complement	Body: Do not separate from or judge other believers over non-essential beliefs like food (13:1 - 15:29)
	¶Opposite	Be in subjection to human laws and governmental authorities (13:1 - 7)
Unique	13:1Let every soul be subject to the higher authorities: for there is no authority but of God; the authorities that exist are appointed by God.
	13:2Therefore, whosoever resists the authority, resists the ordinance of God; and they that resist shall receive condemnation to themselves.
Complement	13:3For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Will you, then, not be afraid of the authority? Do what is good, and you shall have praise of the same: 13:4for he is the minister of God to you for good.
Complement	But if you do what is evil, be afraid: for he does not carry the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, an avenger to execute wrath upon him that does evil.

Opposite	13:5Therefore, it is necessary to be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience’ sake. 13:6For this reason also, you pay taxes, because they are God’s ministers, attending continually upon this very thing.
Opposite	13:7Therefore, give to all what is owed: tax to whom tax is due ; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honor to whom honor.
	¶Opposite	Live for the future and not in the past (13:8 - 14)
Opposite	13:8Do not owe anything to anyone;
Opposite	except to love one another: for he that selflessly loves another has fulfilled the Law: 13:9 for it is written: “You shall not commit adultery; you shall not murder; you shall not steal; you shall not bear false witness; you shall not covet” ; and if there is any other Commandment, it is summed up in this saying, namely, “ You shall love your neighbor as yourself. ” 13:10Love does no evil to his neighbor; therefore love is the fulfilling of the Law.

Complement	13:11And this: knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now our deliverance is nearer than when we believed in Christ . 13:12The night is far spent, the Day is near; therefore, let us cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armor of light.
Complement	13:13Let us walk honestly, as in the day; not in partying and drunkenness, not in fornication and licentiousness, not in strife and envying.
Unique	13:14But put on the Lord Jesus Christ; and do not make a plan to fulfill the lusts of the flesh.

	¶Complement	Live and let live for Christ over issues of food and observance of a particular day of the week (14:1 - 21)
Unique	14:1Receive him that is weak in the Faith, but not to judge his opinions: 14:2for one believes that he may eat all things; and another, who is weak, eats only vegetables. 14:3Let not him that eats all things despise him that does not eat; and let not him who does not eat judge him that eats all things : for God has received him.
	14:4Who are you that judges another man’s servant? To his own master, he stands or falls. And he will stand, for the Lord is able to make him stand.
Complement	14:5One man esteems one day above another; another esteems every day the same . Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind. 14:6He that observes the day, observes it to the Lord; and he that does not observe the day: to the Lord, he does not observe it . He that eats: eats to the Lord, for he gives God thanks; and he that does not eat: to the Lord, he does not eat, and gives God thanks. 14:7For none of us lives to himself, and no man dies to himself: 14:8for whether we live, we live to the Lord; and whether we die, we die to the Lord; therefore whether we live or die, we are the Lord’s. 14:9For this purpose , Christ died, and rose, and lived again, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living.
Complement	14:10But why do you judge your strong brother? Or why do you despise your weak brother? For we shall all stand before the Judgment Seat of Christ: 14:11for it is written, “ As I live, says [Jehovah], every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God. ” 14:12So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God.

Opposite	14:13Therefore, let us not judge one another anymore; but judge this rather: not to put a stumblingblock or an occasion to fall in his brother’s way. 14:14I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, that there is nothing unclean of itself; but to him that esteems anything to be unclean, to him it is unclean. 14:15But if your brother is grieved with your food, you are no longer walking according to selfless love. Do not destroy him with your food, for whom Christ died. 14:16Therefore, do not allow your good to be spoken of as evil: 14:17for the Kingdom of God is not food and drink, but righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit: 14:18for he that serves Christ in these things is acceptable to God, and approved of men. 14:19Therefore, let us follow after the things which make for peace, and things by which one may strengthen another in the Lord .
Opposite	14:20Do not destroy the work of God over food; all things indeed are pure; but it is evil for that man who eats with offense. 14:21 It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor anything whereby your brother stumbles, or is offended, or is made weak.

	¶Complement	We that are strong should bear the infirmities of the weak believers (14:22 - 15:7)
Unique	14:22Do you have faith? Have it to yourself before God. Happy is he that does not condemn himself in that thing which he allows.
	14:23And he that doubts is condemned if he eats, because he does not eat of faith: for whatsoever is not of faith is sin.
Complement	15:1So then, we that are strong should bear the infirmities of the weak believers , and not to please ourselves. 15:2Let every one of us please his neighbor for his good to edification: 15:3for even Christ did not please himself; but, as it is written, “ The reproaches of them that reproached you fell on me. ”
Complement	15:4For whatsoever was written before was written for our learning, so that, through patience and comfort of the Scriptures, we might have assurance.

Opposite	15:5Now, the God of patience and consolation grant you to be like-minded one toward another according to Christ Jesus, 15:6that with one mind and one mouth, you may glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.
Opposite	15:7Therefore, receive one another, as Christ also received us to the glory of God.

	¶Unique	Help missionaries to reach other parts of the world for Christ (15:8 - 29)
Opposite	15:8Now, I say that Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made to the fathers, 15:9and also that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy: as it is written, “ For this reason, I will confess to you among the Gentiles, and sing to your Name. ” 15:10And again he says, “ Rejoice, you Gentiles, with his people. ” 15:11And again, “ Praise [Jehovah], all you Gentiles ”; and “ Praise him, all you people. ” 15:12And again, Isaiah says, “ There shall be a root of Jesse, and he that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles: in him shall the Gentiles trust. ”
Opposite	15:13Now, the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that you may abound in assurance, through the power of the Holy Spirit. 15:14And I myself also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that you also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, and able also to admonish one another.

Complement	15:15Nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more boldly to you in part, as reminding you, because of the grace that is given to me by God, 15:16that I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the Gospel of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. 15:17I have, therefore, something that I may glory through Jesus Christ in those things which pertain to God: 15:18for I will not dare to speak of any of those things which Christ has not done through me, to make the Gentiles obedient, by word and deed, 15:19through mighty signs and wonders, and by the power of the Spirit of God, so that from Jerusalem, and round about to Illyricum, I have fully preached the Gospel of Christ.
Complement	15:20Moreover, in this manner have I striven to preach the Gospel: not where Christ was named, lest I should build upon another man’s foundation; 15:21but as it is written, “ To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see; and they that have not heard shall understand. ” 15:22For which cause also I have been much hindered from coming to you. 15:23But now having no more place in these parts, and having a great desire these many years to come to you, 15:24whenever I take my journey into Spain, I will come to you: for I trust to see you in my journey, and to be brought on my way there by you, if I may first enjoy your company .

Unique	15:25But now, I go to Jerusalem to minister to the saints: 15:26for it has pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor saints which are at Jerusalem. 15:27It has pleased them truly, and they are their debtors: for if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, their duty is also to minister to them in carnal things.
	15:28When, therefore, I have performed this, and have sealed to them this fruit, I will come by you into Spain. 15:29And I am sure that, when I come to you, I shall come in the fullness of the blessing of the Gospel of Christ.

	$Unique	Conclusion: Avoid heretics and give glory to God for the Gospel of Christ (15:30 - 16:27)
	¶Complement	Avoid those who preach a message that is contrary to the Scriptures (15:30 - 16:20)
Opposite	15:30Now I exhort you, brethren, for the Lord Jesus Christ’s sake, and for the love of the Spirit, that you strive together with me in your prayers to God for me, 15:31that I may be delivered from them that do not believe in Judea; and that my service which I have for Jerusalem may be accepted of the saints, 15:32so that I may come to you with joy by the will of God, and may with you be refreshed. 15:33Now the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

Opposite	16:1I recommend to you Phoebe our sister, which is a servant of the Assembly at Cenchrea, 16:2that you receive her in the Lord, as becomes saints, and that you assist her in whatsoever business she has need of you: for she has been a helper of many, and of myself also. 16:3Greet Priscilla and Aquila my helpers in Christ Jesus, 16:4who have laid down their own necks for my life; to whom not only I give thanks, but also all the Assemblies of the Gentiles. 16:5Likewise, greet the Assembly in their house. Greet my well-beloved Epaenetus, who is the firstfruits of Achaia to Christ. 16:6Greet Mary, who worked hard for us. 16:7Greet Andronicus and Junia, my relatives and my fellow prisoners, who are of note among the apostles, who also were in Christ before me. 16:8Greet Amplias, my beloved in the Lord. 16:9Greet Urbane, our helper in Christ, and Stachys, my beloved. 16:10Greet Apelles approved in Christ. Greet them which are of Aristobulus’ household. 16:11Greet Herodion my relative. Greet them that are of the household of Narcissus, which are in the Lord. 16:12Greet Tryphena and Tryphosa, who labor in the Lord. Greet the beloved Persis, which labored much in the Lord. 16:13Greet Rufus chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine. 16:14Greet Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermas, Patrobas, Hermes, and the brethren which are with them. 16:15Greet Philologus, and Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints which are with them. 16:16Greet one another with a holy kiss. The Assemblies of Christ greet you.

Complement	16:17Now I exhort you, brethren: mark them which cause divisions and offenses contrary to the doctrine which you have now learned; and avoid them: 16:18for they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by smooth words and flattery, they deceive the hearts of the naive.
Complement	16:19For your obedience has come abroad to all men . Therefore, I am glad on your behalf; but yet I want you to be wise to what is good, and blameless concerning evil.
Unique	16:20And the God of peace shall bruise Satan under your feet shortly. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

	¶Complement	Give glory to God for the Gospel of Christ (16:21 - 27)
Opposite	16:21Timotheus my workfellow, and Lucius, Jason, and Sosipater, my kinsmen, greet you. 16:22I Tertius, who wrote this letter, greet you in the Lord. 16:23Gaius, my host, and of the whole Assembly, greets you. Erastus the administrator of the city greets you, and Quartus a brother.
Opposite	16:24The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

Complement	16:25Now to him that is able to establish you according to my Gospel, and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery which was kept secret since the world began;
Complement	16:26but now is made manifest, even by the Scriptures of the Prophets;
Unique	and according to the command of the Everlasting God, made known to all nations for the obedience of faith: 16:27to the only wise God be glory through Jesus Christ into the Ages of the Ages. Amen.

Opposite	12:11 ¹¹ “Does not the ear test words? And the mouth taste his food? ^{12:12} With the Ancient God is wisdom; and in length of days is understanding. ^{12:13} With him is wisdom and strength; he has counsel and understanding. ^{12:14} Behold, he breaks down, and it cannot be built again; he shuts up a man, and there can be no opening. ^{12:15} Behold, he withholds the water, and they dry up; also he sends them out, and they overturn the earth. ^{12:16} With him is strength and wisdom; the deceived and the deceiver are his. ^{12:17} He leads counselors away plundered, and makes the judges fools. ^{12:18} He loosens the bond of kings, and girds their waist with a belt. ^{12:19} He leads princes away plundered, and overthrows the mighty. ^{12:20} He removes away the speech of the trustworthy, and takes away the understanding of the aged. ^{12:21} He pours contempt upon princes, and weakens the strength of the mighty. ^{12:22} He discovers deep things out of darkness, and brings out to light the shadow of death. ^{12:23} He increases the nations, and destroys them; he enlarges the nations, and diminishes them again . ^{12:24} He takes away the heart of the chief of the people of the Earth, and causes them to wander in a wilderness where there is no way. ^{12:25} They grope in the dark without light; and he makes them to stagger like a drunken man .”

And will you pursue the dry stubble? ^{13:26} For you write bitter things against me, and make me to possess the iniquities of my youth. ^{13:27} You also put my feet in the stocks, and look narrowly to all my paths; you set a print upon the heels of my feet. ^{13:28} And he, as a rotten thing, consumes, as a garment that is moth eaten.”
Opposite	14:1 ¹⁶ “Man that is born of a woman is of few days, and full of trouble. ^{14:2} He comes forth like a flower, and is cut down; he also flees as a shadow, and does not continue. ^{14:3} And do you open your eyes upon such a one, and bring me into judgment with you? ^{14:4} Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? Opposite	15:17 ¹⁷ “I will show you, hear me; and that which I have seen I will declare, ^{15:18} which wise men have told from their fathers, and have not hidden it ; ^{15:19} to whom alone the Earth was given, and no stranger passed among them. ^{15:20} The wicked man travails with pain all his days, and the number of years is hidden to the oppressor. ^{15:21} A dreadful sound is in his ears; in prosperity the destroyer shall come upon him. ^{15:22} He does not believe that he shall return out of darkness, and he is waited for of the sword. ^{15:23} He wanders abroad for bread, saying , ‘Where is it ?’ He knows that the day of darkness is ready at his hand. ^{15:24} Trouble and anguish shall make him afraid; they shall prevail against him, as a king ready to the battle: ^{15:25} for he stretches out his hand against God, and strengthens himself against the Almighty. ^{15:26} He runs upon him, even on his neck, upon the thick bosses of his shields, ^{15:27} because he covers his face with his fatness, and makes rolls of fat on his waist. ^{15:28} And he dwells in desolate cities, and in houses which no man inhabits, which are ready to become heaps. ^{15:29} He shall not be rich; neither shall his substance continue; neither shall he prolong its perfection upon the earth. ^{15:30} He shall not depart out of darkness; the flame shall dry up his branches; and by the breath of his mouth he shall go away. ^{15:31} Let him that is deceived not trust in vanity: for vanity shall be his reward. ^{15:32} It shall be accomplished before his time, and his branch shall not be green. ^{15:33} He shall shake off his unripe grape as the vine, and shall cast off his flower as the olive. ^{15:34} For the congregation of hypocrites shall be desolate, and fire shall consume the tents of bribery. ^{15:35} They conceive mischief, and give birth to vanity, and their belly prepares deceit.”

And though I forbear, how am I soothed? ^{16:7} But now he has made me weary; you have made desolate all my company. ^{16:8} And you have filled me with wrinkles, which is a witness against me ; and my leanness rising up in me bears witness to my face.
Complement	16:9 ⁹ “He tears me in his wrath, who hates me; he gnashes upon me with his teeth. My enemy sharpens his eyes upon me. ^{16:10} They have gaped upon me with their mouth; they have smitten me upon the cheek reproachfully; they have gathered themselves together against me. ^{16:11} God has delivered me to the ungodly, and turned me over to the hands of the wicked. ^{16:12} I was at ease, but he has broken me in pieces; also he has taken me by my neck, and shaken me to pieces, and set me up for his target. ^{16:13} His archers surround me; he cuts my reins in pieces, and does not spare; he pours out my gall upon the ground. ^{16:14} He breaks me with reproach upon breach; he runs upon me like a giant.
Complement	16:15 ¹⁵ “I have sewn sackcloth upon my skin, and defiled my horn in the dust. ^{16:16} My face is foul with weeping, and on my eyelids are the shadow of death, ^{16:17} but not for any injustice in my hands; also my prayer is pure. ^{16:18} O Earth, cover not my blood, and let my cry have no place. ^{16:19} Also now, behold, my witness is in Heaven, and my record is on high. ^{16:20} My friends scorn me, but my eye pours out tears to God.”
Opposite	16:21 ²¹ “Oh that one might plead for a man with God, as a man pleads for his friend! ^{16:22} When a few years have come, then I shall go the way where I shall not return. ^{17:1} My breath is corrupt; my days are extinguished; the graves are ready for me. ^{17:2} Are there not mockers with me? Opposite	17:11 ¹¹ “My days are past, my purposes are broken off, even the thoughts of my heart. ^{17:12} They change the night into day; the light is short because of darkness. ^{17:13} If I wait, the grave is to my house, I have made my bed in the darkness. ^{17:14} I have said to corruption, ‘You are my father; and to the worm, ‘You are my mother, and my sister.’ ^{17:15} And where is my hope now? Complement	18:5 ⁵ “Moreover, the light of the wicked shall be put out, and the spark of his fire shall not shine. ^{18:6} The light shall be dark in his tabernacle, and his candle shall be put out with him. ^{18:7} The steps of his strength shall be narrowed; and his own counsel shall cast him down: ^{18:8} for he is cast into a net by his own feet; and he walks upon a snare. ^{18:9} The net shall take him by the heel; and the robber shall prevail against him. ^{18:10} The snare is laid for him in the ground, and a trap for him in the way.
Complement	18:11 ¹¹ “Terrors shall make him afraid on every side, and shall drive him to his feet. ^{18:12} His strength shall be starved; and destruction shall be ready at his side. ^{18:13} It shall devour the strength of his skin; even the firstborn of death shall devour his strength. ^{18:14} His confidence shall be rooted out of his tabernacle, and it shall bring him to the king of terrors. ^{18:15} It shall dwell in his tabernacle, because it is none of his. Brimstone shall be scattered upon his habitation. ^{18:16} His roots shall be dried up from beneath; and above shall his branch be cut off. ^{18:17} His remembrance shall perish from the Earth; and he shall have no name in the street. ^{18:18} He shall be driven from light into darkness, and chased out of the world. ^{18:19} He shall have neither son nor nephew among his people, nor any remaining in his dwellings. ^{18:20} They that come after him shall be astonished at his day, as they that went before were afraid.
Unique	18:21 ²¹ “Surely such are the dwellings of the wicked; and this is the place of him that does not know God.”

Opposite	19:5 ⁵ “If indeed you will magnify yourselves against me, and plead against me my reproach, ^{19:6} know now that God has overthrown me, and has surrounded me with his net. ^{19:7} Behold, I cry out of wrong, but I am not heard; I cry aloud, but there is no justice. ^{19:8} He has fenced up my way, that I cannot pass, and he has set darkness in my paths. ^{19:9} He has stripped me of my glory, and taken the crown from my head. ^{19:10} He has destroyed me on every side, and I am gone; and my hope has been removed like a tree. ^{19:11} He has also kindled his wrath against me, and he counts me to him as one of his enemies. ^{19:12} His troops come together, and raise up their way against me, and camp around my tabernacle. ^{19:13} He has put my brethren far from me, and my acquaintance are truly estranged from me. ^{19:14} My kinfolk have failed, and my familiar friends have forgotten me. ^{19:15} They that dwell in my house, and even my maidservants, count me for a stranger; I am an alien in their sight. ^{19:16} I called my servant, and he gave me no answer; I begged him with my mouth. ^{19:17} My breath is repulsive even to my wife, although I pleaded with her for the children of my own body's sake . ^{19:18} Moreover, even young children despised me; I arose, and they spoke against me. ^{19:19} All my close friends abhorred me; and they whom I loved have turned against me. ^{19:20} My bone clings to my skin and to my flesh; and I have escaped with the skin of my teeth.”
Complement	19:21 ²¹ “Have pity upon me, have pity upon me, O you my friends: for the hand of God has touched me. ^{19:22} Why do you persecute me as God, and are not satisfied with my flesh?
Complement	19:23 ²³ “O that my words were now written! Unique	19:28 ²⁸ “But you should say, ‘Why do we persecute him, seeing the root of the matter is found in me?’ ^{19:29} Be afraid of the sword: for wrath brings the punishments of the sword, that you may know there is a Judgment.”

Opposite	20:1 ¹ Then Zophar the Naamathite answered, and said, ^{20:2} “Therefore my thoughts cause me to answer, and for this I make haste. ^{20:3} I have heard the check of my reproach, and the spirit of my understanding causes me to answer.
Opposite	20:4 ⁴ “Do you not know this of old, since man was placed upon Earth, ^{20:5} that the triumphing of the wicked is short, and the joy of the hypocrite is only for a moment? ^{20:6} Though his excellence mounts up to the heavens, and his head reaches to the clouds, ^{20:7} yet he shall perish forever like his own dung. They which have seen him shall say, ‘Where is he?’ ^{20:8} He shall fly away as a dream, and shall not be found; moreover, he shall be chased away as a vision of the night. ^{20:9} The eye also which saw him shall see him no more; neither shall his place behold him anymore. ^{20:10} His children shall seek to please the poor, and his hands shall restore their goods.”
Complement	20:11 ¹¹ “His bones are full of the sin of his youth, which shall lie down with him in the dust. ^{20:12} Though wickedness is sweet in his mouth; though he hides it under his tongue; ^{20:13} though he spares it, and does not forsake it, but keeps it still within his mouth, ^{20:14} yet his food in his belly turns sour; it is the gall of asps within him. ^{20:15} He has swallowed down riches, and he shall vomit them up again; God shall cast them out of his belly. ^{20:16} He shall suck the poison of asps; the viper's tongue shall slay him. ^{20:17} He shall not see the rivers, the floods, the brooks of honey and butter. ^{20:18} That which he labored for shall he restore, and shall not swallow it down; according to his substance shall be the restitution, and he shall not rejoice in it.
Complement	20:19 ¹⁹ “Because he has oppressed and forsaken the poor; and because he has violently taken away a house which he did not build, ^{20:20} surely he shall not know peace in his heart; he shall not save any of that which he desired. ^{20:21} None of his food shall be left; therefore no man shall look for his goods. ^{20:22} In the fullness of his sufficiency, he shall be in distress; every hand of the wicked shall come upon him. ^{20:23} When he is about to fill his belly, God shall cast the fury of his wrath upon him, and shall rain it upon him while he eats. ^{20:24} He shall flee from the iron weapon; and the bow of steel shall strike him through. ^{20:25} It is drawn, and comes out of the body; moreover, the glittering sword comes out of his gall; terrors are upon him. ^{20:26} All darkness shall be hidden in his secret places. A fire not blown shall consume him; it shall go ill with him that is left in his tabernacle. ^{20:27} The heaven shall reveal his iniquity; and the earth shall rise up against him. ^{20:28} The increase of his house shall depart, and his property shall flow away in the day of his wrath.

Complement	22:12	“Is not God in the height of Heaven? And behold the height of the stars, how high they are! ^{22:13} And you say, ‘How does God know? Can he judge through the dark cloud? ^{22:14} Thick clouds are a covering to him, that he does not see; and he walks in the circuit of heaven.’
Complement	22:15	“Have you marked the old way which wicked men have trodden? ^{22:16} Who were cut down out of time, whose foundation was overflown with a great Flood; ^{22:17} who said to God, ‘Depart from us;’ and ‘What can the Almighty do for them?’ ^{22:18} Yet he filled their houses with good things , but the counsel of the wicked is far from me. ^{22:19} The righteous see it, and are glad; and the innocent laugh them to scorn, saying , ^{22:20} ‘Whereas our substance is not cut down, but the remnant of them the fire consumes.’
Unique	22:21	“Acquaint yourself with him now, and be at peace; thereby good shall come to you. ^{22:22} Please, receive the Law from his mouth, and lay up his words in your heart. ^{22:23} If you return to the Almighty, you shall be built up, and you shall put iniquity far away from your tabernacles. ^{22:24} Then shall you lay up gold as dust, and the gold of Ophir as the stones of the brooks. ^{22:25} Moreover, the Almighty shall be your gold, and you shall have plenty of silver: ^{22:26} for then shall you have your delight in the Almighty, and shall lift up your face to God. ^{22:27} You shall make your prayer to him; and he shall hear you; and you shall pay your vows. ^{22:28} You shall also decree a thing, and it shall be established to you; and the light shall shine upon your ways. ^{22:29} When men are cast down, then you shall say, ‘ There is lifting up;’ and he shall save the humble person. ^{22:30} He shall deliver the island of the innocent; and it is delivered by the pureness of your hands.”
	¶Complement	Job: When he has tested me, I shall come forth as gold (23:1 - 24:25)
Unique	23:1	Then Job answered and said, ^{23:2} “Even today my complaint is bitter; my stroke is heavier than my groaning. ^{23:3} Oh that I knew where I might find him! That I might come even to his seat! ^{23:4} I would order my cause before him, and fill my mouth with arguments. ^{23:5} I want to know the words which he would answer me; and understand what he would say to me. ^{23:6} Will he contend against me with his great power? No, but he would put strength in me. ^{23:7} There the righteous might dispute with him; and so would I be delivered forever from my Judge.
Complement	23:8	“Behold, I go forward, but he is not there ; and backward, but I cannot perceive him; ^{23:9} on the left hand, where he works, but I cannot behold him ; he hides himself on the right hand, so that I cannot see him . ^{23:10} But he knows the way that I take. When he has tested me, I shall come forth as gold. ^{23:11} My foot has held his steps. His Way have I kept, and not declined; ^{23:12} neither have I gone back from the Commandment of his lips; I have esteemed the words of his mouth more than my necessary food .
Complement	23:13	“But he is unique, and who can make him change? And what his soul desires, even that is what he does: ^{23:14} for he performs the thing that is appointed for me; and many such things are with him. ^{23:15} Therefore I am troubled at his presence; when I consider, I am afraid of him: ^{23:16} for God makes my heart soft, and the Almighty troubles me, ^{23:17} because I was not cut off before the darkness; neither has he hidden deep darkness from my face.”
Opposite	24:1	“Why, seeing times are not hidden from the Almighty, do they that know him not see his days? ^{24:2} They move the landmarks; they violently take away flocks, and feed of them . ^{24:3} They drive away the donkey of the fatherless; they take the widow’s ox for a pledge. ^{24:4} They turn the needy out of the way; the poor of the earth hide themselves together. ^{24:5} Behold, as wild donkeys in the desert, they go forth to their work, rising eagerly for a prey. The wilderness yields food for them and for their children. ^{24:6} They reap every one his grain in the field; and they gather the vintage of the wicked. ^{24:7} They cause the naked to lodge without clothing, so that they have no covering in the cold; ^{24:8} they are wet with the showers of the mountains, and embrace the rock for want of a shelter. ^{24:9} They pluck the fatherless from the breast, and take a pledge of the poor. ^{24:10} They cause him to go naked without clothing, and they take away the sheaf from the hungry; ^{24:11} who make oil within their walls, and tread their winepresses, and suffer thirst. ^{24:12} Men groan from out of the city, and the soul of the wounded cries out, yet God does not lay folly to them . ^{24:13} They are of those that rebel against the Light; they do not know its ways, nor remain in its paths. ^{24:14} The murderer rising with the light kills the poor and needy, and in the night is as a thief. ^{24:15} The eye of the adulterer also waits for the twilight, saying, ‘No eye shall see me’, and disguises his face. ^{24:16} In the dark they dig through houses, which they had marked for themselves in the daytime; they do not know the light: ^{24:17} for the morning is to them even as the shadow of death; if one knows them , they are in the terrors of the shadow of death. ^{24:18} He is as swift as the water; their portion is cursed in the earth; he does not behold the way of the vineyards, ^{24:19} Drought and heat consume the snow water, so does the grave those that have sinned. ^{24:20} The womb shall forget him, but the worm shall sweetly feed on him; he shall be remembered no more; and wickedness shall be broken as a tree. ^{24:21} He oppresses the barren that does not bear; and does not do good to the widow. ^{24:22} He also draws the mighty with his power; he rises up, and no man is sure of life. ^{24:23} Though it is given him to be in safety, whereon he rests, yet his eyes are upon their ways. ^{24:24} They are exalted for a little while, but are gone and brought low. They are taken out of the way as all others , and cut off as the tops of the ears of grain.
Opposite	24:25	“And if it is not so now, who will make me a liar, and make my speech worth nothing?”
	¶Complement	Bildad: God is all-powerful; how can man be pure in his sight? (25:1 - 6)

Opposite	25:6	“How much less man, that is a worm? And the son of man, who is a worm?”
	¶Opposite	Job: My righteousness I hold fast; and I will not let it go! (26:1 - 27:23)
Unique	26:1	But Job answered and said, ^{26:2} “How have you helped him that is without power? How do you save the arm that has no strength? ^{26:3} How have you counseled him that has no wisdom? And how have you plentifully declared the thing as it is? ^{26:4} To whom have you uttered words? And whose spirit came from you? ^{26:5} Dead things are covered from under the water, and its inhabitants. ^{26:6} Hell is naked before him; and destruction has no covering. ^{26:7} He stretches out the north over the empty place, and hangs the Earth upon nothing. ^{26:8} He binds up the water in his thick clouds; and the cloud is not torn under them. ^{26:9} He holds back the face of his throne, and spreads his cloud upon it. ^{26:10} He has surrounded the water with boundaries, until the day and night come to an end. ^{26:11} The pillars of heaven tremble and are astonished at his reproof. ^{26:12} He divides the sea with his power, and by his understanding he smites through the proud. ^{26:13} By his Spirit, he has adorned the heavens; his hand has formed the crooked serpent.
	26:14	“Lo, these are parts of his ways, but how little a portion is heard of him? But the thunder of his power who can understand?”
Complement	27:1	Moreover Job continued his parable, and said, ^{27:2} “As God lives, who has taken away my justice; and the Almighty, who has vexed my soul, ^{27:3} all the while my breath is in me, and the Spirit of God is in my nostrils, ^{27:4} my lips shall not speak wickedness, nor my tongue utter deceit. ^{27:5} God forbid that I should justify you; until I die, I will not remove my integrity from me. ^{27:6} My righteousness I hold fast, and will not let it go; my heart shall not reproach me so long as I live.
Complement	27:7	“Let my enemy be as the wicked, and he that rises up against me as the unrighteous: ^{27:8} for what is the hope of the hypocrite, though he has gained, when God takes away his soul? ^{27:9} Will God hear his cry when trouble comes upon him? ^{27:10} Will he delight himself in the Almighty? Will he always call upon God?”
Opposite	27:11	“I will teach you by the hand of God; that which is with the Almighty will I not conceal. ^{27:12} Behold, all you yourselves have seen it. Why then are you thus altogether vain?
Opposite	27:13	“This is the portion of a wicked man with God, and the heritage of oppressors, which they shall receive of the Almighty: ^{27:14} if his children are multiplied, it is for the sword; and his offspring shall not be satisfied with bread. ^{27:15} Those that remain of him shall be buried in death; and his widows shall not weep. ^{27:16} Though he heaps up silver as the dust, and prepares clothing as the clay, ^{27:17} he may prepare it , but the just shall put it on, and the innocent shall divide the silver. ^{27:18} He builds his house as a moth, and as a booth that the keeper makes. ^{27:19} The rich man shall lie down, but he shall not be gathered; he opens his eyes, and he is not. ^{27:20} Terrors take hold on him as water; a tempest steals him away in the night. ^{27:21} The east wind carries him away, and he departs; and as a storm it hurls him out of his place: ^{27:22} for God shall cast fury upon him, and not spare; he would gladly flee out of his hand. ^{27:23} Men shall clap their hands at him, and shall whistle him out of his place.”
	¶Opposite	Job: The fear of Jehovah is wisdom; and to depart from evil is understanding (28:1 - 28)
Opposite	28:1	“Surely there is a vein for the silver, and a place for gold where they refine it. ^{28:2} Iron is taken out of the earth, and copper is smelted from the ore. ^{28:3} He sets an end to darkness, and searches out all perfection: the stones of darkness, and the shadow of death. ^{28:4} The flood breaks out from the inhabitant, even the waters forgotten of the foot; they have dried up; they have gone away from men. ^{28:5} As for the earth, out of it comes bread; and under it is turned up as it were fire. ^{28:6} Its stones are the place of sapphires; and it has dust of gold. ^{28:7} “ There is a path which no bird knows, and which the vulture’s eye has not seen. ^{28:8} The lion’s whelps have not trodden it, nor the fierce lion passed by it. ^{28:9} He puts forth his hand upon the rock; he overturns the mountains by the roots. ^{28:10} He cuts out rivers among the rocks, and his eye sees every precious thing. ^{28:11} He binds the floods from overflowing, and the thing that is hidden he brings forth to light.”
Complement	28:12	“But where shall wisdom be found? And where is the place of understanding? ^{28:13} Man does not know its price; neither is it found in the land of the living. ^{28:14} The depth says, ‘It is not in me;’ and the sea says, ‘ It is not with me.’ ^{28:15} It cannot be acquired for gold; neither shall silver be weighed for its price. ^{28:16} It cannot be valued with the gold of Ophir, with the precious onyx, or the sapphire. ^{28:17} The gold and the crystal cannot equal it; and its exchange shall not be for jewels of fine gold. ^{28:18} No mention shall be made of coral, or of pearls; for the price of wisdom is above rubies. ^{28:19} The topaz of Ethiopia shall not equal it; neither shall it be valued with pure gold.
Complement	28:20	“Then where does wisdom come from? And where is the place of understanding, ^{28:21} seeing it is hidden from the eyes of all living, and kept close from the birds of the air? ^{28:22} Destruction and death say, ‘We have heard its fame with our ears.’
Unique	28:23	“God understands its way, and he knows its place; ^{28:24} for he looks to the ends of the Earth, and sees under the whole heaven, ^{28:25} to make the weight for the winds; and he weighs the water by measure. ^{28:26} When he made a decree for the rain, and a way for the lightning of the thunder, ^{28:27} then he saw it, and declared it; he prepared it; moreover, and searched it out.
	28:28	And to man he said, ‘Behold, the fear of Jehovah, that is wisdom; and to depart from evil is understanding.”

	¶Complement	Job: Now that my prosperity is gone, even the children of fools mock me (29:1 - 30:31)
Opposite	29:1	Moreover Job continued his parable, and said, ^{29:2} “Oh that I was as in months past, as in the days when God preserved me, ^{29:3} when his candle shone upon my head, and when by his light I walked through darkness; ^{29:4} as I was in the days of my youth, when the secret of God was upon my tabernacle, ^{29:5} when the Almighty was still with me; when my children were around me; ^{29:6} when I washed my steps with butter, and the rock poured me out rivers of oil; ^{29:7} when I went out to the gate through the city; when I prepared my seat in the street! ^{29:8} The young men saw me, and hid themselves; and the elderly arose, and stood up. ^{29:9} The princes refrained from talking, and laid their hand on their mouth. ^{29:10} The nobles held their peace, and their tongue adhered to the roof of their mouth. ^{29:11} When the ear heard me , then it blessed me; and when the eye saw me , it gave witness to me. ^{29:12} because I delivered the poor that cried, and the fatherless, and him that had none to help him. ^{29:13} The blessing of him that was ready to perish came upon me; and I caused the widow’s heart to sing for joy. ^{29:14} I put on righteousness, and it clothed me; my judgment was as a robe and a diadem. ^{29:15} I was as eyes to the blind, and as feet was I to the lame. ^{29:16} I was a father to the poor; and the cause which I did not know I searched out. ^{29:17} And I broke the jaws of the wicked, and plucked the prey out of his teeth.
Opposite	29:18	“Then I said, ‘I shall die in my nest, and I shall multiply my days as the sand.’ ^{29:19} My root was spread out by the waters, and the dew lay all night upon my branch. ^{29:20} My glory was fresh in me, and my bow was renewed in my hand. ^{29:21} Men listened to me, and waited, and kept silence at my counsel. ^{29:22} After my words they did not speak again; and my speech dropped upon them. ^{29:23} And they waited for me as for the rain, and they opened their mouth wide as for the latter rain. ^{29:24} If I laughed at them, they did not believe it ; and the light of my countenance they did not cast down. ^{29:25} I chose out their way, and sat chief, and dwelt as a king in the army, as one that comforts the mourners.”
Complement	30:1	“But now, they that are younger than I have me in derision, whose fathers I would have disdained to have set with the dogs of my flock. ^{30:2} Moreover, whereto might the strength of their hands benefit me, in whom old age was perished? ^{30:3} For want and famine they were solitary, fleeing into the wilderness in former time desolate and waste; ^{30:4} who cut up shallows by the bushes, and juniper roots for their food. ^{30:5} They were driven forth from among men (they shouted after them as after a thief) ^{30:6} to dwell in the cliffs of the valleys, in caves of the Earth, and in the rocks. ^{30:7} Among the bushes they brayed like a donkey; they were gathered together under the nettles. ^{30:8} They were children of fools; moreover, children of base men; they were viler than the earth itself.
Complement	30:9	“And now, I am their song; moreover, I am their joke. ^{30:10} They abhor me; they flee far from me, and do not spare to spit in my face. ^{30:11} Because he has loosened my cord, and afflicted me, they also have let loose the bridle before me. ^{30:12} Upon my right hand the youth arise; they push away my feet, and they raise up against me the ways of their destruction. ^{30:13} They mar my path; they set forward my calamity; they have no helper. ^{30:14} They came upon me as a wide breaking in of waters; in the desolation they rolled themselves upon me. ^{30:15} Terrors have turned upon me; they pursue my soul as the wind; and my welfare passes away as a cloud.
Unique	30:16	“And now my soul is poured out upon me; the days of affliction have taken hold upon me. ^{30:17} My bones are pierced in me in the night season; and my sinews take no rest. ^{30:18} By the great force of my disease is my garment changed; it binds me about as the collar of my coat. ^{30:19} He has cast me into the mud, and I have become like dust and ashes. ^{30:20} I cry to you, and you do not hear me; I stand up, and you do not regard me. ^{30:21} You have become cruel to me; with your strong hand you oppose yourself against me. ^{30:22} You lift me up to the wind; you cause me to ride upon it , and dissolve my substance: ^{30:23} for I know that you will bring me to death, and to the house appointed for all living. ^{30:24} Nevertheless he will not stretch out his hand to the grave, though they cry in his destruction.
	30:25	Did I not weep for him that was in trouble? Was not my soul grieved for the poor? ^{30:26} When I looked for good, then evil came to me; and when I waited for light, darkness came. ^{30:27} My insides boiled, and did not rest; the days of affliction went before me. ^{30:28} I went mourning without the sun. I stood up, and I cried in the congregation. ^{30:29} I am a brother to dragons, and a companion to owls. ^{30:30} My skin is black upon me, and my bones are burned with fever. ^{30:31} My harp also has turned to mourning, and my pipe into the voice of them that weep.”
	¶Complement	Job: If I have sinned against God, I am not aware of it (31:1 - 40)
Opposite	31:1	“I made a covenant with my eyes. Why then should I think upon a virgin girl? ^{31:2} For what portion of God is there from above? And what inheritance of the Almighty from on high? ^{31:3} Is it not destruction to the wicked, and a strange punishment to the workers of iniquity? ^{31:4} Does he not see my ways, and count all my steps? ^{31:5} If I have walked with vanity, or if my foot has hurried to deceit, ^{31:6} let me be weighed in an even balance, that God may know my integrity. ^{31:7} If my step has turned out of the Way, and my heart walked after my eyes, and if any blot has adhered to my hands, ^{31:8} then let me sow, and let another eat; moreover, let my offspring be rooted out. ^{31:9} If my heart has been deceived by a woman, or if I have laid wait for my neighbor’s door, ^{31:10} then let my wife given to another, and let others bow down upon her: ^{31:11} for this is a heinous crime; moreover, it is an iniquity to be punished by the judges: ^{31:12} for it is a fire that consumes to destruction, and would root out all my increase.
Opposite	31:13	“If I despised the cause of my manservant or of my maidservant, when they contended with me, ^{31:14} what then shall I do when God rises up? And when he visits, what shall I answer him? ^{31:15} Did not he that made me in the womb make him also? And did not one fashion us in the womb? ^{31:16} If I have withheld the poor from their desire, or have caused the eyes of the widow to fail, ^{31:17} or have eaten my morsel myself alone, and the fatherless has not eaten of it ^{31:18} (for from my youth he was brought up with me, as with a father, and I have guided her from my mother’s womb); ^{31:19} if I have seen any perish for want of clothing, or any poor without covering, ^{31:20} if his heart has not blessed me, and if he were not warned with the fleece of my sheep; ^{31:21} if I have lifted up my hand against the fatherless, when I saw my help in the gate, ^{31:22} then let my arm fall from my shoulder blade, and my arm be broken from the bone. ^{31:23} for destruction from God was a terror to me, and by reason of his highness I could not endure.”
Complement	31:24	“If I have made gold my hope, or have said to the fine gold, ‘ You are my confidence’; ^{31:25} if I rejoiced because my wealth was great, and because my hand had acquired much; ^{31:26} if I beheld the sun when it shined, or the moon walking in brightness, ^{31:27} and my heart has been secretly enticed, or my mouth has kissed my hand, ^{31:28} this also would be an iniquity to be punished by the judge: for I would have denied the God that is above.
Complement	31:29	“If I rejoiced at the destruction of him that hated me, or lifted myself up when evil found him; ^{31:30} neither have I allowed my mouth to sin by wishing a curse to his soul. ^{31:31} If the men of my tabernacle did not say, ‘Oh that we had of his flesh! We cannot be satisfied.’ ^{31:32} The stranger did not lodge in the street, but I opened my doors to the traveler. ^{31:33} If I covered my transgressions as Adam by hiding my iniquity in my bosom, ^{31:34} did I fear a great multitude, or did the contempt of families terrify me, that I kept silence, and did not go out the door?
Unique	31:35	“Oh that one would hear me! Behold, my desire is that the Almighty would answer me, and that my adversary had written a book. ^{31:36} Surely I would take it upon my shoulder, and bind it as a crown to me. ^{31:37} I would declare to him the number of my steps; as a prince would I go near to him. ^{31:38} If my land cries against me, or that its furrows likewise complain; ^{31:39} if I have eaten its fruits without mine, or have caused its owners to lose their life, ^{31:40} then let thistles grow instead of wheat, and weeds instead of barley. The words of Job are finished.”

¶Complement	We cannot find the Almighty (37:14 - 24)

	§Unique	Introduction: Elihu became angry at Job and his friends, and pled for Job to listen to him (32:1 - 33:7)
	¶Opposite	Elihu became angry at Job and his three friends (32:1 - 14)
Unique		32:1 So these three men ceased to answer Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes.
		32:2 Then was kindled the wrath of Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite, of the relatives of Ram.
Complement		His wrath was kindled against Job, because he justified himself rather than God.
Complement		32:3 His wrath was also kindled against his three friends, because they had found no answer, and yet had condemned Job.
		32:4 Now Elihu had waited until Job had spoken, because they were older than he. 32:5 When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, then his wrath was kindled. 32:6 And Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite answered and said, “I am young; and you are very old. Therefore I was afraid, and did not dare to show you my opinion. 32:7 I said, ‘Days should speak; and multitude of years should teach wisdom.’
Opposite		32:8 “But there is a spirit in man; and the breath of the Almighty gives them understanding. 32:9 Great men are not always wise; neither do the aged always understand judgment. 32:10 Therefore I said, ‘Listen to me; I also will show my opinion.’ 32:11 Behold, I waited for your words; I listened to your reasons, while you searched out what to say. 32:12 Moreover, I attended to you, and, behold, there were none of you that convinced Job, or that answered his words, 32:13 lest you should say, ‘We have found out wisdom; God thrusts him down, not man.’ 32:14 Now he has not directed his words against me; neither will I answer him with your speeches.”
	¶Opposite	Job, please hear my words (32:15 - 33:7)
Opposite		32:15 They were amazed; they no longer answered; they stopped talking.
Opposite		32:16 When I had waited (for they did not speak, but stood still, and answered no more). 32:17 I said, “I also will answer my part; I will also show my opinion: 32:18 for I am full of words; the spirit within me compels me. 32:19 Behold, my belly is like wine which has no vent; it is ready to burst like new wineskins. 32:20 I will speak that I may be refreshed; I will open my lips and answer. 32:21 Please, let me not accept any man’s person; neither let me give flattering titles to man: 32:22 for I do not know to give flattering titles; in so doing my Maker would soon take me away.”
		33:1 “Therefore, Job, please hear my speeches, and listen to all my words.
Complement		33:2 “Behold, now have I opened my mouth; my tongue has spoken in my mouth. 33:3 My words shall be of the uprightness of my heart; and my lips shall utter knowledge clearly. 33:4 The Spirit of God has made me, and the breath of the Almighty has given me life. 33:5 If you can answer me, set your words in order before me, and stand up.
Unique		33:6 “Behold, I am according to your wish in God’s place; I also am formed out of the clay. 33:7 Behold, my terror shall not make you afraid; neither shall my hand be heavy upon you.”
	§Complement	Body: Elihu claimed that God has rightly destroyed Job, because Job has sinned (33:8 - 36:21)
	¶Opposite	Job, you are not right; God is greater than man (33:8 - 22)
Unique		33:8 “Now surely you have spoken in my hearing, and I have heard the voice of your words, saying. 33:9 I am clean without transgression; I am innocent; neither is there iniquity in me. 33:10 Behold, he finds occasions against me; he counts me for his enemy; 33:11 he puts my feet in the stocks; he marks all my paths.”
Complement		33:12 “Behold, in this you are not right. I will answer you, that God is greater than man.
Complement		33:13 “Why do you strive against him? For he does not give account of any of his matters: 33:14 for God speaks once; moreover twice, yet man does not perceive it.”
		33:15 “In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falls upon men, in slumbering upon the bed, 33:16 then he opens the ears of men, and seals their instruction, 33:17 that he may withdraw man from his purpose, and hide pride from man.
Opposite		33:18 “He keeps back his soul from the pit, and his life from perishing by the sword. 33:19 He is also disciplined with pain upon his bed, and the multitude of his bones with strong pain, 33:20 so that his life abhors bread, and his soul abhors tasty food. 33:21 His flesh wastes away, so that it cannot be seen; and his bones that were not seen stick out. 33:22 Moreover, his soul draws near to the grave, and his life to the destroyers.”
	¶Opposite	Job, if you have anything to say, answer me (33:23 - 33)
Opposite		33:23 “If there is a messenger with him, an interpreter, one among a thousand, to show to man his uprightness, 33:24 then he is gracious to him, and says, ‘Deliver him from going down to the Pit; I have found a ransom.’ 33:25 His flesh shall be fresher than a child’s; he shall return to the days of his youth. 33:26 He shall pray to God, and he will be favorable to him; and he shall see his face with joy: for he will render to man his righteousness. 33:27 He looks upon men, and if anyone says, ‘I have sinned, and perverted that which was right; and it did not benefit me’, 33:28 he will deliver his soul from going into the pit, and his life shall see the light.
Opposite		33:29 “Lo, all these things God oftentimes works with man, 33:30 to bring back his soul from the pit, to be enlightened with the light of the living.”
		33:31 “Mark well, O Job, listen to me; hold your peace, and I will speak.
Complement		33:32 “If you have anything to say, answer me. Speak: for I desire to justify you.
Unique		33:33 “If not, listen to me; hold your peace, and I shall teach you wisdom.”
	¶Complement	God will not do wickedly; neither will the Almighty pervert judgment (34:1 - 37)
Unique		34:1 Furthermore Elihu answered and said, 34:2 “Hear my words, O you wise men; and listen to me, you that have knowledge: 34:3 for the ear tests words, as the mouth tastes food. 34:4 Let us choose to us judgment; let us know among ourselves what is good: 34:5 for Job has said, ‘I am righteous; and God has taken away my justice. 34:6 Should I lie concerning my sentence of judgment? My wound is incurable without transgression on my part.’
		34:7 What man is like Job, who drinks up scorning like water, 34:8 and who goes in company with the workers of iniquity, and walks with wicked men? 34:9 For he has said, ‘It benefits a man nothing that he should delight himself with God.’
Complement		34:10 “Therefore listen to me, you men of understanding: far be it from God, that he should do wickedness; and from the Almighty, that he should commit iniquity: 34:11 for he shall render the work of a man to him, and cause every man to find according to his ways. 34:12 Moreover, surely God will not do wickedly; neither will the Almighty pervert judgment.
Complement		34:13 “Who has given him responsibility over the Earth? Or who has disposed the whole world? 34:14 If he sets his heart upon man, and he gathers his Spirit and his breath to himself, 34:15 then all flesh shall perish together, and man shall return to dust.”
		34:16 “If now you have understanding, hear this; listen to the voice of my words. 34:17 Shall even he that hates justice govern? And will you condemn him that is most just? 34:18 Is it proper to say to a king, ‘You are wicked?’ And to princes, ‘You are ungodly?’ 34:19 How much less to him that does not accept the persons of princes, nor regards the rich more than the poor? For they all are the work of his hands. 34:20 In a moment they shall die; and the people shall be troubled at midnight, and pass away; and the mighty shall be taken away without hand. 34:21 For his eyes are upon the ways of man, and he sees all his goings. 34:22 There is no darkness, nor shadow of death, where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves: 34:23 for he will not lay upon man more than right, that he should go before God in judgment. 34:24 He shall break in pieces mighty men without number, and set others in their place. 34:25 Therefore he knows their works, and he overturns them in the night, so that they are destroyed. 34:26 He smites them as wicked men in the open sight of others. 34:27 because they turned back from him, and would not consider any of his ways, 34:28 so that they cause the cry of the poor to come to him; and he hears the cry of the afflicted. 34:29 When he gives quietness, who then can make trouble? And when he hides his face, who then can behold him? Whether it is done against a nation, or against a man only, 34:30 so that the hypocrite does not reign, lest the people are snared.
Opposite		34:31 “Surely it is right to be said to God, ‘I have borne discipline; I will not offend anymore. 34:32 That which I do not see please teach me. If I have done iniquity, I will do it no more.’ 34:33 Should it be according to your mind? He will repay it, whether you refuse, or whether you choose, and not I; therefore speak what you know. 34:34 Let men of understanding tell me, and let a wise man give heed to me. 34:35 Job has spoken without knowledge, and his words were without wisdom. 34:36 My desire is that Job may be tried to the utmost because of his answers for wicked men: 34:37 for he adds rebellion to his sin; he claps his hands among us, and multiplies his words against God.”
	¶Complement	Your sins cannot harm God (35:1 - 16)
Unique		35:1 Moreover Elihu spoke; and he said, 35:2 “Do you think this to be right, that you said, ‘My righteousness is more than God’s?’
		35:3 For you said, ‘What advantage will it be to you?’ And, ‘What benefit shall I have, if I am cleansed from my sin?’
Complement		35:4 “I will answer you, and your companions with you: 35:5 look to the heavens, and see; and behold the clouds which are higher than yourself. 35:6 If you sin, what are you doing against him? Or if your transgressions are multiplied, what are you doing to him? 35:7 If you are righteous, what do you give him? Or what does he receive of your hand? 35:8 Your wickedness may harm a man as you are; and your righteousness may benefit the son of man. 35:9 By reason of the multitude of oppressions they make the oppressed to cry; they cry out by reason of the arm of the mighty.
Complement		35:10 “But none says, ‘Where is God my Maker, who gives us songs in the night, 35:11 who teaches us more than the beasts of the Earth, and makes us wiser than the birds of heaven?’ 35:12 There they cry, but none gives answer; because of the pride of evil men. 35:13 Surely God will not hear vanity; neither will the Almighty regard it.”
		35:14 “Although you say you shall not see him, yet judgment is before him; therefore trust in him.
Opposite		35:15 “But now, because you do not do so, he has visited in his anger; yet he does not know it in great extremity, 35:16 therefore does Job open his mouth in vain; he multiplies words without knowledge.”
	¶Unique	You have fulfilled the judgment of the wicked; therefore judgment and justice take hold of you (36:1 - 21)
Opposite		36:1 Elihu also proceeded, and said, 36:2 “Bear with me a little, and I will show you that I have yet to speak on God’s behalf. 36:3 I will bring my knowledge from afar, and will ascribe righteousness to my Maker: 36:4 for truly my words shall not be false; he that is perfect in knowledge is with you.
Opposite		36:5 “Behold, God is mighty, and does not despise any; he is mighty in strength and wisdom. 36:6 He does not preserve the life of the wicked, but gives right to the poor. 36:7 He does not withdraw his eyes from the righteous, but with kings are they on the throne; moreover, he establishes them forever, and they are exalted. 36:8 And if they are bound in chains, and are held in cords of affliction, 36:9 then he shows them their work, and their transgressions that they have exceeded. 36:10 He opens also their ear to discipline, and commands that they return from iniquity. 36:11 If they obey and serve him, they shall spend their days in prosperity, and their years in pleasures. 36:12 But if they do not obey, they shall perish by the sword, and they shall die without knowledge.”
		36:13 “But the hypocrites in heart heap up wrath; they do not cry when he binds them. 36:14 They die in youth, and their life is among the unclean. 36:15 He delivers the poor in his affliction, and opens their ears in oppression. 36:16 Even so would he have removed you out of the narrow into a broad place, where there is no restriction; and that which should be set on your table would be full of fatness.
Complement		36:17 “But you have fulfilled the judgment of the wicked; therefore judgment and justice take hold of you. 36:18 Because there is wrath, beware lest he takes you away with his stroke, then a great ransom cannot deliver you. 36:19 Will he esteem your riches? No, not gold, nor all the forces of strength.
Unique		36:20 “Do not desire the night, when people are cut off in their place. 36:21 Take heed; do not regard iniquity: for you have chosen this rather than affliction.”
	§Complement	Conclusion: God is great, and we do not know Him; and we cannot find out the Almighty (36:22 - 37:24)
	¶Complement	God is great, and we do not know Him (36:22 - 37:13)
Opposite		36:22 “Behold, God exalts by his power. Who teaches like him? 36:23 Who has assigned him his way? Or who can say, ‘You have done iniquity?’ 36:24 Remember that you magnify his work, which men behold. 36:25 Every man may see it; man may behold it afar off.
Opposite		36:26 “Behold, God is great, and we do not know him; neither can the number of his years be searched out. 36:27 for he makes the drops of water small; they pour down rain according to its vapor, 36:28 which the clouds drop and distill abundantly upon man. 36:29 Also can any understand the spreading of the clouds, or the thunder of his tabernacle?”
		36:30 “Behold, he spreads his light upon it, and covers the bottom of the sea: 36:31 for by them he judges the people; he gives food in abundance. 36:32 With clouds he covers the light; and commands it not to shine by the cloud that comes between. 36:33 The noise of it shows concerning it; the cattle also concerning the vapor.
Complement		37:1 “At this also my heart trembles, and is moved out of his place. 37:2 hear attentively the noise of his voice, and the sound that goes out of his mouth. 37:3 He directs it under the whole heaven, and his lightning to the ends of the Earth. 37:4 After it a voice roars; he thunders with the voice of his excellence; and he will not stay them when his voice is heard. 37:5 God thunders marvelously with his voice; he does great things, which we cannot comprehend. 37:6 for he says to the snow, ‘You be on the Earth’; likewise to the small rain, and to the great rain of his strength.
Unique		37:7 “He seals up the hand of every man, that all men may know his work. 37:8 Then the beasts go into dens, and remain in their places. 37:9 Out of the south comes the whirlwind; and cold out of the north. 37:10 By the breath of God frost is given; and the breadth of the water is iced over. 37:11 Also by watering he wears the thick cloud; he scatters his bright cloud. 37:12 and it is turned round about by his counsels, so that they may do whatsoever he commands them upon the face of the world in the Earth. 37:13 He causes it to come, whether for correction, or for his land, or for mercy.”
	¶Complement	We cannot find the Almighty (37:14 - 24)
Opposite		37:14 “Listen to this, O Job; stand still, and consider the wondrous works of God. 37:15 Do you know when God disposed them, and caused the light of his cloud to shine? 37:16 Do you know the balancing of the clouds, the wondrous works of him who is perfect in knowledge? 37:17 Do you know how your garments are warm, when he quiets the earth by the south wind? 37:18 Have you with him spread out the sky, which is strong, and is like a molten mirror?
Opposite		37:19 “Teach us what we shall say to him: for we cannot order our speech by reason of darkness. 37:20 Shall it be told him that I speak? If a man speaks, surely he shall be swallowed up.”
		37:21 “And now men do not see the bright light which is in the clouds, but the wind passes, and cleanses them.
Complement		37:22 “Fair weather comes out of the north; with God is dreadful majesty.
Unique		37:23 “The Almighty! We cannot find him; he is excellent in power, in judgment, and in plenty of justice; he will not afflict without cause. 37:24 Therefore, men do fear him; he respects none that are wise of heart.”

Unique		38:1“Then Jehovah answered Job out of the whirlwind; and he said, ^{38:2} “Who is this that darkens counsel by words without knowledge?
Complement		38:3“Now gird up your loins like a man:
Complement		“for I will demand of you; and you answer me.”
Opposite		38:4“Where were you when I laid the foundations of the Earth? Declare, if you have understanding, ^{38:5} Who has laid its measures, if you know? Or who has stretched the line upon it? ^{38:6} Upon what are its foundations fastened? Or who laid its cornerstone, ^{38:7} when the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy?
Opposite		38:8“Or who shut up the sea with doors, when it broke forth, as if it had issued out of the womb; ^{38:9} when I made the cloud its garment, and thick darkness a swaddling band for it, ^{38:10} and broke up for it my decreed place , and set bars and doors, ^{38:11} and said, ‘Unto here shall you come, but no further; and here shall your proud waves be stopped?’”
	¶Opposite	Are you Omniscient, like me? (38:12 - 18)
Opposite		38:12“Have you commanded the morning since your days; and caused the dawn to know his place, ^{38:13} that it might take hold of the ends of the Earth, so that the wicked might be shaken out of it?
Opposite		38:14“It is turned as clay under the seal; and they stand as a garment.” ^{38:15} And from the wicked their light is withheld, and the high arm shall be broken.”
Complement		38:16“Have you entered into the springs of the sea? Or have you walked in search of the depth?
Complement		38:17“Have the gates of death been opened to you? Or have you seen the doors of the shadow of death?
Unique		38:18“Have you perceived the breadth of the Earth? Declare if you know it all.”
	§Complement	Body: Unless you can do the great things that God can do, you are not God (38:19 - 41:34)
	¶Unique	Can you control the inanimate part of nature? (38:19 - 38)
Opposite		38:19“Where is the way that light dwells? And as for darkness, where is its place, ^{38:20} that you should take it to its boundary, and that you should know the paths to its house? ^{38:21} Do you know it , because you were then born, or because the number of your days is great?
Opposite		38:22“Have you entered into the treasures of the snow? Or have you seen the treasures of the hail, ^{38:23} which I have reserved against the time of trouble, against the day of battle and war?”
Complement		38:24“By what way is the light diffracted, which scatters the east wind upon the Earth? ^{38:25} Who has divided a watercourse for the overflowing of water, or a way for the lightning of thunder, ^{38:26} to cause it to rain on the Earth, where no man is ; and on the wilderness, where there is no man, ^{38:27} to satisfy the desolate and waste ground , and to cause the bud of the tender herb to spring forth?
Complement		38:28“Does the rain have a father? Or who has begotten the drops of dew? ^{38:29} Out of whose womb came the ice? And the hoarfrost of heaven, who has gendered it? ^{38:30} The waters harden like a stone, and the face of the deep is frozen.
Unique		38:31“Can you bind the sweet influences of Pleiades, or loosen the bands of Orion? ^{38:32} Can you bring forth Mazzaroth in his season? Or can you guide Arcturus with his sons? ^{38:33} Do you know the ordinances of heaven? Can you set its dominion in the Earth? ^{38:34} Can you lift your voice up to the clouds, so that abundance of waters may cover you? ^{38:35} Can you send lightning, so that they may go, and say to you, ‘Here we are ’?
		38:36Who has put wisdom in the inward parts? Or who has given understanding to the heart? ^{38:37} Who can number the clouds in wisdom? Or who can pour out the bottles of heaven, ^{38:38} when the dust grows into hardness, and the clods stick fast together?”
	¶Complement	Can you provide the physical needs of the animals and birds? (38:39 - 39:12)
Unique		38:39“Will you hunt the prey for the lion? Or fill the appetite of the young lions, ^{38:40} when they couch in their dens, and remain in the covert to lie in wait?
		38:41“Who provides for the raven his food? When his young ones cry to God, they wander for lack of food.
Complement		39:1“Do you know the time when the wild goats of the rock bring forth, or can you mark when the deer calve? ^{39:2} Can you number the months that they fulfill? Or do you know the time when they bring forth?
Complement		39:3They bow themselves; they give birth to their young ones; they cast out their sorrows. ^{39:4} Their young ones are in good liking; they grow up with grain; they go forth, and do not return to them.”
Opposite		39:5“Who has sent out the wild donkey free? Or who has loosened the bands of the wild donkey? ^{39:6} Whose house I have made the wilderness, and the barren land his dwellings. ^{39:7} He scorns the multitude of the city; neither does he regard the crying of the driver. ^{39:8} The range of the mountains is his pasture; and he searches after every green thing.
Opposite		39:9“Will the unicorn be willing to serve you, or remain by your crib? ^{39:10} Can you bind the unicorn with his band in the furrow? Or will he plow the valleys for you? ^{39:11} Will you trust him, because his strength is great? Or will you leave your labor to him? ^{39:12} Will you believe him, that he will bring home your seed, and gather it into your barn?”
	¶Complement	Can you provide wisdom and strength to the animals and birds? (39:13 - 40:5)
Unique		39:13“ Did you give the beautiful wings to the peacocks? Or wings and feathers to the ostrich? ^{39:14} Which leaves her eggs in the earth, and warms them in dust, ^{39:15} and forgets that the foot may crush them, or that the wild beast may break them. ^{39:16} She is hardened against her young ones, as though they were not hers. Her labor is in vain without concern, ^{39:17} because God has deprived her of wisdom; neither has he imparted to her understanding.
		39:18When she lifts up herself on high, she scorns the horse and his rider.
Complement		39:19“Have you given the horse strength? Have you clothed his neck with thunder? ^{39:20} Can you make him afraid as a grasshopper? The glory of his nostrils is terrifying. ^{39:21} He paws in the valley, and rejoices in his strength. He goes on to meet the armed men. ^{39:22} He mocks at fear, and is not afraid; neither does he turn back from the sword. ^{39:23} The quiver rattles against him, the glittering spear and the shield. ^{39:24} He swallows the ground with fierceness and rage; neither believes he that it is the sound of the trumpet. ^{39:25} He says among the trumpets, ‘Ha, ha!’; and he smells the battle afar off, the thunder of the captains, and the shouting.
Complement		39:26“Does the hawk fly by your wisdom, and stretch her wings toward the south? ^{39:27} Does the eagle mount up at your command, and make her nest on high? ^{39:28} She dwells and remains on the rock, upon the crag of the rock, and the strong place. ^{39:29} From there she seeks the prey, and her eyes behold far away. ^{39:30} Her young ones also suck up blood; and where the slain are , there she is also .”
Opposite		40:1Moreover Jehovah answered Job, and said, ^{40:2} “Shall he that contends with the Almighty instruct him ? He that rebukes God, let him answer it.”
Opposite		40:3Then Job answered Jehovah, and said, ^{40:4} “Behold, I am vile. What shall I answer you? I will lay my hand upon my mouth. ^{40:5} Once have I spoken, but I will not answer; moreover, twice, but I will proceed no further.”
	¶Opposite	Are you like God? (40:6 - 14)
Unique		40:6Then Jehovah answered to Job out of the whirlwind, and said, ^{40:7} “Gird up your loins now like a man; I will demand of you, and you declare to me.
Complement		40:8“Will you also annul my judgment? Will you condemn me, that you may be righteous?
Complement		40:9“Do you have an arm like God? Or can you thunder with a voice like him?”
Opposite		40:10“Adorn yourself now with majesty and excellence; and array yourself with glory and beauty. ^{40:11} Cast abroad the rage of your wrath; and behold everyone that is proud, and humble him. ^{40:12} Look on everyone that is proud, and bring him low; and tread down the wicked in their place. ^{40:13} Hide them in the dust together, and bind their faces in secret.
Opposite		40:14“Then will I also confess to you that your own right hand can save you.”
	¶Opposite	The God who made the fearsome T-Rex is far greater and more fearsome than his own creation (40:15 - 41:34)
Opposite		40:15“Behold now Behemoth, which I made with you; he eats grass like an ox. ^{40:16} Look now, his strength is in his loins, and his force is in the muscles of his belly. ^{40:17} He moves his tail like a cedar tree; the sinews of his stones are wrapped together. ^{40:18} His bones are like strong pieces of bronze; his bones are like bars of iron. ^{40:19} He is the first of the ways of God. He that made him can also make his sword to approach to him . ^{40:20} Surely the mountains bring him forth food, where all the beasts of the field play. ^{40:21} He lies under the shady trees, in the covert of the reed and marsh. ^{40:22} The shady trees cover him with their shadow; the willows of the brook surround him. ^{40:23} Behold, he drinks up a river, and does not hurry; he trusts that he can draw up Jordan into his mouth. ^{40:24} He takes it with his eyes; his nose pierces through snares.
Opposite		41:1“Can you draw out Leviathan with a hook? Or his tongue with a cord which you let down? ^{41:2} Can you put a hook into his nose? Or bore his jaw through with a thorn? ^{41:3} Will he make many supplications to you? Will he speak soft words to you? ^{41:4} Will he make a covenant with you? Will you take him for a servant forever? ^{41:5} Will you play with him as with a bird? Or will you bind him for your maidservants? ^{41:6} Shall the companions make a banquet of him? Shall they part him among the merchants? ^{41:7} Can you fill his skin with barbed irons? Or his head with fish spears? ^{41:8} Lay your hand upon him; remember the battle, and do no more. ^{41:9} Behold, the hope of him is in vain. Shall not one be cast down even at the very sight of him? ^{41:10} There is none so fierce that dares to stir him up. Who then is able to stand before me?”
Complement		41:11“Who has preceded me, that I should repay him ? Everything under the whole heaven is mine.
Complement		41:12“I will not conceal his parts, nor his power, nor his magnificent structure. ^{41:13} Who can discover the face of his garment? Or who can come to him with his double bridle? ^{41:14} Who can open the jaws of his face? His teeth are terrifying round about. ^{41:15} His scales are his bride, shut up together as with a close seal. ^{41:16} One is so near to another, that no air can come between them. ^{41:17} They are joined one to another; they stick together, so that they cannot be separated. ^{41:18} By his sneezing a light shines; and his eyes are like the eyelids of the morning. ^{41:19} Burning lamps go out of his mouth, and sparks of fire leap out. ^{41:20} Smoke goes out of his nostrils, as out of a boiling pot or caldron. ^{41:21} His breath kindles coals, and a flame goes out of his mouth. ^{41:22} In his neck remains strength; and sorrow is turned into joy before him. ^{41:23} The flakes of his flesh are joined together; they are firm in themselves; they cannot be moved. ^{41:24} His heart is as firm as a stone; moreover, as hard as a piece of the lower millstone . ^{41:25} When he raises himself up, the mighty are afraid; by reason of breakings, they purify themselves. ^{41:26} The sword of him that attacks him cannot prevail; neither the spear, the arrow, nor the coat of mail. ^{41:27} He esteems iron like straw, and bronze like rotten wood. ^{41:28} The arrow cannot make him flee; sling stones are turned into stubble before him. ^{41:29} Clubs are counted as stubble; he laughs at the shaking of a spear. ^{41:30} Sharp stones are under him; he spreads sharp pointed things upon the mud. ^{41:31} He makes the deep to boil like a pot; he makes the sea like a pot of ointment. ^{41:32} He makes a path to shine after him; one would think the deep to be gray.
Unique		41:33“Upon Earth there is not his equal, who is made without fear.
		41:34He beholds all high things . He is a king over all the children of pride.”
	§Unique	Conclusion: Jehovah restored everything that Job had lost, except for his first children who died (42:1 - 17)
	¶Complement	Jehovah commanded the friends of Job to offer a burnt offering to atone for their false words about him (42:1 - 9a)
Opposite		42:1Then Job answered Jehovah, and said, ^{42:2} “I know that you can do every thing , and that no thought can be withheld from you. ^{42:3} Who is he that hides counsel without knowledge? Therefore did I utter that which I did not understand, and things too wonderful for me, which I did not know.
Opposite		42:4“Please hear, and I will speak; I will demand of you, and declare to me. ^{42:5} I have heard of you by the hearing of the ear, but now my eye sees you. ^{42:6} Therefore I abhor myself , and repent in dust and ashes.”
Complement		42:7And it was so, that after Jehovah had spoken these words to Job, Jehovah said to Eliphaz the Temanite, “My wrath is kindled against you, and against your two friends: for you have not spoken of me what is right, as my servant Job has .
Complement		42:8“Therefore take to you now seven bulls and seven rams, and go to my servant Job, and offer up a burnt offering for yourselves; and my servant Job shall pray for you: for him will I accept, lest I deal with you after your folly, in that you have not spoken of me what is right, like my servant Job.”
Unique		42:9So Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite went; and they did according as Jehovah commanded them.
	¶Complement	Jehovah restored the wealth, children, and health of Job (42:9b - 17)
Opposite		Also Jehovah accepted Job;
Opposite		42:10and Jehovah turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends.
Complement		Also Jehovah gave Job twice as much as he had before. ^{42:11} Then there came to him all his brethren, and all his sisters, and all they that had been of his acquaintance before, and ate bread with him in his house; and they bemoaned him, and comforted him over all the evil that Jehovah had brought upon him; also every man gave him a piece of money, and everyone an earring of gold. ^{42:12} So Jehovah blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning: for he had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, a thousand yokes of oxen, and a thousand female donkeys.
Complement		42:13He also had seven sons, and three daughters. ^{42:14} And he called the name of the first daughter, Jemima; and the name of the second, Kezia; and the name of the third, Keren-happuch. ^{42:15} And in all the land were no women found as beautiful as the daughters of Job; and their father gave them inheritance among their brethren.
Unique		42:16After this, Job lived one hundred and forty years; and he saw his sons and his grandsons, four generations.
		42:17So Job died, being old and full of days.

Unique	1:32 ^{¶¶} “For the turning away of the naïve shall slay them, and the prosperity of fools shall destroy them. 1:33But whoso listens to me shall dwell safely, and shall be quiet from fear of evil.”

	¶ComplementMy son, Jehovah gives wisdom to those who diligently seek her (2:1 - 22)
Unique	2:1 ^{¶¶} “My son, if you will receive my words, and treasure my Commandments within you, 2:2so that you incline your ear to wisdom, and apply your heart to understanding; 2:3moreover, if you cry after knowledge, and lift up your voice for understanding; 2:4if you seek her as silver; and search for her, as for hidden treasures, 2:5then you shall understand the fear of Jehovah and find the knowledge of God. 2:6 ^{¶¶} For Jehovah gives wisdom; out of his mouth comes knowledge and understanding. 2:7He stores up sound wisdom for the righteous; he is a shield to them that walk uprightly. 2:8He protects the paths of judgment, and preserves the way of his saints. 2:9Then you shall understand righteousness, judgment, and equity; indeed , every good path.
Complement	2:10 ^{¶¶} “When wisdom enters into your heart, and knowledge is pleasant to your soul, 2:11discretion shall preserve you, and understanding shall keep you: 2:12to deliver you from the way of the evil man (from the man that speaks perverse things; 2:13who leaves the paths of uprightness to walk in the ways of darkness; 2:14who rejoices to do evil and delights in the perverseness of the wicked; 2:15whose ways are crooked, and they are perverse in their paths);
Complement	2:16to deliver you from the strange woman (from the stranger who flatters with her words, 2:17who forsakes the guide of her youth, and forgets the covenant of her God: 2:18for her house sinks down into death, and her paths unto the dead; 2:19no one that goes to her returns again; neither do they take hold of the paths of Life), 2:20so that you may walk in the way of good men , and keep the paths of the righteous.”
Opposite	2:21 ^{¶¶} “For the upright shall dwell in the land, and the blameless shall remain in it;
Opposite	2:22 ^{¶¶} “but the wicked shall be cut off from the Earth, and the transgressors shall be rooted out of it.”
	¶ComplementMy son, trust in Jehovah with all your heart, and honor Jehovah with all your substance (3:1 - 26)
Unique	3:1 ^{¶¶} “My son, do not forget my Law; but let your heart keep my Commandments. 3:2for length of days, long life, and mercy, shall they add to you. 3:3Let not mercy and truth forsake you; bind them around your neck, and write them upon the tablet of your heart: 3:4so shall you find favor and good understanding in the sight of God and man.
Complement	3:5 ^{¶¶} “Trust in Jehovah with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding. 3:6In all your ways, acknowledge him as Lord ; and he shall direct your paths. 3:7Be not wise in your own eyes; fear Jehovah, and depart from evil. 3:8It shall be health to your navel, and marrow to your bones. 3:9Honor Jehovah with your substance, and with the firstfruits of all your increase: 3:10so your barns shall be filled with plenty, and your presses shall burst out with new wine.
Complement	3:11 ^{¶¶} “My son, despise not the discipline of Jehovah; neither be weary of his correction: 3:12for the one that Jehovah loves, he corrects; even as a father corrects the son in whom he delights.”
Opposite	3:13 ^{¶¶} “Happy is the man that finds wisdom, and the man that gets understanding: 3:14for its merchandise is better than the merchandise of silver, and its gain than fine gold. 3:15She is more precious than rubies; and all the things you can desire are not to be compared to her. 3:16Length of days is in her right hand, and in her left hand is riches and honor. 3:17Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace. 3:18She is a tree of Life to them that lay hold upon her, and happy is every one that keeps her. 3:19By wisdom, Jehovah has founded the Earth; and by understanding, he has established the heavens. 3:20By his knowledge, the depths are broken up; and the clouds drop down the dew.
Opposite	3:21 ^{¶¶} “My son, let them not depart from your eyes; keep sound wisdom and discretion, 3:22so shall they be life to your soul, and grace to your neck. 3:23Then you shall walk in your way safely, and your foot shall not stumble. 3:24When you lie down, you shall not be afraid; yea, you shall lie down, and your sleep shall be sweet. 3:25Be not afraid of sudden fear; neither of the desolation of the wicked, when it comes. 3:26for Jehovah shall be your confidence, and shall keep your foot from being taken”.
	¶UniqueMy son, ponder the path of your feet, and avoid the strange woman (3:27 - 5:23)
Opposite	3:27 ^{¶¶} “Do not withhold good from them to whom it is due, when it is in the power of your hand to do it now . 3:28Do not say to your neighbor, “Go, and come again, and tomorrow I will give”, when you have it with you now . 3:29Do not devise evil against your neighbor, seeing he dwells securely by you. 3:30Do not strive with a man without cause, if he has done you no harm. 3:31Do not envy the oppressor, and choose none of his ways: 3:32for the perverse are an abomination to Jehovah; but his secret is with the righteous. 3:33The curse of Jehovah is in the house of the wicked; but he blesses the habitation of the just. 3:34Surely he scorns the scornors, but he gives grace to the lowly. 3:35The wise shall inherit glory, but shame shall be the promotion of fools.
Opposite	4:1 ^{¶¶} “Hear, you children, the instruction of a father, and attend to know understanding. 4:2for I give you good doctrine, forsake not my Law: 4:3for I was my father’s son, tender and only beloved in the sight of my mother. 4:4He taught me also, and said to me, “Let your heart retain my words; keep my Commandments, and live. 4:5Get wisdom; get understanding; do not forget it ; neither decline from the words of my mouth. 4:6Do not forsake her, and she shall preserve you; love her, and she shall protect you. 4:7Wisdom is the most important thing; therefore get wisdom; and with all your ability get understanding. 4:8Exalt her, and she shall promote you; she shall bring you to honor, when you embrace her. 4:9She shall give to your head an ornament of grace; a crown of glory shall she deliver to you.”
Complement	4:10 ^{¶¶} “Hear, O my son, and receive my sayings, and the years of your life shall be many. 4:11I have taught you in the way of wisdom; I have led you in right paths. 4:12When you go, your steps shall not be narrowed; and when you run, you shall not stumble. 4:13Get a firm grip on instruction; let her not go; keep her; for she is your life. 4:14Enter not into the path of the wicked, and go not in the way of evil men . 4:15Avoid it, pass not by it, turn from it, and pass away: 4:16for they sleep not, unless they have done mischief; and their sleep is taken away, unless they cause someone to fall: 4:17for they feast on the bread of wickedness, and drink the wine of violence. 4:18But the path of the just is like the shining light, that shines brighter and brighter until the perfect day. 4:19The way of the wicked is like darkness; they know not at what they stumble.
Complement	4:20 ^{¶¶} “My son, attend to my words, and incline your ear to my sayings. 4:21Let them not depart from your eyes, and keep them in the midst of your heart: 4:22for they are Life to those that find them, and health to all their flesh. 4:23Protect your heart with all diligence: for out of it are the issues of life. 4:24Put away from you a perverse mouth, and perverse lips put far from you. 4:25Let your eyes look straight ahead, and let your eyelids look straight before you. 4:26Ponder the path of your feet, and let all your ways be established. 4:27Turn not to the right hand nor to the left; remove your foot from evil.
Unique	5:1 ^{¶¶} “My son, attend to my wisdom, and bow your ear to my understanding. 5:2that you may preserve discretion and your lips may keep knowledge: 5:3for the lips of a strange woman drip as a honeycomb, and her mouth is smoother than oil; 5:4but her end is as bitter as wormwood, and as sharp as a two-edged sword. 5:5Her feet go down to death; her steps take hold on Hell. 5:6Lest you should ponder the path of Life, her ways are movable, so that you cannot know them . 5:7Therefore hear me now, O you children, and depart not from the words of my mouth. 5:8Remove your way far from her, and do not go near the door of her house, 5:9lest you give your honor to others, and your years to the cruel; 5:10lest strangers be filled with your wealth, and your labors are in the house of a stranger; 5:11and you mourn at the last, when your flesh and your body have been consumed, 5:12and say, “How have I hated instruction, and my heart despised reproof; 5:13and have not obeyed the voice of my teachers, nor 5:14let my ear to them that instructed me! 5:14I was almost in all evil in the midst of the congregation and assembly. 5:15Drink waters from your own cistern, and running water from your own well. 5:16Should your fountains be dispersed abroad, and rivers of water in the streets? 5:17Let them be yours alone, and not for strangers with you. 5:18Let your fountain be blessed, and rejoice with the wife of your youth. 5:19 Let her be as the loving gazelle and graceful chamois; let her breasts satisfy you at all times; and always be enraptured with her love. 5:20And why, my son, will you go astray with a strange woman, and embrace the bosom of a stranger? 5:21For the ways of man are before the eyes of Jehovah, and he ponders all his goings. 5:22His own iniquities shall take the wicked himself, and he shall be bound with the cords of his sins. 5:23He shall die without instruction, and in the greatness of his folly, he shall go astray.”

	§Unique¶ComplementConclusion: The house of the strange woman is the way to Hell; if you scorn wisdom, you alone shall bear it (6:1 - 9:18)The house of the strange woman is the way to Hell, going down to the chambers of death (6:1 - 7:27)
Opposite	6:1 ^{¶¶} “My son, if you are a guarantee for your friend, if you have shaken your hand in a promise with a stranger, 6:2you are snared with the words of your mouth, or you are taken with the words of your mouth: 6:3do this now, my son: deliver yourself, when you have come into the hand of your friend; go, humble yourself, and make sure your friend. 6:4Give no sleep to your eyes, nor slumber to your eyelids. 6:5Escape as a gazelle from the hand of the hunter , and as a bird from the hand of the bird hunter. 6:6Go to the ant, you sluggard; consider her ways, and be wise, 6:7which having no guide, overseer, or ruler, 6:8provides her bread in the summer, and gathers her food in the harvest. 6:9How long will you sleep, O sluggard? When will you arise out of your sleep? 6:10 Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep: 6:11so shall your poverty come as one that travels, and your want as an armed man.
Opposite	6:12 ^{¶¶} “A wicked man , an idolatrous man, walks with a perverse mouth. 6:13He winks with his eyes, he speaks with his feet, and he teaches with his fingers; 6:14perverseness is in his heart, and he devises mischief continually: he sows discord. 6:15Therefore shall his calamity come suddenly; suddenly shall he be broken without remedy. 6:16 These are six things that Jehovah hates; yea, seven are an abomination to him: 6:17a proud look, a lying tongue, hands that shed innocent blood, 6:18a heart that devises wicked imaginations, feet that are swift in running to mischief, 6:19a false witness that speaks lies, and he that sows discord among brethren.”
	¶Complement6:20^{¶¶}“My son, keep your father’s Commandment, and do not forsake the Law of your mother. 6:21Bind them continually upon your heart, and tie them around your neck. 6:22When you go, it shall lead you; when you sleep, it shall keep you; and when you awake, it shall talk with you. 6:23For the Commandment is a lamp, and the Law is Light, and reproofs of instruction are the way of Life. 6:24to keep you from the evil woman, from the flattery of the tongue of a strange woman. 6:25Lust not after her beauty in your heart; neither let her take you with her eyelids: 6:26for by means of a whore, a man is reduced to a piece of bread; and the adulteress will hunt for the precious life. 6:27Can a man take fire in his bosom, and his clothes not be burned? 6:28Can one go upon hot coals, and his feet not be burned? 6:29So is he that goes in to his neighbor’s wife; whosoever touches her shall not be innocent. 6:30Men do not despise a thief, if he steals to satisfy his soul when he is hungry; 6:31but ifhe is discovered, he shall restore sevenfold: he shall give all the substance of his house. 6:32But whoso commits adultery with a woman lacks understanding; he that does it destroys his own soul. 6:33A woman and dishonor shall he get; and his reproach shall not be wiped away. 6:34For jealousy is the rage of a man; therefore he will not spare in the day of vengeance. 6:35He will not regard any ransom; neither will he rest content, though you give many gifts.
Complement	7:1 ^{¶¶} “My son, keep my words, and lay up my Commandments with you. 7:2Keep my Commandments, and live; and my Law as the apple of your eye. 7:3Bind them upon your fingers, write them upon the tablet of your heart. 7:4Say to wisdom, “You are my sister”, and call understanding your kinswoman, 7:5that they may keep you from the strange woman, from the stranger which flatters with her words. 7:6For at the window of my house, I looked through my lattice; 7:7and I beheld among the naïve ones, I discerned among the youths, a young man void of understanding, 7:8passing through the street near her corner; and he went the way to her house 7:9in the twilight, in the evening, in the black and dark night; 7:10and, behold, a woman met him with the clothing of a whore, and subtle of heart 7:11(she is loud and stubborn; her feet do not remain in her house; 7:12now she is outside, now in the streets, and lies in wait at every corner). 7:13So she caught him, and kissed him, and she showed a shameless face said to him, 7:14 I have peace offerings with me; this day have I paid my vows. 7:15Therefore I came forth to meet you, eagerly to seek your face; and I have found you. 7:16I have decked my bed with coverings of tapestry, with a bedspread of fine linen of Egypt. 7:17I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon. 7:18Come, let us take our fill of love until the morning; let us solace ourselves with loves: 7:19for my husband is not at home; he has gone on a long journey. 7:20He has taken a bag of money with him, and will come home at the day appointed.” 7:21 With much cunning, she caused him to yield: with the flattering of her lips she forced him. 7:22He goes after her immediately, as an ox goes to the slaughter, or as a fool to the correction of the pillory, 7:23until a dart strikes through his liver, as a bird hurries to the snare, and does not know that it is for his life.
Unique	7:24 ^{¶¶} “Therefore, listen to me now, O you children; and attend to the words of my mouth. 7:25Let not your heart decline for her ways, and do not go astray in her paths: 7:26for she has cast down many wounded; moreover, many strong men have been slain by her. 7:27Her house is the way to Hell, going down to the chambers of death.”

Opposite	8:12 ^{¶¶} “I wisdom dwell with prudence, and find out knowledge of witty inventions. 8:13The fear of Jehovah is to hate evil; pride, arrogance, the evil way, and the perverse mouth, do I hate. 8:14Counsel is mine, and sound wisdom; I am understanding; I have strength. 8:15By me kings reign, and princes decree justice. 8:16By me princes rule, and nobles, even all the judges of the earth. 8:17I love them that love me, and those that seek me early shall find me. 8:18Riches and honor are with me; yes, durable riches and righteousness. 8:19My fruit is better than gold; moreover, than even fine gold; and my revenue is better than choice silver. 8:20I lead in the way of righteousness; in the midst of the paths of judgment, 8:21that I may cause those that love me to inherit substance; and I will fill their treasures. 8:22Jehovah possessed me in the beginning of his way, before his works of old. 8:23I was anointed from Eternity past , from the beginning, or before the Earth existed. 8:24When there were no depths, I was brought forth; when there were no fountains abounding with water. 8:25Before the mountains were settled, before the hills, I was brought forth, 8:26while as yet he had not made the Earth, nor the fields, nor the highest part of the dust of the world. 8:27When he prepared the heavens, I was there; when he drew a circle upon the face of the deep; 8:28when he established the clouds above; when he strengthened the fountains of the deep; 8:29when he gave to the sea his decree, that the water should not pass his command; and when he appointed the foundations of the earth, 8:30then I was by him, as one brought up with him ; and I was daily his delight, rejoicing always before him; 8:31rejoicing in the habitable part of his Earth; and my delights were with the sons of men. 8:32Now therefore, listen to me, O you children: for blessed are they that keep my ways. 8:33Hear instruction, and be wise, and do not refuse it. 8:34Blessed is the man that listens to me, watching daily at my gates, and waiting at the posts of my doors: 8:35for whoso finds me, finds Life; and shall obtain favor of Jehovah. 8:36But he that sins against me wrongs his own soul: all they that hate me love death.”

Unique	30:1	The words of Agur the son of Jakeh, even the prophecy.
Complement		The man spoke to Ithiel, even to Ithiel and Ucal, saying, 30:2“Surely I am more boorish than any man, and do not have the understanding of a man. 30:3I neither learned wisdom, nor do I have the knowledge of the holy.
Complement	30:4	“Who has ascended up into Heaven, or descended? Who has gathered the wind in his fists? Who has bound the water in a garment? Who has established all the ends of the Earth? What is his Name, and what is his Son’s Name, if you can tell?”
Opposite	30:5	“Every Word of God is pure: he is a shield to them that put their trust in him.
Opposite	30:6	“Do not add to his words, lest he reproves you, and you are found a liar.”
	¶Opposite	Ten things that are wonderful, pleasing, and wise
Opposite	30:7	“Two things have I required of you; do not deny me them before I die: 30:8remove far from me vanity and lies, and give me neither poverty nor riches, and feed me with my necessary bread.
Opposite	30:9	“Lest I am full and deny you , and say, ‘Who is Jehovah?’ Or lest I be poor, and steal, and take the Name of my God in vain .”
Complement	30:18	“There are three things which are too wonderful for me; yea, four which I do not understand: 30:19the way of an eagle in the air, the way of a serpent upon a rock, the way of a ship in the midst of the sea, and the way of a man with a young woman.
Complement	30:29	“There are three things which go well; yea, four are pleasing in walking: 30:30a lion which is strongest among beasts, and does not turn away for any; 30:31a greyhound; also a male goat; and a king, against whom there is no rebellion.
Unique	30:24	“There are four things which are little upon the Earth, but they are exceedingly wise: 30:25the ants are a people not strong, yet they prepare their food in the summer; 30:26the conies are only a feeble folk, yet they make their houses in the rocks; 30:27the locusts have no king, yet they go forth all of them by ranks; 30:28the spider takes hold with her hands, and is in kings’ palaces.”
	§Opposite	Evil things
	¶Opposite	Wicked women and evil servants
Unique	30:20	“Such is the way of an adulterous woman: she eats, and wipes her mouth; and she says, ‘I have done no wickedness.’
Complement	30:21	“For three things , the Earth is disquieted, and for four which it cannot stand: 30:22for a servant when he reigns; and a fool when he is filled with food; 30:23for a hateful woman when she is married; and a maidservant that is heir to her mistress.
Complement	30:10	“Accuse not a servant to his master, lest he curses you, and you are found guilty. 30:32If you have done foolishly in exalting yourself, or if you have thought evil, put your hand upon your mouth. 30:33Surely the churning of milk brings forth butter, and the wringing of the nose brings forth blood: so the forcing of wrath brings forth strife.”
Opposite	30:15	“The leech has two daughters, crying , ‘Give, give!’
Opposite		“There are three things that are never satisfied; yea , four things say not, ‘ I have enough’: 30:16the grave, the barren womb, the earth that is not filled with water, and the fire that says not, ‘ I have enough.’”

	$Complement	Introduction: Christian believers need grace and the peace of God to grow spiritually (1:1 - 11)
	¶Opposite	Paul and Timothy sent grace and peace from the Triune God to the Assembly of believers at Philippi (1:1 - 6)
Unique		1:1Paul and Timothy, the servants of Jesus Christ,
Complement		to all the saints in Christ Jesus which are at Philippi,
Complement		with the Overseers and Deacons;
Opposite		1:2Grace to you, and peace,
Opposite		from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
	¶Opposite	Paul communicated his desire to see the believers in Philippi grow spiritually (1:7 - 11)
Opposite		1:3I thank my God upon every remembrance of you 1:4(always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy), 1:5for your fellowship in the Gospel from the first day until now;
Opposite		1:6being confident of this very thing, that he who has begun a good work in you will perform it until the Day of Jesus Christ.
Complement		1:7Even as it is right for me to think this of you all (because I have you in my heart), inasmuch as both in my chains, and in the defense and confirmation of the Gospel, you all are sharers of my grace.
Complement		1:8For God is my record, how greatly I long after you all in the affections of Jesus Christ.
Unique		1:9And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all discernment; 1:10that you may approve things that are excellent; and that you may be sincere and without offense until the Day of Christ: 1:11being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God.
	$Complement	Body: Death to self is necessary for spiritual growth (1:12 - 4:9)
	¶Opposite	Paul's suffering for the sake of the Gospel in prison had been an example for others to follow (1:12 - 26)
Unique		1:12But I want you to understand, brethren, that the things which happened to me have fallen out rather to the furtherance of the Gospel, 1:13so that my chains in Christ are well known in all the palace, and in all other places ; 1:14and many of the brethren in the Lord, growing confident by my chains, are much more bold to speak the Word without fear. 1:15Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and strife; and some also of good will: 1:16the one preaches Christ of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my chains; 1:17but the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defense of the Gospel.
Complement		1:18What then? Notwithstanding, every way (whether in pretense, or in truth) Christ is preached; and I rejoice in it.
Complement		Indeed, and I will continue to rejoice: 1:19for I know that this shall turn to my deliverance from prison through your prayer, and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ; 1:20according to my earnest expectation and my hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body; whether it is by life, or by death: 1:21for to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.
Opposite		1:22But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labor; yet what I shall choose I do not know: 1:23for I am in a strait between two things ; having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ, which is far better.
Opposite		1:24Nevertheless, to remain in the flesh is more necessary for you; 1:25and having this confidence, I know that I shall remain and continue with you all for your furtherance and joy of faith, 1:26so that your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jesus Christ for me by my coming to you again.
	¶Opposite	The suffering and glorification of Christ for the sake of others is our example to follow (1:27 - 2:11)
Opposite		1:27Only let your conduct be worthy of the Gospel of Christ, that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that you stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the Gospel.
Opposite		1:28 And in nothing terrified by your adversaries, which is to them an evident token of perdition, but to you of salvation, and that of God: 1:29for to you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake; 1:30having the same conflict which you saw in me, and now hear to be in me.
Complement		2:1Therefore, if there is any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies, 2:2fulfill my joy, that you be like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.
Complement		2:3 Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind, let each one esteem others better than themselves: 2:4each one of you not concerned for his own things, but each one also for the things of others.
Unique		2:5Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus, 2:6who, although existing in the form of God, thought it unimportant to be equal with God; 2:7but he emptied himself, and took upon himself the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men; 2:8and being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient to death, even the death of the cross. 2:9Therefore God also has highly exalted him, and given him a Name which is above every name, 2:10that at the Name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those in Heaven, and those in Earth, and those under the Earth; 2:11and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.
	¶Complement	Die to your own wants and needs while you hold forth the Word of Life (2:12 - 30)
Unique		2:12Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling; 2:13for it is God who works in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.
Complement		2:14Do all things without murmuring and disputing, 2:15that you may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation; among whom you shine as lights in the world; 2:16holding forth the Word of Life, so that I may rejoice in the Day of Christ, that I have not run in vain; neither labored in vain.
Complement		2:17Moreover, even if I am poured out like a drink offering upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all. 2:18For the same reason also do you joy, and rejoice with me.
Opposite		2:19But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send Timotheus shortly to you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your situation: 2:20for I have no man like-minded, who will naturally care for your situation: 2:21for all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's. 2:22But you know the proof of him, that, as a son with the father, he has served with me in the Gospel. 2:23Therefore I hope to send him presently, as soon as I shall see how it will go with me.
Opposite		2:24But I trust in the Lord that I also myself shall come shortly. 2:25Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother, and companion in labor, and a fellow-soldier; but your messenger, and he that ministered to my wants: 2:26for he longed after you all, and was full of heaviness, because you had heard that he had been sick: 2:27for indeed he was sick close to death, but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow. 2:28Therefore I sent him the more earnestly, that, when you see him again, you may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful. 2:29Therefore receive him in the Lord with all gladness; and hold such in reputation, 2:30because for the work of Christ he was near to death, not regarding his life, to supply your lack of service toward me.
	¶Complement	Avoid those who attempt to enslave you with a worldly value system (3:1 - 16)
Unique		3:1Finally, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe.
Complement		3:2Beware of dogs; beware of evil workers; beware of the concision: 3:3for we are the true circumcision, who worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh.
Complement		3:4Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinks that he has reasons for which he might trust in the flesh, I have more: 3:5circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, and a Hebrew of the Hebrews; as touching the Law, a Pharisee; 3:6concerning zeal; persecuting the Assembly; touching the righteousness which is in the Law of Moses , blameless.
Opposite		3:7But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ. 3:8And indeed, I count all things as loss for the excellence of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things. And I count them as dung, that I may win Christ, 3:9and be found in him; not having my own righteousness, which is of the Law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith; 3:10that I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable to his death, 3:11if by any means I might attain to the resurrection of the dead. 3:12Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect; but I follow after him , if I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus.
Opposite		3:13Brethren, I do not count myself to have apprehended; but this one thing I do , forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth to those things which are before, 3:14I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. 3:15Let us therefore, as many as are spiritually mature, be thus minded; and if in anything you are otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this to you. 3:16Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule; let us mind the same thing.
	¶Unique	Focus on the Savior and not on the things of this world (3:17 - 4:9)
Opposite		3:17Brethren, be followers together of me, and mark them who walk so as you have us for an example. 3:18For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and even now tell you weeping, as the enemies of the cross of Christ; 3:19whose end will be destruction, whose God is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things.
Opposite		3:20For our citizenship is in Heaven; from whence also we look for the Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ; 3:21who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like his glorious body; according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things to himself.
Complement		4:1Therefore, my brethren dearly beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved. 4:2I urge Euodias, and also urge Syntyche, that they be of the same mind in the Lord. 4:3And I entreat you also, true yokefellow, help those women who labored with me in the Gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellowlaborers, whose names are in the Book of Life.
Complement		4:4Rejoice in the Lord always; and again I say, rejoice. 4:5Let your gentleness be known to all men; the Lord is near. 4:6Be anxious for nothing; but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. 4:7And the peace of God, which passes all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.
Unique		4:8Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there is any virtue, and if there is any praise, think on these things. 4:9Those things, which you have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do; and the God of peace shall be with you.
	$Unique	Conclusion: Give of your physical and spiritual blessings to others (4:10 - 23)
	¶Complement	Give sacrificially to supply the needs of missionaries, and God will supply your needs (4:10 - 20)
Opposite		4:10But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last your care of me has flourished again; in which you were also eager, but you lacked opportunity.
Opposite		4:11Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, to be content. 4:12I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound; everywhere and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need. 4:13I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me. 4:14Notwithstanding you have done well, that you communicated with my affliction.
Complement		4:15Now you Philippians know also, that in the beginning of the Gospel, when I left Macedonia, no Assembly communicated with me as concerning giving and receiving, but only you: 4:16for even in Thessalonica you sent once and again to my necessity. 4:17Not because I desire a gift, but I desire fruit that may abound to your account.
Complement		4:18But I have all, and abound; I am full, having received of Epaphroditus the things which were sent from you, an odor of a sweet smell, a sacrifice acceptable, well pleasing to God.
Unique		4:19But my God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus. 4:20Now unto God and our Father be glory into the Ages of the Ages. Amen.
	¶Complement	Give greetings to other believers in Christ, and the grace of Christ will be with you (4:21 - 23)
Opposite		4:21Greet every saint in Christ Jesus.
Opposite		The brethren who are with me greet you.
Complement		4:22All the saints greet you;
Complement		chiefly they that are of Caesar's household.
Unique		4:23The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

	§Unique	Introduction: Elimelech and his family moved to Moab to escape famine; later, Naomi was left alone (1:1 - 5)
	¶Opposite	Elimelech and his family moved to Moab to escape famine (1:1 - 2)
Unique		^{1:1} Now it came to pass in the days when the judges ruled, that there was a famine in the land.
Complement		And a certain man of Bethlehem-Judah went to sojourn in the country of Moab: he, his wife, and his two sons.
Complement		^{1:2} And the name of the man was Elimelech; and the name of his wife was Naomi; and the names of his two sons were Mahlon and Chilion, Ephrathites of Bethlehem-Judah.
Opposite		And they came into the country of Moab;
Opposite		and they continued there for some time .
	¶Opposite	Later, Naomi was left alone with her two daughters in law (1:3 - 5)
Opposite		^{1:3} And Elimelech Naomi's husband died;
Opposite		and she was left alone , and her two sons.
Complement		^{1:4} And they took them wives of the women of Moab: the name of the one was Orpah, and the name of the other Ruth.
Complement		And they dwelt there about ten years.
Unique		^{1:5} And Mahlon and Chilion also died, both of them; and the woman was left alone of her two sons and her husband.
	§Complement	Body: God brought Ruth from Moab to meet her future husband Boaz (1:6 - 3:18)
	¶Unique	Ruth insisted on accompanying Naomi back to Judah, but her sister returned to her family (1:6 - 18)
Opposite		^{1:6} Then she arose with her daughters-in-law, that she might return from the country of Moab: for she had heard in the country of Moab how that Jehovah had visited his people in giving them bread. ^{1:7} Therefore she went forth out of the place where she was, and her two daughters-in-law with her; and they went on the way to return to the land of Judah. ^{1:8} And Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, "Go, return each of you to her mother's house; Jehovah deal kindly with you, as you have dealt with the dead, and with me. ^{1:9} Jehovah grant you that you may find rest, each of you in the house of her husband."
Opposite		Then she kissed them goodbye , and they lifted up their voice and wept. ^{1:10} And they said to her, "Surely we will return with you to your people." ^{1:11} And Naomi said, "Return home , my daughters. Why will you go with me? Are there still more sons in my womb, that they may be your husbands? ^{1:12} Return, my daughters, go your way : for I am too old to have a husband. If I should say, 'I have hope; I would have a husband also tonight, and would also bear sons', ^{1:13} would you wait for them until they were grown? Would you refrain from having husbands for them? No, my daughters: for it grieves me much for your sakes that the hand of Jehovah has gone out against me."
Complement		^{1:14} And they lifted up their voice, and wept again; and Orpah kissed her mother-in-law goodbye .
Complement		But Ruth clung to her; ^{1:15} and she said, "Behold, your sister-in-law has gone back to her people, and to her gods. You also return after your sister-in-law."
Unique		^{1:16} And Ruth said, "Ask me not to leave you, nor to return from following after you: for where you go, I will go; and where you lodge, I will lodge; your people shall be my people, and your God my God. ^{1:17} Where you die, I will die, and there will I be buried. Jehovah do so to me, and more also, if anything but death separates you and me."
		^{1:18} When she saw that she was determined to go with her, then she stopped talking to her.
	¶Complement	Naomi went to her home in Bethlehem in Judah with Ruth at the beginning of barley harvest (1:19 - 22)
Unique		^{1:19} So they two went, until they came to Bethlehem. And it came to pass, when they came to Bethlehem, that all the city was moved about them; and they said, " Is this Naomi?"
Complement		^{1:20} And she said to them, "Call me not Naomi; call me Mara: for the Almighty has dealt very bitterly with me.
Complement		^{1:21} I went out full, and Jehovah has brought me home again empty. Why then do you call me Naomi, seeing Jehovah has testified against me, and the Almighty has afflicted me?"
Opposite		^{1:22} So Naomi returned, and Ruth the Moabitess, her daughter-in-law, with her, which returned out of the country of Moab;
Opposite		and they came to Bethlehem in the beginning of barley harvest.
	¶Complement	Ruth went to glean grain in the fields after the reapers (2:1 - 7)
Unique		^{2:1} And Naomi had a relative of her late husband, a mighty man of wealth, of the family of Elimelech; and his name was Boaz.
Complement		^{2:2} And Ruth the Moabitess said to Naomi, "Let me now go to the field; and glean ears of grain after him in whose sight I shall find grace." And she said to her, "Go, my daughter."
Complement		^{2:3} And she went, and came; and she gleaned in the field after the reapers; and it so happened that she came to a part of the field belonging to Boaz, who was one of the relatives of Elimelech.
Opposite		^{2:4} And behold, Boaz came from Bethlehem, and said to the reapers, "Jehovah be with you." And they answered him, "Jehovah bless you."
Opposite		^{2:5} Then Boaz said to his servant that was set over the reapers, "Whose girl is this?" ^{2:6} And the servant that was set over the reapers answered and said, "It is the Moabitish girl that came back with Naomi out of the country of Moab; ^{2:7} and she said, 'Please, let me glean and gather after the reapers among the sheaves'; so she came, and has continued even from the morning until now, that she waited a little in the house."
	¶Opposite	Boaz met Ruth and blessed her for her godly testimony (2:8 - 23)
Unique		^{2:8} Then Boaz said to Ruth, "Do you not hear, my daughter? Do not go to glean in another field; neither go from here, but stay here fast by my servant girls; ^{2:9} let your eyes be on the field that they reap, and go after them. Have I not commanded the young men that they shall not touch you? And when you are thirsty, go to the vessels, and drink of that which the young men have drawn."
Complement		^{2:10} Then she fell on her face, and bowed herself to the ground, and said to him, "Why have I found grace in your eyes, that you should take knowledge of me, seeing I am a Gentile?" ^{2:11} And Boaz answered and said to her, "It has been fully shown me, all that you have done to your mother-in-law since the death of your husband; and how you have left your father and your mother, and the land of your nativity, and have come to a people which you did not know before. ^{2:12} Jehovah repay your work, and a full reward be given you of Jehovah God of Israel, under whose wings you have come to trust."
Complement		^{2:13} Then she said, "Let me find favor in your sight, my lord, because you have comforted me; and because you have spoken friendly to your maidservant, though I am not like one of your maidservants." ^{2:14} And Boaz said to her, "At mealtime, come here, and eat of the bread, and dip your morsel in the vinegar." And she sat beside the reapers; and he reached out to give her parched grain . And she ate, and was satisfied, and left.
Opposite		^{2:15} And when she had risen up to glean, Boaz commanded his young men, saying, "Let her glean even among the sheaves, and do not reproach her. ^{2:16} And allow to fall also some of the handfuls on purpose for her; and leave them , so that she may glean them ; and do not rebuke her." ^{2:17} So she gleaned in the field until evening; and she beat out what she had gleaned; and it was about an ephah of barley.
Opposite		^{2:18} And she took it up, and went into the city; and her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned. And she brought forth, and gave to her what she had reserved after she was satisfied. ^{2:19} And her mother-in-law said to her, "Where have you gleaned today? And where did you work? Blessed is he that took knowledge of you." And she showed her mother-in-law with whom she had worked, and she said, "The man's name with whom I worked today is Boaz." ^{2:20} And Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, "Blessed is he of Jehovah, who has not left off his kindness to the living and to the dead!" And Naomi said to her, "The man is related to us, one of our near relatives." ^{2:21} And Ruth the Moabitess said, "He also said to me, 'You shall keep fast by my young men, until they have ended all my harvest.'" ^{2:22} And Naomi said to Ruth her daughter-in-law, " It is good, my daughter, that you go out with his servant girls, that they do not meet you in any other field." ^{2:23} So she kept fast by the servant girls of Boaz to glean, until the end of barley harvest and of wheat harvest. And she lived with her mother-in-law.
	¶Opposite	Boaz agreed to marry Ruth according to the custom of the near kinsman (3:1 - 18)
Opposite		^{3:1} Then Naomi her mother-in-law said to her, "My daughter, shall I not seek rest for you, that it may be well with you? ^{3:2} And now is not Boaz one of our relatives, whose servant girls you were with? Behold, he winnows barley tonight in the threshingfloor. ^{3:3} Therefore wash yourself, and anoint yourself, and put your clothing upon you; and get down to the floor. But do not make yourself known to the man, until he has finished eating and drinking. ^{3:4} And it shall be, when he lies down, that you shall take note of the place where he shall lie. And you shall go in, and uncover his feet, and lay yourself down; and he will tell you what you shall do." ^{3:5} And she said to her, "All that you say to me I will do."
Opposite		^{3:6} And she went down to the floor, and did according to all that her mother-in-law told her. ^{3:7} And when Boaz had eaten and drunk, and his heart was merry, he went to lie down at the end of the heap of grain; and she came softly, and uncovered his feet, and laid herself down. ^{3:8} And it came to pass at midnight, that the man was afraid, and turned himself; and, behold, a woman lay at his feet. ^{3:9} And he said, "Who are you?" And she answered, "I am Ruth your maidservant; therefore spread your skirt over your maidservant: for you are a close relative."
Complement		^{3:10} And he said, "Blessed are you of Jehovah, my daughter: for you have shown more kindness in the latter end than at the beginning, inasmuch as you did not follow young men, whether poor or rich. ^{3:11} And now, my daughter, fear not; I will do to you all that you request: for all the city of my people knows that you are a virtuous woman. ^{3:12} And now it is true that I am your close relative; nevertheless, there is a relative closer than I. ^{3:13} Wait this night; and it shall be in the morning, that if he will perform the part of a relative to you, good; let him do the relative's part; but if he will not do the part of a relative to you, then will I do the part of a relative to you, as Jehovah lives. Lie down until the morning."
Complement		^{3:14} And she lay at his feet until the morning; and she rose up before one could know another. And he said, "Let it not be known that a woman came into the floor."
Unique		^{3:15} Also he said, "Bring the veil that you have upon you, and hold it." And when she held it, he measured six measures of barley, and laid it on her; and she went into the city. ^{3:16} And when she came to her mother-in-law, she said, "How are you, my daughter?" And she told her all that the man had done to her. ^{3:17} and she said, "He gave me these six measures of barley: for he said to me, 'Do not go empty to your mother-in-law.'" ^{3:18} Then she said, "Sit still, my daughter, until you know how the matter will fall: for the man will not be in rest, until he has finished the thing this day."
	§Complement	Conclusion: God gave Boaz and Ruth a son, Obed; who became the grandfather of David (4:1 - 22)
	¶Complement	Boaz purchased Ruth to be his wife before the elders of his people (4:1 - 12)
Opposite		^{4:1} Then Boaz went up to the gate, and sat down there. And, behold, the relatives of whom Boaz spoke came by, to whom he said, "Hold on, such a one! Turn aside, and sit down here." And he turned aside, and sat down. ^{4:2} And he took ten men of the elders of the city, and said, "Sit down here." And they sat down. ^{4:3} And he said to the relative, "Naomi, that has returned out of the country of Moab, is selling a parcel of land, which belonged to our brother Elimelech; ^{4:4} and I thought to inform you, saying, 'Buy it before the inhabitants, and before the elders of my people.' If you will redeem it , redeem it ; but if you will not redeem it , then tell me, that I may know: for there is no one to redeem it beside you; and I am after you." And he said, "I will redeem it ."
Opposite		^{4:5} Then Boaz said, "What day you buy the field of the hand of Naomi, you must also buy it of Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of the dead, to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance." ^{4:6} And the relative said, "I cannot redeem it for myself, lest I mar my own inheritance; redeem my right to yourself: for I cannot redeem it ." ^{4:7} Now this was the custom in former time in Israel concerning redeeming and concerning exchanging, in order to confirm all things; a man took off his shoe, and gave it to his neighbor; and this was a testimony in Israel. ^{4:8} Therefore the relative said to Boaz, "Buy it for yourself." So he drew off his shoe.
Complement		^{4:9} And Boaz said to the elders, and to all the people, "You are witnesses this day, that I have purchased all that was Elimelech's, and all that was Chilion's and Mahlon's, of the hand of Naomi.
Complement		^{4:10} "Moreover Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of Mahlon, have I purchased to be my wife, to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance, so that the name of the dead is not cut off from among his brethren, and from the gate of his place; you are witnesses this day."
Unique		^{4:11} And all the people that were in the gate, and the elders, said, " We are witnesses. Jehovah make the woman that has come into your house like Rachel and like Leah, which two built the house of Israel. And do worthily in Ephrath, and be famous in Bethlehem; ^{4:12} and let your house be like the house of Pharez, whom Tamar bare to Judah, of the seed which Jehovah shall give you of this young woman."
	¶Complement	The neighbor women named the son of Boaz and Ruth, Obed; who became the grandfather of David (4:13 - 22)
Opposite		^{4:13} So Boaz took Ruth, and she was his wife; and when he went in to her, Jehovah gave her conception; and she bore a son.
Opposite		^{4:14} And the women said to Naomi, "Blessed is Jehovah, which has not left you this day without a relative, that his name may be famous in Israel. ^{4:15} And he shall be to you a restorer of your life, and a nourisher of your old age: for your daughter-in-law (who loves you, who is better to you than seven sons) has born him."
Complement		^{4:16} And Naomi took the child, and laid it in her bosom, and became nurse to it.
Complement		^{4:17} And the women her neighbors gave it a name, saying, "A son is born to Naomi." And they called his name Obed. He is the father of Jesse, the father of David.
Unique		^{4:18} Now these are the generations of Pharez: Pharez begot Hezron; ^{4:19} and Hezron begot Ram; and Ram begot Amminadab; ^{4:20} and Amminadab begot Nahshon; and Nahshon begot Salmon; ^{4:21} and Salmon begot Boaz; and Boaz begot Obed; ^{4:22} and Obed begot Jesse; and Jesse begot David.

Unique		[SW] 3:6“Who is this that comes out of the wilderness like pillars of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all powders of the merchant? 3:7Behold his bed, which is Solomon’s; sixty valiant men are around it, of the valiant of Israel. 3:8They all hold swords, being expert in war; every man has his sword upon his thigh because of fear in the night. 3:9King Solomon made himself a palanquin of the wood of Lebanon. 3:10He made its pillars of silver, its bottom of gold, its covering of purple; and the midst of it being paved with love, for the daughters of Jerusalem. 3:11Go forth, O you daughters of Zion, and behold king Solomon with the crown with which his mother crowned him in the day of his marriage, and in the day of the gladness of his heart.”
Complement		[SoJ] 4:1“Behold, you are beautiful, my love; behold, you are beautiful. You have doves’ eyes within your locks. Your hair is as a flock of goats, that appear from mount Gilead. 4:2Your teeth are like a flock of sheep that are evenly shorn, which came up from the washing; of which every one bears twins, and none is barren among them. 4:3Your lips are like a thread of scarlet, and your speech is lovely. Your temples are like a piece of a pomegranate within your locks. 4:4Your neck is like the tower of David built for an armory, whereon there hang a thousand bucklers; all shields of mighty men. 4:5Your two breasts are like two young gazelles that are twins, which feed among the lilies. 4:6Until the day breaks, and the shadows flee away, I will get me to the mountain of myrrh, and to the hill of frankincense.
Complement		[SoJ] 4:7“ You are all beautiful, my love; there is no spot in you! 4:8Come with me from Lebanon, my spouse; come with me from Lebanon. Look from the top of Amana, from the top of Shenir and Hermon, from the lions’ dens, from the mountains of the leopards. 4:9You have ravished my heart, my sister, my spouse; you have ravished my heart with one of your eyes, with one chain of your neck. 4:10How beautiful is your love, my sister, my spouse! How much better is your love than wine, and the smell of your ointments than all spices! 4:11Your lips, O my spouse, drop as the honeycomb; honey and milk are under your tongue; and the fragrance of your garments is like the fragrance of Lebanon. 4:12A garden enclosed is my sister, my spouse; a spring shut up, a fountain sealed. 4:13Your plants are an orchard of pomegranates, with pleasant fruits; henna blooms, with spikenard; 4:14spikenard and saffron; calamus and cinnamon, with all trees of frankincense; myrrh and aloes, with all the chief spices; 4:15a fountain of gardens, a well of living water, and streams from Lebanon.”
Opposite		[SW] 4:16“Awake, O north wind; and come, you south; blow upon my garden, that its spices may flow out. Let my beloved come into his garden, and eat his pleasant fruits.”
Opposite		[SoJ] 5:1“I have come into my garden, my sister, my spouse; I have gathered my myrrh with my spice; I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey; I have drunk my wine with my milk. Eat, O friends; drink; moreover, drink abundantly, O beloved.”
	¶Complement	Solomon and his wife were temporarily separated (5:2 - 16)
Unique		[SW] 5:2“I sleep, but my heart awakes; it is the voice of my beloved that knocks, saying , ‘Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled: for my head is filled with dew, and my locks with the drops of the night.’ 5:3I have put off my coat; how shall I put it on? I have washed my feet; how shall I defile them?
Complement		[SW] 5:4“ My beloved put in his hand by the opening of the door , and my bowels were moved for him. 5:5I rose up to open to my beloved; and my hands dropped with myrrh, and my fingers with sweet smelling myrrh, upon the handles of the lock. 5:6I opened to my beloved; but my beloved had withdrawn himself, and was gone. My soul failed when he spoke. I searched for him, but I could not find him; I called him, but he gave me no answer.
Complement		[SW] 5:7“ The watchmen that went about the city found me; they struck me; they wounded me; the guards of the walls took away my veil from me. 5:8I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, if you find my beloved, that you tell him, that I am lovesick.”
Opposite		[DoJ] 5:9“ What is your beloved more than another beloved, O you fairest among women? What is your beloved more than another beloved, that you so charge us?”
Opposite		[SW] 5:10“ My beloved is white and ruddy; the most distinguished among ten thousand. 5:11His head is as the most fine gold; his locks are bushy, and black as a raven. 5:12His eyes are as the eyes of doves by the rivers of water, washed with milk, and fity set. 5:13His cheeks are as a bed of spices, as sweet flowers. His lips are like lilies, dropping sweet smelling myrrh. 5:14His hands are as gold rings set with the beryl. His belly is as bright ivory overlaid with sapphires. 5:15His legs are as pillars of marble, set upon sockets of fine gold. His countenance is as Lebanon, excellent as the cedars. 5:16His mouth is most sweet; moreover, he is altogether lovely. This is my beloved, and this is my friend, O daughters of Jerusalem.”
	¶Unique	Solomon wooed his wife with praise (6:1 - 12)
Opposite		[DoJ] 6:1“Where has your beloved gone, O you fairest among women? Where has your beloved turned aside, that we may seek him with you?”
Opposite		[SW] 6:2“ My beloved has gone down into his garden, to the beds of spices; to feed in the gardens, and to gather lilies. 6:3 I am my beloved’s, and my beloved is mine; he feeds among the lilies.”
Complement		[SoJ] 6:4“ You are beautiful, O my love, as Tirzah, lovely as Jerusalem, as impressive as an army with banners. 6:5Turn your eyes away from me: for they have overcome me. Your hair is as a flock of goats that appear from Gilead. 6:6Your teeth are as a flock of sheep which go up from the washing, of which every one bears twins, and there is not one barren among them. 6:7As a piece of a pomegranate are your temples within your locks.
Complement		[SoJ] 6:8“ There are sixty queens, and eighty concubines, and virgins without number. 6:9My dove, my undefiled is but one; she is the only one of her mother; she is the choice one of her that bore her. The daughters saw her, and blessed her; moreover , the queens and the concubines, and they praised her, saying , 6:10‘Who is she that looks forth as the morning, beautiful as the moon, clear as the sun, and as striking as an army with banners?’
Unique		[SoJ] 6:11“ I went down into the garden of nuts to see the fruits of the valley, and to see whether the vine flourished, and the pomegranates budded. 6:12Or ever I was aware, my soul made me like the chariots of Amminadib.”
	§Complement	Conclusion: The marriage of Solomon and the Shulamite woman was strong (6:13 - 8:14)
	¶Complement	The Shulamite woman praised her husband before the daughters of Jerusalem (6:13 - 8:7)
Opposite		[DoJ] 6:13“Return, return, O Shulamite; return; return, that we may look upon you. What would you see in the Shulamite, as it were, the dance of Mahanaim?”
Opposite		[SoJ] 7:1“ How beautiful are your feet with shoes, O prince’s daughter! The joints of your thighs are like jewels, the work of the hands of a cunning workman. 7:2Your navel is like a round goblet, which does not want spiced wine. Your belly is like a heap of wheat set about with lilies. 7:3Your two breasts are like two young gazelles that are twins. 7:4Your neck is as a tower of ivory. Your eyes are like the fish pools in Heshbon, by the gate of Bath-rabbim. Your nose is as the tower of Lebanon which looks toward Damascus. 7:5Your head upon you is like Carmel, and the hair of your head like purple; the king is held in the galleries. 7:6How beautiful and how pleasant you are, O love, for delights! 7:7This your stature is like a palm tree, and your breasts to clusters of grapes . 7:8I said, ‘I will go up to the palm tree; I will take hold of its branches.’ Now also your breasts shall be as clusters of the vine, and the smell of your nose like apples; 7:9and the roof of your mouth like the best wine for my beloved, that goes down sweetly, causing the lips of those that are asleep to speak.”
Complement		[SW] 7:10“ I am my beloved’s; and his desire is toward me. 7:11Come, my beloved, let us go forth into the field; let us lodge in the villages. 7:12Let us go up early to the vineyards; let us see if the vine flourishes, and the tender grape appears, and the pomegranates bud forth; there will I give you my loves. 7:13The mandrakes give a smell, and at our gates are all manner of pleasant fruits , new and old, which I have laid up for you, O my beloved.
Complement		[SW] 8:1“O that you were as my brother, that sucked the breasts of my mother! When I would find you outside, I would kiss you; moreover, I would not be despised. 8:2I would lead you, and bring you into my mother’s house, who would instruct me; I would cause you to drink of spiced wine of the juice of my pomegranate. 8:3His left hand would be under my head, and his right hand would embrace me. 8:4I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, that you do not stir up, nor awaken my love, until he pleases.”
Unique		[SoJ] 8:5“ Who is this that comes up from the wilderness, leaning upon her beloved? I raised you up under the apple tree; there your mother brought you forth; there she brought you forth that bore you. 8:6Set me as a seal upon your heart, as a seal upon your arm: for love is as strong as death; jealousy is as cruel as the grave; its coals are coals of fire, which have a most vehement flame. 8:7Many waters cannot quench love; neither can the floods drown it. If a man would give all the substance of his house for love, it would be utterly despised.”
	¶Complement	Solomon favored the Shulamite woman (8:8 - 14)
Opposite		[DoJ] 8:8“ We have a little sister, and she has no breasts. What shall we do for our sister in the day when she shall be spoken for? [DoJ] 8:9If she is a wall, we will build upon her a fortress of silver; and if she is a door, we will enclose her with boards of cedar.”
Opposite		[SW] 8:10“ I am a wall, and my breasts like towers; then was I in his eyes as one that found favor.
Complement		[SW] 8:11“Solomon had a vineyard at Baal-hamon; he leased out the vineyard to keepers. Everyone for its fruit was to bring a thousand pieces of silver.
Complement		[SW] 8:12“ My vineyard , which is mine, is before me; you, O Solomon, must have a thousand, and those that keep its fruit two hundred.
Unique		[SW] 8:13“ You that dwell in the gardens, the companions listen to your voice; cause me to hear it . 8:14Hurry, my beloved, and be like a gazelle or a young stag upon the mountains of spices.”

§Unique Introduction: Paul's greeting to Titus (1:1 - 4)
¶Opposite Paul, a servant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ (1:1 - 2)
Unique	1:1Paul,
a servant of God and apostle of Jesus Christ,

Complement	and a full knowledge of the truth which agrees with godliness;
1:2in assurance of Eternal Life,
Opposite	which God (that cannot lie) promised before the Ages began;
¶Opposite To Titus, Paul's convert: grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ our Savior (1:3 - 4)
Opposite	1:3but in due times, he has manifested his Word through preaching,
Opposite	which is committed to me according to the command of God our Savior;
1:4to Titus,
Complement	my true son after the common Faith:
Unique	Grace, mercy, and peace,
from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ our Savior.
§Complement Body: Speak and teach the doctrines that adorn the doctrine of God (1:5 - 3:7)
¶Opposite Appoint indigenous pastors, who are faithful to the Word of God, for the new Assemblies in Crete (1:5 - 9)
Unique	1:5For this reason, I left you in Crete:
that you should set in order the things that are lacking;
Complement	and ordain elders in every city, as I directed you:
Complement	1:6if any are blameless, the husband of only one wife, and having faithful children not accused of riot or rebelliousness.
1:7For an Overseer must be blameless, as the steward of God: not self-willed, not quick-tempered, not close to wine, not a fighter, not greedy for dishonest gain;
Opposite	1:8but given to hospitality, a lover of good, sober, just, holy, and temperate; 1:9holding fast the faithful Word as he has been taught, that he may be able by sound teaching both to exhort and to convince the quarrelers.
¶Opposite Rebuke the false teachers, which are defiled and unbelieving, being abominable and disobedient (1:10 - 16)
Opposite	1:10For there are many rebellious men: vain talkers and deceivers, especially they of the circumcision,
1:11whose mouths must be shut; who subvert whole families; teaching things which they should not, for the sake of dishonest gain. 1:12One of them, their own prophet, said, “Cretians are always liars, evil brutes, and unemployed gluttons.”
Opposite	1:13This witness is true; therefore, rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the Faith; 1:14not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men that turn from the truth.
1:15To the pure, all things are pure;
Complement	but to them that are defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure; but even their mind and conscience are defiled.
Unique	1:16They profess that they know God;
but in works they deny him , being abominable and disobedient; and to every good work reprobate.
¶Complement Speak the things which adorn sound teaching, according to each age and gender group (2:1 - 8)
Unique	2:1But you speak the things which adorn sound teaching:
2:2that the elderly men be sober, grave, and temperate: sound in the Faith, in selfless love, and in patience.
Complement	2:3The elderly women likewise, that they behave as adorns holiness: not false accusers, not next to much wine; and teachers of good things:
Complement	2:4that they may teach the young women to love their husbands, and to love their children; 2:5 to be discreet, chaste, homemakers, good, and obedient to their own husbands: that the Word of God be not blasphemed.
2:6Likewise, exhort the young men to be sober minded;
Opposite	2:7in all things showing yourself as an model of good works: in doctrine showing incorruptness, seriousness, and sincerity; 2:8 having sound speech that cannot be condemned, so that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having nothing evil to say about you.
¶Complement Teach the doctrines of godliness and holiness that they may adorn the doctrine of God in all things (2:9 - 15)
Unique	2:9 Exhort servants to be obedient to their own masters, and to please them well in all things ;
not quarreling; 2:10not pilfering, but showing all good fidelity, that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Savior in all things.
Complement	2:11For the grace of God that brings salvation has appeared to all men; 2:12teaching us that denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present Age;
Complement	2:13looking for that Blessed Hope, even the glorious appearing of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ; 2:14who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity; and purify for himself a special people, zealous of good works.
2:15These things speak, exhort, and rebuke, with all authority.
Opposite	Let no man despise you.
¶Unique The kindness and love of God our Savior has appeared, so that we should be made heirs of his Kingdom (3:1 - 7)
Opposite	3:1Remind them to be subject to principalities and authorities; to obey magistrates, to be ready to every good work; 3:2to speak evil of no man; not to be contentious, but gentle, showing all meekness toward all men.
Opposite	3:3For we ourselves also were sometimes foolish, disobedient, and deceived; slaves to various lusts and pleasures; living in malice and envy; hateful, and hating one another.
3:4But then the kindness and love of God our Savior toward man appeared:
Complement	3:5not by works of righteousness which we have done; but according to his mercy, he has saved us by the washing of regeneration and the renewing of the Holy Spirit; 3:6which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Savior;
Unique	3:7so that, being justified by his grace,
we should be made heirs according to the assurance of Life into the Ages.
§Complement Conclusion: Shun the fellowship of heretics, but greet one another in the Faith (3:8 - 15)
¶Complement Shun the fellowship of those who teach false doctrines (3:8 - 11)
Opposite	3:8 This is a faithful saying; and I want you to affirm these things constantly, that they who have believed God may be careful to lead in good works; these things are good and beneficial to men.
Opposite	3:9But avoid foolish questions, and genealogies, and contentions, and strivings about the Law: for they are useless and vain.
3:10A man that is a heretic after the first and second admonition, shun him ;
Complement	3:11knowing that he that is such has been subverted;
Unique	and he sins,
being condemned of himself.
¶Complement Greet one another in the faith (3:12 - 15)
Opposite	3:12When I shall send to you Artemas or Tychicus, be diligent to come to me to Nicopolis: for I have decided to winter there. 3:13Bring Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their journey diligently, so that nothing is lacking to them.
Opposite	3:14And let ours also learn to maintain good works for necessary uses, so they are not unfruitful.
3:15All that are with me greet you.
Complement	Greet them that love us in the Faith.
Unique	Grace be with you all.
Amen.

§Complement	Body: If you have been truly born again, put the Word of God into practice with good works (1:9 - 4:12)
¶Unique	Receive the Word with meekness, and be doers of the Word and not hearers only (1:9 - 27)
¶Complement	God has chosen the poor of this world who are rich in faith, but the rich oppress you (2:1 - 13)
¶Complement	True faith in Christ must be accompanied by godly works or it is not true faith (2:14 - 26)
¶Opposite	Make your tongue to serve and to praise God instead of the flesh (3:1 - 18)
¶Opposite	Do not speak evil of one another (4:1 - 12)
§Unique	Conclusion: Be patient with each other, and pray for one another as did Job and the prophets (4:13 - 5:20)
¶Complement	Be patient with each other, and follow the examples of Job and the prophets (4:13 - 5:11)
¶Complement	Pray for one other, and pray earnestly like the prophet Elijah (5:12 - 20)

	§Complement	Introduction: James to the twelve tribes: if you lack wisdom, ask of God without a double mind (1:1 - 8)
	¶Opposite	James to the twelve tribes of Israel scattered abroad (1:1 - 4)
Unique	1:1	James,
		a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ;
Complement		to the twelve tribes of Israel that are scattered abroad:
Complement		greeting.
Opposite	1:2	My brethren, count it all joy when you fall into diverse temptations; ^{1:3} knowing this , that the testing of your faith works patience.
Opposite	1:4	But let patience have her perfect work, that you may be perfect and entire, lacking nothing.
	¶Opposite	If you lack wisdom, ask God in faith, but not with a double mind (1:5 - 8)
Opposite	1:5	If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God, that gives to all liberally, and does not reproach;
Opposite		and it shall be given him.
Complement	1:6	But let him ask in faith, not doubting at all:
Complement		for he that doubts is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed.
Unique	1:7	For do not let that man think that he shall receive anything from the Lord.
	1:8	A double-minded man is unstable in all his ways.
	§Complement	Body: If you have been truly born again, put the Word of God into practice with good works (1:9 - 4:12)
	¶Unique	Receive the Word with meekness, and be doers of the Word and not hearers only (1:9 - 27)
Opposite	1:9	Let the brother of low degree rejoice in that he is exalted. ^{1:10} But let the rich rejoice , in that he is made low, because as the flower of the grass shall he pass away. ^{1:11} For the sun rose with burning heat, and it withered the grass, and its flower fell, and the grace of its appearance perished; so also, the rich man shall fade away in his ways.
Opposite	1:12	Blessed is the man that endures temptation: for when he has been tested, he shall receive the crown of Life, which the Lord has promised to them that love him. ^{1:13} Let no man say when he is tempted, “I am tempted by God”: for God cannot be tempted with evil; neither does he tempt any man. ^{1:14} But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away by his own lust, and enticed. ^{1:15} Then when lust has conceived, it births sin; and sin, when it is fully grown, brings forth death.
Complement	1:16	Do not go astray from the truth , my beloved brethren. ^{1:17} Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and comes down from the Father of Lights, with whom is no variation; neither shadow of turning. ^{1:18} Of his own will, he begot us with the Word of truth, that we should be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures. ^{1:19} Therefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, and slow to wrath: ^{1:20} for the wrath of man does not work the righteousness of God. ^{1:21} Therefore having put aside all filthiness and excess of evil, receive with meekness the implanted Word, which is able to save your souls.
Complement	1:22	But be doers of the Word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves. ^{1:23} For if anyone is a hearer of the Word, and not a doer, he is like a man beholding his natural face in a mirror: ^{1:24} for he beholds himself, and goes his way, and immediately forgets what manner of man he was. ^{1:25} But whoso looks into the perfect Law of liberty, and continues in it (he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work), this man shall be blessed in his deed.
Unique	1:26	If any man among you seems to be religious, and yet does not control his tongue, but deceives his own heart, this man’s religion is vain.
	1:27	Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this: to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction; and to keep himself unspotted from the world.
	¶Complement	God has chosen the poor of this world who are rich in faith, but the rich oppress you (2:1 - 13)
Unique	2:1	My brethren, do not have the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the God of glory, with discrimination against the poor .
	2:2	For if a man comes into your Synagogue with a gold ring and dressed in rich clothes, and a poor man also comes in wearing filthy clothes, ^{2:3} and you show preference to the man wearing the rich clothing, and say to him, “You sit here in a good place”, but you say to the poor, “You stand there”, or “Sit here under my footstool”, ^{2:4} are you not then prejudiced in yourselves? And have you not become judges of evil thoughts?
Complement	2:5	Listen, my beloved brethren: Has not God chosen the poor of this world who are rich in faith, and who are also heirs of the Kingdom that he has promised to them that love him?
Complement	2:6	But you have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, and drag you before the judgment seats?
	2:7	Do they not blaspheme that worthy Name by which you are called?
Opposite	2:8	If, however, you fulfill the royal Law according to the Scripture: “ You shall love your neighbor as yourself ”, you do well; ^{2:9} but if you discriminate against the poor , you commit sin, and are convicted by the Law as transgressors. ^{2:10} For whosoever shall keep the whole Law, and yet offend in one point , he is guilty of all. ^{2:11} For he that said, “ Do not commit adultery ,” said also, “ Do not kill .” Therefore, if you do not commit adultery, but you also kill, you have become a transgressor of the entire Law.
Opposite	2:12	So speak, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the Law of liberty. ^{2:13} For he shall have judgment without mercy, on him who has shown no mercy; and mercy rejoices over judgment.
	¶Complement	True faith in Christ must be accompanied by godly works or it is not true faith (2:14 - 26)
Unique	2:14	My brethren, what benefit is it , if a man says that he has faith, but has no works?
		Can faith alone save him?
Complement	2:15	For example , if a brother or sister is naked, and has no daily food, ^{2:16} and one of you says to them, “Go in peace; be warmed and filled”, notwithstanding you do not give them those things that are necessary to the body: what good is it ?
Complement	2:17	Even so faith, if it has no works, is dead, being alone. ^{2:18} Indeed, a man may say, “You have faith, and I have works; show me your faith without your works, and I will show you my faith by my works.”
Opposite	2:19	You believe that there is one God; you do well; the demons also believe, and tremble.
Opposite	2:20	But will you know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead? ^{2:21} Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar? ^{2:22} Do you see how that faith assisted his works; and out of the works faith was fully developed? ^{2:23} And the Scripture was fulfilled which says, “ Abraham believed God, and his faith was credited to him for righteousness ”; and he was called “ the Friend of God .” ^{2:24} You all see, then, how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith alone. ^{2:25} Likewise also, was not Rahab the prostitute justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and sent them out another way? ^{2:26} For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is also dead.
	¶Opposite	Make your tongue to serve and to praise God instead of the flesh (3:1 - 18)
Unique	3:1	My brethren, be not many teachers, knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation:
	3:2	for in many things, we offend everyone.
Complement		If any man does not offend in word, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body. ^{3:3} Behold, we put bridles in the horses’ mouths, so that they may obey us; and we turn around their entire body. ^{3:4} Behold also the ships, which although they are so large, and are driven by fierce winds; yet, they are guided with a very small rudder, wheresoever the governor chooses.
Complement	3:5	Even so, the tongue is a little member, and boasts great things. Behold, how great a forest a little fire burns!
	3:6	And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity; so is the tongue among our members, that it defiles the whole body, and sets on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of Hell. ^{3:7} For every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tame, and has been tamed by mankind; ^{3:8} but no man can tame the tongue; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison. ^{3:9} With it, we bless God, even the Father; and with it, we curse men, which are made after the similitude of God. ^{3:10} Out of the same mouth proceeds both blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things should not be so. ^{3:11} Does a fountain send forth at the same place both sweet water and bitter? ^{3:12} Can the fig tree, my brethren, bear olive berries? Either a vine, figs? So no fountain can yield both salt water and fresh.
Opposite	3:13	Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? Let him show from his good conduct, his works done in the meekness of wisdom. ^{3:14} But if you have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, do not boast or lie against the truth. ^{3:15} This wisdom does not descend from above, but is earthly, sensual, and demonic. ^{3:16} for where there is envying and strife, there is confusion and every evil work.
Opposite	3:17	But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceful, gentle, and easy to be entreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without prejudice, and without hypocrisy. ^{3:18} And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by them that make peace.
	¶Opposite	Do not speak evil of one another (4:1 - 12)
Opposite	4:1	Where do wars and fighting come from among you? Do they not come from here, even of your lusts that war in your bodily members? ^{4:2} You lust, but do not have; you kill, and desire to have, but cannot obtain; you fight and make war: yet, you do not have, because you do not ask of God . ^{4:3} You ask of God , but do not receive, because you ask amiss, that you may consume it upon your lusts. ^{4:4} You adulterers and adulteresses, do you not know that the friendship of the world of sin is hatred of God? Therefore, whosoever chooses to be a friend of the world of sin has become an enemy of God. ^{4:5} Do you think that the Scripture says in vain, “ The spirit that dwells in us lusts to envy ?”
Opposite	4:6	But he gives more grace; therefore, he says, “ God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble .”
	4:7	Therefore, submit yourselves to God; resist the devil, and he will flee from you; ^{4:8} draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners; and purify your hearts, you double minded. ^{4:9} Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep; let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness. ^{4:10} Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up.
Complement	4:11	Brethren, do not speak evil one of another.
Complement		He that speaks evil of his brother, and judges his brother, speaks evil of the Law, and judges the Law; but if you judge the Law, you are not a doer of the Law, but a judge.
Unique	4:12	There is only one Lawgiver, who is able both to save and to destroy.
		Who are you that judges another?
	§Unique	Conclusion: Be patient with each other, and pray for one another as did Job and the prophets (4:13 - 5:20)
	¶Complement	Be patient with each other, and follow the examples of Job and the prophets (4:13 - 5:11)
Opposite	4:13	Come now! Those of you that say, “Today or tomorrow, we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy and sell, and make money”; ^{4:14} whereas you do not know what shall happen even on the next day. For what is your life? It is even a vapor that appears for a little time, and then vanishes away. ^{4:15} For that reason , you should say, “If the Lord has willed it , we shall live, and do this, or that.” ^{4:16} But now you rejoice in your boasting; all such rejoicing is evil; ^{4:17} therefore to him that knows to do good, but does not do it : to him, it is sin.
Opposite	5:1	Come now, you rich men! Weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you . ^{5:2} Your riches have been corrupted, and your garments are moth-eaten. ^{5:3} Your gold and silver has become rusted; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. You have heaped treasure together for the Last Days. ^{5:4} Behold, the hire of the laborers which have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, cries out. And the cries of them which have reaped have entered into the ears of the Lord of Hosts. ^{5:5} You have lived in pleasure and luxury upon the Earth; you have nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter. ^{5:6} You have condemned and killed the just, and he does not resist you.
Complement	5:7	Therefore, brethren, be patient until the coming of the Lord. Behold, the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth; and has long patience for it, until he receives the early and latter rain. ^{5:8} You also, be patient; establish your hearts: for the coming of the Lord is drawing near.
Complement	5:9	Do not complain one against another, brethren, lest you are condemned; behold, the Judge is standing before the door.
Unique	5:10	My brethren, take the prophets, who have spoken in the Name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction, and of patience.
	5:11	Behold, we count them happy which endure. You have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the end of the Lord, that the Lord is very kind, and compassionate.
	¶Complement	Pray for one other, and pray earnestly like the prophet Elijah (5:12 - 20)
Opposite	5:12	But above all things, my brethren, do not swear; neither by Heaven, nor by the Earth, neither by any other oath; but let your yes be yes; and your no, no; lest you fall into condemnation.
Opposite	5:13	Is anyone among you afflicted? Let him pray. Is anyone merry? Let him sing psalms. ^{5:14} Is anyone sick among you? Let him call for the elders of the Assembly; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the Name of the Lord; ^{5:15} and the prayer of faith shall deliver the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he has committed sins, they shall be forgiven him.
Complement	5:16	Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that you may be healed. The powerful prayer of a righteous man avails much.
Complement	5:17	Elijah was a man subject to like passions as we are, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain; and it did not rain on the earth by the space of three years and six months. ^{5:18} And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit.
Unique	5:19	Brethren in Christ , if any of you wanders from the truth, and one brings him back to the Lord , ^{5:20} let him know, that the one who brings the sinner back from the error of his way, shall save a soul from death; and he shall hide a multitude of sins.

Works, Chapter 2.5 (1 John): Walk in obedience to his Commandments (1:1 - 5:21)
§Complement	Introduction: The Eternal Life and Light of Jesus cannot coexist peacefully in the life of a believer with sin (1:1 - 10)
¶Opposite	John and the other apostles witnessed the manifestation of Eternal Life in the Person of Jesus Christ (1:1 - 4)
¶Opposite	If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins (1:5 - 10)

¶Opposite	We know that we know Christ as our Savior if we do his Commandments (2:1 - 11)
¶Opposite	If any man loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him (2:12 - 17)
¶Complement	An Antichrist will deny the Father and the Son (2:18 - 27)
¶Complement	A true child of God cannot continually sin (2:28 - 3:24)
¶Unique	God is love (4:1 - 5:3)
§Unique	Conclusion: Eternal life is found only in Jesus, the Son of God, and the true God (5:4 - 21)
¶Complement	Eternal life is found only in Jesus, the Son of God (5:4 - 13)
¶Complement	Jesus is the true God and Eternal Life (5:14 - 21)

	§Complement	Introduction: The Eternal Life and Light of Jesus cannot coexist peacefully in the life of a believer with sin (1:1 - 10)
	¶Opposite	John and the other apostles witnessed the manifestation of Eternal Life in the Person of Jesus Christ (1:1 - 4)
Unique		1:1That which was from the beginning: which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, of the Word of Life:
Complement		1:2for the Life was manifested;
Complement		and we have seen it , and bear witness, and declare to you that Eternal Life, which was with the Father, and was manifested to us.
Opposite		1:3Therefore, that which we have seen and heard, we declare to you, that you also may have fellowship with us; and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ.
Opposite		1:4And we write these things to you, so that your joy may be full.
	¶Opposite	If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins (1:5 - 10)
Opposite		1:5This, then, is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you: that God is Light; and in him, there is no darkness at all. 1:6If we claim that we have fellowship with him, but walk in darkness, we are lying, and not telling the truth.
Opposite		1:7But if we walk in the Light, as he is in the Light, we have fellowship one with another; and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son constantly cleanses us from all sin.
Complement		1:8If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.
Complement		1:9If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.
Unique		1:10If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar; and his Word is not in us.
	§Complement	Body: A true child of God will manifest the holiness and truth of Jesus Christ in his life (2:1 - 5:3)
	¶Opposite	We know that we know Christ as our Savior if we do his Commandments (2:1 - 11)
Unique		2:1My little children, I write these things to you, so that you sin not; but if any man sins, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the Righteous.
		2:2And he himself is the propitiation for our sins; and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.
Complement		2:3And by this, we know that we know him: if we do his Commandments. 2:4He that says, “I know him”, but does not do his Commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.
Complement		2:5But whoso keeps his Word, the love of God is truly perfected in him; by this know we that we are in him.
		2:6He that says that he remains in him should himself also walk in the same manner as Jesus walked.
Opposite		2:7Brethren, I do not write a new Commandment to you, but an old Commandment which you had from the beginning. The old Commandment is the Word which you have heard from the beginning.
Opposite		2:8Again, a new Commandment I write to you, which thing is true in him and in you, because the darkness is past, and the true Light is already shining. 2:9He that says that he is in the Light, and hates his brother, is in darkness even until now. 2:10He that loves his brother remains in the Light, and there is no stumblingblock in him. 2:11But he that hates his brother is in darkness, and walks in darkness; and does not know where he is going, because that darkness has blinded his eyes.
	¶Opposite	If any man loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him (2:12 - 17)
Opposite		2:12I write to you, little children, because your sins have been forgiven you for his Name’s sake. 2:13I write to you, fathers, because you have known him from the beginning. I write to you, young men, because you have overcome the Evil one.
Opposite		I write to you, little children, because you have known the Father. 2:14I have written to you, fathers, because you have known him from the beginning. I have written to you, young men, because you are strong, and the Word of God remains in you, and you have overcome the Evil one.
Complement		2:15Love not the world; neither the things that are in the world.
Complement		If any man loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him: 2:16for all that is in the world (the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life) is not of the Father, but is of the world.
Unique		2:17And the world is passing away, and its lust; but he that is doing the will of God remains forever.
	¶Complement	An Antichrist will deny the Father and the Son (2:18 - 27)
Unique		2:18Little children, it is the Last Time; and as you have heard that the Antichrist shall come, even now there are many antichrists; by this, we know that it is the Last Time.
		2:19They went out from us, but they were not of us: for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us. But they went out , that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us.
Complement		2:20But you have an Anointing from the Holy One, and you know all things. 2:21I have not written to you because you do not know the truth, but because you do know it, and that no lie is of the truth.
Complement		2:22Who is the liar, if not he that denies that Jesus is the Christ? This is Antichrist: the one who denies the equality of the Father and the Son. 2:23Whosoever denies the Son, does not have the Father; but he that confesses the Son has the Father also.
Opposite		2:24Therefore let this doctrine remain in you, which you have heard from the beginning. If this doctrine , which you have heard from the beginning, shall remain in you, you also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father. 2:25And this is the promise that he has promised us, even Eternal Life. 2:26 These things have I written to you concerning them that seduce you.
Opposite		2:27But the Anointing which you have received of him remains in you; and you do not need that any man teach you; but as the same Anointing teaches you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as he has taught you, you shall remain in him.
	¶Complement	A true child of God cannot continually sin (2:28 - 3:24)
Unique		2:28And now, little children, remain in him, so that when he shall appear, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming.
		2:29If you know that he is righteous, you know that every one that works righteousness is born of him.
Complement		3:1Behold, what manner of love the Father has bestowed upon us, that we should be called the children of God; therefore the world does not know us, because it did not know him. 3:2Beloved, we are now the children of God; and what we will be has not yet been revealed; but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him: for we shall see him as he is. 3:3And every man that has this hope in him purifies himself, even as Jesus is pure. 3:4Whosoever commits sin also transgresses the Law: for sin is the transgression of the Law. 3:5And you know that he was manifested to take away our sins; and no sin is in him. 3:6Whosoever remains in him does not practice sin; but whosoever continually sins has not seen him; neither [has he ever] known him.
Complement		3:7Little children, let no man deceive you; he that works righteousness is righteous, even as Jesus is righteous.
		3:8He that continually sins is of the devil: for the devil sins from the beginning. The Son of God was manifested for this purpose, that he might destroy the works of the devil. 3:9Whosoever is born of God does not continually sin: for his Seed remains in him; and he cannot continually sin, because he is born of God. 3:10In this the children of God and the children of the devil are distinguished: whosoever does not do righteous works is not of God; neither he that does not love his Christian brother: 3:11for this is the message that you heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. 3:12Not as Cain, who was of that Evil one, and killed his brother. And why did he kill him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother’s were righteous.
Opposite		3:13Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hates you. 3:14We know that we have passed from spiritual death to spiritual Life, because we love the Christian brethren. He that does not love his brother remains in spiritual death. 3:15Whosoever hates his brother is a murderer; and you know that no murderer has Eternal Life dwelling in him. 3:16In this, we know the love of God , because Jesus laid down his life for us; and we should lay down our lives for the brethren. 3:17But whoso has this world’s material good, and sees that his brother has need, and shuts up his bowels of compassion from him, how does the love of God dwell in him?
Opposite		3:18My little children, let us not love in word; neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth. 3:19And by this we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him: 3:20because if our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and knows all things . 3:21Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, then do we have confidence toward God; 3:22and whatsoever we ask, we receive from him, because we keep his Commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight. 3:23And this is his Commandment, that we should believe on the Name of his Son Jesus Christ, and should love one another, as he gave us Commandment. 3:24And he that keeps his Commandments, dwells in him, and he in him. And by this we know that he dwells in us, by the Holy Spirit which he has given us.
Opposite		4:1Beloved, believe not every spirit; but test the spirits to see whether they are of God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world. 4:2By this test , you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God; 4:3and every spirit that does not confess that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh, is not of God. And this is that spirit of Antichrist; of which, you have heard that it would come; and even now, it is already in the world.
Opposite		4:4You are of God, little children, and have overcome them, because greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world. 4:5They are of the world; therefore they speak of the world, and the world hears them. 4:6We are of God; he that knows God hears us; he that is not of God does not hear us. By this, we know the Spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.
Complement		4:7Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loves is born of God, and knows God. 4:8He that does not love, does not know God: for God is love. 4:9By this, the love of God was manifested toward us, because God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him. 4:10In this is love: not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.
Complement		4:11Beloved, if God so loved us, we should also love one another. 4:12No man has seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwells in us, and his love is perfected in us. 4:13By this we know that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. 4:14And we have seen and testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Savior of the world. 4:15Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God: God dwells in him, and he in God. 4:16And we have known and believed the love that God has to us. God is love; and he that dwells in love dwells in God, and God in him. 4:17Herein is our love made perfect, that we may have boldness in the Day of Judgment; because as he is, so are we in this world. 4:18There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear, because fear has torment. He that fears is not made perfect in love.
Unique		4:19We love him, because he first loved us. 4:20If a man says, “I love God”, but also hates his brother, he is a liar: for he that does not love his brother whom he has seen, how can he love God whom he has not seen? 4:21And we have this Commandment from him, that he who loves God, must also love his brother. 5:1Whosoever believes that Jesus is the Christ is born of God; and every one that loves him that begot loves him also that is begotten of him.
		5:2By this, we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and keep his Commandments: 5:3for this is the love of God, that we keep his Commandments; and his Commandments are not grievous.
	§Unique	Conclusion: Eternal life is found only in Jesus, the Son of God, and the true God (5:4 - 21)
	¶Complement	Eternal life is found only in Jesus, the Son of God (5:4 - 13)
Opposite		5:4For whatsoever is born of God overcomes the world; and this is the victory that overcomes the world, even our faith.
Opposite		5:5Who is he that overcomes the world, but he that believes that Jesus is the Son of God?
Complement		5:6This is he that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit that bears witness, because the Spirit is truth: 5:7for there are three that bear witness in Heaven: the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit; and these three are one; 5:8and there are three that bear witness in Earth: the Spirit, the water, and the blood; and these three agree in one. 5:9If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for this is the witness of God which he has testified of his Son.
Complement		5:10He that believes on the Son of God has the witness in himself. He that does not believe God has made him a liar, because he does not believe the record that God gave of his Son.
Unique		5:11And this is the record, that God has given to us Eternal Life, and this Life is in his Son. 5:12He that has the Son has Life; and he that does not have the Son of God does not have Life.
		5:13These things have I written to you that believe on the Name of the Son of God, that you may know that you have Eternal Life, and that you may continue to believe on the Name of the Son of God.
	¶Complement	Jesus is the true God, and Eternal Life (5:14 - 21)
Opposite		5:14And this is the confidence that we have in him, that if we ask anything according to his will, he hears us; 5:15and if we know that he hears us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have obtained the petitions that we desired of him.
Opposite		5:16If any man sees his brother sin a sin which is not unto death: he shall ask, and he shall give him life for them that do not sin unto death. There is a sin unto death; I do not say that he should pray for it. 5:17All unrighteousness is sin; and there is a sin not unto death.
Complement		5:18We know that whosoever is born of God does not continually sin; but he that is begotten of God protects himself, and therefore the Evil one does not touch him.
Complement		5:19We know that we are of God, and the whole world lies in wickedness.
Unique		5:20And we know that the Son of God has come, and has given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This Jesus is the true God, and Eternal Life.
		5:21Little children, protect yourselves from the idols. Amen.

	¶Opposite	Greetings from Paul and Sosthenes, with grace and peace from the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ (1:1 - 3)
Unique		1:1Paul, called an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother;

Complement		to them that are sanctified in Christ Jesus (called saints), with all that in every place call upon the Name of Jesus Christ our Lord (both theirs and ours):

Opposite		from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
	¶Opposite	The faithfulness and grace of God will confirm you until the Coming of Christ (1:4 - 9)
Opposite		1:4I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which was given you in Jesus Christ, 1:5that in everything you were enriched in him: in all utterance, and in all knowledge 1:6(even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you), 1:7so that you come behind in no gift;
Opposite		waiting for the Coming of our Lord Jesus Christ;

Complement		1:8who shall also confirm you until the end,
Complement		that you may be blameless in the Day of our Lord Jesus Christ.
Unique		1:9God is faithful,
		by whom you were called to the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

	§Complement	Body: True wisdom is only found in the Gospel of Christ and in the written Word of God (1:10 - 3:23)
	¶Unique	The members of the Assembly were divided by personality worship of famous preachers (1:10 - 16)
Opposite		1:10Now I exhort you, brethren, by the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you all speak the same thing; and that there be no divisions among you; but that you be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment.
Opposite		1:11For it has been declared to me concerning you, my brethren, by them of the family of Chloe, that there are contentions among you.
Complement		1:12Now this I say, that every one of you says, “I am of Paul”, and “I of Apollos”, and “I of Cephas”, and “I of Christ.”
Complement		1:13Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul?
Unique		1:14I thank God that I baptized none of you, except Crispus and Gaius, 1:15lest anyone should say that I had baptized in my own name.
		1:16And I baptized also the household of Stephanas; besides these , I do not know whether I baptized any others.

	¶Complement	The preaching of the Gospel of Christ is far greater than human wisdom (1:17 - 31)
Unique		1:17For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the Gospel; but not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made ineffective.
		1:18For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness, but to us who are saved it is the power of God: 1:19for it is written, “ I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent. ”
Complement		1:20Where is the wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the disputer of this world? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of this Age? 1:21For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom did not know God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.
Complement		1:22For the Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after philosophical wisdom; 1:23but we preach Christ crucified: to the Jews a stumblingblock, and to the Greeks foolishness; 1:24but to them who are called (both Jews and Greeks), Christ is both the power of God and the wisdom of God, 1:25because the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God is stronger than men.
Opposite		1:26For you see your calling, brethren, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, and not many noble, are called . 1:27But God has chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise, and God has chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty; 1:28and base things of the world, and things which are despised has God chosen, and things that are not, to bring to nothing things that are, 1:29that no flesh should glory in his presence.
Opposite		1:30But of him are you in Christ Jesus; who of God is made unto us wisdom, righteousness, sanctification, and redemption; 1:31that, according as it is written, “ He that glories, let him glory in the Lord. ”

	¶Complement	True wisdom is revealed by the Holy Spirit through the Scriptures (2:1 - 16)
Unique		2:1And I, brethren, when I came to you, did not come with excellence of speech or of wisdom, declaring to you the testimony of God: 2:2for I determined not to know anything among you, except Jesus Christ, and him crucified.
		2:3And I was with you in weakness, in fear, and in much trembling. 2:4And my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man’s wisdom; but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power, 2:5that your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.
Complement		2:6Nevertheless, we do speak wisdom among them that are spiritually mature; yet not the wisdom of this Age, nor of the princes of this Age, that come to nothing; 2:7but we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom , which God ordained before the Ages unto our glory. 2:8Which none of the princes of this Age knew: for had they known it , they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.
Complement		2:9But as it is written, “ Eye has not seen, nor ear heard; neither has entered into the heart of man, the things which God has prepared for them that love him. ” 2:10But God has revealed them to us by his Holy Spirit: for the Spirit searches all things; indeed, the deep things of God. 2:11For what man knows the hidden things of a man, except the spirit of man which is in him? Even so no man knows the hidden things of God, but the Spirit of God.
Opposite		2:12Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit which is of God, that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God. 2:13Which things also we speak; not in the words which man’s wisdom teaches, but which the Holy Spirit teaches: comparing spiritual things with spiritual.
Opposite		2:14But the natural man does not receive the things of the Spirit of God, because they are foolishness to him; neither can he know them , because they are spiritually discerned. 2:15But he that is spiritual discerns all things, yet he himself is discerned by no man. 2:16For who has known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.

	¶Opposite	The members of the Assembly were carnal and immature believers (3:1 - 9)
Unique		3:1And I, brethren, could not speak to you as to spiritual believers ;
		but as to carnal, even as to infants in Christ.
Complement		3:2I have fed you with milk, and not with solid food: for until now you were not able to bear it ; neither yet now are you able: 3:3for you are still carnal.
Complement		For whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are you not carnal, and walk as lost men? 3:4For while one says, “I am of Paul”; and another, “ I am of Apollos”: are you not carnal?
Opposite		3:5Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom you believed, even as the Lord gave to every man? 3:6I have planted, and Apollos watered; but God gave the increase. 3:7So then neither is he that plants anything; neither he that waters; but it is God that gives the increase.
Opposite		3:8So he that plants and he that waters are one; and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labor. 3:9For we are co-laborers with God: you are God’s field; you are God’s building.

	¶Opposite	To be truly wise, you must become a fool in the eyes of the world (3:10 - 23)
Opposite		3:10According to the grace of God which was given to me, as a wise architect, I have laid the foundation, and another builds on it. But let every man take heed how he builds upon it: 3:11for no man is able to lay a different foundation beside the one which is laid, which is Jesus Christ. 3:12And if any man builds upon this foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, or stubble: 3:13every man’s work shall be made manifest: for the Day of Judgment shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall test every man’s work of what sort it is: 3:14if any man’s work remains which he has built on it, he shall receive a reward; 3:15if any man’s work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss; but he himself shall be saved, yet so as by fire.
Opposite		3:16Do you not know that all of you are a Temple of God, and the Spirit of God dwells in you? 3:17If any man defiles the Temple of God, him shall God destroy: for the Temple of God is holy, which Temple all of you are.
Complement		3:18Let no man deceive himself; if any man among you seems to be wise in this Age, let him become a fool, that he may be truly wise.
Complement		3:19For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God: for it is written, “ He takes the wise in their own craftiness. ” 3:20And again, “ The Lord knows the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain. ”
Unique		3:21Therefore let no man glory in men:
		for all things are yours, 3:22whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours, 3:23and you are Christ’s, and Christ is God’s.

	§Unique	Conclusion: Selfishness and pride will inhibit your spiritual growth (4:1 - 21)
	¶Complement	The only judgment that is important is the Judgment of the Lord Jesus (4:1 - 7)
Opposite		4:1Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God.
Opposite		4:2Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful.
Complement		4:3But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you, or of man’s judgment; indeed, I do not judge my own self: 4:4for I know nothing by myself, yet am I not hereby justified; but he that judges me is the Lord.
Complement		4:5Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord comes, who will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts; and then shall every man have praise of God.
Unique		4:6And these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to myself and to Apollos for your sakes, that you might learn in us not to think of men above that which is written in Scripture , so that none of you are puffed up for one against another.
		4:7For who makes you different from another person ? And what do you have that you did not receive? Now if you received it , why do you glory, as if you had not received it ?
	¶Complement	Submit yourselves to the guidance of mature, faithful believers (4:8 - 21)
Opposite		4:8Now you are full; now you are rich; you have reigned as kings without us, and I would to God you did reign, that we also might reign with you.
Opposite		4:9For I think that God has set forth us the apostles last, as it were appointed to death: for we are made a spectacle to the world, and to angels, and to men. 4:10We are fools for Christ’s sake, but you are wise in Christ; we are weak, but you are strong; you are honorable, but we are despised. 4:11Even to this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are poorly clothed, and are beaten, and have no certain dwelling place. 4:12And we labor, working with our own hands; being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it; 4:13being defamed, we entreat; we are made as the filth of the world, and are the offscouring of all things until this day.
Complement		4:14I do not write these things to shame you, but as my beloved sons I warn you : 4:15for though you have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet you do not have many spiritual fathers: for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the Gospel.
Complement		4:16Therefore I exhort you, be followers of me. 4:17For this reason I have sent to you Timothy, who is my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord; who shall bring you into remembrance of my ways which are in Christ, as I teach everywhere in every Assembly.
Unique		4:18Now some are proud, as though I would not come to you. 4:19But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord will; and I will know, not the speech of them who are proud, but the power: 4:20for the Kingdom of God is not in word, but in power.
		4:21What do you want? Shall I come to you with a rod; or in love, and the spirit of meekness?

Spiritual	Maturity, Chapter 1.2: Glorify God in your body through selfless love (5:1 - 7:40)
$Unique	Introduction: Excommunicate the sinning brother, and do not celebrate the Lord’s Table with him (5:1 - 13)
¶Opposite	Excommunicate the sinning brother from membership in your Assembly (5:1 - 8)
¶Opposite	Do not celebrate the Lord’s Table with the sinning brother (5:9 - 13)
$Complement	Body: Marriage and the single life for believers (6:1 - 7:24)
¶Opposite	Judge disputes between church members within the church, and not in public court (6:1 - 11)
¶Opposite	Flee fornication, because your body is a Temple of the Holy Spirit (6:12 - 20)
¶Complement	A healthy sexual relationship with your spouse helps prevent fornication (7:1 - 5)
¶Complement	Marriage is preferable to the single life if lust is a problem (7:6 - 17)
¶Unique	Freedom is always preferable to slavery (7:18 - 24)
$Complement	Conclusion: Marriage is a permanent commitment; ensure that it is the will of God beforehand (7:25 - 40)
¶Complement	In certain situations, it is preferable to remain single (7:25 - 35)
¶Complement	A woman is bound by the Law to remain married to her husband as long as he lives (7:36 - 40)

	$Unique	Introduction: Excommunicate the sinning brother, and do not celebrate the Lord’s Table with him (5:1 - 13)
	¶Opposite	Excommunicate the sinning brother from membership in your Assembly (5:1 - 8)
Unique		⁵¹ It is reported commonly that there is fornication among you; and such fornication as is not so much as named among the Gentiles, that one has the wife of his father.
Complement		⁵² But you are proud; and you have not rather mourned, that he that has done this deed might be excommunicated from among you.
Complement		⁵³ For truly (as absent in body, but present in spirit) I have judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that has so done this deed: ⁵⁴ in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when you are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ, ⁵⁵ to deliver such a one to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the Day of the Lord Jesus.
Opposite		⁵⁶ Your glorying is not good. Do you not know that a little yeast leavens the whole lump of dough ? ⁵⁷ Therefore purge out the old leaven, that you may be a new lump, as you are unleavened.
Opposite		For even Christ our Passover was sacrificed for us; ⁵⁸ therefore let us keep the feast of the Lord’s Table ; but not with old leaven; neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.
	¶Opposite	Do not celebrate the Lord’s Table with the sinning brother (5:9 - 13)
Opposite		⁵⁹ I wrote to you in a letter, not to associate with fornicators;
Opposite		⁵¹⁰ yet not completely from the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous, or extortionists, or with idolaters: for then you would be obliged to leave the world.
Complement		⁵¹¹ But now I have written to you not to associate, if any man that is called a Christian brother is a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortionist: with such a one, no, you should not even eat.
Complement		⁵¹² For what have I to do to judge them also that are outside? Do you not judge them that are within?
Unique		⁵¹³ But them that are outside the Assembly , God judges. Therefore put away from among yourselves that wicked person.
	$Complement	Body: Marriage and the single life for believers (6:1 - 7:24)
	¶Opposite	Judge disputes between church members within the church, and not in public court (6:1 - 11)
Unique		⁶¹ Do any of you dare, having a matter against another, to go to court before the unjust, and not before the saints? ⁶² Do you not know that the saints shall judge the world? And if the world shall be judged by you, are you unworthy to judge the smallest matters? ⁶³ Do you not know that we shall judge angels? How much more things that pertain to this life? ⁶⁴ If then you have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in the Assembly.
Complement		⁶⁵ I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? No, not even one that shall be able to judge between his brethren? ⁶⁶ But brother goes to civil court with brother, and that before the unbelievers.
Complement		⁶⁷ Now therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because you go to court one with another. Why do you not rather take wrong? Why do you not rather allow yourselves to be defrauded? ⁶⁸ No, you do wrong, and defraud, and that your own brethren.
Opposite		⁶⁹ Do you not know that the unrighteous shall not inherit the Kingdom of God? Be not deceived; neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor male prostitutes, nor homosexuals, ⁶¹⁰ nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortionists shall inherit the Kingdom of God.
Opposite		⁶¹¹ And such were some of you; but you were washed, but you were sanctified, but you were justified in the Name of the Lord Jesus, and in the Spirit of our God.
	¶Opposite	Flee fornication, because your body is a Temple of the Holy Spirit (6:12 - 20)
Opposite		⁶¹² All things are lawful to me, but all things are not good; all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any.
Opposite		⁶¹³ Food is for the belly, and the belly for food; but God shall destroy both it and them.
Complement		Now the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord; and the Lord is for the body; ⁶¹⁴ and God has both raised up the Lord Jesus, and will also raise up us by his own power. ⁶¹⁵ Do you not know that your bodies are the parts of Christ’s Body ? Shall I then take the parts of Christ’s Body , and make them the parts of a prostitute’s body ? Certainly not.
Complement		⁶¹⁶ What? Do you not know that he who is joined to a prostitute is one body? For he says, “ Two shall be one flesh. ” ⁶¹⁷ But he that is joined to the Lord is one spirit. ⁶¹⁸ Therefore , flee fornication. Every sin that a man does is outside the body; but he that commits fornication sins against his own body.
Unique		⁶¹⁹ What? Do you not know that your body is a Temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you; which you have of God, and you are not your own? ⁶²⁰ For you were redeemed for a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God’s.
	¶Complement	A healthy sexual relationship with your spouse helps prevent fornication (7:1 - 5)
Unique		⁷¹ Now concerning the things of which you wrote to me: it is good for a man not to touch a woman.
Complement		⁷² Nevertheless, to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.
Complement		⁷³ Let the husband render to the wife due benevolence; and likewise also the wife to the husband. ⁷⁴ The wife does not have power of her own body, but the husband; and likewise also the husband does not have power of his own body, but the wife.
Opposite		⁷⁵ Do not defraud one the other, unless it is with agreement for a time, that you may give yourselves to fasting and prayer;
Opposite		and come together again, so that Satan does not tempt you for your lack of self control.
	¶Complement	Marriage is preferable to the single life if lust is a problem (7:6 - 17)
Unique		⁷⁶ But I speak this by permission, and not of Scriptural command: ⁷⁷ for I wish that all men were single even as I myself. But every man has his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that.
Complement		⁷⁸ Therefore I say to the unmarried and widows: it is good for them if they remain single even as I; ⁷⁹ but if they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn with lust .
Complement		⁷¹⁰ And to the married I command (yet not I, but the Lord): let not the wife depart from her husband; ⁷¹¹ but in case she does depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband; and let not the husband divorce his wife.
Opposite		⁷¹² But to the rest I speak (not the Lord): if any brother has a wife that does not believe, and she is pleased to dwell with him, let him not divorce her. ⁷¹³ And the woman who has an husband that does not believe, and if he is pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him: ⁷¹⁴ for the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband; otherwise your children were unclean; but now they are holy.
Opposite		⁷¹⁵ But if the unbelieving spouse leaves, let him leave. A Christian brother or a sister is not under bondage in such situations ; but God has called us to peace. ⁷¹⁶ For how do you know, O Christian wife, whether you shall save your husband? Or how do you know, O Christian man, whether you shall save your wife? ⁷¹⁷ But as God has distributed to every man, as the Lord has called every one, so let him walk. And so I ordain in all Assemblies.
	¶Unique	Freedom is always preferable to slavery (7:18 - 24)
Opposite		⁷¹⁸ Is any man called in Christ being circumcised? Let him not become uncircumcised. Is any called in uncircumcision? Let him not be circumcised.
Opposite		⁷¹⁹ Circumcision is unimportant, and uncircumcision is unimportant; but the observance of the Commandments of God is important .
Complement		⁷²⁰ Let every man remain in the same calling in which he was called. ⁷²¹ Were you called while you were a slave? Care not for it; but if you may be made free, use it rather.
Complement		⁷²² For he that was called in the Lord being a slave of men , is the Lord’s freeman. Likewise also he that was called, being free, is Christ’s slave.
Unique		⁷²³ You were redeemed for a price; do not be the slaves of men. ⁷²⁴ Brethren, let every man, in whatever he was called, remain with God in it.
	$Complement	Conclusion: Marriage is a permanent commitment; ensure that it is the will of God beforehand (7:25 - 40)
	¶Complement	In certain situations, it is preferable to remain single (7:25 - 35)
Opposite		⁷²⁵ Now concerning virgins I have no written Commandment of the Lord; yet I give my judgment, as one that has obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful. ⁷²⁶ Therefore I suppose that this is good for the current distress, that it is good for a man to be single . ⁷²⁷ Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek to be released. Are you released from a wife? Do not seek a wife. ⁷²⁸ But if you do marry, you have not sinned. And if a virgin marries, she has not sinned. Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh; but I spare you.
Opposite		⁷²⁹ But I say this, brethren: the time is short. It remains, that both they that have wives, be as though they had none; ⁷³⁰ and they that weep, as though they did not weep; and they that rejoice, as though they did not rejoice; and they that buy, as though they did not possess; ⁷³¹ and they that use this world, as not abusing it : for the fashion of this world is passing away.
Complement		⁷³² But I would have you without anxiety. He that is unmarried cares for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord; ⁷³³ but he that is married cares for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife.
Complement		⁷³⁴ There is a difference also between a wife and a virgin woman . The unmarried woman cares for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit; but she that is married cares for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.
Unique		⁷³⁵ And I speak this for your own benefit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is proper, and that you may attend upon the Lord without distraction.
	¶Complement	A woman is bound by the Law to remain married to her husband as long as he lives (7:36 - 40)
Opposite		⁷³⁶ But if any man thinks that he behaves himself improperly towards his virgin daughter ; if she passes the flower of her age, and need so require, let him do what he wishes; he does not sin: let them marry. ⁷³⁷ Nevertheless he that stands steadfast in his heart, having no necessity, but has power over his own will, and has so decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin, does well.
Opposite		⁷³⁸ So then he that gives her in marriage does well; but he that gives her not in marriage does better.
Complement		⁷³⁹ The wife is bound by the Law, as long as her husband is living;
Complement		but if her husband is dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she wishes: only in the Lord.
Unique		⁷⁴⁰ But she is happier, if she so remains single , after my judgment; and I think also that I have the Spirit of God.

Spiritual Maturity, Chapter 1.3: Glorify God in your spirit through selfless love (8:1 - 11:1)
§Unique	Introduction: Selfless love is better than knowledge; and there is only one true God (8:1 - 6)
¶Opposite	Knowledge inflates the ego, but selfless love builds up the spirit (8:1 - 3)
¶Opposite	There are many “gods” in name only, but only one true God (8:4 - 6)
§Complement	Body: Paul did not ask for money from the Corinthian Christians, even though he had the right (8:7 - 9:27)
¶Unique	Our liberty to eat anything we wish may be a stumblingblock to weak Christians, and become a sin (8:7 - 13)
¶Complement	The apostle Paul had proven his apostolic credentials, so he had the right to be paid (9:1 - 7)
¶Complement	Even an oxen has the right to eat grain from the threshingfloor as he winnows the wheat (9:8 - 12)
¶Opposite	But Paul refused to live from the offerings of the Corinthians for their sake and the sake of the Gospel (9:13 - 17)
¶Opposite	Paul wanted the Corinthians to follow his example of self-sacrifice and personal denial for the sake of the Gospel (9:18 - 27)
§Complement	Conclusion: God destroyed the Israelites in the wilderness, so deny yourself for the sake of others (10:1 - 11:1)
¶Complement	God destroyed the Israelites in the wilderness for their uncontrolled lusts (10:1 - 13)
¶Complement	So imitate the example of Paul and deny yourself for the sake of others (10:14 - 11:1)

	§Unique Introduction: Selfless love is better than knowledge; and there is only one true God (8:1 - 6)
	¶Opposite Knowledge inflates the ego, but selfless love builds up the spirit (8:1 - 3)
Unique	^{8:1} Now concerning things offered to idols: we know that we all have knowledge.
Complement	Knowledge inflates the ego ;
Complement	but selfless love edifies.
Opposite	^{8:2} And if any man thinks that he knows anything, he knows nothing yet as he ought to know.
Opposite	^{8:3} But if any man loves God, the same is known of him.
Opposite	¶Opposite There are many “gods” in name only, but only one true God (8:4 - 6)
Opposite	^{8:4} Therefore as concerning the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice to idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world;
Opposite	and that there is no other God but one.
Complement	^{8:5} For though there are things that are called “gods”, whether in Heaven or in Earth
Complement	(as there are many “gods” and many “lords”),
Unique	^{8:6} but to us there is but one true God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him.
	§Complement Body: Paul did not ask for money from the Corinthian Christians, even though he had the right (8:7 - 9:27)
	¶Unique Our liberty to eat anything we wish may be a stumblingblock to weak Christians, and become a sin (8:7 - 13)
Opposite	^{8:7} Nevertheless there is not in every man that knowledge: for some with conscience of the idol until this hour eat it as a thing offered to an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled.
Opposite	^{8:8} But food does not commend us to God: for neither if we eat, are we the better; nor if we eat not, are we the worse.
Complement	^{8:9} But be careful, lest by any means this liberty of yours becomes a stumblingblock to them that are weak:
	^{8:10} for if any man sees you, who has knowledge, reclining to eat in the idol’s temple, shall not his conscience, he being weak, be emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols?
Complement	^{8:11} And because of your knowledge, shall the weak brother be destroyed spiritually , for whom Christ died?
Unique	^{8:12} But when you sin this way against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, you sin against Christ.
	^{8:13} Therefore, if food causes my brother to stumble, I will eat no flesh while the world stands, lest I make my brother to stumble.
	¶Complement The apostle Paul had proven his apostolic credentials, so he had the right to be paid (9:1 - 7)
Unique	^{9:1} Am I not an apostle? Am I not free? Have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord?
Complement	Are you not my work in the Lord?
Complement	^{9:2} If I am not an apostle to others, yet doubtless I am to you: for the seal of my apostleship are you in the Lord.
Opposite	^{9:3} My answer to them that examine me is this: ^{9:4} do we not have a right to eat and to drink? ^{9:5} Do we not have a right to lead about a sister, a wife; as well as other apostles, and as the brothers of the Lord Jesus , and Cephas?
Opposite	^{9:6} Or I only and Barnabas, do we not have power to forbear working? ^{9:7} Who goes to war anytime at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard, and does not eat of its fruit? Or who feeds a flock, and does not eat of the milk of the flock?
	¶Complement Even an oxen has the right to eat grain from the threshingfloor as he winnows the wheat (9:8 - 12)
Unique	^{9:8} Do I say these things as a man? Or does the Law not say the same thing also? ^{9:9} For it is written in the Law of Moses, “ You shall not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treads out the grain. ”
Complement	Does God take care for oxen? ^{9:10} Or does he say it altogether for our sakes?
Complement	For our sakes, no doubt, this is written, that he that plows should plow in hope; and that he that threshes in hope should be partaker of his hope.
Opposite	^{9:11} If we have sown to you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things? ^{9:12} If others are partakers of this authority over you, are not we rather?
Opposite	Nevertheless we have not used this authority; but we suffer all things, lest we should hinder the Gospel of Christ.

	¶Opposite But Paul refused to live from the offerings of the Corinthians for their sake and the sake of the Gospel (9:13 - 17)
Unique	^{9:13} Do you not know that they who minister about holy things live of the offerings of the Temple? And they who wait at the altar are partakers with the altar?
	^{9:14} Even so has the Lord ordained, that they who preach the Gospel should live of the Gospel.
Complement	^{9:15} But I have used none of these things; neither have I written these things, that it would be so done to me.
Complement	For it would be better for me to die, than that any man should make my glorying void.
Opposite	^{9:16} For though I preach the Gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is to me, if I do not preach the Gospel!
Opposite	^{9:17} For if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward; but if against my will, a stewardship of the Gospel has been committed to me.
	¶Opposite Paul wanted the Corinthians to follow his example of self-sacrifice and personal denial for the sake of the Gospel (9:18 - 27)
Opposite	^{9:18} What is my reward then? My reward is , that when I preach the Gospel, I may make the Gospel of Christ without charge, that I do not abuse my authority in the Gospel. ^{9:19} For though I am free from all men , yet have I made myself servant to all, that I might gain even more. ^{9:20} And to the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to them that are under the Law, as under the Law, that I might gain them that are under the Law; ^{9:21} to them that are without Law, as without Law, that I might gain them that are without Law (being not without Law to God, but under the Law to Christ). ^{9:22} To the weak I became as weak, that I might gain the weak. I have become all things to all men , that I might by all means save some.
Opposite	^{9:23} And I do this for the Gospel’s sake, that I might be partaker of it with you .
Complement	^{9:24} Do you not know that they which run in a race all run; but only one receives the prize? So run, that you may obtain.
Complement	^{9:25} And every man contending in athletic competition practices self-control in all things.
Unique	Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible crown .
	^{9:26} I therefore so run, but not as one without purpose. So fight I; but not as one that uselessly punches the air;
	^{9:27} but I discipline my body, and bring it into subjection, lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be disqualified from the ministry .
	§Complement Conclusion: God destroyed the Israelites in the wilderness, so deny yourself for the sake of others (10:1 - 11:1)
	¶Complement God destroyed the Israelites in the wilderness for their uncontrolled lusts (10:1 - 13)
Opposite	^{10:1} Moreover, brethren, I do not want you to be ignorant, how that all our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed through the Red sea; ^{10:2} and were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea; ^{10:3} and they all ate the same spiritual food; ^{10:4} and they all drank the same spiritual drink: for they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them; and that Rock was Christ.
Opposite	^{10:5} But with many of them God was not well pleased: for they were overthrown in the wilderness.
Complement	^{10:6} Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted.
	^{10:7} Neither be idolaters, as some of them were : as it is written, “ The people sat down to eat and drink; and rose up to play. ” ^{10:8} Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and fell in one day twenty-three thousand. ^{10:9} Neither let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted, and were destroyed by serpents. ^{10:10} Neither murmur, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed by the destroyer.
Complement	^{10:11} Now all these things happened to them for types; and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the fulfillments of the Ages have come.
Unique	^{10:12} Therefore let him that thinks he stands, take heed lest he falls.
	^{10:13} No temptation has overtaken you but such as is common to man; but God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted above that you are able, but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that you may be able to bear it .
	¶Complement So imitate the example of Paul and deny yourself for the sake of others (10:14 - 11:1)
Opposite	^{10:14} Therefore, my dearly beloved, flee from idolatry. ^{10:15} I speak as to wise men; judge what I say: ^{10:16} the cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the fellowship of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the fellowship of the body of Christ? ^{10:17} For we being many are one bread, and one body: for we are all partakers of that one bread. ^{10:18} Behold Israel after the flesh; are not they who eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar?
Opposite	^{10:19} What am I saying then? That the idol is anything, or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is anything? ^{10:20} But I say rather , that the things which the heathen sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons, and not to God; and I do not want you to be partakers of demons. ^{10:21} You cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of demons. You cannot be partakers of the Lord’s Table, and of the table of demons.
Complement	^{10:22} Do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? Are we stronger than he? ^{10:23} All things are lawful for me, but all things are not good; all things are lawful for me, but all things do not strengthen my walk with Christ . ^{10:24} Let no man seek his own, but every man another’s spiritual good .
Complement	^{10:25} Whatsoever is sold in the meat market, eat it , asking no question for conscience’ sake: ^{10:26} for it is written , “ the Earth is the Lord’s, and everything in it .” ^{10:27} If any of them that do not believe in Christ invite you to a feast , and you are disposed to go, whatsoever is set before you, eat, asking no question for conscience’ sake. ^{10:28} But if any man says to you, “This is offered in sacrifice to idols”: do not eat for his sake that showed it, and for conscience’ sake (for “ the Earth is the Lord’s, and everything in it ”). ^{10:29} Conscience, I say, not your own, but of the other. For why is my liberty judged by another man’s conscience? ^{10:30} For if I by grace am a partaker, why am I evil spoken of for that for which I give thanks?
Unique	^{10:31} Therefore whether you eat, or drink, or whatsoever you do, do all to the glory of God. ^{10:32} Give no offense; neither to the Jews, nor to the Gentiles, nor to the Assembly of God; ^{10:33} even as I please all men in all things : not seeking my own good, but the good of many, that they may be saved.
	^{11:1} Be imitators of me, even as I also am of Christ.

Spiritual Maturity, Chapter 1.4: Focus your worship services on the edification of each other rather than yourselves (11:2 - 14:40)
§Unique	Introduction: God has designed an order of the sexes and requires order in the Supper of the Lord (11:2 - 34)
¶Opposite	God has designed men and women for a particular order and priority (11:2 - 16)
¶Opposite	Observe the Supper of the Lord in an orderly and dignified manner (11:17 - 34)
§Complement	Body: Preach in the native language rather than foreign languages, unless you have an interpreter (12:1 - 14:27)
¶Opposite	The Holy Spirit gives spiritual gifts to every member of the Body of Christ (the Assembly of believers) (12:1 - 31)
¶Opposite	Selfless love will continue forever, so it is the most important of all spiritual gifts (13:1 - 13)
¶Complement	Preach only in the native language so that all will understand and be edified (14:1 - 14)
¶Complement	Pray, sing, and preach the Word of God with the understanding, not in gibberish or a foreign language (14:15 - 22)
¶Unique	All preaching in foreign languages in the Assembly must have an interpreter (14:23 - 27)
§Complement	Conclusion: The preaching must be orderly and allow only men to preach (14:28 - 40)
¶Complement	All preaching should be done one at a time in an orderly fashion, not with chaotic gibberish (14:28 - 33)
¶Complement	Allow foreign languages, but preaching must be orderly; and only by men (14:34 - 40)

	§Unique	Introduction: God has designed an order of the sexes and requires orderliness in the Supper of the Lord (11:2 - 34)
	¶Opposite	God has designed men and women for a particular order and priority (11:2 - 16)
Unique		^{11:2} Now I praise you, brethren, that you remember me in all things; and that you keep the Ordinances, as I delivered them to you.
Complement		^{11:3} But I would have you know, that the head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman is the man; and the head of Christ is God. ^{11:4} Every man praying or prophesying, having his head covered, dishonors his head. ^{11:5} But every woman that prays or prophesies with her head uncovered dishonors her head. For that is even the same as if she was shaven: ^{11:6} for if the woman is not covered, let her also be shorn; but if it is a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered. ^{11:7} For a man indeed should not cover his head, forasmuch as he is the image and glory of God; but the woman is the glory of the man.
Complement		^{11:8} For the man is not of the woman, but the woman of the man; ^{11:9} neither was the man created for the woman, but the woman was created for the man. ^{11:10} For this reason the woman is under obligation to have a cover upon the head because of the angels. ^{11:11} Nevertheless neither is the man without the woman; nor is the woman without the man, in the Lord. ^{11:12} for as the woman was made out of the man, even so the man also was born through the woman; but all things were originally created out of God.
Opposite		^{11:13} Judge in yourselves: is it proper that a woman prays to God uncovered? ^{11:14} Does not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man has long hair, it is a shame to him? ^{11:15} But if a woman has long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair has been given her for a covering.
Opposite		^{11:16} But if anyone wants to argue about this, we have no other custom, and neither do the Assemblies of God.
	¶Opposite	Observe the Supper of the Lord in an orderly and dignified manner (11:17 - 34)
Opposite		^{11:17} Now in this that I declare to you , I do not praise you , that you come together not for the better, but for the worse. ^{11:18} For first of all, when you come together in the Assembly, I hear that there are divisions among you; and I partly believe it. ^{11:19} for there must be also heresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you. ^{11:20} Therefore, when you come together into the same place, you are not truly eating the Lord's supper. ^{11:21} for in eating, everyone takes before others his own supper; and one is hungry, and another is drunk.
Opposite		^{11:22} What? Do you not have houses to eat and to drink in? Or do you despise the Assembly of God, and shame them that do not have? What shall I say to you? Shall I praise you in this? I do not praise you .
Complement		^{11:23} For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus, the same night in which he was betrayed, took bread; ^{11:24} and when he had given thanks, he broke it , and said, " Take, eat: this is a symbol of my body, which is broken for you; do this in remembrance of me. " ^{11:25} After the same manner also he took the cup, after he had eaten, saying, " This cup is a symbol of the New Covenant in my blood; do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me. " ^{11:26} For as often as you eat this bread, and drink this cup, you are celebrating the death of the Lord until he comes again .
Complement		^{11:27} Therefore whosoever shall eat this bread and drink this cup of the Lord unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord. ^{11:28} But let a man examine himself, and thus let him eat of the bread, and drink of the cup: ^{11:29} for he that eats and drinks unworthily, eats and drinks condemnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body: ^{11:30} for this reason many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep in death . ^{11:31} For if we would judge ourselves, we would not be judged; ^{11:32} but when we are judged, we are chastened by the Lord, so that we should not be condemned with the world.
Unique		^{11:33} Therefore, my brethren, when you come together to eat, wait one for another. ^{11:34} And if any man is hungry, let him eat at home, that you do not come together to condemnation. And the rest will I set in order when I come.
	§Complement	Body: Preach in the native language rather than foreign languages, unless you have an interpreter (12:1 - 14:27)
	¶Opposite	The Holy Spirit gives spiritual gifts to every member of the Body of Christ (the Assembly of believers) (12:1 - 31)
Unique		^{12:1} Now concerning spiritual gifts , brethren, I do not want you to be ignorant. ^{12:2} You know that you were heathen, carried away to these mute idols, even as you were led.
		^{12:3} Therefore, I give you to understand, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God calls Jesus accursed; and that no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Spirit.
Complement		^{12:4} Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit. ^{12:5} And there are differences of administrations, but the same Lord. ^{12:6} And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God who works all in all. ^{12:7} But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to benefit from it: ^{12:8} for to one is given by the Spirit the Word of wisdom; to another the Word of knowledge by the same Spirit, ^{12:9} to another faith by the same Spirit; to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit; ^{12:10} to another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; to another discerning of spirits; to another various kinds of languages; to another the interpretation of languages. ^{12:11} But all these are working that one and the selfsame Spirit, distributing to each one respectively as he appoints. ^{12:12} For as the human body is one, but has many parts, and all the parts of that one body, being many, are one body, so also is Christ. ^{12:13} for in the same Spirit we were all baptized into one Body, whether we were Jews or Gentiles, whether we were slave or free; and we have been all made to drink into the same Spirit.
Complement		^{12:14} For the body is not one part, but many. ^{12:15} If the foot shall say, "Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body", is it therefore not of the body? ^{12:16} And if the ear shall say, "Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body", is it therefore not of the body? ^{12:17} If the whole body was an eye, where is the hearing? If the whole was hearing, where is the smelling? ^{12:18} But now God has set the parts every one of them in the body, as it has pleased him. ^{12:19} And if they were all one part, where is the body? ^{12:20} But now they are many parts, but yet only one body. ^{12:21} And the eye cannot say to the hand, "I have no need of you": nor again the head to the feet, "I have no need of you." ^{12:22} No, much more those parts of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary; ^{12:23} and those parts of the body, which we think to be less honorable, upon these we bestow more abundant honor; and our unattractive parts have more abundant comeliness. ^{12:24} For our pleasing parts have no need; but God has tempered the body together, having given more abundant honor to that part which lacked, ^{12:25} that there should be no schism in the body; but that the parts should have the same care one for another. ^{12:26} And whether one part suffers, all the parts suffer with it; or if one part is honored, all the parts rejoice with it.
Opposite		^{12:27} Now all of you are a Body of Christ, and parts in particular. ^{12:28} And God has set some in the Assembly: first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healing, helps, governments, and varieties of languages.
Opposite		^{12:29} Are all apostles? No. Are all prophets? No. Are all teachers? No. Are all workers of miracles? No. ^{12:30} Do all have the gifts of healing? No. Do all speak with foreign languages? No. Do all interpret? No. ^{12:31} But desire earnestly the best gifts. And yet now , I show you a much better way.
	¶Opposite	Selfless love will continue forever, so it is the most important of all spiritual gifts (13:1 - 13)
Opposite		^{13:1} Though I speak with the speeches of men and of angels, but have not selfless love, I have become as a noisy brass instrument , or a tinkling cymbal. ^{13:2} And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, but have not selfless love, I am nothing. ^{13:3} And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor , and though I give my body to be burned, but have not selfless love, it does me no good.
Opposite		^{13:4} Selfless love suffers long, and is kind; selfless love does not envy; selfless love does not vaunt itself, is not proud, ^{13:5} does not behave itself unseemly, does not seek her own, is not easily provoked, does not think evil; ^{13:6} rejoices not in iniquity, but rejoices in the truth; ^{13:7} bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, and endures all things.
Complement		^{13:8} Selfless love never ceases; but whether there are prophecies, they shall come to an end; whether there are gifts of foreign languages, they shall cease of their own accord; whether there is knowledge, it shall also come to an end. ^{13:9} For we know in part; and we prophesy in part. ^{13:10} But when that which is complete has come, then that which is in part shall be done away.
Complement		^{13:11} When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, and I thought as a child; but when I became a man, I put away childish things. For now we see as through a mirror, dimly; but then face to face. ^{13:12} Now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.
Unique		^{13:13} And now faith, hope, and selfless love remains forever ; these three; but the greatest of these is selfless love.
	¶Complement	Preach only in the native language so that all will understand and be edified (14:1 - 14)
Unique		^{14:1} Follow after selfless love, and desire spiritual gifts , but rather that you may prophesy: ^{14:2} for he that speaks in a foreign language does not speak to men, but to God, because no man understands him ; even though in the spirit he speaks spiritual mysteries.
Complement		^{14:3} But he that prophesies speaks to men for edification, exhortation, and comfort. ^{14:4} He that speaks in a foreign language strengthens himself; but he that prophesies edifies the Assembly.
Complement		^{14:5} Now I want all of you to speak with foreign languages, but I wish rather that you prophesied: for greater is he that prophesies than he that speaks with foreign languages, unless he interprets, so that the Assembly may receive edification.
Opposite		^{14:6} Now, brethren, if I come to you speaking with foreign languages, what good shall I do you, unless I shall speak to you either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by teaching? ^{14:7} And even lifeless things which make a sound, whether pipe or harp, unless they give a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped? ^{14:8} For if the trumpet gives an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle? ^{14:9} So likewise you, unless you utter by the tongue words easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? For you shall speak into the air. ^{14:10} There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them are without meaning. ^{14:11} Therefore if I do not know the meaning of the voice, I shall be to him that speaks as a foreigner, and he that speaks shall be as a foreigner to me. ^{14:12} Even so you, forasmuch as you are zealous of spiritual gifts , seek that you may abound to the edification of the Assembly.
Opposite		^{14:13} Therefore let him that speaks in a false language pray that he may interpret: ^{14:14} for if I pray in a false language, my spirit prays, but my understanding is unfruitful.
	¶Complement	Pray, sing, and preach the Word of God with the understanding, not in gibberish or a foreign language (14:15 - 22)
Unique		^{14:15} What, then, is the correct way ? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also; I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also.
Complement		^{14:16} Otherwise when you shall give thanks with the spirit, how shall he that occupies the room of the uneducated say "Amen" at your giving of thanks, seeing he does not understand what you say?
Complement		^{14:17} For you truly give thanks well, but the other is not edified.
Opposite		^{14:18} I thank my God, I speak with foreign languages more than all of you, ^{14:19} yet in the Assembly I would rather speak five words with my understanding (that I might teach others also), than ten thousand words in a foreign language.
Opposite		^{14:20} Brethren, do not be children in understanding (nevertheless in malice be children, but in understanding be men): ^{14:21} in the Law it is written, " With other languages and other lips will I speak to this people; and yet for all that, they will not listen to me,' says [Jehovah]. " ^{14:22} Therefore the gift of foreign languages is for a sign: not to them that believe, but to them that do not believe; but prophesying is not for them that do not believe, but for them who do believe.
	¶Unique	All preaching in foreign languages in the Assembly must have an interpreter (14:23 - 27)
Opposite		^{14:23} If therefore the whole Assembly has come together into one place, and all speak in foreign languages, and uneducated or unbelievers come in, will they not say that you are crazy?
Opposite		^{14:24} But if all prophesy, and one comes in that does not yet believe in Christ , or one uneducated, he is convinced of all, and he is judged of all; ^{14:25} and in this manner the secrets of his heart are revealed; and so falling down on his face he will worship God, and report that God is truly in you.
Complement		^{14:26} What, then, is it, brethren? When you come together, every one of you has a psalm, has a doctrine, has a language, has a revelation, and has an interpretation.
Complement		Let all things be done toward edification.
Unique		^{14:27} If any man speaks in a foreign language, let it be by two, or at the most by three (and by turn), and let one interpret.
	§Complement	Conclusion: The preaching must be orderly and allow only men to preach (14:28 - 40)
	¶Complement	All preaching should be done one at a time in an orderly fashion, not with chaotic gibberish (14:28 - 33)
Opposite		^{14:28} But if there is no interpreter, let him keep silence in the Assembly;
Opposite		and let him speak to himself, and to God.
Complement		^{14:29} Let two or three of the prophets speak; and let the others judge.
Complement		^{14:30} If anything is revealed to another that sits by, let the first be silent: ^{14:31} for you may all prophesy one at a time, that all may learn, and all may be comforted.
Unique		^{14:32} And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets: ^{14:33} for God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all Assemblies of the saints.
	¶Complement	Allow foreign languages, but preaching must be orderly; and only by men (14:34 - 40)
Opposite		^{14:34} Let your women keep silence in the Assemblies: for it is not permitted to them to speak; but they are commanded to be under obedience, as the Law also says.
Opposite		^{14:35} And if they will learn anything, let them ask their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speak in the Assembly.
Complement		^{14:36} What? Did the Word of God come out from you? Or did it come only to you? ^{14:37} If any man thinks himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write to you are the Commandments of the Lord.
Complement		^{14:38} But if any man is ignorant, let him be ignorant.
Unique		^{14:39} Therefore, brethren, be zealous to prophesy; and do not forbid to speak with foreign languages. ^{14:40} Let all things be done decently, and in order.

Spiritual Maturity, Chapter 1.5: Be abounding in the work of the Lord because of the Resurrection (15:1 - 16:24)
§Complement	Introduction: Paul was the last apostle, but also the most fruitful in the Gospel ministry (15:1 - 11)
¶Opposite	The Gospel is the death, burial, and resurrection of Christ (15:1 - 6)
¶Opposite	Paul labored in the Gospel ministry more abundantly than all of the other apostles (15:7 - 11)
§Complement	Body: Be abounding in the ministry of the Gospel, because of our glorious future with Jesus Christ (15:12 - 16:12)
¶Unique	After the Millennial Kingdom, Christ shall deliver his Kingdom to God the Father (15:12 - 34)
¶Complement	The resurrection body is a spiritual body (15:35 - 49)
¶Complement	The resurrection body is an immortal body (15:50 - 58)
¶Opposite	Paul labored to bring a financial love offering from the Gentile Assemblies to the Assembly in Jerusalem (16:1 - 7)
¶Opposite	Apollos did not want to come to Corinth at that time (16:8 - 12)
§Unique	Conclusion: Submit yourselves to those who labor in the ministry of the saints, and love the Lord Jesus Christ (16:13 - 24)
¶Complement	Submit yourselves to those (like the house of Stephanas) who labor in the ministry of the saints (16:13 - 18)
¶Complement	Love one another and the Lord Jesus Christ (16:19 - 24)

	§Complement	Introduction: Paul was the last apostle, but also the most fruitful in the Gospel ministry (15:1 - 11)
	¶Opposite	The Gospel is the death, burial, and resurrection of Christ (15:1 - 6)
Unique	15:1	Moreover, brethren, I declare to you the Gospel which I preached to you; which also you have received, and in which you stand.
Complement	15:2	By which also you are saved, if you keep in memory what I preached to you, unless you have believed in vain:
Complement	15:3	for I delivered to you first of all that which I also received: how that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures; ^{15:4} and that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the Scriptures.
Opposite	15:5	And that he was seen by Cephas, then by the twelve.
Opposite	15:6	After that, he was seen by over five hundred brethren at one time; of whom the greater part remain until now, but some have fallen asleep.
	¶Opposite	Paul labored in the Gospel ministry more abundantly than all of the other apostles (15:7 - 11)
Opposite	15:7	After that, he was seen by James, and then by all the apostles.
Opposite	15:8	And last of all he was seen by me also, as of one born out of due time: ^{15:9} for I am the least of the apostles, that am not fit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the Assembly of God.
Complement	15:10	But by the grace of God I am what I am;
Complement		and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but I labored more abundantly than they all; yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.
Unique	15:11	Therefore whether it was I or they, so we preach; and so you believed.
	§Complement	Body: Be abounding in the ministry of the Gospel, because of our glorious future with Jesus Christ (15:12 - 16:12)
	¶Unique	After the Millennial Kingdom, Christ shall deliver his Kingdom to God the Father (15:12 - 34)
Opposite	15:12	Now if Christ is preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead? ^{15:13} But if there is no resurrection of the dead, then Christ has not risen; ^{15:14} and if Christ has not risen, then our preaching is vain, and your faith is also vain. ^{15:15} Moreover, and we are found false witnesses of God, because we have testified of God that he raised up Christ; whom he did not raise up, if it is true that the dead do not rise. ^{15:16} For if the dead do not rise, then Christ has not risen; ^{15:17} and if Christ has not risen, your faith is vain; you are still in your sins. ^{15:18} Then they also who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished. ^{15:19} If only in this life we have hope in Christ, then of all men we are most miserable.
Opposite	15:20	But now, Christ has risen from the dead, and become the firstfruits of them that slept: ^{15:21} for since death came by man, by man came also the resurrection of the dead: ^{15:22} for as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive. ^{15:23} But every man in his own order: Christ the firstfruits, and afterward they that are Christ's at his Coming.
Complement	15:24	Then comes the end, when he shall have delivered up the Kingdom to God, even the Father, when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power: ^{15:25} for he must reign, until he has put all enemies under his feet. ^{15:26} The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death: ^{15:27} for he “ has put all things under his feet. ”
Complement		But when he says, “ All things are put under him ”, it is obvious that he is excepted, who did put all things under him. ^{15:28} And when all things shall be subdued to him, then shall the Son also himself be subject to him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.
Unique	15:29	Otherwise what shall they do who are baptized concerning the dead, if the dead do not rise at all? Why are they then baptized concerning the dead? ^{15:30} And why do we stand in jeopardy every hour? ^{15:31} I testify by your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily. ^{15:32} If after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what does it advantage me, if the dead do not rise? “ Let us eat and drink: for tomorrow we die. ”
	15:33	Do not be deceived: evil communications corrupt good morals. ^{15:34} Awake to righteousness, and do not sin: for some do not have the knowledge of God; I speak this to your shame.
	¶Complement	The resurrection body is a spiritual body (15:35 - 49)
Unique	15:35	But some man will say, “How are the dead raised up? And with what body do they come?”
	15:36	You fool, that which you sow is not made alive, unless it dies. ^{15:37} And that which you sow, you sow not that body that shall be, but bare grain (it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain). ^{15:38} But God gives it a body as it has pleased him; and to every seed his own body.
Complement	15:39	All flesh is not the same flesh; but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fish, and another of birds. ^{15:40} There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial; but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another. ^{15:41} There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differs from another star in glory.
Complement	15:42	So also is the resurrection of the dead: it is sown in corruption, it is raised in incorruption; ^{15:43} it is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory; it is sown in weakness, it is raised in power. ^{15:44} It is sown a natural body, it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body; and there is a spiritual body.
Opposite	15:45	And so it is written, the first man Adam was made “ a living soul ”, but the last Adam was a quickening Spirit. ^{15:46} Nevertheless that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual. ^{15:47} The first man is of the Earth, earthly; the second man is the Lord from Heaven.
Opposite	15:48	As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthly; and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly. ^{15:49} And as we have borne the image of the earthly, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.
	¶Complement	The resurrection body is an immortal body (15:50 - 58)
Unique	15:50	Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the Kingdom of God; neither does corruption inherit incorruption.
Complement	15:51	Behold, I show you a mystery: we shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, ^{15:52} in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible; and we shall be transformed: ^{15:53} for this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.
Complement	15:54	So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, “ Death is swallowed up in victory. ” ^{15:55} “ O death, where is your sting? O grave, where is your victory? ”
Opposite	15:56	The sting of death is sin, and the strength of sin is the Law; ^{15:57} but thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.
Opposite	15:58	Therefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, unmovable, and always abounding in the work of the Lord, seeing that you know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord.

	¶Opposite	Paul labored to bring a financial love offering from the Gentile Assemblies to the Assembly in Jerusalem (16:1 - 7)
Unique	16:1	Now concerning the collection for the saints: As I have given order to the Assemblies of Galatia, even so should you do in like manner . ^{16:2} upon the first day of the week, let every one of you lay by him in store, as God has prospered him; that there are no collections when I come.
Complement	16:3	And when I come, whomsoever you shall approve by your letters, them will I send to bring your liberality to Jerusalem.
Complement	16:4	And if it is fitting that I go also, they shall go with me.
Opposite	16:5	Now I will come to you, whenever I may pass through Macedonia: for I am passing through Macedonia.
Opposite	16:6	And it may be that I will stay; moreover, even winter with you, that you may bring me on my journey wherever I go. ^{16:7} For I will not see you now by the way; but I trust to stay a while with you, if the Lord permits.
	¶Opposite	Apollos did not want to come to Corinth at that time (16:8 - 12)
Opposite	16:8	But I will stay at Ephesus until Pentecost:
Opposite	16:9	for a great and effective door has opened to me; and there are many adversaries.
Complement	16:10	Now if Timothy comes, see that he may be with you without fear: for he works the work of the Lord, as I also do .
Complement	16:11	Therefore let no man despise him; but conduct him forth in peace, that he may come to me: for I look for him with the brethren.
Unique	16:12	As concerning our brother Apollos, I greatly desired him to come to you with the brethren; but his will was not at all to come at this time; but he will come when he has a convenient time.
	§Unique	Conclusion: Submit yourselves to those who labor in the ministry of the saints, and love the Lord Jesus Christ (16:13 - 24)
	¶Complement	Submit yourselves to those (like the house of Stephanas) who labor in the ministry of the saints (16:13 - 18)
Opposite	16:13	Be watchful: stand fast in the Faith; behave yourselves like men: be strong.
Opposite	16:14	Let all your things be done with selfless love.
Complement	16:15	I exhort you, brethren (you know the house of Stephanas, that it is the firstfruits of Achaia; and that they have addicted themselves to the ministry of the saints), ^{16:16} that you submit yourselves to such; and to every one that helps with us and labors.
Complement	16:17	I am glad of the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus: for that which was lacking on your part, they have supplied.
Unique	16:18	For they have refreshed my spirit and yours; therefore acknowledge them that are such.
	¶Complement	Love one another and the Lord Jesus Christ (16:19 - 24)
Opposite	16:19	The Assemblies of Asia greet you. Aquila and Priscilla greet you much in the Lord, with the Assembly that is in their house. ^{16:20} All the brethren greet you. Greet one another with a holy kiss.
Opposite	16:21	The greeting of me Paul with my own hand.
Complement	16:22	If any man does not love the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be accursed when the Lord comes.
Complement	16:23	The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.
Unique	16:24	My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

Spiritual Maturity, Chapter 2.1: Manifest the fragrance of Christ in your lives and forgive the brother who had sinned (1:1 - 3:18)
§Complement	Introduction: Paul and Timothy consoled the Assembly at Corinth concerning their tribulations (1:1 - 7)
¶Opposite	Paul and Timothy to the Assembly at Corinth (1:1 - 2)
¶Opposite	Whether we are afflicted or comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation (1:3 - 7)
§Complement	Body: The mature thing to do for the Assembly was to forgive and restore the brother who had sinned (1:8 - 2:17)
¶Opposite	Paul and Timothy despaired of their lives because of their troubles in Asia, but trusted in God to deliver them (1:8 - 14)
¶Opposite	All the promises of God in Christ are yes and amen, to the glory of God (1:15 - 22)
¶Complement	Paul was determined not to come to the Assembly in Corinth again in sorrow (1:23 - 2:4)
¶Complement	Paul urged the Corinthian believers to forgive the brother that they had punished for his sin (2:5 - 11)
¶Unique	The spiritual aroma of Christ is sweet to believers, but poison to those who are perishing (2:12 - 17)
§Unique	Conclusion: The glorious Holy Spirit gives Life, and the Law kills and blinds (3:1 - 18)
¶Complement	The Holy Spirit gives Life and is far more glorious than the Law that kills (3:1 - 11)
¶Complement	When the hearts of the Jews turn to Christ, the veil of the Law shall be removed (3:12 - 18)

	§Complement	Introduction: Paul and Timothy consoled the Assembly at Corinth concerning their tribulations (1:1 - 7)
	¶Opposite	Paul and Timothy to the Assembly at Corinth (1:1 - 2)
Unique		1:1Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy the brother;
Complement		unto the Assembly of God which is at Corinth,
Complement		with all the saints which are in all Achaia:
Opposite		1:2Grace to you and peace,
Opposite		from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
	¶Opposite	Whether we are afflicted or comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation (1:3 - 7)
Opposite		1:3Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort; 1:4who comforts us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them who are in any trouble, by the comfort with which we ourselves are being comforted of God:
Opposite		1:5for as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also abounds by Christ.
Complement		1:6And whether we are afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation, which is effective in the endurance of the same sufferings which we also suffer;
Complement		or whether we are comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation.
Unique		1:7And our hope of you is steadfast; knowing, that as you are partakers of the sufferings, so shall you be also of the consolation.
	§Complement	Body: The mature thing to do for the Assembly was to forgive and restore the brother who had sinned (1:8 - 2:17)
	¶Opposite	Paul and Timothy despaired of their lives because of their troubles in Asia, but trusted in God to deliver them (1:8 - 14)
Unique		1:8For we do not want you, brethren, to be ignorant of our trouble which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, to the point that we despaired even of life itself .
Complement		1:9But we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God who raises the dead; 1:10who delivered us from so great a death, and delivers now ; in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us ;
Complement		1:11you also helping together by prayer for us, that for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons thanks may be given by many on our behalf.
Opposite		1:12For our rejoicing is this (the testimony of our conscience), that in simplicity and godly sincerity (not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God), we have conducted ourselves in the world, and more abundantly toward you.
Opposite		1:13For we write no other things to you, than what you read or acknowledge; and I trust you shall acknowledge even to the end 1:14(as also you have acknowledged us in part), that we are your rejoicing, even as you also are ours in the Day of the Lord Jesus.
	¶Opposite	All the promises of God in Christ are yes and amen, to the glory of God (1:15 - 22)
Opposite		1:15And in this confidence I was minded to come to you before, that you might have a second benefit; 1:16and to pass by you into Macedonia, and to come again out of Macedonia to you, and of you to be brought on my way toward Judea.
Opposite		1:17Therefore when I was thus minded, did I use lightness? Or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be yes, yes, and no, no?
Complement		1:18But as God is true, our word toward you was not yes and no: 1:19for the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, even by me and Silvanus and Timotheus, was not yes and no, but in him was yes:
Complement		1:20for all the promises of God in him are yes, and in him Amen, unto the glory of God by us.
Unique		1:21Now he who establishes us with you in Christ, and has anointed us, is God;
		1:22who also has sealed us, and given the down-payment of the Spirit in our hearts.

	¶Complement	Paul was determined not to come to the Assembly in Corinth again in sorrow (1:23 - 2:4)
Unique		1:23Moreover I call God for a record upon my soul, that to spare you I did not come as yet to Corinth; 1:24not because we rule over your faith, but rather are helpers of your joy: for by faith you stand.
Complement		2:1But I determined this with myself, that I would not come again to you in heaviness:
Complement		2:2for if I make you sorry, who is he then that makes me glad, but the same who is made sorry by me?
Opposite		2:3And I wrote this same letter to you, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I should rejoice; having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all:
Opposite		2:4for out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote to you with many tears: not that you should be grieved, but that you might know the love which I have more abundantly to you.
	¶Complement	Paul urged the Corinthian believers to forgive the brother that they had punished for his sin (2:5 - 11)
Unique		2:5But if anyone has caused grief, he has not grieved me; but in part, that I may not overcharge you all.
Complement		2:6Sufficient to such a man is this punishment, which was inflicted by many.
Complement		2:7So that contrariwise, you should rather forgive him , and comfort him , lest perhaps he might be swallowed up with too much sorrow.
Opposite		2:8Therefore, I beseech you that you would confirm your love toward him: 2:9for to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether you are obedient in all things.
Opposite		2:10To whom you forgive anything, I forgive also: for if I forgave anything, to whom I forgave it , for your sakes I forgave it in the person of Christ, 2:11lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices.
	¶Unique	The spiritual aroma of Christ is sweet to believers, but poison to those who are perishing (2:12 - 17)
Opposite		2:12Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach Christ's Gospel, and a door was opened to me of the Lord, 2:13I had no rest in my spirit, because I did not find my brother Titus;
Opposite		but taking my leave of them, I went from there into Macedonia.
Complement		2:14Now thanks to God, who always causes us to triumph in Christ; and makes manifest the fragrance of his knowledge by us in every place:
Complement		2:15for we are a sweet fragrance of Christ unto God, in them that are saved, and in them that perish: 2:16to the one, we are the aroma of death unto death; and to the other, we are the aroma of life unto life.
Unique		And who is sufficient for these things?
		2:17For we are not as many, which corrupt the Word of God; but as of sincerity; but as of God, in the sight of God, speak we in Christ.
	§Unique	Conclusion: The glorious Holy Spirit gives Life, and the Law kills and blinds (3:1 - 18)
	¶Complement	The Holy Spirit gives Life and is far more glorious than the Law that kills (3:1 - 11)
Opposite		3:1Do we begin again to commend ourselves? Or do we need, as some others , letters of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you? 3:2You are our letter written in our hearts, known and read by all men.
Opposite		3:3 And you are manifestly declared to be the letter of Christ ministered by us; written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the Living God; not in tablets of stone, but in fleshly tablets of the heart.
Complement		3:4And such trust have we through Christ toward God: 3:5not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think anything as of ourselves, but our sufficiency is of God; 3:6who has also made us able ministers of the New Covenant; not of the letter, but of the Holy Spirit: for the letter kills, but the Spirit gives Life.
Complement		3:7But if the ministry of death, written and inscribed in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not steadfastly behold the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance (which glory was to be done away), 3:8how shall the ministry of the Spirit not excel in glory?
Unique		3:9For if the ministry of condemnation is glory, much more does the ministry of righteousness excel in glory: 3:10for even that which was made glorious had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excels:
		3:11for if that which is done away was glorious, much more that which remains is truly glorious.
	¶Complement	When the hearts of the Jews turn to Christ, the veil of the Law shall be removed (3:12 - 18)
Opposite		3:12Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great plainness of speech.
Opposite		3:13And not as Moses; who put a veil over his face, so that the children of Israel could not steadfastly look to the end of that which has been abolished.
Complement		3:14But their minds were blinded: for until this day the same veil remains unremoved in the reading of the Old Covenant; which veil is done away in Christ.
Complement		3:15But even to this day, when Moses is read, the veil is upon their heart; 3:16nevertheless, when it shall turn to the Lord, the veil shall be removed.
Unique		3:17Now the Lord is the Spirit; and where the Spirit of the Lord is , there is liberty.
		3:18But we all, with unveiled face beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory into glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord.

Spiritual Maturity, Chapter 2.2: Keep the eternal consequences of your life in constant view (4:1 - 7:16)
$Unique	Introduction: Satan hides the Gospel from the Lost, but the Holy Spirit dwells in all believers (4:1 - 15)
¶Opposite	Satan has blinded the minds of those who do not believe in Christ (4:1 - 7)
¶Opposite	Born-again Christians have the same Holy Spirit of faith (4:8 - 15)
$Complement	Body: Believers should live with the Judgment Seat of Christ in mind (4:16 - 7:1)
¶Unique	Believers in Christ long to be with Him, because of the afflictions of this life (4:16 - 5:7)
¶Complement	The Judgment Seat of Christ in the future is a powerful incentive to live for God here in this life (5:8 - 15)
¶Complement	Believers have been transformed inwardly by the Holy Spirit and given the Gospel (5:16 - 21)
¶Opposite	Do not be lazy in sharing the Gospel, because today is the day of salvation (6:1 - 10)
¶Opposite	Do not be unequally yoked with unbelievers (6:11 - 7:1)
$Complement	Conclusion: The strong feelings of the Corinthian believers for Paul gave joy to everyone (7:2 - 16)
¶Complement	Paul and his coworkers were comforted by the news of their feelings for him (7:2 - 8)
¶Complement	Paul and his coworkers rejoiced for Titus, because of his experience with the Corinthian believers (7:9 - 16)

	$Unique	Introduction: Satan hides the Gospel from the Lost, but the Holy Spirit dwells in all believers (4:1 - 15)
	¶Opposite	Satan has blinded the minds of those who do not believe in Christ (4:1 - 7)
Unique		⁴¹ Therefore seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not.
		⁴² But we have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty: not walking in craftiness, nor handling the Word of God deceitfully; but by manifestation of the Truth, commending ourselves to every man’s conscience in the sight of God.
Complement		⁴³ But if our Gospel is hidden, it is hidden to them that are lost;
Complement		⁴⁴ in whom the god of this Age has blinded the minds of them who do not believe, lest the light of the glorious Gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, might shine into them.
Opposite		⁴⁵ For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus’ sake: ⁴⁶ for God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, has shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.
Opposite		⁴⁷ But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellence of the power may be of God, and not of us.
	¶Opposite	Born-again Christians have the same Holy Spirit of faith (4:8 - 15)
Opposite		⁴⁸ We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair; ⁴⁹ persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed; ⁴¹⁰ always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body. ⁴¹¹ For we who live are always delivered unto death for Jesus’ sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.
Opposite		⁴¹² So then, death works in us, but life in you.
Complement		⁴¹³ We having the same Spirit of faith; according as it is written, “ I believed; and therefore have I spoken. ”
Complement		We also believe, and therefore speak: ⁴¹⁴ knowing that he who raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you.
Unique		⁴¹⁵ For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace through the thanksgiving of many might redound to the glory of God.
	$Complement	Body: Believers should live with the Judgment Seat of Christ in mind (4:16 - 7:1)
	¶Unique	Believers in Christ long to be with Him, because of the afflictions of this life (4:16 - 5:7)
Opposite		⁴¹⁶ For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perishes, yet the inward man is renewed day by day: ⁴¹⁷ for our light affliction, which is but for a moment, works for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;
Opposite		⁴¹⁸ while we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are unseen: for the things which are seen are temporary; but the things which are unseen are eternal: ⁵¹⁴ for we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle is dissolved, we have a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens: ⁵² for in this tabernacle we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from Heaven ⁵³ (if it is true that being clothed, we shall not be found naked): ⁵⁴ for we that are in this tabernacle are groaning, being burdened: not so that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon; that mortality might be swallowed up of Life.
Complement		⁵⁵ Now he that has wrought us for the selfsame thing is God, who has also given us the down-payment of the Spirit.
Complement		⁵⁶ Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, while we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord:
Unique		⁵⁷ for we walk by faith, and not by sight.
	¶Complement	The Judgment Seat of Christ in the future is a powerful incentive to live for God here in this life (5:8 - 15)
Unique		⁵⁸ We are confident, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.
		⁵⁹ Therefore, whether present or absent, we labor to be well-pleasing to him: ⁵¹⁰ for we must all appear before the Judgment Seat of Christ, that every one may receive for the things done while in his body: according to that he has done, whether it is good or bad.
Complement		⁵¹¹ Therefore, knowing the terror of the Lord, we persuade men.
Complement		But we are made manifest to God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences.
Opposite		⁵¹² For we do not commend ourselves again to you, but give you occasion to glory on our behalf, that you may have something to answer them who glory in appearance, and not in heart: ⁵¹³ for whether we are beside ourselves, it is to God; or whether we are sober, it is for your cause.
Opposite		⁵¹⁴ For the love of Christ compels us; because we judge this, that if one died for all, then all were spiritually dead; ⁵¹⁵ and that he died for all, that they who live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him who died for them, and rose again.
	¶Complement	Believers have been transformed inwardly by the Holy Spirit and given the Gospel (5:16 - 21)
Unique		⁵¹⁶ Therefore, henceforth we know no man after the flesh; moreover, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth, we know him no more.
Complement		⁵¹⁷ Therefore, if any man is in Christ, he is a new creation: old things have passed away; behold, all things have become permanently new.
Complement		⁵¹⁸ And all things are of God, who has reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ; and has given to us the ministry of reconciliation: ⁵¹⁹ namely, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world to himself, not imputing their trespasses to them; and has committed to us the Word of reconciliation.
Opposite		⁵²⁰ Now then we are ambassadors for Christ; as though God implored you by us, we implore you in Christ’s stead: be reconciled to God!
Opposite		⁵²¹ For he made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin, that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.
	¶Opposite	Do not be lazy in sharing the Gospel, because today is the day of salvation (6:1 - 10)
Unique		⁶¹ We then, as workers together with him , urge you also that you do not receive the grace of God in vain: ⁶² for he says, “ I have heard you in a time accepted; and in the day of salvation have I helped you. ”
Complement		Behold, now is the accepted time!
Complement		Behold, now is the day of salvation!
Opposite		⁶³ Giving no offense in anything, that the ministry be not blamed; ⁶⁴ but in all things approving ourselves as the ministers of God: in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses, ⁶⁵ in stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labors, in watching, and in fasting; ⁶⁶ by pureness, by knowledge, by longsuffering, by kindness, by the Holy Spirit, by unfeigned love, ⁶⁷ by the Word of truth, by the power of God, by the armor of righteousness on the right hand and on the left, ⁶⁸ by honor and dishonor, by evil report and good report;
Opposite		as deceivers, and yet true; ⁶⁹ as unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and, behold, we live; as chastened, and not killed; ⁶¹⁰ as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.
	¶Opposite	Do not be unequally yoked with unbelievers (6:11 - 7:1)
Opposite		⁶¹¹ O you Corinthians, our mouth has been freely opened to you; our heart has been enlarged. ⁶¹² You are not restricted in us, but you are restricted in your own affections.
Opposite		⁶¹³ Now for a recompense in the same: (I speak as to my children) you be enlarged also.
Complement		⁶¹⁴ Be not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship has righteousness with unrighteousness? And what communion has light with darkness? ⁶¹⁵ And what agreement has Christ with Belial? Or what part has he that believes with an infidel? ⁶¹⁶ And what agreement has the Temple of God with idols? For all of you are a Temple of the Living God; as God has said, “ I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God; and they shall be my people. ”
Complement		⁶¹⁷ “ Therefore come out from among them, and be separate,’ says the Lord; ‘and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, ⁶¹⁸and will be a Father to you; and you shall be my sons and daughters,’ says the Lord Almighty. ”
Unique		⁷¹ Therefore having these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit; perfecting holiness in the fear of God.
	$Complement	Conclusion: The strong feelings of the Corinthian believers for Paul gave joy to everyone (7:2 - 16)
	¶Complement	Paul and his coworkers were comforted by the news of their feelings for him (7:2 - 8)
Opposite		⁷² Receive us; we have wronged no man; we have corrupted no man; we have defrauded no man.
Opposite		⁷³ I do not speak this to condemn you : for I have said before, that you are in our hearts to die and live with you .
Complement		⁷⁴ Great is my boldness of speech toward you; great is my glorying of you; I am filled with comfort; I am exceedingly joyful in all our tribulation: ⁷⁵ for when we came into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest; but we were troubled on every side: outside were battles, inside were fears.
Complement		⁷⁶ Nevertheless God, that comforts those that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Titus; ⁷⁷ and not by his coming only, but by the consolation with which he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, and your fervent mind toward me, so that I rejoiced even more.
Unique		⁷⁸ For though I made you sorrowful with a letter, I do not regret it, though I did regret it: for I perceive that the same letter has made you sorry; though it were but for a while.
	¶Complement	Paul and his coworkers rejoiced for Titus, because of his experience with the Corinthian believers (7:9 - 16)
Opposite		⁷⁹ Now I rejoice, not that you were made sorry, but that you sorrowed to repentance: for you were made sorry after a godly manner, that you might receive damage by us in nothing: ⁷¹⁰ for godly sorrow works repentance to salvation not to be repented of; but the sorrow of the world works death.
Opposite		⁷¹¹ For behold this selfsame thing, that you sorrowed after a godly sort: what earnestness it wrought in you; yea, what clearing of yourselves; yea, what indignation; yea, what fear; yea, what vehement desire; yea, what zeal; yea, what vindication! In all things you have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter.
Complement		⁷¹² Therefore, though I wrote to you, I did not do it for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear to you. ⁷¹³ Therefore we were comforted in your comfort.
Complement		Moreover, and we exceedingly rejoiced the more for the joy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all: ⁷¹⁴ for if I have boasted anything to him of you, I am not ashamed; but as we spoke all things to you in truth, even so our boasting, which I made before Titus, is found a truth.
Unique		⁷¹⁵ And his inward affection is more abundant toward you, while he remembers the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling you received him.
		⁷¹⁶ Therefore, I rejoice that I have confidence in you in all things .

Spiritual Maturity, Chapter 2.3: Keep a light hold on the things of this world (8:1 - 9:15)
$Unique	Introduction: The Assemblies of Macedonia followed the example of the Lord in giving everything they had for others (8:1 - 9)
¶Opposite	The Assemblies of Macedonia begged Paul to allow them to contribute money to the Assembly in Jerusalem (8:1 - 7)

$Complement	Body: Financial offerings must be handled with honesty and transparency in the sight of all (8:10 - 9:5)
¶Opposite	It would be beneficial for you to now give, as you were willing to do a year ago (8:10 - 12)
¶Opposite	Your abundance may be a supply for their need, and their abundance may be a supply for your need (8:13 - 15)
¶Complement	The Assemblies chose a trustee to accompany Titus to ensure honesty and transparency (8:16 - 21)
¶Complement	Titus and the two brothers are considered the messengers of the Assemblies and the glory of Christ (8:22 - 24)
¶Unique	I have sent these brethren to go before us, so that you will be prepared with the financial gift when we arrive (9:1 - 5)
$Complement	Conclusion: Voluntary love offerings bring glory to God and increase brotherly love among the saints (9:6 - 15)
¶Complement	Love offerings are not a tithe, but a voluntary gift, which God will bless (9:6 - 9)
¶Complement	This love offering brings glory to God and increases brotherly love among the saints of God (9:10 - 15)

	$Unique	Introduction: The Assemblies of Macedonia followed the example of the Lord in giving everything they had for others (8:1 - 9)
	¶Opposite	The Assemblies of Macedonia begged Paul to allow them to contribute money to the Assembly in Jerusalem (8:1 - 7)
Unique		8:1Moreover, brethren, we make known unto you the grace of God that was bestowed on the Assemblies of Macedonia:
		8:2how that in a great trial of affliction, the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded to the riches of their generosity.
Complement		8:3For according to their ability, I bear witness, indeed, even beyond their ability, they were willing of themselves: 8:4asking us with much urgency, that we would receive the gift, and the fellowship of the ministry to the saints.
Complement		8:5And they did this , not as we expected, but they first gave their own selves to the Lord; and to us, by the will of God.
Opposite		8:6Insomuch that we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace also.
Opposite		8:7Therefore, as you abound in every thing: in faith, utterance, knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us; see that you abound in this grace also.
	¶Opposite	Jesus gave Himself for our sins, so that we through his poverty might be rich (8:8 - 9)
Opposite		8:8I speak not by command;
Opposite		but by occasion of the eagerness of others, and to test the sincerity of your love.
Complement		8:9For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
Complement		that though he was rich,
Unique		yet, for your sakes, he became poor;
		so that through his poverty, you might be rich.
	$Complement	Body: Financial offerings must be handled with honesty and transparency in the sight of all (8:10 - 9:5)
	¶Opposite	It would be beneficial for you to now give, as you were willing to do a year ago (8:10 - 12)
Unique		8:10And herein I give my advice:
		for this is beneficial for you, who have begun before;
Complement		not only to do,
Complement		but also to be willing to begin more than a year ago.
Opposite		8:11Now therefore perform the action, that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which you have:
Opposite		8:12for if there is first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man has, and not according to what he does not have.
	¶Opposite	Your abundance may be a supply for their need, and their abundance may be a supply for your need (8:13 - 15)
Opposite		8:13For I do not mean that other men be eased, and you burdened;
Opposite		8:14but by an equality:
Complement		that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their need;
Complement		that their abundance also may be a supply for your need;
Unique		that there may be equality:
		8:15as it is written, “ He that had gathered much had nothing left over; and he that had gathered little had no lack. ”

	¶Complement	The Assemblies chose a trustee to accompany Titus to ensure honesty and transparency (8:16 - 21)
Unique		8:16But thanks to God, who put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you:
		8:17for indeed he accepted the exhortation; but being more eager, of his own accord he went to you.
Complement		8:18And we have sent with him the brother, whose praise in the Gospel is known throughout all the Assemblies.
Complement		8:19And not only that , but he was also chosen by the Assemblies to travel with us with this grace, which is administered by us to the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your ready mind.
Opposite		8:20Avoiding this, that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us;
Opposite		8:21providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.
	¶Complement	Titus and the two brothers are considered the messengers of the Assemblies and the glory of Christ (8:22 - 24)
Unique		8:22And we have sent with them our brother;
		whom we have oftentimes proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent upon the great confidence which I have in you.
Complement		8:23If anyone inquires of Titus, he is my partner and fellow-helper concerning you;
Complement		or if our brethren are inquired of , they are the messengers of the Assemblies, and the glory of Christ.
Opposite		8:24Therefore show them, and before the Assemblies, the proof of your love;
Opposite		and of our boasting on your behalf.
	¶Unique	I have sent these brethren to go before us, so that you will be prepared with the financial gift when we arrive (9:1 - 5)
Opposite		9:1For as touching the ministering to the saints, it is needless for me to write to you:
Opposite		9:2for I know the eagerness of your mind, for which I boast of you to them of Macedonia, that Achaia was ready to give a year ago; and your zeal has inspired very many.
Complement		9:3Yet I have sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this behalf, that, as I said, you may be ready;
Complement		9:4lest perhaps if they of Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we do not say, you) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting.
Unique		9:5Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before to you, and make up beforehand your bounty, of which you had notice before; that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not as of covetousness.
	$Complement	Conclusion: Voluntary love offerings bring glory to God and increase brotherly love among the saints (9:6 - 15)
	¶Complement	Love offerings are not a tithe, but a voluntary gift, which God will bless (9:6 - 9)
Opposite		9:6But this I say : he who sows sparingly shall also reap sparingly;
Opposite		and he who sows bountifully shall also reap bountifully.
Complement		9:7Every man according as he purposes in his heart, so let him give ;
Complement		not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loves an enthusiastic giver.
Unique		9:8And God is able to make all grace abound toward you, so that you, always having all sufficiency in all things , may abound to every good work:
		9:9as it is written, “ He has dispersed abroad; he has given to the poor; his righteousness remains forever. ”
	¶Complement	This love offering brings glory to God and increases brotherly love among the saints of God (9:10 - 15)
Opposite		9:10Now he that ministers seed to the sower both minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown; and increase the fruits of your righteousness: 9:11being enriched in everything to all bountifulness;
Opposite		which causes through us thanksgiving to God.
Complement		9:12For the administration of this service not only supplies the need of the saints,
Complement		but is abundant also by many thanksgivings to God.
Unique		9:13While by the experiment of this ministry, they glorify God for your professed subjection to the Gospel of Christ, and for your generous distribution to them, and to all; 9:14and by their prayer for you, who long after you for the exceeding grace of God in you.
		9:15Thank God for his unspeakable gift.

§Unique	Introduction: Paul was an example of a spiritual Christian in every way (10:1 - 6)
¶Opposite	Paul was humble toward the Corinthian believers in person, but bold in his letters to them (10:1 - 2)
¶Opposite	Paul used spiritual warfare to bring his thoughts into captivity to Christ (10:3 - 6)
§Complement	Body: Paul wanted to win souls and preach the Gospel, instead of playing power games with his critics (10:7 - 11:15)
¶Unique	The critics of Paul were more concerned with his physical appearance than his spiritual power (10:7 - 10)
¶Complement	Paul refused to try to win a popularity contest with his critics in the Assembly in Corinth (10:11 - 13)
¶Complement	Paul was more concerned with reaching out to the regions beyond Corinth than trying to dominate them (10:14 - 18)
¶Opposite	Paul feared that the Corinthians were vulnerable to following a false Jesus, a false spirit, and a false gospel (11:1 - 6)
¶Opposite	The servants of Satan are transformed as ministers of righteousness, whose end shall be according to their works (11:7 - 15)
§Complement	Conclusion: Paul did everything possible to advance the Gospel at the risk of his own health and safety (11:16 - 33)
¶Complement	The sufferings of Paul for the sake of the Gospel proved the truth of his apostleship (11:16 - 28)
¶Complement	Paul made a narrow escape from the governor of Damascus early in his ministry (11:29 - 33)

	§Unique	Introduction: Paul was an example of a spiritual Christian in every way (10:1 - 6)
	¶Opposite	Paul was humble toward the Corinthian believers in person, but bold in his letters to them (10:1 - 2)
Unique		10:1Now I Paul myself implore you, by the meekness and gentleness of Christ;
Complement		who, in presence, am humble among you,
Complement		but, being absent, am bold toward you.
Opposite		10:2But I ask, so that I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence, with which I think to be bold against some,
Opposite		who think of us as if we walked according to the flesh.
	¶Opposite	Paul used spiritual warfare to bring his thoughts into captivity to Christ (10:3 - 6)
Opposite		10:3For though we walk in the flesh,
Opposite		we do not war after the flesh.
Complement		10:4For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal,
Complement		but mighty through God to the pulling down of fortresses of sin ;
Unique		10:5casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God; and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;
		10:6and having in a readiness to punish all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.
	§Complement	Body: Paul wanted to win souls and preach the Gospel, instead of playing power games with his critics (10:7 - 11:15)
	¶Unique	The critics of Paul were more concerned with his physical appearance than his spiritual power (10:7 - 10)
Opposite		10:7Do you look on things after the outward appearance?
Opposite		If any man trusts to himself that he is Christ’s, let him of himself think this again, that, as he is Christ’s, even so are we Christ’s.
Complement		10:8For though I will boast somewhat more of our authority which the Lord has given us for spiritual strengthening, and not for your destruction,
Complement		I will not be ashamed, 10:9that I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters.
Unique		10:10For they say, “ His letters are weighty and powerful; but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible.”
	¶Complement	Paul refused to try to win a popularity contest with his critics in the Assembly in Corinth (10:11 - 13)
Unique		10:11Let such a one think this, that, such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also in deed when we are present:
Complement		10:12for we dare not place ourselves in the same rank, nor to compare ourselves with some that commend themselves;
Complement		but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise.
Opposite		10:13But we will not boast of things without our measure;
Opposite		but according to the measure of the rule which God has distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you.
	¶Complement	Paul was more concerned with reaching out to the regions beyond Corinth than trying to dominate them (10:14 - 18)
Unique		10:14For we do not stretch ourselves beyond our measure , as though we did not reach to you: for we have come as far as to you also in preaching the Gospel of Christ:
Complement		10:15not boasting of things without our measure, that is , of other men’s labors;
Complement		but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be enlarged by you according to our rule abundantly: 10:16to preach the Gospel in the regions beyond you; and not to boast in another man’s line of things made ready to our hand.
Opposite		10:17But it is written , “ he that glories, let him glory in the Lord. ”
Opposite		10:18For not he that commends himself is approved, but whom the Lord commends.

	¶Opposite	Paul feared that the Corinthians were vulnerable to following a false Jesus, a false spirit, and a false gospel (11:1 - 6)
Unique		11:1Would to God you could bear with me a little in my folly; and indeed bear with me: 11:2for I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: for I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ.
Complement		11:3But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his cunning, so your minds might be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.
Complement		11:4For if he that comes preaches another “Jesus” (whom we have not preached), or if you receive a different “spirit” (which you have not already received), or a different “gospel” (which you have not already accepted), you might well continue with him .
Opposite		11:5For I account that I was not inferior to the highest ranking apostles.
Opposite		11:6Even though untrained in speech (but not in knowledge), yet we have been thoroughly made manifest among you in all things.
	¶Opposite	The servants of Satan are transformed as ministers of righteousness, whose end shall be according to their works (11:7 - 15)
Opposite		11:7Have I committed an offense, in abasing myself that you might be exalted, because I have preached the Gospel of God to you freely? 11:8I deprived other Assemblies, taking wages from them , to do you service. 11:9And when I was present with you, and wanted, I was burdensome to no man: for that which was lacking to me the brethren who came from Macedonia supplied. And in all things I have kept myself from being burdensome to you; and so will I keep myself .
Opposite		11:10As the truth of Christ is in me, no man shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of Achaia.
Complement		11:11Why? Because I do not love you? God knows. 11:12But what I do, that I will do, so that I may cut off occasion from them who desire occasion, so that whatever they glory in, they may be found even as we.
Complement		11:13For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.
Unique		11:14And no marvel: for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. 11:15Therefore, it is no great thing if his servants also are transformed as the ministers of righteousness, whose end shall be according to their works.
	§Complement	Conclusion: Paul did everything possible to advance the Gospel at the risk of his own health and safety (11:16 - 33)
	¶Complement	The sufferings of Paul for the sake of the Gospel proved the truth of his apostleship (11:16 - 28)
Opposite		11:16I say again, let no man think of me as a fool; if otherwise, yet as a fool receive me, that I may boast myself a little. 11:17That which I speak, I speak it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, in this confidence of boasting. 11:18Seeing that many glory after the flesh, I will glory also: 11:19for you suffer fools gladly, seeing you yourselves are wise: 11:20for you suffer, if a man brings you into slavery, if a man devours you , if a man takes something from you , if a man exalts himself, or if a man strikes you on the face.
Opposite		11:21I speak as concerning reproach, as though we were weak.
Complement		Nevertheless wheresoever any are bold (I speak foolishly), I am also bold.
Complement		11:22Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? So am I.
Unique		11:23Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool) I am more: in labors more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths often. 11:24Of the Jews five times I received forty stripes except one. 11:25Three times I was beaten with rods; once I was stoned; three times I suffered shipwreck; a night and a day have I been in the deep sea ; 11:26 in journeys often; in perils of waters, in perils from thieves, in perils by my own countrymen, in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, and in perils among false brethren; 11:27in weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fasting often, in cold and nakedness. 11:28 And beside other matters, that which comes upon me daily: the care of all the Assemblies.
	¶Complement	Paul made a narrow escape from the governor of Damascus early in his ministry (11:29 - 33)
Opposite		11:29Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is offended, and I do not burn?
Opposite		11:30If I must glory, I will glory of the things which concern my frailties. 11:31The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who is blessed forevermore, knows that I do not lie.
Complement		11:32In Damascus, the governor under Aretas the king kept the city of the Damascenes with a garrison, wanting to arrest me;
Complement		11:33and through a window in a basket was I let down by the wall; and I escaped his hands.

Spiritual Maturity, Chapter 2.5: Follow the teachings of the true apostle, Paul (12:1 - 13:14)
$Complement	Introduction: Paul would not allow pride to destroy him through his incredible experiences (12:1 - 10)
¶Opposite	Paul experienced a vision of being caught up into the third Heaven and Paradise (12:1 - 6)
¶Opposite	But Paul gloried in his frailties, so that he would be strong in Christ, but weak in himself (12:7 - 10)
$Complement	Body: Paul demonstrated his apostolic credentials by his godly works (12:11 - 13:4)
¶Opposite	Paul had already performed all the signs of an apostle among the Corinthian believers (12:11 - 13)
¶Opposite	Paul loved the Corinthian believers more, but they loved him less for it (12:14 - 15)
¶Complement	Paul sent Titus and a brother to escort their offering to Jerusalem to prove his integrity (12:16 - 18)
¶Complement	Paul did all things for their spiritual strengthening/edification (12:19 - 21)
¶Unique	If Paul came again, he would demonstrate the power of God toward them (13:1 - 4)
$Unique	Conclusion: Paul wanted only the best and highest for the Corinthian believers (13:5 - 14)
¶Complement	Paul wrote these things, so that the Corinthian believers would grow spiritually (13:5 - 10)
¶Complement	Greet one another and the Triune God be with you all (13:11 - 14)

	$Complement	Introduction: Paul would not allow pride to destroy him through his incredible experiences (12:1 - 10)
	¶Opposite	Paul experienced a vision of being caught up into the third Heaven and Paradise (12:1 - 6)
Unique		12:1It is necessary for me to continue boasting; though it is not profitable for me, I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.
Complement		12:2I knew a man in Christ more than fourteen years ago (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell; God knows): such a one caught up to the third Heaven.
Complement		12:3And I knew such a man (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell; God knows): 12:4how that he was caught up into Paradise; and he heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter.
Opposite		12:5Of such a one will I glory.
Opposite		Yet I will not glory of myself, but in my frailties: 12:6for though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool: for I will say the truth; but now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he sees me to be , or that he hears of me.
	¶Opposite	But Paul gloried in his frailties, so that he would be strong in Christ, but weak in himself (12:7 - 10)
Opposite		12:7And lest I might be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh: the angel of Satan, that he might afflict me, lest I should be exalted above measure.
Complement		12:8For this thing, I implored the Lord three times, that it might depart from me; 12:9and he said to me, “ My grace is sufficient for you: for my power is made perfect in your weakness. ”
Complement		Most gladly, therefore, will I rather glory in my frailties, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.
Unique		12:10Therefore I take pleasure in frailties, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses, for Christ’s sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.
	$Complement	Body: Paul demonstrated his apostolic credentials by his godly works (12:11 - 13:4)
	¶Opposite	Paul had already performed all the signs of an apostle among the Corinthian believers (12:11 - 13)
Unique		12:11I have become a fool in glorying; you have compelled me:
Complement		for I should have been commended by you: for in nothing am I behind the highest ranking apostles, though I am nothing.
Complement		12:12Truly the signs of an apostle were performed among you, in all patience; in signs, wonders, and mighty deeds.
Opposite		12:13For in what way were you inferior to other congregations, except that I myself was not burdensome to you?
Opposite		Forgive me this “wrong”.
	¶Opposite	Paul loved the Corinthian believers more, but they loved him less for it (12:14 - 15)
Opposite		12:14Behold, the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you: for I do not seek yours, but you.
Complement		For the children should not lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.
Complement
Unique		12:15And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I am loved.

	¶Complement	Paul sent Titus and a brother to escort their offering to Jerusalem to prove his integrity (12:16 - 18)
Unique		12:16But be it so, I did not burden you; nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you with guile.
Complement		12:17Did I make a gain of you by any of them whom I sent to you?
Complement		12:18I asked Titus to go ; and with him , I sent a brother.
Opposite		Did Titus make a gain of you?
Opposite		Did we not walk in the same spirit? Did we not walk in the same steps?
	¶Complement	Paul did all things for their spiritual strengthening/edification (12:19 - 21)
Unique		12:19Again, do you think that we excuse ourselves to you? We speak before God in Christ. But we do all things, dearly beloved, for your spiritual strengthening.
Complement		12:20For I fear; lest, when I come, I will not find you such as I would prefer ;
Complement		and that I shall be found to you such as you do not wish; lest there are debates, envying, wraths, striving, backbiting, whisperings, swellings, or tumults.
Opposite		12:21 And I am afraid that , when I come, my God will again humble me among you;
Opposite		and that I will bewail many who have sinned already, and have not repented of the uncleanness and fornication and licentiousness which they have committed.
	¶Unique	If Paul came again, he would demonstrate the power of God toward them (13:1 - 4)
Opposite		13:1 This is the third time I am coming to you.
Opposite		“ In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established. ”
Complement		13:2I told you before; and foretell you, as if I were present, the second time; and being absent now I write to them who before have sinned, and to all others, that, if I come again, I will not spare.
Complement		13:3Since you seek a proof of Christ speaking in me; which toward you is not weak, but is mighty in you.
Unique		13:4For though he was crucified through weakness, yet he lives by the power of God. For we also are weak in him; but we shall live with him by the power of God toward you.
	$Unique	Conclusion: Paul wanted only the best and highest for the Corinthian believers (13:5 - 14)
	¶Complement	Paul wrote these things, so that the Corinthian believers would grow spiritually (13:5 - 10)
Opposite		13:5Examine yourselves, to see whether you are truly in the Faith; test your own selves. Do you not know your own selves, how that Jesus Christ is in you, unless you are reprobates?
Opposite		13:6But I trust that you shall know that we are not reprobates.
Complement		13:7Now I pray to God that you do no evil; not that we should appear approved, but that you should do that which is honest, though we are as reprobates.
Complement		13:8For we can do nothing against the Truth, but for the Truth: 13:9for we are glad, when we are weak and you are strong.
Unique		And this also we wish, even your spiritual maturity.

¶Unique	The apostle Paul was both a spiritual guide and close friends with the Thessalonian believers (2:1 - 12)
¶Complement	They became imitators of the Assemblies in Judea in their suffering under persecution (2:13 - 3:13)

¶Complement	Stay busy in the work of the ministry while waiting for the Rapture (5:12 - 22)
¶Complement	Greet one another with a holy kiss (5:23 - 28)

	§Unique	Introduction: The evangelistic fervor of the Thessalonian Assembly was known far and wide (1:1 - 10)
	¶Opposite	Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy to the Assembly of the Thessalonians (1:1)
Unique		1:1Paul and Silvanus and Timothy: to the Assembly of the Thessalonians;
Complement		which is in God the Father,
Complement		and the Lord Jesus Christ:
Opposite		Grace to you, and peace,
Opposite		from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
	¶Opposite	The Thessalonian believers were examples of repentance and evangelistic fervor for all believers (1:2 - 10)
Opposite		1:2We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers; ^{1:3} and remembering, without ceasing, your work of faith, labor of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God and our Father; ^{1:4} knowing, brethren beloved, your election of God.
Opposite		1:5For our Gospel came not to you in word only; but also in power, and in the Holy Spirit, and in much assurance (as you know what manner of men we were among you for your sake).
Complement		1:6And you became followers of us, and of the Lord, having received the Word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Spirit, ^{1:7} so that you were examples to all that believe in Macedonia and Achaia.
Complement		1:8For the Word of the Lord sounded out from you: not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith toward God is spread abroad, so that we do not need to speak anything.
Unique		1:9For they themselves show of us what manner of entering in we had to you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the Living and true God;
		^{1:10} and to wait for his Son from Heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus, who delivered us from the wrath to come.
	§Complement	Body: The Thessalonian believers faced persecution and great temptation to immorality (2:1 - 5:11)
	¶Unique	The apostle Paul was both a spiritual guide and close friends with the Thessalonian believers (2:1 - 12)
Opposite		2:1For yourselves, brethren, know that our entrance in to you was not in vain; ^{2:2} but even after we had suffered before, and were shamefully treated (as you know) at Philippi, we were bold in our God to speak the Gospel of God to you in much conflict: ^{2:3} for our exhortation was not of deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile.
Opposite		2:4But as we were allowed of God to be put in trust with the Gospel, even so we speak: not as pleasing men, but God, who tests our hearts. ^{2:5} For we never used flattering words at any time (as you know), nor a cloak of covetousness: God is witness. ^{2:6} Nor did we seek the glory of men: not of you, nor even of others, when we might have been burdensome, as the apostles of Christ.
Complement		2:7But we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherishes her children. ^{2:8} So, in this manner longing for you with affection, we were pleased to have imparted to you, not only the Gospel of God, but also our own souls, because you were dear to us.
Complement		2:9For you remember, brethren, our labor and travail: for working night and day (because we would not be a financial burden to any of you), we preached the Gospel of God to you.
Unique		^{2:10} You are witnesses, and God also , how piously and justly and blamelessly we behaved ourselves among you that believe;
		^{2:11} as you know how we exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you (as a father does his children), ^{2:12} that you might walk worthy of God, who calls you into his Kingdom and glory.
	¶Complement	They became imitators of the Assemblies in Judea in their suffering under persecution (2:13 - 3:13)
Unique		2:13For this reason also, we thank God without ceasing: because, when you received the Word of God which you heard of us, you did not receive it as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the Word of God, which also works effectively in you that believe.
Complement		2:14For you, brethren, became imitators of the Assemblies of God in Christ Jesus which are in Judea: for you also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, even as they have of the Jews; ^{2:15} who killed both the Lord Jesus, and their own prophets, and have persecuted us. And they please not God, and are contrary to all men: ^{2:16} forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved, to fill up their sins always: for the wrath has come upon them to the uttermost.
Complement		2:17But we, brethren, being taken from you for a short time in presence (but not in heart), endeavored the more abundantly to see your face with great desire; ^{2:18} therefore we wanted to come to you (even I Paul, once and again); but Satan hindered us. ^{2:19} For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Is it not even you in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming? ^{2:20} For you are our glory and joy.
Opposite		3:1Therefore when we could no longer forbear, we thought it good to be left at Athens alone; ^{3:2} and we sent Timotheus, our brother, and minister of God, and our fellow-laborer in the Gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith; ^{3:3} that no man should be moved by these afflictions. For yourselves know that we are appointed to this: ^{3:4} for truly, when we were with you, we told you before that we should suffer tribulation: even as it came to pass, and you know. ^{3:5} For this reason, when I could no longer forbear, I sent to know your faith, lest by some means the tempter has tempted you, and our labor is in vain.
Opposite		3:6But now when Timotheus came from you to us, and brought us good news of your faith and selfless love, and that you have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us, as we also to see you; ^{3:7} therefore, brethren, we were comforted over you in all our affliction and distress by your faith: ^{3:8} for now we live, if you stand fast in the Lord: ^{3:9} for what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy with which we joy for your sakes before our God: ^{3:10} night and day praying exceedingly that we might see your face, and might perfect that which is lacking in your faith? ^{3:11} Now God himself, even our Father and our Lord Jesus Christ, direct our way to you. ^{3:12} Also the Lord make you to increase and abound in selfless love one toward another, and toward all men , even as we do toward you: ^{3:13} to the end he may establish your hearts blameless in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his saints.
	¶Complement	They needed to abstain from fornication to grow in holiness and sanctification (4:1 - 12)
Unique		4:1Furthermore then we urge you, brethren, and exhort you by the Lord Jesus, that as you have received of us how you ought to walk and to please God, so you should increase more and more.
		4:2For you know what commands we gave you by the Lord Jesus.
Complement		4:3For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that you should abstain from fornication; ^{4:4} that every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honor, ^{4:5} and not in the passion of evil desire, even as the Gentiles that do not know God; ^{4:6} and that no man goes beyond and defrauds his brother in any such matter: for the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified. ^{4:7} For God has not called us to uncleanness, but to holiness.
Complement		4:8Therefore, he that despises, despises not man, but God, who has also given to us his Holy Spirit.
Opposite		4:9But as touching brotherly love you do not need that I write to you: for you yourselves are taught by God to love one another. ^{4:10} And indeed you do it toward all the brethren which are in all Macedonia.
Opposite		But we urge you, brethren, that you increase more and more; ^{4:11} and that you study to be quiet; and to do your own business; and to work with your own hands (as we commanded you), ^{4:12} so that you may walk honestly toward them that are outside the Assembly ; and that you may have lack of nothing.
	¶Opposite	The dead in Christ shall rise first, then the living believers, to meet the Lord at the Rapture (4:13 - 18)
Unique		4:13But I do not want you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them who are asleep, that you sorrow not, even as others who have no hope: ^{4:14} for if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, those also who sleep in Jesus will God bring with him:
		^{4:15} for this we say to you by the Word of the Lord, that we who are alive and remain until the Coming of the Lord shall not precede them who are asleep.
Complement		4:16For the Lord himself shall descend from Heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trumpet of God; and the dead in Christ shall rise first;
Complement		4:17then we, who are alive and remain behind , shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air.
Opposite		And so, we shall always be with the Lord.
Opposite		4:18Therefore comfort one another with these words.
	¶Opposite	God has not appointed believers of this Age to suffer his wrath through the Great Tribulation period (5:1 - 11)
Opposite		5:1But of the times and the seasons, brethren, you have no need that I write to you: ^{5:2} for yourselves know perfectly that the Day of the Lord so comes as a thief in the night: ^{5:3} for when they shall say, “Peace and safety”, then sudden destruction comes upon them, as labor pains upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.
Opposite		5:4But you, brethren, are not in darkness, that that Day should overtake you as a thief. ^{5:5} You are all the children of Light, and the children of the day. We are not of the night, nor of darkness; ^{5:6} therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but let us watch and be sober. ^{5:7} for they that sleep, sleep in the night; and they that are drunk are drunk in the night.
Complement		5:8But let us, who are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and selfless love; and for a helmet, the assurance of salvation:
Complement		5:9for God has not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain deliverance by our Lord Jesus Christ; ^{5:10} who died for us, so that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him;
Unique		5:11therefore comfort yourselves together; and edify one another, even as also you do.
	§Complement	Conclusion: Stay busy in the ministry and greet one another with a holy kiss (5:12 - 28)
	¶Complement	Stay busy in the work of the ministry while waiting for the Rapture (5:12 - 22)
Opposite		5:12And we urge you, brethren, to know them who labor among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you; ^{5:13} and to esteem them very highly in love for their work’s sake.
Opposite		And be at peace among yourselves.
Complement		5:14Now we exhort you, brethren, warn them that are rebellious, comfort the feebleminded, support the weak, and be patient toward all men .
Complement		5:15See that no one renders evil for evil to anyone; but always follow that which is good, both among yourselves, and to all.
Unique		5:16Rejoice evermore; ^{5:17} pray without ceasing; ^{5:18} in everything, give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.
		^{5:19} Quench not the Spirit; ^{5:20} despise not prophesying; ^{5:21} test all things: hold fast that which is good; ^{5:22} abstain from all appearance of evil.
	¶Complement	Greet one another with a holy kiss (5:23 - 28)
Opposite		5:23Now the very God of peace sanctify you wholly; and may your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless until the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. ^{5:24} Faithful is he that calls you, who also will do it .
Opposite		5:25Brethren, pray for us.
Complement		5:26Greet all the brethren with a holy kiss.
Complement		5:27I charge you by the Lord, that this letter be read to all the holy brethren.
Unique		5:28The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

§Complement	Body: Be subject to one another outside the Assembly (1:10 - 4:11)
¶Opposite	Be holy to prepare yourselves for the Revelation of Jesus Christ (1:10 - 21)
¶Opposite	Desire the pure milk of the Word of God so that you may grow in grace (1:22 - 2:10)
¶Complement	Be subject to all human authority for the Lord's sake (2:11 - 25)
¶Complement	Wives, be subject to your own husbands (3:1 - 7)
¶Unique	Christ set the example for us of suffering and exaltation afterward by his death, burial, and resurrection (3:8 - 4:11)
§Unique	Conclusion: Be subject to one another within the Assembly (4:12 - 5:14)
¶Complement	Follow the faithful shepherd of the Assembly (4:12 - 5:7)
¶Complement	Greet one another with a kiss of selfless love (5:8 - 14)

	§Complement	Introduction: Your salvation will be tested as gold with fire to purify it (1:1 - 9)
	¶Opposite	Peter to the elect strangers of the dispersion (1:1 - 2)
Unique		^{1:1} Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ,
Complement		to the strangers of the dispersion from Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia:
Complement		^{1:2} Chosen according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ:
Opposite		Grace to you,
Opposite		and peace be multiplied.
	¶Opposite	As believers, you love Him and rejoice with unspeakable joy and full of glory, even though you have never seen Him (1:3 - 9)
Opposite		^{1:3} Blessed is the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to his abundant mercy has begotten us again to a living hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, ^{1:4} to an inheritance that is incorruptible, undefiled, and enduring; reserved in Heaven for you; ^{1:5} who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the Last Time.
Opposite		^{1:6} In which salvation you greatly rejoice; though now for a season, if it is necessary, you are distressed through manifold temptations: ^{1:7} that the trial of your faith (being much more precious than of gold that perishes, though it is tested with fire) might be found unto praise and honor and glory at the Revelation of Jesus Christ.
Complement		^{1:8} Whom, having not seen, you love;
Complement		in whom, though now you do not see him , yet believing, you rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory;
Unique		^{1:9} receiving the result of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.
	§Complement	Body: Be subject to one another outside the Assembly (1:10 - 4:11)
	¶Opposite	Be holy to prepare yourselves for the Revelation of Jesus Christ (1:10 - 21)
Unique		^{1:10} Of which salvation, the prophets have inquired and searched diligently (who prophesied of the grace that would come to you); ^{1:11} searching what, or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them was indicating, when it testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that would follow; ^{1:12} to whom it was revealed, that not to themselves, but to us they ministered the things which are now reported to you by them that have preached the Gospel to you with the Holy Spirit sent down from Heaven; which things the angels desire to look into.
Complement		^{1:13} Therefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and rest your hope fully upon the grace being offered to you at the Revelation of Jesus Christ;
Complement		^{1:14} as obedient children, not conforming yourselves according to the former lusts in your ignorance; ^{1:15} but as he who has called you is Holy, so you also be holy in all manner of conduct: ^{1:16} because it is written, “ You be holy: for I am Holy. ”
Opposite		^{1:17} And if you call on the Father (who without respect of persons judges according to every man’s work), pass the time of your sojourning here in fear, ^{1:18} forasmuch as you know that you were not redeemed with corruptible things, such as silver and gold, from your vain conduct received by religious tradition from your fathers; ^{1:19} but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a Lamb without blemish and without spot.
Opposite		^{1:20} Who truly was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was revealed in these Last Times for you; ^{1:21} who by him do believe in God, that raised him up from the dead, and gave him glory, that your faith and hope might be in God.
	¶Opposite	Desire the pure milk of the Word of God so that you may grow in grace (1:22 - 2:10)
Opposite		^{1:22} Seeing that you have purified your souls in obeying the Truth through the Spirit unto sincere love of the brethren, see also that you love one another with a pure heart fervently;
Opposite		^{1:23} having been born again (not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible) by the Word of God, which lives and endures forever: ^{1:24} for “ all flesh is as grass ”, and all the glory of man is as the flower of grass. “ The grass withers, and its flower falls away ”, ^{1:25} “ but the Word of the Lord endures forever. ” And this is the Word which by the Gospel has been preached to you.
Complement		^{2:1} Therefore, laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisy, and envy, and all evil speaking, ^{2:2} as newborn babes, desire the pure milk of the Word, that you may grow thereby ^{2:3} (if indeed you have tasted that the Lord is gracious); ^{2:4} to whom continually coming, as to a Living Stone (being rejected indeed by men, but chosen by God, and precious), ^{2:5} you also, as living stones, are being built up a spiritual House, a holy priesthood to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.
Complement		^{2:6} Therefore also it is contained in the Scripture: “ Behold, I lay in Zion a chief corner Stone: elect, precious; and he that believes on him shall not be ashamed. ” ^{2:7} Therefore, to you that believe, he is precious; but to them that are disobedient: the Stone which the builders rejected, the same is made the head of the corner, ^{2:8} and a Stone of stumbling, and a Rock of offense, even to them that stumble at the Word, being disobedient (to which also they were appointed).
Unique		^{2:9} But you are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, and a special people, that you should show forth the praises of him who has called you out of darkness into his marvelous Light; ^{2:10} which in times past were not a people, but are now the people of God; which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.
	¶Complement	Be subject to all human authority for the Lord's sake (2:11 - 25)
Unique		^{2:11} Dearly beloved, I urge you , as strangers and pilgrims: abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul; ^{2:12} having your behavior among the Gentiles noble; so that (whereas they speak against you as evildoers) they might (by your good works which they see) glorify God in the day of visitation.
Complement		^{2:13} Therefore, submit yourselves to all human authority for the Lord’s sake : whether it is to the king, as supreme; ^{2:14} or to governors, as to them that are sent by him for the punishment of evildoers, and for the praise of them that do well: ^{2:15} for this is the will of God, that by doing good you may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men; ^{2:16} as free, and not using your liberty for a cloak of evil, but as the servants of God.
Complement		^{2:17} Honor all men ; love the brethren; fear God; honor the king.
Opposite		^{2:18} Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the perverse: ^{2:19} for this is acceptable, if a man for conscience toward God endures grief, suffering wrongfully. ^{2:20} For what praise is it , if you sin and are being beaten for it , you shall take it patiently? But, if you do good and suffer for it , taking it patiently, this is acceptable with God.
Opposite		^{2:21} For even unto this were you called, because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that you should follow his steps; ^{2:22} who did not sin; neither was guile found in his mouth; ^{2:23} who, when he was reviled, reviled not in return; when he suffered, he did not threaten, but committed himself to him that judges righteously; ^{2:24} who his own self carried our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness; by whose stripes you were healed: ^{2:25} for you were as sheep going astray, but have now returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.
	¶Complement	Wives, be subject to your own husbands (3:1 - 7)
Unique		^{3:1} Likewise, you wives, be in subjection to your own husbands, so that, if any do not obey the Word of God, they may also without the Word be won to Christ by the conduct of the wives; ^{3:2} while they observe your pure conduct in fear.
Complement		^{3:3} Of which let it not be the outward adornment of braiding the hair, and wearing gold ornaments , or the wearing of worldly clothing; ^{3:4} but rather let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is of great price in the sight of God.
Complement		^{3:5} For in this manner in the old time the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection to their own husbands; ^{3:6} even as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord, whose daughters you are, as long as you do well, and are not afraid with any dismay.
Opposite		^{3:7} Likewise, you husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge;
Opposite		giving honor to the wife, as to the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of Eternal Life, that your prayers be not hindered.
	¶Unique	Christ set the example for us of suffering and exaltation afterward by his death, burial, and resurrection (3:8 - 4:11)
Opposite		^{3:8} Finally, all of you be of one mind; having compassion one of another, love as brethren; be pitiful; be courteous; ^{3:9} not returning evil for evil, or railing for railing, but contrariwise blessing; knowing that you are called unto this, that you should inherit a blessing. ^{3:10} For “ he that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile; ^{3:11} let him reject evil, and do good; let him seek peace, and pursue it: ^{3:12} for the eyes of [Jehovah] are over the righteous, and his ears are open to their prayers; but the face of [Jehovah] is against them that do evil. ” ^{3:13} And who is he that will harm you, if you are followers of that which is good?
Opposite		^{3:14} But if you suffer for righteousness’ sake, happy are you! And be not afraid of their terror; neither be troubled, ^{3:15} but sanctify the Lord God in your hearts. And be ready always to give an answer to every man that asks you a reason for the expectation that is in you with meekness and fear; ^{3:16} having a good conscience, so that, whereas they speak evil of you, as of evildoers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conduct in Christ: ^{3:17} for it is better, if the will of God is so, that you suffer for doing well, rather than for doing evil.
Complement		^{3:18} For Christ also has once for all time suffered for sins, the Just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God; having been put to death in the flesh, but made alive by the Spirit; ^{3:19} in which also he went and preached to the spirits in prison; ^{3:20} which at one time were disobedient, when once the long suffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was being prepared, in which few, that is, eight souls were delivered by water. ^{3:21} Which in corresponding fashion baptism also now delivers us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ; ^{3:22} who has gone into Heaven, and is on the right hand of God: angels and authorities and powers being made subject to him.
Complement		^{4:1} Forasmuch then as Christ has suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for he that has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin, ^{4:2} that he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God: ^{4:3} for the time past of our life is enough for us to have done the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in licentiousness, lusts, drunkenness, reveling, drinking, and abominable idolatries; ^{4:4} therefore they think it is strange that you do not run with them to the same excess of riot, speaking evil of you ; ^{4:5} who shall give account to him that is ready to judge the living and the dead. ^{4:6} For this reason also was the Gospel preached to them that are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.
Unique		^{4:7} But the end of all things is near; therefore be sober, and watch unto prayer. ^{4:8} And above all things have fervent selfless love among yourselves: for selfless love shall cover the multitude of sins. ^{4:9} Use hospitality one to another without grudging. ^{4:10} As every man has received a spiritual gift, even so minister the same gift one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God.
		^{4:11} If any man speaks, let him speak as the oracles of God; if any man ministers, let him do it as of the ability which God gives, that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom be praise and dominion into the Ages of the Ages. Amen.
	§Unique	Conclusion: Be subject to one another within the Assembly (4:12 - 5:14)
	¶Complement	Follow the faithful shepherd of the Assembly (4:12 - 5:7)
Opposite		^{4:12} Beloved, do not think it strange concerning the fiery trial which is to test you, as though some strange thing happened to you; ^{4:13} but rejoice, inasmuch as you are partakers of Christ’s sufferings, that, when his glory shall be revealed, you may be glad also with overwhelming joy. ^{4:14} If you are reproached for the Name of Christ, happy are you : for the Spirit of glory and of God rests upon you; on their part he is blasphemed; but on your part he is glorified.
Opposite		^{4:15} But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evildoer, or as a meddler in other men’s matters. ^{4:16} Yet if any man suffers as a Christian, let him not be ashamed. But let him glorify God in this respect: ^{4:17} for the time has come that judgment must begin at the House of God. And if it first begins at us, what shall be the end of them that do not obey the Gospel of God? ^{4:18} And if the righteous are scarcely saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear? ^{4:19} Therefore let them that suffer according to the will of God commit the keeping of their souls to him in doing good, as to a faithful Creator.
Complement		^{5:1} The elders which are among you I exhort (who am also an elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed): ^{5:2} shepherd the flock of God which is among you; overseeing them not by compulsion, but willingly; not for dishonest gain, but of a ready mind; ^{5:3} neither as being lords over God’s heritage, but being examples to the flock. ^{5:4} And when the chief Shepherd shall appear, you shall receive an enduring crown of glory.
Complement		^{5:5} Likewise, you younger, submit yourselves to the elder. Indeed, all of you be subject one to another; and be clothed with humility: for God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble.
Unique		^{5:6} Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time; ^{5:7} casting all your anxiety upon him: for he cares for you.
	¶Complement	Greet one another with a kiss of selfless love (5:8 - 14)
Opposite		^{5:8} Be sober and be vigilant, because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walks about, seeking whom he may devour; ^{5:9} whom resist steadfast in the Faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world.
Opposite		^{5:10} But the God of all grace, who has called us to his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that you have suffered a while, make you perfect, establish, strengthen, and settle you ; ^{5:11} to him be glory and dominion into the Ages of the Ages. Amen.
Complement		^{5:12} By Silvanus (a faithful brother to you, as I regard him) have I written briefly, exhorting and testifying that this is the true grace of God in which you stand.
Complement		^{5:13} The Assembly at Babylon, elected together with you , greets you; and so does my son Marcus. ^{5:14} Greet one another with a kiss of selfless love.
Unique		Peace with you all that are in Christ Jesus. Amen.

Spiritual Warfare, Chapter 1.3 (2 Peter): The Day of the Lord will bring destruction upon the false teachers (1:1 - 3:18)

¶Complement The Lord is not slow concerning his promise, but the Day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night (3:8 - 13)
¶Complement Beware, lest you also are led away with error; but grow in grace (3:14 - 18)

	$Unique Introduction: Peter to fellow believers: add the character traits that will keep you serving the Lord your entire lives (1:1 - 11)
	¶Opposite Simon Peter to fellow believers in Jesus Christ (1:1 - 4)
Unique	1:1Simon Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ;
Complement	to them that were allotted like precious faith with us,
Complement	through the righteousness of our God and Savior Jesus Christ.
Opposite	1:2Grace and peace be multiplied to you, through the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord, 1:3because of his divine power, having granted us all things pertaining to life and godliness, through the knowledge of the One having called us to His own glory and virtue.
Opposite	1:4Through which are given to us exceedingly great and precious promises, that by these you might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.
	¶Opposite Add the character traits that will keep you serving the Lord all of your lives (1:5 - 11)
Opposite	1:5 And for this very cause, giving all diligence, add into your faith, virtue; and into your virtue, knowledge; 1:6and into your knowledge, self-control; and into your self-control, patience; and into your patience, godliness; 1:7and into your godliness, brotherly kindness; and into your brotherly kindness, selfless love.
Opposite	1:8For if these things are in you, and abound, they will cause you to be neither hollow nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.
Complement	1:9But he that lacks these things is blind, and cannot see far away;
Complement	and he has forgotten that he was purged from his old sins.
Unique	1:10Therefore, brethren, give extra diligence to make your calling and election certain: for if you do these things, you shall never stumble; 1:11for so an entrance shall be ministered to you abundantly into the everlasting Kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.
	$Complement Body: The false teachers are servants of Satan (1:12 - 3:7)
	¶Unique We have a Word that is far more certain than personal experience in the Holy Scriptures (1:12 - 21)
Opposite	1:12Therefore, I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things; though you know them , and are established in the present Truth.
Opposite	1:13Indeed, I think it is fitting, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by putting you in remembrance; 1:14knowing that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle, even as our Lord Jesus Christ has shown me.
Complement	1:15Moreover I will be diligent that you may be able after my death to have these things always in memory: 1:16for we have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. But we were eyewitnesses of his majesty: 1:17for he received from God the Father honor and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, saying, “This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.” 1:18 And we heard this voice which came from Heaven, when we were with him in the holy mountain.
Complement	1:19We also have a more certain Word of prophecy; unto which you do well that you take heed, as to a Light that shines in a dark place, until the Eternal Day dawns, and the Day Star arises in your hearts.
Unique	1:20Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the Scripture comes of one’s own interpretation: 1:21for the prophecy came at no time by the will of man, but holy men of God spoke as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit.
	¶Complement The false teachers will cause many to fall into doctrinal heresy (2:1 - 11)
Unique	2:1But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you; who secretly shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.
Complement	2:2And many shall follow their pernicious ways, by reason of whom the Way of Truth shall be spoken of as evil.
Complement	2:3And through covetousness, they shall make merchandise of you with feigned words; whose judgment now of a long time does not delay, and their damnation does not sleep.
Opposite	2:4For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to Tartarus, and delivered them into chains of darkness to be reserved for Judgment; 2:5and spared not the old world, but saved Noah the eighth person , a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly; 2:6and turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, making them an example to those that after should live ungodly; 2:7and delivered just Lot, vexed with the filthy conduct of the wicked 2:8(for that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds); 2:9 then the Lord knows how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust to the Day of Judgment to be punished; 2:10but chiefly them that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise authority. Presumptuous are they, and self-willed: they are unafraid to speak evil of dignities.
Opposite	2:11Whereas angels, which are greater in power and might, do not bring a railing accusation against them before the Lord.
	¶Complement The false teachers are cursed children who will perish in their own corruption (2:12 - 17)
Unique	2:12But these, as natural stupid beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they do not understand. And they shall utterly perish in their own corruption; 2:13and shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as they that count it pleasure to riot in the daytime.
Complement	Spots are they , and blemishes; sporting themselves with their own deception while they feast with you; 2:14having eyes full of adultery and unable to cease from sin; beguiling unstable souls; and a heart they have exercised with covetous practices.
Complement	They are cursed children, 2:15who have forsaken the right Way; and have gone astray; following the way of Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness; 2:16but was rebuked for his iniquity: the mute donkey speaking with man’s voice forbade the madness of the prophet.
Opposite	2:17These are wells without water; clouds that are carried with a tempest:
Opposite	to whom the mist of darkness is reserved forever.

	¶Opposite A sinner that knows the truth, but rejects it, will return to doctrinal error (2:18 - 22)
Unique	2:18For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much licentiousness, those that are escaping from them who live in error. 2:19While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the slaves of corruption.
Complement	For of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in slavery.
Complement	2:20For if after they were escaping the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, but they are again entangled in it and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning.
Opposite	2:21For it would have been better for them not to have known the Way of righteousness, than after they have known it , to turn from the Holy Commandment delivered to them.
Opposite	2:22But it has happened to them according to the true proverb, “ The dog returned over and over to his own vomit ”; and “the sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mud.”
	¶Opposite The Word of God created the heavens and the Earth, and also preserves it until the Day of Judgment (3:1 - 7)
Opposite	3:1This second letter, beloved, I now write to you: in which I stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance, 3:2that you may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and of the command of us the apostles of the Lord and Savior.
Opposite	3:3Knowing this first, that scoffers shall come in the Last Days, walking after their own lusts, 3:4and saying, “Where is the promise of his coming? For since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the Creation.”
Complement	3:5For they are willingly ignorant of this fact , that by the Word of God the heavens were spoken into existence long ago;
Complement	and the Earth out of the water and in the water has been held together by the same Word ;
Unique	3:6by which the world (that then was), being covered with water, perished; 3:7but the heavens and the Earth, which are now, by the same Word are being kept in store, reserved unto fire against the Day of Judgment and perdition of ungodly men.
	$Complement Conclusion: The Day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night, so grow in grace and (3:8 - 18)
	¶Complement The Lord is not slow concerning his promise, but the Day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night (3:8 - 13)
Opposite	3:8But, beloved, do not be ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years is as one day.
Opposite	3:9The Lord is not slow concerning the fulfillment of his promise (as some men count slackness); but is longsuffering toward us: not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.
Complement	3:10But the Day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night: in which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with intense heat, the Earth also and the works that are in it shall be burned up.
Complement	3:11 Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought you to be in all holy conduct and godliness; 3:12looking for and hastening to the coming of the Day of God; in which the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with intense heat?
Unique	3:13Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new Earth; in which dwells righteousness.
	¶Complement Beware, lest you also are led away with error; but grow in grace (3:14 - 18)
Opposite	3:14Therefore, beloved, seeing that you look for such things, be diligent that you may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless.
Opposite	3:15And consider that the longsuffering of our Lord is salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also according to the wisdom given to him has written to you; 3:16as also in all his letters, speaking in them of these things, in which are some things hard to be understood; which they that are uninstructed and unstable twist, as they do also the other Scriptures, toward their own destruction.
Complement	3:17You therefore, beloved, seeing that you know these things before, beware lest you also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own steadfastness.
Complement	3:18But grow in grace; and in the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.
Unique	To him be the glory both now, and into the Eternal Day. Amen.

Spiritual Warfare, Chapter 1.4 (Jude): The Lord will return with his saints to judge the false teachers (1:1 - 25)
$Unique	Introduction: Jude to the sanctified in Christ: Beware of ungodly men in church leadership (1:1 - 4)
¶Opposite	Jude to those who are sanctified by God the Father, preserved in Jesus Christ, and called by the Holy Spirit (1:1 - 2)
¶Opposite	I warn you of certain ungodly men who have crept secretly into church leadership positions (1:3 - 4)
$Complement	Body: False teachers are rebels against God; they are like dead, fruitless trees and wandering stars (1:5 - 19)
¶Opposite	The Lord harshly judged those who rejected Divine truth and openly embraced wickedness (1:5 - 9)
¶Opposite	Woe to these apostate dreamers, for they will surely perish as Cain, Balaam, and Korah! (1:10 - 11)
¶Complement	These dreamers are like spots in your love-feasts and empty clouds, who are spiritually dead (1:12)

Opposite		1:3We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is right, because your faith is growing exceedingly, and the love of every one of you all abounds toward each other; 1:4so that we ourselves boast about you in the Assemblies of God, for your patience and faith, in all your persecutions and tribulations that you endure;

	¶Complement	The Antichrist cannot be revealed until a great apostasy comes first and the restraining Holy Spirit is removed (2:3 - 7)
Unique		2:3Let no man deceive you by any means: for that Day shall not come, unless a falling away comes first;

Opposite		2:5Do you not remember, that, when I was still with you, I told you these things?
Opposite		2:6And now you know what restrains that he might be revealed in his time: 2:7for the mystery of iniquity is already working; only he who now is restraining will continue to restrain, until he is taken out of the way.
	¶Complement	The Wicked one will come after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders (2:8 - 12)
Unique		2:8And then shall that Wicked one be revealed (whom the Lord shall consume with the Spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming),

Opposite		2:12that they all might be condemned, who did not believe the Truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.
	¶Opposite	The apostle Paul thanked God for the Thessalonian believers, because they believed the Gospel that he preached (2:13 - 17)
Unique		2:13But we are bound to give thanks always to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord,

	¶Complement	Do not be a burden to others, if possible, while waiting for Christ (3:6 - 12)
Opposite		3:6Now we command you, brethren, in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you withdraw yourselves from every brother that walks disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received of us.
Opposite		3:7For you yourselves know how you ought to follow us, because we did not behave ourselves disorderly among you; 3:8neither did we eat any man's bread for nothing. But we worked with labor and travail night and day, that we might not be burdensome to any of you.
Complement		3:9Not because we have no authority; but to make ourselves an example to you to follow us:
Complement		3:10for even when we were with you, we commanded you this: that if any would not work, neither should he eat.
Unique		3:11For we hear that there are some who walk among you disorderly, not working at all, but are busybodies.

	¶Complement	The Lord give you peace and be with you all (3:13 - 18)
Opposite		3:13But you, brethren, be not weary in doing good;

¶Opposite	Jesus Christ called Paul to be the leading apostle and primary teacher of his Gospel, not Peter (1:11 - 2:21)
¶Complement	The Gospel preached by Paul was salvation by grace through faith alone without the works of the Law of Moses (3:1 - 20)
¶Complement	The Law was a tutor to point us to Jesus Christ, so that we might be justified by faith (3:21 - 5:1)
¶Unique	Walk in obedience to the Spirit, and you shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh (5:2 - 18)
§Complement	Conclusion: Sow to the Spirit and die to yourself (6:1 - 6:18)
¶Complement	Sow to the Spirit rather than the flesh (6:1 - 6:11)
¶Complement	Die to yourself and focus your life on the Finished Work of Christ (6:12 - 6:18)

	§Unique	Introduction: Paul gave glory to God the Father for his glorious plan and purposes (1:1 - 5)
	¶Opposite	Paul was called an apostle by Jesus Christ Himself (1:1 - 2)
Unique		^{1:1} Paul, an apostle:
Complement		not of men; neither by man;
Complement		but by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead;
Opposite		^{1:2} and all the brethren who are with me,
Opposite		to the Assemblies of Galatia.
	¶Opposite	Glory to God the Father, forever and ever (1:3 - 5)
Opposite		^{1:3} Grace to you and peace,
Opposite		from God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ;
Complement		^{1:4} who gave himself for our sins,
Complement		that he might deliver us from this present evil Age;
Unique		according to the will of God and our Father:
		^{1:5} to whom be glory into the Ages of the Ages. Amen.
	§Complement	Body: The true Gospel came directly from Jesus Christ: salvation by grace through faith alone without works (1:6 - 5:18)
	¶Opposite	Let anyone who preaches a gospel that is different from the apostle Paul be cursed (1:6 - 10)
Unique		^{1:6} I marvel that you so quickly removed yourselves from him that called you in the grace of Christ into a different gospel; ^{1:7} which is a false gospel ;
		but there are some that trouble you, and would pervert the true Gospel of Christ.
Complement		^{1:8} But though we, or even an angel from the sky, preach any gospel to you different from what we have already preached to you, let him be accursed.
Complement		^{1:9} As we said before, so now I say again, if any man preaches any gospel to you different from what you have already received from us , let him be accursed.
Opposite		^{1:10} For do I now persuade men, or God? Or do I seek to please men?
Opposite		For if I still pleased men, I would not be the servant of Christ.
	¶Opposite	Jesus Christ called Paul to be the leading apostle and primary teacher of his Gospel, not Peter (1:11 - 2:21)
Opposite		^{1:11} But I certify you, brethren, that the Gospel which was preached by me is not after man:
		^{1:12} for I neither received it from man; neither was I taught it . But I received it through the direct manifestation of Jesus Christ.
Opposite		^{1:13} For you have heard of my behavior in time past in the Jews’ religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the Assembly of God, and tried to destroy it; ^{1:14} and profited in the Jews’ religion above many of my equals in my own nation, being more exceedingly zealous of the traditions of my fathers. ^{1:15} But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mother’s womb, and called me by his grace, ^{1:16} to reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the Gentiles, I did not immediately confer with flesh and blood; ^{1:17} neither did I go up to Jerusalem to them who were apostles before me, but I went into Arabia, and later returned again to Damascus. ^{1:18} Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to see Peter, and stayed with him fifteen days. ^{1:19} But I saw no other of the apostles, except James the Lord’s brother. ^{1:20} Now the things which I write to you, behold, before God, I do not lie.
Complement		^{1:21} Afterward, I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia; ^{1:22} and was unknown by face to the Assemblies of Judea which were in Christ; ^{1:23} but they had heard only, that he who persecuted us in times past now preaches the Faith he once destroyed. ^{1:24} And they glorified God in me.
Complement		^{2:1} Then fourteen years later, I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and took Titus with me also. ^{2:2} And I went up according to revelation, and communicated to them that Gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but privately to them who were of reputation, lest by any means I should run, or had run, in vain. ^{2:3} But neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised; ^{2:4} and that because of false brethren unawares brought in, who came in secretly to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into spiritual slavery: ^{2:5} to whom we gave place by subjection, no, not even for an hour, that the truth of the Gospel might continue with you. ^{2:6} But of these who seemed to be something (whatsoever they were, it makes no difference to me; God accepts no man’s person), for they who seemed to be important in conference added nothing to me. ^{2:7} But conversely, when they saw that the Gospel of the uncircumcision was committed to me, as the Gospel of the circumcision was to Peter ^{2:8} (for he that worked effectively in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mighty in me toward the Gentiles); ^{2:9} and when James, Cephas, and John (who seemed to be pillars) perceived the grace that was given to me, they gave to Barnabas and I the right hands of fellowship, that we should go to the Gentiles, and they to the circumcision. ^{2:10} Only they wished that we should remember the poor; the same which I also was anxious to do.
Unique		^{2:11} But when Peter came to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed: ^{2:12} for before the time that certain people came from James, he ate with the Gentiles; but when they came, he withdrew and separated himself: fearing them who were of the circumcision. ^{2:13} And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that Barnabas also was carried away with their hypocrisy. ^{2:14} But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to the truth of the Gospel, I said to Peter before them all, “If you, being a Jew, live after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why do you compel the Gentiles to live as do the Jews?”
		^{2:15} We who are Jews by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles, ^{2:16} knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the Law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the Law: for by the works of the Law shall no flesh be justified. ^{2:17} But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found sinners, is therefore Christ the minister of sin? Certainly not: ^{2:18} for if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor: ^{2:19} for I through the Law am dead to the Law, that I might live unto God. ^{2:20} I have been crucified together with Christ; nevertheless, I live; yet not I, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. ^{2:21} I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness comes by observing the Law, then Christ died for nothing.
	¶Complement	The Gospel preached by Paul is salvation by grace through faith alone without the works of the Law of Moses (3:1 - 20)
Unique		^{3:1} O foolish Galatians! Who has cast a spell on you, that you should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ has been clearly set forth as crucified among you? ^{3:2} I only want to know this from you: did you receive the Holy Spirit by the works of the Law, or by the hearing of faith? ^{3:3} Are you so foolish? Having begun in the Spirit, are you now made complete by the flesh? ^{3:4} Have you suffered so many things in vain? (If it truly was in vain.) ^{3:5} Therefore, the One ministering to you the Holy Spirit , and working miracles among you: does he do it because of your works of the Law, or because of your hearing of faith? ^{3:6} Even as it is written , Abraham “ believed God, and his faith was credited to him for righteousness. ”
		^{3:7} Therefore you know that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham. ^{3:8} And the Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles through faith, preached before the Gospel to Abraham, saying , “ In you shall all nations be blessed. ” ^{3:9} So then they which are of faith are blessed together with faithful Abraham.
Complement		^{3:10} For as many as are of the works of the Law are under the curse: for it is written, “ Cursed is everyone that does not continue in all things which are written in the Book of the Law to do them. ”” ^{3:11} But that no man is justified by the Law in the sight of God, it is evident: for it is written , “ The just shall live by faith. ”” ^{3:12} And the Law is not of faith; but “ The man that does them shall live in them. ”
Complement		^{3:13} Christ has redeemed us from the curse of the Law, having become a curse for us: for it is written, “ Cursed is everyone that hangs on a tree. ”” ^{3:14} that the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ, that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.
Opposite		^{3:15} Brethren, I speak after the manner of men: though it is but a man’s covenant, yet if it is confirmed, no man cancels or adds to it. ^{3:16} Now the promises were made to Abraham and his Seed. He does not say, “And to seeds”, as of many; but as of one, “ And to your Seed ”, which is Christ. ^{3:17} And this I say, that the Abrahamic Covenant that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the Law of Moses (which was four hundred and thirty years later) cannot cancel, that it should make the promise of no effect: ^{3:18} for if the inheritance is of the Law, it is no longer of promise; but God gave it to Abraham by promise.
Opposite		^{3:19} What then is the purpose of the Law of Moses ? It was added because of transgressions, until the Seed should come to whom the promise was made. And it was ordained by angels in the hand of a mediator. ^{3:20} (Now a mediator is not a mediator of only one party ; but God is one.)
	¶Complement	The Law was a tutor to point us to Jesus Christ, so that we might be justified by faith (3:21 - 5:1)
Unique		^{3:21} Is the Law then against the promises of God? Certainly not: for if there had been a Law given which could have given life, truly righteousness should have been by the Law. ^{3:22} But the Scripture has concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe. ^{3:23} But before faith came, we were kept under the Law, shut up to the faith which should afterwards be revealed. ^{3:24} Therefore the Law was our tutor to point us to Christ, that we might be justified by faith in him . ^{3:25} But after that faith has come, we are no longer under a tutor: ^{3:26} for you are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. ^{3:27} For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ like a uniform . ^{3:28} There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for you are all one in Christ Jesus; ^{3:29} and if you are Christ’s, then are you Abraham’s seed, and heirs according to the promise.
Complement		^{4:1} Now I say, that the heir, as long as he is a child, differs nothing from a servant, though he is lord of all, ^{4:2} but is under tutors and governors until the time appointed of the father. ^{4:3} Even so we, when we were children, were in slavery under the elements of the world; ^{4:4} but when the fullness of the time came, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the Law. ^{4:5} to redeem them that were under the Law, that we might receive the adoption of sons. ^{4:6} And because you are sons, God has sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, “Papa, Father!” ^{4:7} Therefore you are no longer a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ. ^{4:8} Nevertheless then, when you did not know God, you did service to them which by nature are not gods. ^{4:9} But now, after that you have known God, or rather are known of God, why do you return to the weak and beggarly elements, to which you desire again to be in slavery? ^{4:10} You observe days, and months, and times, and years. ^{4:11} I am afraid for you, lest I have bestowed labor upon you in vain.
Complement		^{4:12} Brethren, I implore you, be as I am : for I am as you are ; you have not injured me at all. ^{4:13} You know how through infirmity of the flesh I preached the Gospel to you at the first. ^{4:14} And my trial which was in my flesh you did not despise, nor reject; but you received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus. ^{4:15} Where is then the blessedness you spoke of? For I bear you witness, that if it had been possible, you would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me. ^{4:16} Have I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth? ^{4:17} They zealously affect you, but not for good; indeed, they would exclude you, that you might affect them. ^{4:18} But it is always good to be zealously affected in a good thing ; and not only when I am present with you.
Opposite		^{4:19} My little children, of whom I travail in birth again until Christ has been formed in you, ^{4:20} I desire to be present with you now, and to change my voice: for I stand in doubt of you. ^{4:21} Tell me, you that desire to be under the Law, do you not hear the Law? ^{4:22} For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, the one by a maidservant, and the other by a free woman. ^{4:23} But he who was of the maidservant was born after the flesh; but he of the free woman was by promise. ^{4:24} Which things are an allegory: for these are the two Covenants: the one from Mount Sinai, which genders to slavery, which is Hagar: ^{4:25} for this Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia, and answers to Jerusalem which now is, and is in slavery with her children. ^{4:26} But Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all: ^{4:27} for it is written, “ Rejoice, you barren that bear not; break forth and cry, you that travail not: for the desolate has many more children than she which has a husband. ”
Opposite		^{4:28} Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise. ^{4:29} But as then he that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, even so it is now. ^{4:30} Nevertheless, what does the Scripture say? “ Cast out the maidservant and her son ”: for the son of the maidservant shall not be heir with the son of the free woman. ^{4:31} So then, brethren, we are not children of the maidservant, but of the free. ^{5:1} Stand fast therefore in the liberty with which Christ has made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of slavery.
Opposite		^{5:2} Behold, I Paul say to you, that if you are circumcised, Christ will not benefit you: ^{5:3} for I testify again to every man that is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the entire Law. ^{5:4} Christ has become of no effect to you (whosoever of you who are seeking to be justified by the Law): you have fallen from grace. ^{5:5} For we, through the Spirit, wait for the hope of righteousness by faith: ^{5:6} for in Jesus Christ, neither circumcision avails anything, nor uncircumcision; but faith which works by love.
Opposite		^{5:7} You did run well. Who hindered you that you should not obey the truth? ^{5:8} This persuasion does not come of him that calls you. ^{5:9} A little yeast leavens the whole lump of dough . ^{5:10} I have confidence in you through the Lord, that you will not be otherwise minded; but he that troubles you shall bear his judgment, whosoever he is. ^{5:11} And I, brethren, if I still preach circumcision, why do I still suffer persecution? Then has the offense of the cross ceased. ^{5:12} I wish they would castrate themselves who trouble you. ^{5:13} For, brethren, you have been called to liberty; only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by selfless love serve one another: ^{5:14} for all the Law is fulfilled in one word, even in this, “ You shall love your neighbor as yourself. ” ^{5:15} But if you bite and devour one another, take heed that you are not consumed one of another.
Complement		^{5:16} This I say then: walk in obedience to the Spirit, and you shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh: ^{5:17} for the flesh lusts against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; and these are contrary the one to the other, so that you cannot do the things that you wish. ^{5:18} But if you are led of the Spirit, you are not under the Law.
Complement		^{5:19} Now the works of the flesh are evident, which are these : adultery, fornication, uncleanness, evil desires, ^{5:20} idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, ^{5:21} envying, murders, drunkenness, partying, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they who practice such things shall not inherit the Kingdom of God.
Unique		^{5:22} But the fruit of the Holy Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, ^{5:23} meekness, and self-control: against such there is no Law. ^{5:24} And they that are Christ’s have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts. ^{5:25} If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in obedience to the Spirit. ^{5:26} Let us not become boastful, provoking one another, envying one another.
	§Complement	Conclusion: Sow to the Spirit and die to yourself (6:1 - 6:18)
	¶Complement	Sow to the Spirit rather than the flesh (6:1 - 6:11)
Opposite		^{6:1} Brethren, if a man is overtaken in a fault, you that are spiritual restore such a one in the attitude of meekness; considering yourself, lest you also are tempted. ^{6:2} Carry one another’s burdens, and so fulfill the Law of Christ: ^{6:3} for if a man thinks himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceives himself.
Opposite		^{6:4} But let every man examine his own work, and then shall he have rejoicing in himself alone, and not in another: ^{6:5} for every man shall ultimately carry his own burden.
Complement		^{6:6} Now let the one being instructed in the Word of God share with him that teaches in all good things.
Complement		^{6:7} Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man sows, that shall he also reap: ^{6:8} for he that sows to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that sows to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap Life Everlasting.
Unique		^{6:9} And let us not be weary in doing good: for in due season we shall reap, if we do not faint. ^{6:10} Therefore as we have opportunity, let us do good to all, especially to them who are of the household of faith.
		^{6:11} You see how large a letter I have written to you with my own hand.
	¶Complement	Die to yourself and focus your life on the Finished Work of Christ (6:12 - 6:18)
Opposite		^{6:12} As many as desire to make a fair appearance in the flesh, they compel you to be circumcised, only so that they may not be persecuted for the cross of Christ.
Opposite		^{6:13} For neither they themselves who are circumcised keep the Law; but only desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh.
Complement		^{6:14} But God forbid that I should glory, except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ; by whom the world has been crucified to me, and I have been crucified to the world. ^{6:15} For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision avails anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation. ^{6:16} And as many as walk according to this rule, peace be on them, and mercy; and upon the Israel of God.
Complement		^{6:17} From henceforth let no man trouble me: for I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus.
Unique		^{6:18} Brethren, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

¶Complement	Pray for missionaries in prison for their faith (4:16 - 18)

	$Complement	Introduction: Paul and Timothy greet the saints, who produce spiritual fruit because of the Gospel (1:1 - 8)
	¶Opposite	Paul and Timothy greet the saints at Colosse with grace and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ (1:1 - 2)
Unique		1:1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother,
Complement		1:2 to those that are at Colossae,
Complement		holy and faithful brethren in Christ:
Opposite		Grace to you, and peace,
Opposite		from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
	¶Opposite	The Gospel produces spiritual fruit in the lives of all who have been born again (1:3 - 8)
Opposite		1:3 We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ (praying always for you 1:4 since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which you have to all the saints);
Opposite		1:5 for the hope which is laid up for you in Heaven, of which you heard before in the Word of the truth of the Gospel.
Complement		1:6 Which has come to you (as it has in all the world), and brings forth fruit;
Complement		as it does also in you, since the day you heard the Gospel , and knew the grace of God in truth.
Unique		1:7 As you also learned of Epaphras our dear fellow-servant, who is for you a faithful minister of Christ; 1:8 who also declared to us your love in the Spirit.
	$Complement	Body: We are complete in the Finished Work of Jesus Christ; Gnosticism is not of God (1:9 - 4:1)
	¶Unique	The ministry of Paul was to preach Christ in you, the expectation of glory (1:9 - 29)
Opposite		1:9 For this reason we also, since the day we heard this , do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that you might be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding; 1:10 that you might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, increasing in the knowledge of God; 1:11 being strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power, unto all patience and longsuffering with joyfulness; 1:12 giving thanks to the Father, who has made us qualified to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in Light; 1:13 who has delivered us from the power of darkness, and translated us into the Kingdom of his dear Son.
Opposite		1:14 In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins. 1:15 Who is the image of the invisible God, the Firstborn of every creature. 1:16 for all things were created by him: both those that are in Heaven, and that are in Earth, visible and invisible (whether they are thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers). All things were created by him, and for him; 1:17 and he is before all things; and in him, all things are being held together. 1:18 And he is the head of the body (the Assembly), who is the Beginning, the Firstborn from the dead, that in all things , he might have the preeminence. 1:19 for it pleased the Father that all fullness of Deity should dwell in him; 1:20 and, having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things to himself: by him, I say , whether they are things in Earth, or things in Heaven.
Complement		1:21 And you, that at one time were alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now has he reconciled you 1:22 in the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy, blameless, and irreproachable in his sight, 1:23 if you continue in the Faith grounded and settled, and are not moved away from the confident expectation of the Gospel, which you have heard, and which was preached to every creature which is under Heaven.
Complement		Of which I Paul am made a minister, 1:24 who now rejoice in my sufferings for you; and fill up that which is behind of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for his body's sake, which is the Assembly;
Unique		1:25 of which I am made a minister, according to the dispensation of God which is given to me for you, to fulfill the Word of God: 1:26 even the mystery which has been hidden from Ages and from generations, but at this very moment was made clear to his saints; 1:27 to whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles: which is Christ in you, the expectation of glory; 1:28 whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom, that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus. 1:29 Unto which I also labor, striving according to his working, which works in me mightily.
	¶Complement	The Colossians should become rooted and built up in Jesus Christ, and not in gnosticism (2:1 - 12)
Unique		2:1 For I wish that you knew what great conflict I have for you, and for them at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh: 2:2 that their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in love, and to all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the acknowledgment of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ: 2:3 in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.
Complement		2:4 And I say this, lest any man should beguile you with enticing words: 2:5 for though I am absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, enjoying and beholding your order, and the steadfastness of your faith in Christ.
Complement		2:6 Therefore, as you have received Christ Jesus the Lord, in this same manner walk in obedience to him; 2:7 rooted and built up in him, and established in the Faith, as you have been taught; abounding in it with thanksgiving.
Opposite		2:8 Beware lest any man spoils you through Gnostic philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the elements of the world-system; and not after Christ. 2:9 for all the Divine fullness of the Godhead dwells bodily in him.
Opposite		2:10 And you are complete in him, who is the head of all principality and power; 2:11 in whom also you were circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ. 2:12 You were buried with him in water baptism; in which also you were raised with him through your faith in the power of God, who raised him from the dead.
	¶Complement	The Finished Work of Christ on the cross repudiates the teachings of Gnosticism (2:13 - 23)
Unique		2:13 And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, has he made spiritually alive together with him; having forgiven you all trespasses: 2:14 blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us; and he took it out of the way forever , nailing it to his cross. 2:15 And having disarmed the evil principalities and powers, he made a show of them openly, triumphing over them in it.
Complement		2:16 Therefore, let no man judge you in food, or in drink, or in respect of a feast day, or of the new moon, or of the Sabbath days ; 2:17 which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ.
Complement		2:18 Let no man beguile you of your reward in a voluntary humility and worshiping of angels, intruding into those things which he has not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind; 2:19 and not holding fast the Head, out of which all the body by joints and bands gathers nourishment, and being united together, increases with the increase of God.
Opposite		2:20 Therefore if you are dead with Christ from the elements of the world, why, as though living in the world, are you subject to ascetic ordinances 2:21 (touch not; taste not; handle not; 2:22 which all are to perish with the using), after the commandments and doctrines of men?
Opposite		2:23 Which things have indeed a show of wisdom in will worship, and humility, and neglecting of the body, not in any honor to the satisfying of the flesh.
	¶Opposite	Put off the old man, put on selfless love, and put in the Word of Christ (3:1 - 17)
Unique		3:1 If then you were raised with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sits on the right hand of God. 3:2 Set your affection on things above, not on things on the Earth: 3:3 for you are dead, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. 3:4 When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then you also shall appear with him in glory.
Complement		3:5 Therefore mortify your members which are upon the Earth: fornication, impure motives , sexual passion, lust, and covetousness, which is idolatry: 3:6 for which things' sake the wrath of God is coming on the children of disobedience; 3:7 in which you also walked at one time, when you lived in them.
Complement		3:8 But now also put off all these: anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, and filthy communication out of your mouth. 3:9 Do not lie one to another, seeing that you have put off the old man with his deeds, 3:10 and have put on the new man , which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him, 3:11 where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, slave nor free; but Christ is all, and in all.
Opposite		3:12 Put on, therefore (as the Elect of God, holy and beloved), bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, and longsuffering: 3:13 forbearing one another, and forgiving one another; if any man has a quarrel against any, even as Christ forgave you, so also do you. 3:14 And above all these things put on selfless love, which is the bond of perfection. 3:15 And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to which also you were called in one body; and be thankful.
Opposite		3:16 Let the Word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom: teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord. 3:17 And whatsoever you do in word or deed, do it all in the Name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him.
	¶Opposite	Put the Word of Christ into action at home and on the job (3:18 - 4:1)
Opposite		3:18 Wives, submit yourselves to your own husbands, as it is fitting in the Lord. 3:19 Husbands, love your wives; and be not bitter against them.
Opposite		3:20 Children, obey your parents in all things: for this is well pleasing to the Lord. 3:21 Fathers, provoke not your children to anger , lest they be discouraged.
Complement		3:22 Servants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh; not with eye service, as men-pleasers; but in singleness of heart, fearing God.
Complement		3:23 And whatsoever you do, do it heartily, as to the Lord and not to men; 3:24 knowing that of the Lord you shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for you serve the Lord Christ. 3:25 But he that does wrong shall receive for the wrong which he has done; and there is no respect of persons.
Unique		4:1 Masters, give to your servants that pay which is just and fair, knowing that you also have a Master in Heaven.
	$Unique	Conclusion: Pray for one another, and for missionaries in prison for their faith (4:2 - 18)
	¶Complement	Pray for and greet one another in Christ (4:2 - 15)
Opposite		4:2 Continue in prayer; and watch in the same with thanksgiving; 4:3 at the same time praying also for us, that God would open to us a door of utterance; to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in chains; 4:4 that I may make it manifest, as I ought to speak. 4:5 Walk in wisdom toward them that are outside the Assembly ; redeeming the time. 4:6 Let your speech be always with grace; seasoned with salt, that you may know how you ought to answer every man.
Opposite		4:7 All my state shall Tychicus declare to you, who is a beloved brother, and a faithful minister and fellow-servant in the Lord; 4:8 whom I have sent to you for the same purpose (that he might know your circumstances, and comfort your hearts) 4:9 with Onesimus, a faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They shall make known to you all things which are done here.
Complement		4:10 Aristarchus my fellow prisoner greets you; and Marcus, sister's son to Barnabas (concerning whom you received commands: if he comes to you, receive him), 4:11 and Jesus, who is called Justus, who are of the circumcision. These only are my fellow workers in the Kingdom of God, who have been a comfort to me.
Complement		4:12 Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ, greets you, always laboring fervently for you in prayers, that you may stand perfect and complete in all the will of God: 4:13 for I bear him witness, that he has a great zeal for you, and them that are in Laodicea, and them in Hierapolis.
Unique		4:14 Luke, the beloved physician, and Demas, greets you. 4:15 Greet the brethren which are in Laodicea, and Nymphas, and the Assembly which is in his house.
	¶Complement	Pray for missionaries in prison for their faith (4:16 - 18)
Opposite		4:16 And when this letter is read among you, cause that it be read also in the Assembly of the Laodiceans; and that you likewise read the Letter from Laodicea.
Opposite		4:17 And say to Archippus, "Take heed to the ministry which you have received in the Lord, that you fulfill it."
Complement		4:18 The greeting by the hand of me Paul.
Complement		Remember my chains.
Unique		Grace be with you. Amen.

	$Unique Introduction: Paul to Timothy: Be not ashamed of Jesus Christ, who has called you with a holy calling (1:1 - 10)
	¶Opposite Paul, an apostle of Christ, according to the promise of Life in Christ, to Timothy (1:1 - 2)
Unique	^{1:1} Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, according to the promise of Life which is in Christ Jesus;
Complement	^{1:2} to Timothy,
Complement	my dearly beloved son:
Opposite	Grace, mercy, and peace to you ,
Opposite	from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.
	¶Opposite Be not ashamed of the testimony of Jesus Christ, who has called us with a holy calling (1:3 - 10)
Opposite	^{1:3} I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers with a pure conscience, that without ceasing, I remember you in my prayers night and day ^{1:4} (greatly desiring to see you, being mindful of your tears, that I may be filled with joy);
Opposite	^{1:5} having been reminded of the unfeigned faith that is in you; which dwelt first in your grandmother Lois, and your mother Eunice; and I am persuaded that is also in you.
Complement	^{1:6} Therefore, I put you in remembrance that you stir up the gift of God, which is in you by the laying on of my hands: ^{1:7} for God has not given us the spirit of fear, but the Spirit of power, of love, and of a sound mind.
Complement	^{1:8} Therefore, be not ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner; but be a partaker of the afflictions of the Gospel according to the power of God; ^{1:9} who has saved us, and has called us with a holy calling (not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before time everlasting, ^{1:10} but now has been manifested by the appearing of our Savior Jesus Christ);
Unique	who has abolished death; and has brought Life and immortality to light through the Gospel.
	$Complement Body: Study to show yourself approved unto God, in spite of the reprobates who oppose you (1:11 - 4:8)
	¶Opposite Hold fast the form of sound words, and protect what you heard from the apostle Paul (1:11 - 18)
Unique	^{1:11} Unto which I am appointed a preacher, an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.
	^{1:12} For which cause I also suffer these things; nevertheless, I am not ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed to him against that day.
Complement	^{1:13} Hold fast the form of sound words, which you have heard of me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.
Complement	^{1:14} That good thing which was committed to you protect by the Holy Spirit who dwells in us.
Opposite	^{1:15} This you know, that all they who are in Asia have turned away from me: of whom are Phygellus and Hermogenes.
Opposite	^{1:16} But the Lord give mercy to the household of Onesiphorus: for he often refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain; ^{1:17} but when he was in Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found me . ^{1:18} The Lord grant to him that he may find mercy of the Lord in that day; and in how many other things he ministered to me at Ephesus, you know very well.
	¶Opposite I suffer trouble for the Gospel, but I endure all things for the sake of the elect, that they may be saved (2:1 - 13)
Opposite	^{2:1} You therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. ^{2:2} And the things that you have heard from me among many witnesses, commit the same to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also.
Opposite	^{2:3} You therefore endure hardness as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. ^{2:4} No man that makes war entangles himself with the affairs of this life, that he may please him who has chosen him to be a soldier. ^{2:5} And if one also contends in athletic competition, yet he is not crowned, unless he contends lawfully. ^{2:6} The farmer that labors must be the first partaker of the fruits. ^{2:7} Consider what I say, and the Lord give you understanding in all things.
Complement	^{2:8} Remember that Jesus Christ of the seed of David was raised from the dead according to my Gospel; ^{2:9} in which I suffer trouble as an evildoer, even unto chains. But the Word of God is not chained; ^{2:10} therefore I endure all things for the elect's sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.
Complement	^{2:11} It is a faithful saying; for if we are dead with him , we shall also live with him ; ^{2:12} if we suffer, we shall also reign with him ; if we deny him , he also will deny us; ^{2:13} if we do not believe, yet he remains faithful: he cannot deny himself.
Unique	^{2:14} Remind the Assembly of these things; warning them before the Lord not to strive about words for no benefit, but only to the subverting of the hearers.
	¶Complement Study to show yourself approved unto God, but shun profane and vain babblings (2:14 - 26)
Unique	^{2:15} Study to show yourself approved unto God: a workman with no cause to be ashamed, rightly dividing the Word of Truth.
Complement	^{2:16} But shun profane and vain babblings: for they will increase to more ungodliness. ^{2:17} And their word will eat like gangrene: of whom is Hymenaeus and Philetus; ^{2:18} who concerning the truth have gone astray, saying that the resurrection is already past; and they overthrow the faith of some.
Complement	^{2:19} Nevertheless, the foundation of God stands sure, having this seal, “ [Jehovah] knows them that are his. ” And, “ Let every one that names the Name of Christ depart from iniquity. ”
Opposite	^{2:20} But in a great house, there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some to honor, and some to dishonor. ^{2:21} If a man therefore purges himself from these things , he shall be a vessel unto honor, sanctified, very useful to the Master, and prepared for every good work. ^{2:22} Flee also youthful lusts; but follow righteousness, faith, selfless love, and peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart.
Opposite	^{2:23} But avoid foolish and unlearned questions, knowing that they breed strife. ^{2:24} And the servant of the Lord must not strive, but be gentle to all, able to teach, and patient, ^{2:25} in meekness, instructing those that contradict themselves, if perhaps God will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth, ^{2:26} and that they might recover themselves out of the snare of the devil; who are taken captive by him at his will.
	¶Complement Reprobates will always be there to oppose the Faith, but they will fail (3:1 - 17)
Unique	^{3:1} This know also, that in the Last Days perilous times shall come. ^{3:2} For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, ^{3:3} without family affection, irreconcilable, false accusers, without self-control, fierce, despisers of those that are good, ^{3:4} traitors, reckless, conceited, and lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God ^{3:5} (having a form of godliness, but denying its power: from such turn away).
	^{3:6} For of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women filled with sins, led away with diverse lusts; ^{3:7} always learning, but never able to come to the knowledge of the Truth.
Complement	^{3:8} Now as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so do these also resist the Truth: men of corrupt minds, reprobate concerning the Faith.
Complement	^{3:9} But they shall proceed no further: for their folly shall be manifest to all men , as theirs also was.
Opposite	^{3:10} But you have fully known my teaching, manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, selfless love, patience, ^{3:11} persecutions, and afflictions, which came to me at Antioch, at Iconium, and at Lystra: what persecutions I endured; but the Lord delivered me out of them all. ^{3:12} Indeed, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution. ^{3:13} But evil men and seducers shall grow worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived.
Opposite	^{3:14} But continue in the things which you have learned and have been assured of, knowing of whom you have learned them ; ^{3:15} and that from a child you have known the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make you wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. ^{3:16} All Scripture is God-breathed; and is beneficial for doctrine, for rebuke, for correction, and for instruction in righteousness; ^{3:17} that the man of God may be complete, and thoroughly equipped for all good work.
	¶Unique Carry on the work of your ministry, because the time of my departure is near (4:1 - 8)
Opposite	^{4:1} I charge you therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the living and the dead at his appearing and his Kingdom: ^{4:2} Preach the Word! Be ready in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, and exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine.
Opposite	^{4:3} For the time will come when they will not endure sound teaching, but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; ^{4:4} and they shall turn away their ears from the Truth, and shall be turned to fables.
Complement	^{4:5} But watch in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an Evangelist, and make full proof of your ministry.
Complement	^{4:6} For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is near.
Unique	^{4:7} I have fought a good fight; I have finished my race; I have kept the Faith; ^{4:8} henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give me at that day; and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.
	$Complement Conclusion: The Lord stood with me, and the Lord be with your spirit (4:9 - 22)
	¶Complement In spite of all who abandoned me, the Lord stood with me (4:9 - 18)
Opposite	^{4:9} Do your best to come to me shortly: ^{4:10} for Demas has forsaken me, having loved this present Age; and has departed to Thessalonica; Crescens to Galatia; and Titus to Dalmatia. ^{4:11} Only Luke is with me. Take Mark; and bring him with you: for he is beneficial to me for the ministry. ^{4:12} And Tychicus, I have sent to Ephesus. ^{4:13} The cloak that I left at Troas with Carpus, when you come, bring with you ; and the Books, but especially the Scripture parchments.
Opposite	^{4:14} Alexander the coppersmith did me much evil; the Lord reward him according to his works. ^{4:15} Of whom, you beware also: for he has greatly withstood our words.
Complement	^{4:16} At my first defense, no one stood with me; but all forsook me. I pray to God that it may not be laid to their charge.
Complement	^{4:17} Notwithstanding, the Lord stood with me, and strengthened me, that by me the preaching might be fully known, and that all the Gentiles might hear; and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion.
Unique	^{4:18} And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work; and will preserve me into his heavenly Kingdom; to whom be glory into the Ages of the Ages. Amen.
	¶Complement The Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, and grace be with you (4:19 - 22)
Opposite	^{4:19} Greet Prisca and Aquila, and the household of Onesiphorus.
Opposite	^{4:20} Erastus stayed at Corinth; but I have left Trophimus sick at Miletum. ^{4:21} Do your best to come before winter.
Complement	Eubulus greets you; and also Pudens, Linus, Claudia, and all the brethren.
Complement	^{4:22} The Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit.
Unique	Grace be with you. Amen.

Spiritual Warfare, Chapter 2.4 (1 Timothy): The Holy Design of the New Covenant Assembly of the Living God (1:1 - 6:21)
$Unique Introduction: The elderly apostle greets and admonishes his young pastoral student in the faith (1:1 - 4)
¶Opposite Paul's greetings to Timothy (1:1 - 2)
¶Opposite Paul's admonitions to Timothy (1:3 - 4)
$Complement Body: Mercy, holiness, and purity are required for leadership in the assembly of God (1:5 - 5:25)
¶Unique Paul obtained mercy from Christ in spite of his wicked life as an example for all future believers in Christ (1:5 - 17)
¶Complement The members of the assembly must pray and live holy lives (1:18 - 2:15)
¶Complement The leaders of the assembly must be men, seasoned in the faith, and good examples for the flock (3:1 - 16)
¶Opposite Preach Biblical doctrines to your flock and practice personal holiness (4:1 - 5:2)
¶Opposite Beware of allowing sin and favoritism into the church assembly (5:3 - 25)
$Complement Conclusion: Do not seek to be wealthy and protect your calling to serve the Lord from false teachings (6:1 - 21)
¶Complement Be content with what you already have (6:1 - 10)
¶Complement Protect the sacred ministry, which has been committed to your trust, from false teachings (6:11 - 21)

	$Unique Introduction: The elderly apostle greets and admonishes his young pastoral student in the faith (1:1 - 4)
	¶Opposite Paul's greetings to Timothy (1:1 - 2)
Unique	^{1:1} Paul,
	an apostle of Jesus Christ by the command of God our Savior, and Lord Jesus Christ our hope:
Complement	^{1:2} to Timothy,
Complement	my own son in the Faith:
Opposite	Grace, mercy, and peace,
Opposite	from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.
	¶Opposite Paul's admonitions to Timothy (1:3 - 4)
Opposite	^{1:3} As I urged you to remain still at Ephesus
Opposite	(when I went into Macedonia),
Complement	that you might charge some that they teach no other doctrine;
Complement	^{1:4} neither pay attention to fables and endless genealogies which minister questions,
Unique	rather than godly edifying which is in faith: so do.
	$Complement Body: Mercy, holiness, and Purity are required for leadership in the Assembly of God (1:5 - 5:25)
	¶Unique Paul obtained mercy from Christ in spite of his wicked life as an example for all future believers in Christ (1:5 - 17)
Opposite	^{1:5} Now the goal of the Commandment of Moses is selfless love out of a pure heart, a good conscience, and sincere faith; ^{1:6} from which some having swerved have turned aside to vain words; ^{1:7} desiring to be teachers of the Law, but understanding neither what they say, nor what they affirm.
Opposite	^{1:8} But we know that the Law is good, if a man uses it lawfully; ^{1:9} knowing this, that the Law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers, ^{1:10} for fornicators, for homosexuals, for kidnappers, for liars, for perjured persons; and if there is any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine, ^{1:11} according to the glorious Gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust.
Complement	^{1:12} And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord; who has enabled me, in that he considered me faithful, putting me into the ministry; ^{1:13} who before was a blasphemer, a persecutor, and violent; but I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief. ^{1:14} And the grace of our Lord was exceedingly abundant with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.
Complement	^{1:15} This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners: of whom I am the worst. ^{1:16} Nevertheless, I obtained mercy for this reason, that in me first Jesus Christ might show forth all longsuffering, for an example to them who should hereafter believe on him into Everlasting Life.
Unique	^{1:17} Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honor and glory into the Ages of the Ages. Amen.
	¶Complement The members of the assembly must pray and live holy lives (1:18 - 2:15)
Unique	^{1:18} And this same leadership responsibility I commit to you, son Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before on you, that by them you might war a good warfare; ^{1:19} holding faith, and a good conscience.
	^{1:20} Which some having put away concerning faith have made shipwreck; of whom is Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have delivered to Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme.
Complement	^{2:1} I exhort therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men ^{2:2} (for kings, and for all that are in authority), that we may lead a quiet and peaceful life in all godliness and honesty. ^{2:3} for this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Savior, ^{2:4} who desires all men to be saved, and to come into the knowledge of the Truth: ^{2:5} for there is only one God, and only one Mediator between God and men: the Man Christ Jesus; ^{2:6} who gave himself a ransom for all mankind , to be testified in due time.
Complement	^{2:7} Unto which I am ordained a preacher, an apostle (I speak the truth in Christ, and do not lie), and a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.
Opposite	^{2:8} Therefore I decree that the men of the Assembly pray in all places, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting. ^{2:9} In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest clothing, with modesty and sobriety; not with braided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array, ^{2:10} but (which is proper for women professing godliness) with good works.
Opposite	^{2:11} Let the woman learn in silence with all submission. ^{2:12} But I do not allow a woman to teach men , nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence: ^{2:13} for Adam was first formed, then Eve; ^{2:14} and Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression. ^{2:15} Notwithstanding she shall be saved in childbearing, if they continue in faith and selfless love and holiness with sobriety.
	¶Complement The leaders of the assembly must be men, seasoned in the faith, and good examples for the flock (3:1 - 16)
Unique	^{3:1} This is a true saying; if a man aspires to the office of an Overseer, he desires a good work. ^{3:2} An Overseer then must be blameless, a husband of only one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behavior, given to hospitality, able to teach; ^{3:3} not next to any wine; not quick-tempered; not greedy for dishonest gain, but patient; not a fighter; not covetous; ^{3:4} one that rules well his own household, having his children in subjection with all gravity. ^{3:5} For if a man does not know how to rule his own household, how shall he take care of the Assembly of God?
	^{3:6} But he must not be a new believer, lest being lifted up with pride, he falls into the condemnation of the devil. ^{3:7} Also, he must have a good testimony of them that are outside the Assembly , lest he falls into reproach and the snare of the devil.
Complement	^{3:8} Likewise the Deacons must be serious, not hypocritical, not next to much wine, not greedy for dishonest gain; ^{3:9} holding the mystery of the Faith in a pure conscience. ^{3:10} And let these also first be tested; then let them use the office of a Deacon, being found blameless. ^{3:11} Even so must their wives be serious, and not slanderers; sober and faithful in all things.
Complement	^{3:12} Let the Deacons be the husbands of only one wife; ruling their children and their own houses well: ^{3:13} for they that have used the office of a Deacon well purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the Faith which is in Christ Jesus.
Opposite	^{3:14} I write these things to you, hoping to come to you shortly; ^{3:15} but if I delay long, that you may know how you should behave yourself in the House of God; which is the Assembly of the Living God, the pillar and ground of the truth.
Opposite	^{3:16} And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifested in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen by angels, preached to the Gentiles, believed on in the world, and carried up to Heaven in glory.
	¶Opposite Preach Biblical doctrines to your flock and practice personal holiness (4:1 - 5:2)
Unique	^{4:1} Now the Holy Spirit speaks clearly, that in the Latter Times some shall depart from the Faith (giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of demons: ^{4:2} speaking lies in hypocrisy, having their conscience seared with a hot iron): ^{4:3} forbidding Pastors to marry; and commanding to abstain from meat, which God has created to be received with thanksgiving by them which believe and know the truth:
	^{4:4} for every creature of God is good; and nothing to be refused (if it is received with thanksgiving), ^{4:5} because it is sanctified by the Word of God and prayer.
Complement	^{4:6} If you put the brethren in remembrance of these things, you shall be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith and of good doctrine, unto which you have attained.
Complement	^{4:7} But refuse profane and old wives' fables, and exercise yourself rather to godliness: ^{4:8} for bodily exercise benefits a little; but godliness is beneficial to all things, having promise of the life that is now, and of that which is to come. ^{4:9} This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance: ^{4:10} for therefore we both labor and suffer reproach, because we trust in the Living God, who is the Savior of all men, but especially of those that believe. ^{4:11} These things command and teach.
Opposite	^{4:12} Let no man despise your youth, but be an example of the believers: in word, in conduct, in selfless love, in spirit, in faith, and in sexual purity. ^{4:13} Until I come, pay attention to reading the Scriptures , to exhortation, and to teaching. ^{4:14} Do not neglect the gift that is in you, which was given you by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the elders. ^{4:15} Meditate upon these things; give yourself wholly to them, that your spiritual growth may appear to everyone. ^{4:16} Take heed to yourself, and to the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this you shall both save yourself, and them that hear you.
Opposite	^{5:1} Do not rebuke an older man, but treat him like a father, and the younger men as brothers, ^{5:2} the older women as mothers, and the younger women as sisters, with all sexual purity.
	¶Opposite Beware of allowing sin and favoritism into the church assembly (5:3 - 25)
Opposite	^{5:3} Honor widows that are widows in truth; ^{5:4} but if any widow has children or grandchildren, let them learn first to show piety at home, and take care of their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God. ^{5:5} Now she that is a widow in truth (and is desolate) trusts in God, and continues in supplications and prayers night and day. ^{5:6} But the promiscuous woman is spiritually dead while she lives. ^{5:7} And these things give in charge, that they may be blameless. ^{5:8} But if anyone does not provide for the needs of his own relatives , and especially for those of his own household, he has denied the Faith, and is worse than an infidel.
Opposite	^{5:9} Do not let a widow be taken into the Assembly welfare roll under sixty years old, having been the wife of one man, ^{5:10} well reported of for good works: such as , if she has brought up children, if she has lodged strangers, if she has washed the saints' feet, if she has relieved the afflicted, or if she has diligently followed every good work. ^{5:11} But the younger widows refuse: for when they have begun to grow wanton against Christ, they wish to marry; ^{5:12} having condemnation, because they have cast off their first faith. ^{5:13} And after that they learn to be lazy, wandering about from house to house, and not only lazy, but gossips also and busybodies, speaking things which they should not. ^{5:14} I decree therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, and give no occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully: ^{5:15} for some have already turned aside after Satan. ^{5:16} And if any man or woman that believes in Christ has relatives who are widows, let them take care of them; and let the Assembly not be burdened, that it may take care of them that are widows in truth.
Complement	^{5:17} Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honor, especially they who labor in the Word of God and teaching: ^{5:18} for the Scripture says, “ You shall not muzzle the ox that treads out the grain. ” And, “ The laborer is worthy of his pay. ” ^{5:19} Receive no accusation against an elder, except before two or three witnesses. ^{5:20} But them that sin rebuke before all, that others also may fear.
Complement	^{5:21} I charge you before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, and the elect angels, that you observe these things without preferring one before another, doing nothing by favoritism. ^{5:22} Ordain no man prematurely; neither be partaker of other men's sins; keep yourself pure.
Unique	^{5:23} Do not drink water alone any longer, but use a little grape juice for your stomach's sake and your often infirmities.
	^{5:24} Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after. ^{5:25} Likewise also the good works of some are obvious beforehand; and they that are otherwise cannot be hidden.
	$Complement Conclusion: Do not seek to be wealthy and protect your calling to serve the Lord from false teachings (6:1 - 21)
	¶Complement Be content with what you have (6:1 - 10)
Opposite	^{6:1} Let as many servants as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honor, that the Name of God and his doctrine be not blasphemed.
Opposite	^{6:2} And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them , because they are brothers; but rather do them good service, because they are faithful and beloved, partakers of the benefit. These things teach and exhort.
Complement	^{6:3} If any man teaches otherwise, and does not consent to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness, ^{6:4} he is proud, knowing nothing, but obsessing about questions and strifes of words, of which comes envy, strife, railings, evil surmising, ^{6:5} perverse disputations of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth; supposing that gain is godliness: from such withdraw yourself.
Complement	^{6:6} But godliness with contentment is great gain: ^{6:7} for we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out; ^{6:8} and having food and clothing, let us be content with these things .
Unique	^{6:9} But they that want to be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition:
	^{6:10} for the love of money is the root of all evil; which while some coveted after, they have wandered from the Faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.
	¶Complement Protect the sacred ministry, which has been committed to your trust, from false teachings (6:11 - 21)
Opposite	^{6:11} But you, O man of God, flee these things! And follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, and meekness. ^{6:12} Fight the good fight of faith, and lay hold on Eternal Life, to which you are also called, and have professed a good profession before many witnesses. ^{6:13} I give you charge in the sight of God (who quickens all things), and before Christ Jesus (who witnessed a good confession before Pontius Pilate), ^{6:14} that you keep this command without spot, unrebukable, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ; ^{6:15} who in his times he shall show, who is the blessed and only Potentate: the King of kings, and Lord of lords; ^{6:16} who only has immortality, dwelling in the Light which no man can approach to, whom no man has seen, nor can see: to whom be honor and power everlasting. Amen.
Opposite	^{6:17} Charge them that are rich in this Age, that they be not high-minded, nor trust in uncertain riches; but in the Living God, who gives us richly all things to enjoy; ^{6:18} that they do good; that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute money , and willing to share: ^{6:19} laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on Eternal Life.
Complement	^{6:20} O Timothy, protect that which has been committed to your trust:
Complement	avoiding profane and vain babbling, and oppositions of science falsely so called ^{6:21} (which some professing have gone astray concerning the Faith).
Unique	Grace be with you. Amen.

¶Unique	Love your spouse and children, and be a testimony for Christ at your workplace (5:22 - 6:9)
§Unique	Conclusion: Put on the whole armor of God, and pray for others (6:10 - 24)
¶Complement	Prepare yourself for spiritual warfare for Christ through prayer and sanctification (6:10 - 18)
¶Complement	Your prayers for others will bring peace, love, and grace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ (6:19 - 24)

	§Complement	Introduction: The saints of God have a glorious inheritance in Christ our Savior (1:1 - 14)
	¶Opposite	Grace and blessings from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ to the faithful in Christ Jesus (1:1 - 2)
Unique		^{1:1} Paul,
		an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God,
Complement		to the saints who are at Ephesus,
Complement		and to the faithful in Christ Jesus:
		^{1:2} Grace to you, and peace,
Opposite		from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
	¶Opposite	In Christ, we have a guaranteed inheritance and have been sealed until the day of Redemption (1:3 - 14)
Opposite		^{1:3} Blessed is the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ: ^{1:4} according as he has chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love; ^{1:5} having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will; ^{1:6} to the praise of the glory of his grace, in which he has made us accepted in the Beloved.
Opposite		^{1:7} In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace; ^{1:8} in which he has abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence; ^{1:9} having made known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he has purposed in himself; ^{1:10} that in the dispensation of the fullness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in Heaven, and which are on Earth: even in him.
		^{1:11} In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who works all things after the counsel of his own will, ^{1:12} that we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ.
Complement		^{1:13} In whom you also trusted , after that you heard the Word of Truth, the Gospel of your salvation;
Unique		in whom also, having believed in Christ , you were sealed with that Holy Spirit of promise,
		^{1:14} which is the down-payment of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, to the praise of his glory.
	§Complement	Body: Use the gifts of Christ to put off the works of the old man and be a blessing to others (1:15 - 6:9)
	¶Opposite	The Resurrection of Christ guarantees a glorious future for those who have trusted in his Finished Work on the cross (1:15 - 2:10)
Unique		^{1:15} Therefore I also, after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus, and love to all the saints, ^{1:16} cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers, ^{1:17} that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give to you the Spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him;
		^{1:18} the eyes of your understanding being enlightened, that you may know what is the hope of his calling, and what are the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints; ^{1:19} and what is the exceeding greatness of his power toward us who believe; according to the working of his mighty power;
Complement		^{1:20} which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and seated him at his own right hand in the heavenly places ; ^{1:21} far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named: not only in this Age, but also in that which is to come.
Complement		^{1:22} And he has put all things under his feet, and given him to be the head over all things to the Assembly; ^{1:23} which is his Body, the fullness of him that fills all in all.
		^{2:1} And you, being dead in trespasses and sins; ^{2:2} in which, in time past, you walked according to the course of this Age, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now works in the children of disobedience; ^{2:3} among whom also we all had our conduct in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others.
Opposite		^{2:4} But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love with which he loved us, ^{2:5} even when we were dead in sins, has made us alive together with Christ (by grace you have been permanently saved); ^{2:6} and has raised us up together; and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus, ^{2:7} that in the Ages to come he might show the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us in Christ Jesus. ^{2:8} For by grace you have been permanently saved through faith; and that faith is not out of yourselves: it is the gift of God; ^{2:9} not of our own works, lest any man should boast: ^{2:10} for we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God has before ordained that we should walk in them.
	¶Opposite	Therefore, Paul prayed that believers might comprehend the love of Christ, which passes knowledge (2:11 - 3:21)
Opposite		^{2:11} Therefore remember, that you being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called the Circumcision in the flesh made by hands, ^{2:12} that at that time you were separated from Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the Covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world.
		^{2:13} But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far away were made near by the blood of Christ: ^{2:14} for he himself is our peace, who has made both one, and has broken down the middle wall of partition between them ; ^{2:15} having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the Law of Commandments contained in ordinances, in order to make in himself of two one new man: so making peace; ^{2:16} and also that he might reconcile both to God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity by it. ^{2:17} And he came and preached peace to you who were far away, and to them that were near: ^{2:18} for through him we both have access by the same Spirit to the Father.
Opposite		^{2:19} Now therefore you are no longer strangers and foreigners, but fellow-citizens with the saints, and of the household of God; ^{2:20} and you are being built upon the foundation of the Apostles and Prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone ; ^{2:21} in whom all the building fitly framed together is growing into a holy Temple in the Lord; ^{2:22} in whom you also are being built together for a habitation of God through the Spirit.
Complement		^{3:1} For this reason I Paul, the prisoner of Jesus Christ for you Gentiles, ^{3:2} if you have heard of the dispensation of the grace of God which is given me toward you: ^{3:3} how that by revelation he made known to me the mystery (as I wrote before in few words; ^{3:4} whereby, when you read, you may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ); ^{3:5} which in other Ages was not made known to the sons of men, as it is now revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit, ^{3:6} that the Gentiles should be fellow-heirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the Gospel; ^{3:7} of which I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given to me by the effective working of his power. ^{3:8} Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ; ^{3:9} and to make all markind see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world has been hidden in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ; ^{3:10} to the intent that now to the principalities and powers in heavenly places the manifold wisdom of God might be known through the Assembly; ^{3:11} according to the Eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord; ^{3:12} in whom we have boldness and access with confidence by the faith of him.
Complement		^{3:13} Therefore I desire that you faint not at my tribulations for you, which is your glory. ^{3:14} For this reason I bow my knees to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, ^{3:15} of whom every family in Heaven and Earth is named, ^{3:16} that he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man; ^{3:17} that Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith, that you, being rooted and grounded in love, ^{3:18} may be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height; ^{3:19} and to know the love of Christ, which passes knowledge, that you might be filled with all the fullness of God.
Unique		^{3:20} Now to him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that works in us,
		^{3:21} to him be glory in the Assembly in Christ Jesus into all the generations of the Age of the Ages. Amen.
	¶Complement	Every born again believer is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ (4:1 - 16)
Unique		^{4:1} I therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, urge you that you walk worthy of the vocation in which you are called, ^{4:2} with all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love; ^{4:3} endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.
		^{4:4} There is one body, and one Spirit, even as you are called in one hope of your calling; ^{4:5} one Lord, one Faith, one baptism; ^{4:6} one God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.
Complement		^{4:7} But to every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ. ^{4:8} Therefore he says, “ When he ascended up on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men. ”
Complement		^{4:9} Now this phrase , “He ascended”: what does it mean but that He also first descended into the lower parts of the Earth? ^{4:10} He that descended is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, that he might fill all things.
		^{4:11} And he gave some, the calling of apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers: ^{4:12} for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, and for the building up of the body of Christ; ^{4:13} until we all come into the unity of the Faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, into a perfect man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ;
Opposite		^{4:14} that we should no longer be children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of men in craftiness, by which they lie in wait to deceive; ^{4:15} but speaking the truth in love, that we may grow up into him in all things, who is the head, that is , Christ; ^{4:16} from whom the whole body fitly joined together and knit together by that which every joint supplies, according to the effective working in the measure of every part, makes increase of the body to the building up of itself in love.
	¶Complement	Therefore, put off the works of the old man which is corrupt (4:17 - 5:21)
Unique		^{4:17} This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that you henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk: in the vanity of their mind, ^{4:18} having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart; ^{4:19} who being past feeling have given themselves over to lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness.
Complement		^{4:20} But you have not so learned Christ, ^{4:21} if it is true that you have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus, ^{4:22} that you are to put off concerning the former behavior the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts. ^{4:23} And be renewed in the spirit of your mind; ^{4:24} and that you put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness.
Complement		^{4:25} Therefore putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbor: for we are members one of another. ^{4:26} Be angry, but sin not; let not the sun go down upon your wrath; ^{4:27} neither give an opportunity to the devil. ^{4:28} Let him that stole steal no longer; but rather let him labor, working with his hands the thing that is good, so that he may have a gift to share with the one having need. ^{4:29} Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of building up others , that it may minister grace to the hearers. ^{4:30} And grieve not the Holy Spirit of God, in which you were sealed until the Day of Redemption. ^{4:31} Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamor, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice. ^{4:32} And be kind one to another, tenderhearted: forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake has forgiven you.
		^{5:1} Therefore be followers of God, as dear children; ^{5:2} and walk in love, as Christ also has loved us, and has given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling aroma. ^{5:3} But as for fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be once named among you, as becoming saints; ^{5:4} neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not good; but rather giving of thanks. ^{5:5} For you know this, that no fornicator, nor unclean person, nor covetous man (who is an idolater) has any inheritance in the Kingdom of Christ and of God. ^{5:6} Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things the wrath of God is coming upon the children of disobedience. ^{5:7} Therefore do not be partakers with them: ^{5:8} for at one time you were darkness; but now you are Light in the Lord. Walk as children of Light ^{5:9} (for the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth); ^{5:10} testing all things to see what is acceptable to the Lord. ^{5:11} And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather rebuke them : ^{5:12} for it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done by them in secret. ^{5:13} But all things that are reprovod are exposed by the Light: for whatsoever exposes is Light. ^{5:14} Therefore he says, “ Awake you that sleep, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give you Light. ”
Opposite		^{5:15} See then that you walk circumspectly; not as fools, but as wise; ^{5:16} redeeming the time, because the days are evil. ^{5:17} Therefore be not unwise; but understanding what is the will of the Lord. ^{5:18} And be not drunk with wine (in which is excess), but be continually filled with the Spirit: ^{5:19} speaking to yourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord; ^{5:20} giving thanks always for all things to God and the Father in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ: ^{5:21} submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God.
	¶Unique	Love your spouse and children, and be a testimony for Christ at your workplace (5:22 - 6:9)
Opposite		^{5:22} Wives, submit yourselves to your own husbands, as to the Lord: ^{5:23} for the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the Assembly; and he is the Savior of the Body. ^{5:24} Therefore as the Assembly is subject to Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in everything.
Opposite		^{5:25} Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the Assembly, and gave himself for it; ^{5:26} that he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the Word, ^{5:27} that he might present it to himself a glorious Assembly, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. ^{5:28} So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loves his wife loves himself: ^{5:29} for no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourishes and cherishes it, even as the Lord nourishes and cherishes the Assembly. ^{5:30} for we are parts of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones. ^{5:31} “ For this reason shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined to his wife; and they two shall be one flesh. ” ^{5:32} This is a great mystery, but I speak concerning Christ and the Assembly. ^{5:33} Nevertheless, let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself; and the wife see that she reverences her husband.
Complement		^{6:1} Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right. ^{6:2} “ Honor your father and mother ” (which is the first Commandment with promise), ^{6:3} “ that it may be well with you, and you may live long on the Earth. ”
Complement		^{6:4} And, you fathers, provoke not your children to wrath; but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.
Unique		^{6:5} Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as to Christ; ^{6:6} not with eye-service, as men-pleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart; ^{6:7} with good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men; ^{6:8} knowing that whatsoever good thing any man does, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he is slave or free.
		^{6:9} And, you masters, do the same things to them, forbearing threatening: knowing that your Master is also in Heaven; neither is there respect of persons with him.
	§Unique	Conclusion: Put on the whole armor of God, and pray for others (6:10 - 24)
	¶Complement	Prepare yourself for spiritual warfare for Christ through prayer and sanctification (6:10 - 18)
Opposite		^{6:10} Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. ^{6:11} Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil: ^{6:12} for we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this Age, and against evil spirits in high places .
Opposite		^{6:13} Therefore take to you the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day; and having done all, to stand.
Complement		^{6:14} Stand therefore, having your waist girded about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness; ^{6:15} and your feet shod with the preparation of the Gospel of peace.
Complement		^{6:16} Above all, having taken up the shield of faith (by which you shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the Wicked one), ^{6:17} also take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit (which is the Word of God):
Unique		^{6:18} praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit; and in accordance with this, continually watching with all perseverance and supplication for all saints.
	¶Complement	Your prayers for others will bring peace, love, and grace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ (6:19 - 24)
Opposite		^{6:19} And pray for me, that utterances may be given to me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the Gospel ^{6:20} (for which I am an ambassador in chains), that I may speak boldly in it, as I ought to speak.
Opposite		^{6:21} But that you also may know my affairs and how I do, Tychicus, a beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord, shall make known to you all things; ^{6:22} whom I have sent to you for the same purpose, that you might know our affairs, and that he might comfort your hearts.
Complement		^{6:23} Peace to the brethren, and love with faith,
Complement		from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
Unique		^{6:24} Grace be with all them that love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity. Amen.

Complement	¹² But you, O Jehovah, shall endure forever; and your remembrance to all generations. ¹³ You shall arise, and have mercy upon Zion: for the time to favor her, moreover, the set time, has come: ¹⁴ for your servants take pleasure in her stones, and favor its dust. ¹⁵ So shall the heathen fear the Name of Jehovah, and all the kings of the earth your glory.
Complement	¹⁶ When Jehovah shall build up Zion, he shall appear in his glory. ¹⁷ He will regard the prayer of the destitute and not despise their prayer. ¹⁸ This shall be written for the generation to come; and the people who shall be created shall praise Jehovah. ¹⁹ For he has looked down from the height of his Sanctuary; from Heaven did Jehovah behold the earth: ²⁰ to hear the groaning of the prisoner; to release those that are appointed to death; ²¹ to declare the Name of Jehovah in Zion, and his praise in Jerusalem, ²² when the people are gathered together, and the kingdoms, to serve Jehovah.

And will he no longer be favorable? ⁸ Has his mercy completely gone forever? Does his promise fail forevermore? ⁹ Has God forgotten to be gracious? Has he in anger shut up his tender mercies?” Selah.

Unique	¹⁶ The waters saw you, O God; the waters saw you; they were afraid; the depths also were troubled. ¹⁷ The clouds poured out water; the skies sent out a sound; your arrows also went abroad. ¹⁸ The voice of your thunder was in the heaven; the lightning lightened the world; the earth trembled and shook. ¹⁹ Your way is in the sea, and your path in the great waters; and your footsteps are not known. ²⁰ You led your people like a flock by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Complement	⁸ Keep me as the apple of the eye; hide me under the shadow of your wings ⁹ from the wicked that oppress me; from my deadly enemies, who surround me.
Opposite	¹⁰ They are enclosed in their own fat; with their mouth they speak proudly.
Opposite	¹¹ They have now surrounded us in our steps; they have set their eyes bowing down to the earth, ¹² like a lion that is greedy of his prey, and as it were a young lion lurking in secret places.
$Complement	Conclusion: Deliver my soul from the wicked, who are your sword and your hand
Complement	¹³ Arise, O Jehovah; disappoint him; cast him down.
Complement	Deliver my soul from the wicked, who are your sword; ¹⁴ from men who are your hand, O Jehovah; from men of the world, who have their portion in this life, and whose belly you fill with your hidden wrath ; they are full of children, and leave the rest of their possessions to their young ones.
Unique	¹⁵ As for me, I will behold your face in righteousness; I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with your likeness.

Complement Chapter 1.4: The wicked have set their eyes against the poor (Psalm 10)

$Complement	Body: The wicked are full of sin and want nothing to do with God

Complement	As for all his enemies, he rails at them. ⁶ He has said in his heart, “I shall not be moved: for I shall never be in adversity.” ⁷ His mouth is full of cursing, deceit, and fraud; under his tongue is mischief and vanity.
Complement	⁸ He sits in the lurking places of the villages; in the secret places he murders the innocent; his eyes are secretly set against the poor. ⁹ He lays in wait secretly as a lion in his den; he lays in wait to catch the poor. He catches the poor, when he draws him into his net. ¹⁰ He crouches, and humbles himself; that the poor may fall by his strong ones. ¹¹ He has said in his heart, “God has forgotten; he hides his face; he will never see it .”
Opposite	¹² Arise, O Jehovah; O God, lift up your hand: forget not the humble. ¹³ Why does the wicked scorn God? He has said in his heart, “You will not require it .” ¹⁴ But you have seen it : for you behold mischief and spite, to repay it with your hand. The poor commits himself to you. You are the helper of the fatherless. ¹⁵ Break the arm of the wicked and the evil man ; seek out his wickedness until you find none.

$Complement	Body: Let the wicked melt away as running water; let them be as cut in pieces

Opposite	⁶ Break their teeth, O God, in their mouth; break out the great teeth of the young lions, O Jehovah.

Complement	When he bends his bow to shoot his arrows, let them be as cut in pieces.

Complement	⁴ Sharp arrows of the mighty, with coals of the broom tree.
Opposite	⁵ Woe is me, that I sojourn in Mesech; that I dwell in the tents of Kedar!
Opposite	⁶ My soul has long dwelt with him that hates peace. ⁷ I am for peace; but when I speak, they are for war.

Opposite Chapter 2.2: God shall shoot at the wicked with an arrow (Psalm 64)
Opposite	¹ Hear my voice, O God, in my prayer.
Opposite	Preserve my life from fear of the enemy. ² Hide me from the secret counsel of the wicked, from the insurrection of the workers of iniquity; ³ who sharpen their tongue like a sword, and bend their bow to shoot their arrows, even bitter words, ⁴ that they may shoot in secret at the blameless; suddenly do they shoot at him, and are not afraid. ⁵ They encourage themselves in an evil matter; they commune of laying snares secretly; they say, “Who shall see them?” ⁶ They devise wicked things. They accomplish a diligent search; both the inward thought of every one of them , and the heart, is deep.
Complement	⁷ But God shall shoot at them with an arrow; suddenly shall they be wounded. ⁸ So shall they make their own tongue to fall upon themselves.

Unique	⁴ You love all devouring words, O you deceitful tongue.
Complement	⁵ God shall likewise destroy you forever.

Opposite	⁶ The righteous also shall see, and fear.
Opposite	And they shall laugh at him, saying , “ ⁷ See, this is the man that made not God his strength; but trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness.”
$Complement	Conclusion: I am like a green olive tree in the House of God; I will praise you forever

$Complement	Body: Hear my supplications, O Jehovah; you have covered my head in the day of battle
Unique	⁶ I said to Jehovah, “You are my God.”
Complement	Hear the voice of my supplications, O Jehovah.
Complement	⁷ O Lord Jehovah, the strength of my salvation, you have covered my head in the day of battle.
Opposite	⁸ Grant not, O Jehovah, the desires of the wicked; further not his wicked device, lest they exalt themselves. Selah.
Opposite	⁹ As for the head of those that surround me, let the mischief of their own lips cover them. ¹⁰ Let burning coals fall upon them; let them be cast into the fire; let deep pits, that they rise not up again. ¹¹ Let not an evil speaker be established in the earth; evil shall hunt the violent man to overthrow him .

$Complement	Conclusion: I know that Jehovah will maintain the cause of the afflicted; surely the righteous shall give thanks to your Name
Complement	¹² I know that Jehovah will maintain the cause of the afflicted, and the right of the poor.

Opposite	⁵ Be exalted, O God, above the heavens; let your glory be above all the earth.
Complement	⁶ They have prepared a net for my steps.
Complement	My soul is bowed down.

$Unique	Conclusion: I will sing and give praise to you, O Lord
Complement	⁷ My heart is fixed, O God, my heart is fixed; I will sing and give praise. ⁸ Awake up, my glory; awake, psaltery and harp; O myself will awake early.
Complement	⁹ I will praise you, O Lord, among the people; I will sing to you among the nations: ¹⁰ for your mercy is great to the heavens, and your truth to the clouds.
Unique	¹¹ Be exalted, O God, above the heavens; let your glory be above all the earth.

Unique	1As the deer longs after the waterbrooks, so longs my soul after you, O God. 2My soul thirsts for God, for the Living God. When shall I come and appear before God? 3My tears have been my food day and night, while they continually say to me, “Where is your God?”

Opposite	9I will say to God my Rock, “Why have you forgotten me?” Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy? 10As with a sword in my bones, my enemies reproach me, while they say daily to me, “Where is your God?” 11Why are you cast down, O my soul? Opposite		Chapter 2.4: The ungodly shall be cast into Hell (Psalm 73)
Unique	1Truly God is good to Israel, even to such as are of a clean heart.
Complement	2But as for me, my feet were almost gone; my steps had almost slipped: 3for I was envious at the foolish, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked: 4for there are no pangs in their death, but their strength is firm. 5They are not in trouble as other men; neither are they plagued like other men. 6Therefore pride surrounds them like a chain, and violence covers them as a garment. 7Their eyes bulge with abundance; they have more than heart could wish. 8They are corrupt, and speak wickedly concerning oppression; they speak loftily. 9They set their mouth against the heavens, and their tongue walks through the earth; 10therefore his people return here; and waters of a full cup are wrung out to them. 11And they say, “How does God know? And is there knowledge in the most High?” 12Behold, these are the ungodly, who prosper in the world; they increase in riches.
Complement	13Truly I have cleansed my heart in vain, and washed my hands in innocence: 14for I have been plagued by temptation all day long, and disciplined every morning. 15If I say, “I will speak thus”, behold, I would offend against the generation of your children.
Opposite	16When I thought to know this, it was too painful for me; 17until I went into the Sanctuary of God, then I understood their end. 18Surely you set them in slippery places; you cast them down into destruction. 19How are they brought into desolation, as in a moment! They are utterly consumed with terrors. 20As a dream when one awakes, so, O Lord, when you awake, you shall despise their image. 21Thus my heart was grieved, and I was pricked in my reins. 22So foolish was I, and ignorant; I was like a beast before you.
Opposite	23Nevertheless I am continually with you; you have held me by my right hand. 24You shall guide me with your Counsel, and afterward receive me into glory. 25Whom do I have in Heaven but you ? And there is no one upon earth that I desire beside you. 26My flesh and my heart fails, but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion forever: 27for, lo, they that are far from you shall perish; you have destroyed all them that go a whoring from you. 28But it is good for me to draw near to God; I have put my trust in the Lord Jehovah, that I may declare all your works.
Opposite		Chapter 2.5: The proud are like the beasts that perish (Psalm 49)
Opposite	1Hear this, all you people; give ear, all you inhabitants of the world: 2both low and high, rich and poor, together. 3My mouth shall speak of wisdom; and the meditation of my heart shall be of understanding. 4I will incline my ear to a parable; I will open my dark saying upon the harp.
Opposite	5Why should I fear in the days of evil, when the iniquity of my heels shall surround me? 6They that trust in their wealth, and boast themselves in the multitude of their riches: 7 none of them can by any means redeem his brother, nor give to God a ransom for him 8(for the redemption of their soul is precious, and it ceases forever), 9so that he would still live forever, and not see corruption. 10For he sees that wise men die; likewise the fool and the stupid in person perish, and leave their wealth to others. 11Their inward thought is, that their houses shall continue forever, and their dwelling places to all generations; they even call their lands after their own names.
Complement	12Nevertheless man being in honor does not remain; he is like the beasts that perish. 13This their way is their foolishness, yet their posterity approves their sayings. Selah. 14Like sheep they are laid in the grave; death shall feed on them, and the upright shall have dominion over them in the Morning; and their beauty shall consume in the grave from their dwelling. 15But God will redeem my soul from the power of the grave: for he shall receive me. Selah.
Complement	16Be not afraid when one is made rich, when the glory of his house is increased: 17for when he dies, he shall carry nothing away; his glory shall not descend after him. 18Though while he lived he blessed his soul; and men will praise you, when you do well for yourself. 19 But he shall go to the generation of his fathers; they shall never see light.
Unique	20Man that is in honor, but does not understand, is like the beasts that perish.

Opposite	⁶ I will freely sacrifice to you; I will praise your Name, O Jehovah: for it is good . ⁷ For he has delivered me out of all trouble; and my eye has looked upon the destruction of my enemies.
Opposite Chapter 1.2: The help of Israel is in the Name of Jehovah (Psalm 124)
Opposite	¹ If it had not been Jehovah who was on our side, now may Israel say; ² if it had not been Jehovah who was on our side, when men rose up against us, ³ then they would have swallowed us up alive.
Opposite	When their wrath was kindled against us, ⁴ then the waters would have overwhelmed us; the stream would have gone over our soul; ⁵ then the proud waters would have gone over our soul.
Complement	⁶ Blessed is Jehovah, who has not given us as a prey to their teeth.
Complement	⁷ Our soul is escaped as a bird out of the snare of the bird hunters. The snare is broken; and we have escaped.

Complement Chapter 1.3: Jehovah is the refuge of his people Israel (Psalm 94)
§Unique Introduction: O God, to whom vengeance belongs, show yourself
Unique	¹ O Jehovah God, to whom vengeance belongs; O God, to whom vengeance belongs, show yourself. ² Lift up yourself, you Judge of the earth; render a reward to the proud.
Complement	³ Jehovah, how long shall the wicked, how long shall the wicked triumph? ⁴ How long shall they utter and speak hard things, and all the workers of iniquity boast themselves? ⁵ They break your people in pieces, O Jehovah, and afflict your inheritance. ⁶ They kill the widow and the stranger, and murder the fatherless. ⁷ Yet they say, “Jehovah shall not see; neither shall the God of Jacob care.”
Complement	⁸ Understand, you stupid among the people; and you fools, when will you be wise? ⁹ He that planted the ear, shall he not hear? He that formed the eye, shall he not see? ¹⁰ He that disciplines the heathen, shall he not correct? He that teaches man knowledge, shall he not know? ¹¹ Jehovah knows the thoughts of man, that they are vain.
§Complement Body: Blessed is the man whom you discipline, O Jehovah, and teach him out of your Law
Unique	¹² Blessed is the man whom you discipline, O Jehovah, and teach him out of your Law, ¹³ that you may give him rest from the days of adversity, until the pit has been dug for the wicked.

Unique	¹ Not to us, O Jehovah, not to us, but to your Name give glory, for your mercy, and for your truth's sake.
Complement	² Why should the heathen say, “Where is their God now?” ³ But our God is in the heavens; he has done whatsoever he has pleased.
Complement	⁴ Their idols are silver and gold, the work of men's hands. ⁵ They have mouths, but they do not speak; they have eyes, but they do not see; ⁶ they have ears, but they do not hear; they have noses, but they do not smell; ⁷ they have hands, but they do not handle; they have feet, but they do not walk; neither do they speak through their throat. ⁸ They that make them are like them; so is every one that trusts in them.

Complement	³ You turn man to destruction, and say, “Return, you children of men.” ⁴ For a thousand years in your sight are like yesterday when it is past, and a watch in the night. ⁵ You carry them away as with a flood; they are as a sleep. In the morning, they are like grass which grows up. ⁶ In the morning it flourishes, and grows up; in the evening it is cut down, and withers.
Complement	⁷ For we are consumed by your anger, and by your wrath are we troubled. ⁸ You have set our iniquities before you, our secret sins in the light of your countenance: ⁹ for all our days are passed away in your wrath; we spend our years like a momentary thought. ¹⁰ The days of our years are seventy; and if by reason of strength they are eighty years, yet is their strength labor and sorrow: for it is soon cut off, and we fly away.
Opposite	¹¹ Who knows the power of your anger? Even according to your fear, so is your wrath. ¹² So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts to wisdom.
Opposite	¹³ Return, O Jehovah. How long? Complement	⁵ For you have made him a little lower than the angels, and have crowned him with glory and honor.

Complement	¹¹ If I say, “Surely the darkness shall cover me”, even the night shall be as light about me. ¹² Moreover, the darkness hides nothing from you, but the night shines like the day; the darkness and the light are both alike to you .
Complement	¹³ For you have possessed my reins; you have covered me in my mother's womb. ¹⁴ I will praise you: for I am fearfully and wonderfully made. Your works are marvelous, and that my soul knows very well. ¹⁵ My substance was not hidden from you, when I was made in secret, and skillfully formed in the lowest parts of the earth. ¹⁶ Your eyes saw my substance, still being imperfect; and in your Book all my members were written, which in continuance were fashioned, when as yet there were none of them.
Opposite	¹⁷ How precious also are your thoughts to me, O God! How great is their sum! ¹⁸ If I could count them, they are more in number than the sand; when I awake, I am still with you.

Complement	¹⁷ And they sinned still more against him by provoking the most High in the wilderness. ¹⁸ And they tested God in their heart by asking food for their lust. ¹⁹ Yea, they spoke against God; they said, “Can God furnish a table in the wilderness? ²⁰ Behold, he struck the rock, so that the waters gushed out, and the streams overflowed. Can he also give bread? Can he provide flesh for his people?” ²¹ Therefore Jehovah heard this , and was furious; so a fire was kindled against Jacob, and anger also came up against Israel, ²² because they did not believe in God, and did not trust in his salvation, ²³ though he had commanded the clouds from above, and opened the doors of Heaven, ²⁴ and had rained down manna upon them to eat, and had given them of the bread of Heaven. ²⁵ Man ate angels’ food; he sent them food to satiation. ²⁶ He caused an east wind to blow in the heaven, and by his power he brought in the south wind. ²⁷ He also rained flesh upon them as dust, and feathered birds like as the sand of the sea; ²⁸ and he let it fall in the midst of their camp round about their habitations. ²⁹ So they ate, and were well filled: for he gave them their own desire; ³⁰ they were not deprived from their lust. But while their food was still in their mouths, ³¹ the wrath of God came upon them, and slew the fattest of them, and struck down the chosen men of Israel.
Complement	³² For all this they sinned still more , and did not believe for his wondrous works. ³³ Therefore he consumed their days in vanity, and their years in trouble. ³⁴ When he slew them, then they sought him; and they returned and inquired early after God. ³⁵ And they remembered that God was their Rock, and the high God their Redeemer. ³⁶ Nevertheless they flattered him with their mouth, and they lied to him with their tongues: ³⁷ for their heart was not right with him; neither were they steadfast in his Covenant. ³⁸ But he, being full of compassion, forgave their iniquity, and did not destroy them ; moreover, many a time he turned his anger away, and did not stir up all his wrath: ³⁹ for he remembered that they were but flesh; a wind that passes away, and does not come again.
Unique	⁴⁰ How often they provoked him in the wilderness, and grieved him in the desert! ⁴¹ Moreover, they turned back and tested God, and limited the Holy One of Israel. ⁴² They did not remember his hand, nor the day when he delivered them from the enemy: ⁴³ how he had done his signs in Egypt, and his wonders in the field of Zoan; ⁴⁴ and had turned their rivers into blood; and their streams, so that they could not drink. ⁴⁵ He sent diverse sorts of flies among them, which devoured them; and frogs, which destroyed them. ⁴⁶ He also gave their increase to the caterpillar, and their labor to the locust. ⁴⁷ He destroyed their vines with hail, and their sycamore trees with frost. ⁴⁸ He gave up their cattle also to the hail, and their flocks to hot thunderbolts. ⁴⁹ He cast upon them the fierceness of his anger, wrath, indignation, and trouble, by sending evil angels among them . ⁵⁰ He made a way to his anger; he did not spare their soul from death, but gave their life over to the plague; ⁵¹ and struck all the firstborn in Egypt, the chief of their strength in the tabernacles of Ham. ⁵² But he made his own people to go forth like sheep, and guided them in the wilderness like a flock. ⁵³ And he led them on safely, so that they did not fear; but the sea overwhelmed their enemies. ⁵⁴ And he brought them to the border of his Sanctuary, even to this mountain, which his right hand had purchased. ⁵⁵ He also cast out the heathen before them, and divided them an inheritance by line, and made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents. ⁵⁶ Yet they tested and provoked the most high God, and did not keep his Testimonies, ⁵⁷ but turned back, and dealt unfaithfully like their fathers; they were turned aside like a deceitful bow: ⁵⁸ for they provoked him to anger with their high places, and moved him to jealousy with their carved images. ⁵⁹ When God heard this , he was furious, and greatly abhorred Israel, ⁶⁰ so that he forsook the Tabernacle of Shiloh, the tent which he placed among men; ⁶¹ and delivered his strength into captivity, and his glory into the enemy’s hand. ⁶² He gave his people over also to the sword; and was furious with his inheritance. ⁶³ The fire consumed their young men, and their virgins were not given to marriage. ⁶⁴ Their priests fell by the sword; and their widows made no lamentation.
§Unique	Conclusion: Jehovah chose David to feed Jacob his people and Israel his inheritance
Complement	⁶⁵ Then the Lord awoke like one out of sleep, ⁶⁶ and like a mighty man that shouts by reason of wine. ⁶⁷ And he smote his enemies in the hind parts; he put them to a perpetual reproach.
Complement	⁶⁸ Moreover he refused the tabernacle of Joseph, and did not choose the tribe of Ephraim; ⁶⁹ but chose the tribe of Judah, the mount Zion which he loved. ⁷⁰ And he built his Sanctuary like high palaces , like the earth which he has established forever.
Unique	⁷¹ He also chose David his servant, and took him from the sheepfolds; ⁷² from following the ewes great with young he brought him to feed Jacob his people, and Israel his inheritance. ⁷³ So he fed them according to the integrity of his heart, and guided them by the skillfulness of his hands.

Complement	¹⁷ All this has come upon us, yet we have not forgotten you; neither have we dealt falsely in your Covenant. ¹⁸ Our heart has not turned back; neither have our steps declined from your way, ¹⁹ though you have broken us to pieces in the place of dragons, and covered us with the shadow of death.
Opposite	²⁰ If we have forgotten the Name of our God, or stretched out our hands to a strange god, ²¹ shall not God search this out? For he knows the secrets of the heart.

Complement	¹² Why then have you broken down her hedges, so that all they who pass by the way pluck her fruit ? ¹³ The boar out of the wood wastes it, and the wild beast of the field devours it.
Unique	¹⁴ Return, please, O God of hosts, look down from Heaven, and behold, and visit this vine, ¹⁵ and the vineyard which your right hand has planted, and the branch that you have made strong for yourself. ¹⁶ It is burned with fire; it is cut down; they perish at the rebuke of your countenance.

§Complement	Body: Rebels and fools fight against God, but then they cry to Jehovah, and He saves them out of their distresses
Unique	⁴ They wandered in the wilderness in a solitary way; they found no city to dwell in. ⁵ Hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted in them. ⁶ Then they cried to Jehovah in their trouble, and he delivered them out of their distresses. ⁷ And he led them forth by the right way, that they might go to a city of habitation. ⁸ Oh that men would praise Jehovah for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men! ⁹ For he satisfies the longing soul, and fills the hungry soul with goodness.
Complement	¹⁰ Such as sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, being bound in affliction and iron, ¹¹ because they rebelled against the words of God, and scorned the Counsel of the most High; ¹² therefore he brought down their heart with labor; they fell down, and there was none to help. ¹³ Then they cried to Jehovah in their trouble, and he saved them out of their distresses. ¹⁴ He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death, and broke their bands in pieces. ¹⁵ Oh that men would praise Jehovah for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men! ¹⁶ For he has broken the gates of bronze, and shattered the bars of iron.

Opposite	³³ He turns rivers into a wilderness, and the water springs into dry ground; ³⁴ a fruitful land into barrenness, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein. ³⁵ He turns the wilderness into a standing water, and dry ground into water springs. ³⁶ And there he makes the hungry to dwell, that they may prepare a city for habitation, ³⁷ and sow the fields, and plant vineyards, which may yield fruits of increase. ³⁸ Also he blesses them, so that they are multiplied greatly; and does not allow their cattle to decrease. ³⁹ Again, they are diminished and brought low through oppression, affliction, and sorrow. ⁴⁰ He pours contempt upon princes, and causes them to wander in the wilderness, where there is no way. ⁴¹ Yet he sets the poor on high from affliction, and makes him families like a flock.

Opposite	Chapter 2.4: Jehovah returned his people to the Promised Land from exile in Persia (Psalm 126)
Unique	¹ When Jehovah returned the captivity of Zion to Jerusalem , we were like them that dream.
Complement	² Then our mouth was filled with laughter; and our tongue with singing.
Complement	Then they said among the heathen, “Jehovah has done great things for them.” ³ Jehovah has done great things for us, whereof we are glad.
Opposite	⁴ Return our captivity, O Jehovah, as the streams in the south.
Opposite	⁵ They that sow in tears shall reap in joy. ⁶ He that goes forth and weeps, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless return with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him .
Opposite	Chapter 2.5: Israel called upon Jehovah to gather them from among the heathen (Psalm 106)
Opposite	¹ Praise Jehovah! O give thanks to Jehovah, because he is good: for his mercy endures forever. ² Who can utter the mighty acts of righteousness? Who can show forth all his praise? ³ Blessed are they that keep judgment, and he that does righteousness at all times. ⁴ Remember me, O Jehovah, with the favor that you bear to your people. O visit me with your salvation, ⁵ that I may see the good of your chosen; that I may rejoice in the gladness of your nation; that I may glory with your inheritance.
Opposite	⁶ We have sinned with our fathers; we have committed iniquity; we have done wickedly. ⁷ Our fathers did not understand your wonders in Egypt; they did not remember the multitude of your mercies, but provoked him at the sea, even at the Red sea. ⁸ Nevertheless he saved them for his Name’s sake, so that he might make his mighty power to be known. ⁹ Also he rebuked the Red sea, and it was dried up, so he led them through the depths, as through the wilderness. ¹⁰ And he saved them from the hand of him that hated them , and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy. ¹¹ And the waters covered their enemies; not one of them was left. ¹² Then they believed his words; they sang his praise. ¹³ But they soon forgot his works; they did not wait for his counsel, ¹⁴ but lusted exceedingly in the wilderness, and tested God in the desert. ¹⁵ So he gave them their request, but sent leanness into their soul. ¹⁶ Also they envied Moses in the camp, and Aaron the saint of Jehovah. ¹⁷ The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan, and covered the camp of Abiram. ¹⁸ And a fire was kindled in their company; the flock burned up the wicked. ¹⁹ They made a calf in Horeb, and worshiped the molten statue. ²⁰ Thus they changed their glory into the statue of a cow that eats grass. ²¹ They forgot God their Savior, who had done great things in Egypt, ²² wondrous works in the land of Ham, and dreadful things by the Red sea. ²³ Therefore he said that he would destroy them, had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the breach, to turn away his wrath, lest he would destroy them . ²⁴ Moreover, they despised the pleasant land; they did not believe his Word, ²⁵ but murmured in their tents, and did not listen to the voice of Jehovah. ²⁶ Therefore he lifted up his hand against them, to overthrow them in the wilderness: ²⁷ to overthrow their seed also among the nations, and to scatter them in the lands. ²⁸ Also they joined themselves to Baal-peor, and ate the sacrifices offered to the dead. ²⁹ Thus they provoked him to anger with their inventions; and the plague broke in upon them. ³⁰ Then Phinehas stood up, and executed judgment; and so the plague was stayed; ³¹ and that was counted to him for righteousness to all generations forevermore. ³² Also they angered God at the waters of strife, so that it went ill with Moses for their sakes, ³³ because they provoked his spirit, so that he spoke unadvisedly with his lips.
Complement	³⁴ They did not destroy the nations, concerning whom Jehovah commanded them; ³⁵ but were mingled among the heathen, and learned their works. ³⁶ And they served their idols, which were a snare to them. ³⁷ Moreover, they sacrificed their sons and their daughters to demons, ³⁸ and shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan; and the land was polluted with blood. ³⁹ Thus were they defiled with their own works, and went a whoring with their own inventions.
Complement	⁴⁰ Therefore the wrath of Jehovah was kindled against his people, insomuch that he abhorred his own inheritance. ⁴¹ And he gave them into the hand of the heathen; and they that hated them ruled over them. ⁴² Also their enemies oppressed them, and they were brought into subjection under their hand. ⁴³ Many times did he deliver them, but they provoked him with their counsel, and were brought low for their iniquity. ⁴⁴ Nevertheless he regarded their affliction, when he heard their cry; ⁴⁵ and he remembered for them his Covenant, and relented according to the multitude of his mercies. ⁴⁶ He also made them to be pitied of all those that carried them captives.
Unique	⁴⁷ Deliver us, O Jehovah our God, and gather us from among the heathen, to give thanks to your holy Name, and to triumph in your praise. ⁴⁸ Blessed is Jehovah God of Israel from Eternity past to Eternity future . And let all the people say, “Amen.” ⁴⁹ Praise Jehovah!

Complement	Part 1: The Jews persecuted and conspired against Jesus their King during his Life
Opposite	Chapter 1.1: Jesus was tempted by Satan and found faultless (Psalm 91)
Unique	1He that dwells in the secret place of the most High shall remain under the shadow of the Almighty.
Complement	2I will say of Jehovah, “ He is my refuge and my fortress. He is my God; in him will I trust.” 3Surely he shall deliver you from the snare of the bird hunter, and from the destroying plague. 4He shall cover you with his feathers, and under his wings shall you trust. His truth shall be your large shield and small shield.
Complement	5You shall not be afraid of the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flies by day; nor for the plague that walks in darkness; nor for the destruction that wastes at noonday. 7A thousand shall fall at your side, and ten thousand at your right hand. 8 But it shall not come near you: only with your eyes shall you behold and see the reward of the wicked.
Opposite	9Because you have made Jehovah, who is my refuge, even the most High, your habitation, 10no evil shall befall you; neither shall any plague come near your dwelling. 11for he shall give his angels charge over you, to keep you in all your ways. 12They shall bear you up in their hands, lest you dash your foot against a stone. 13You shall tread upon the lion and adder; the young lion and the dragon shall you trample under feet.
Opposite	14“ Because he has set his love upon me; therefore will I deliver him; I will set him on high, because he has known my Name. ” 15 He shall call upon me, and I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honor him. 16 With long life will I satisfy him, and show him my salvation. ”
Opposite	Chapter 1.2: The Son of God became the faultless Lamb of God at his incarnation (Psalm 40)
Opposite	1I waited patiently for Jehovah; and he inclined to me, and heard my cry. 2He brought me up also out of a horrible pit, out of the mire, and set my feet upon a Rock, and established my goings. 3And he has put a new song in my mouth, every praise to our God; many shall see it , and fear, and shall trust in Jehovah. 4Blessed is that man that makes Jehovah his trust, and respects not the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.
Opposite	5Many, O Jehovah my God, are your wonderful works which you have done, and your thoughts toward us; they cannot be reckoned up in order to you. If I would declare and speak of them , they are more than can be counted.
Complement	6Sacrifice and offering you did not desire; my ears have you opened; burnt offering and sin offering you have not required. 7Then I said, “Lo, I come; in the Volume of the Book it is written of me.” 8I delight to do your will, O my God; moreover, your Law is within my heart.
Complement	9I have preached righteousness in the great congregation; lo, I have not refrained my lips, O Jehovah; you know. 10I have not hidden your righteousness within my heart; I have declared your faithfulness and your salvation; I have not concealed your loving-kindness and your truth from the great congregation.
Unique	11Withhold not your tender mercies from me, O Jehovah; let your loving-kindness and your truth continually preserve me. 12for innumerable evils have surrounded me; my iniquities have taken hold upon me, so that I am not able to look up; they are more than the hairs of my head; therefore my heart is failing me. 13Be pleased, O Jehovah, to deliver me; O Jehovah, hurry to help me. 14Let them be ashamed and disgraced together that seek after my soul to destroy it; let them be driven backward and put to shame that wish me evil. 15Let them be desolate for a reward of their shame that say to me, “Aha, aha.” 16Let all those that seek you rejoice and be glad in you; let such as love your salvation say continually, “Jehovah be magnified.” 17But I am poor and needy, yet the Lord thinks upon me; you are my help and my deliverer; do not delay, O my God.

Complement	Chapter 1.3: The enemies of Jesus slandered him and plotted to take away his life (Psalm 31)
§Unique	Introduction: Bow down your ear to me; deliver me speedily
Unique	1In you, O Jehovah, do I put my trust; let me never be ashamed; deliver me in your righteousness. 2Bow down your ear to me; deliver me speedily; be my strong Rock, for a house of defense to save me. 3for you are my Rock and my fortress; therefore for your Name’s sake lead me, and guide me.
Complement	4Pull me out of the net that they have laid secretly for me: for you are my strength. 5Into your hand I commit my spirit; you have redeemed me, O Jehovah God of truth. 6I have hated them that regard lying vanities; but I trust in Jehovah.
Complement	7I will be glad and rejoice in your mercy: for you have considered my trouble; you have known my soul in adversities, 8and have not shut me up into the hand of the enemy; you have set my feet in a large room.
§Complement	Body: While they took counsel together against me, they devised to take away my life
Unique	9Have mercy upon me, O Jehovah: for I am in trouble; my eye is consumed with grief; yea , my soul and my belly: 10for my life is spent with grief, and my years with sighing; my strength fails because of my iniquity, and my bones are consumed.
Complement	11I was a reproach among all my enemies, but especially among my neighbors, and a fear to my acquaintance; they that sav me outside fled from me.
Complement	12I am forgotten like a dead man out of mind; I am like a broken vessel: 13for I have heard the slander of many; fear was on every side. While they took counsel together against me, they devised to take away my life.
Opposite	14But I trusted in you, O Jehovah; I said, “You are my God.” 15My times are in your hand. Deliver me from the hand of my enemies, and from them that persecute me. 16Make your face to shine upon your servant; O save me for your mercies’ sake. 17Let me not be ashamed, O Jehovah: for I have called upon you.
Opposite	Let the wicked be ashamed, and let them be silent in the grave. 18Let the lying lips be put to silence, who speak grievous things proudly and contemptuously against the righteous.
§Complement	Conclusion: Blessed is Jehovah, for He heard my supplications
Complement	19O! how great is your goodness, which you have laid up for them that fear you, which you have prepared for them that trust in you before the sons of men! 20You shall hide them in the secret of your presence from the pride of man; you shall keep them secretly in a pavilion from the strife of tongues.
Complement	21Blessed is Jehovah: for he has shown me his marvelous kindness in a strong city: 22for I said in my haste, “I am cut off from before your eyes”; nevertheless you heard the voice of my supplications when I cried to you.
Unique	23O love Jehovah, all you his saints: for Jehovah preserves the faithful, and abundantly repays the proud doer. 24Be of good courage, and he shall strengthen your heart, all you that hope in Jehovah.

Complement	Chapter 1.4: The enemies of Jesus persecuted and reproached him (Psalm 69)
§Unique	Introduction: They that hate me without a cause are many; they that would destroy me are mighty
Unique	1Save me, O God: for the waters have come into my soul. 2I sink in deep mud, where there is no standing; I have come into deep waters, where the floods overflow me. 3I am weary of my crying; my throat is dried; my eyes fail while I wait for my God.
Complement	4They that hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of my head;
Complement	they that would destroy me, being my enemies wrongfully, are mighty, then I restored that which I did not take away.
§Complement	Body: The zeal of your House has eaten me up
Unique	5O God, you know my foolishness, and my sins are not hidden from you. 6Let not them that wait on you, O Lord Jehovah of hosts, be ashamed for my sake; let not those that seek you be disgraced for my sake, O God of Israel.
Complement	7Because for your sake I have borne reproach; shame has covered my face. 8I have become a stranger to my brethren, and an alien to my mother’s children: 9for the zeal of your House has eaten me up, and the reproaches of them that reproached you have fallen upon me. 10When I wept, and disciplined my soul with fasting, that was to my reproach. 11I also made sackcloth my garment, and I became a joke to them. 12They that sit in the gate speak against me; and I was the song of the drunkards.
Complement	13But as for me, my prayer is to you, O Jehovah, in an acceptable time; O God, in the multitude of your mercy hear me, in the truth of your salvation. 14Deliver me out of the mud, and let me not sink; let me be delivered from them that hate me, and out of the deep water. 15Let the waterflood not overflow me; neither let the deep swallow me up, and let the pit not shut her mouth upon me.
Opposite	16Hear me, O Jehovah: for your loving-kindness is good; turn to me according to the multitude of your tender mercies. 17And hide not your face from your servant: for I am in trouble; hear me speedily. 18Draw near to my soul, and redeem it; deliver me because of my enemies. 19You have known my reproach, and my shame, and my dishonor; my adversaries are all before you. 20Reproach has broken my heart, and I am full of heaviness. And I looked for some to take pity, but there was no one; and for comforters, but I found none. 21They also gave me gall for my food, and in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.
Opposite	22Let their table become a snare before them; and that which should have been for their welfare, let it become a trap. 23Let their eyes be darkened, that they see not; and make their loins continually to shake. 24Pour out your indignation upon them, and let your burning anger take hold of them! 25Let their habitation be desolate, and let none dwell in their tents; 26for they persecute him whom you have smitten, and they talk to the grief of those whom you have wounded. 27Add iniquity to their iniquity, and let them not come into your righteousness. 28Let them be blotted out of the Book of the living, and not be written with the righteous.
§Complement	Conclusion: Your heart shall live that seeks God
Complement	29But I am poor and sorrowful; let your salvation, O God, set me up on high. 30I will praise the Name of God with a song, and will magnify him with thanksgiving. 31 This also shall please Jehovah better than an ox or bull that has horns and hoofs.
Complement	32The humble shall see this , and be glad; and your heart shall live that seeks God: 33for Jehovah hears the poor, and does not despise his prisoners.
Unique	34Let the Heaven and earth praise him, the seas, and everything that moves in it: 35for God will save Zion, and will build the cities of Judah; let them say they dwell there, and have it in possession. 36The seed also of his servants shall inherit it; and they that love his Name shall dwell there.

Unique	Chapter 1.5: Jesus triumphantly entered into Jerusalem (Psalm 118)
§Complement	Introduction: Let those that fear Jehovah say, that his mercy endures forever
Unique	1O give thanks to Jehovah: for he is good, because his mercy endures forever. 2Let Israel now say, that his mercy endures forever.
Complement	3Let the house of Aaron now say, that his mercy endures forever.
Complement	4Let them now that fear Jehovah say, that his mercy endures forever.
§Complement	Body: The stone which the builders rejected has become the head stone of the corner
Opposite	5I called upon Jehovah in distress; Jehovah answered me, and set me in a large place. 6Jehovah is on my side; therefore I will not fear. What can man do to me? 7Jehovah takes my part with them that help me; therefore shall I look upon the destruction of them that hate me. 8 It is better to trust in Jehovah than to put confidence in man; ’tis better to trust in Jehovah than to put confidence in princes. 10All nations surrounded me; but in the Name of Jehovah will I destroy them. 11They surrounded me like bees, but they are quenched as the fire of thorns: for in the Name of Jehovah will I destroy them.
Opposite	13You have thrust sore at me that I might fall; but Jehovah helped me. 14Jehovah is my strength and song, and has become my salvation. 15The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tents of the righteous; the right hand of Jehovah is exalted; the right hand of Jehovah does valiantly. 17I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of Jehovah. 18Jehovah has severely disciplined me, but he has not given me over to death. 19Open the gates of righteousness to me; I will go into them, and I will praise Jehovah: 20 this gate of Jehovah, into which the righteous shall enter. 21I will praise you: for you have heard me, and become my salvation.
Complement	22The stone which the builders rejected has become the head stone of the corner. 23This is the work of Jehovah! It is marvelous in our eyes.
Complement	24This is the day that Jehovah has made; we will rejoice and be glad in it.
Unique	25Please save now, O Jehovah; O Jehovah, please send prosperity now.
§Unique	Conclusion: Blessed is he that comes in the Name of Jehovah
Complement	26Blessed is he that comes in the Name of Jehovah; we have blessed you out of the House of Jehovah. 27Jehovah is the true God, who has shown us Light. Bind the sacrifice with cords, even to the horns of the altar.
Complement	28You are my God, and I will praise you; you are my God, and I will exalt you.
Unique	29O give thanks to Jehovah, because he is good: for his mercy endures forever.

Complement	Part 2: The Jews accused Jesus of blasphemy and slandered Him on the cross before his death
Opposite	Chapter 2.1: Judas Iscariot betrayed Jesus his master and lost his apostleship (Psalm 109)
Unique	1Do not hold you peace, O God of my praise: 2for the mouth of the wicked and the mouth of the deceitful have opened against me; they have spoken against me with a lying tongue. 3They also surrounded me with words of hatred, and fought against me without a cause. 4For my love they are my adversaries, but I give myself to prayer. 5And they have rewarded me evil for good, and hatred for my love.
Complement	6Set a wicked man over him; and let Satan stand at his right hand. 7When he shall be judged, let him be condemned, and let his prayer become sin. 8Let his days be few; and let children be vagabonds continually, and beg; let them seek their bread also out of their desolate places. 11Let the extortionist catch all that he has; and let the flangers prey on his labor. 12Let there be none to extend mercy to him; neither let there be any to favor his fatherless children. 13Let his posterity be cut off; and in the generation following, let their name be blotted out. 14Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered with Jehovah; and let not the sin of his mother be blotted out. 15Let them be before Jehovah continually, that he may cut off the memory of them from the earth. 16because he did not remember to show mercy, but persecuted the poor and needy man, that he might even slay the innocent as he loved cursing, so let it come to him; as he did not delight in blessing, so let it be far from him. 18As he clothed himself with cursing like as with his garment, so let it come into his bowels like water, and like oil into his bones. 19Let it be to him as the garment which covers him, and for a belt with which he is girded continually. 20 Let this be the reward of my adversaries from Jehovah, and of them that speak evil against my soul.
Opposite	21But do for me, O Lord Jehovah, for your Name’s sake. Because your mercy is good, deliver me: 22for I am poor and needy, and my heart is wounded within me. 23I am gone like the shadow when it declines; I am tossed up and down as the locust. 24My knees are weak through fasting; and my flesh fails of fatness. 25I also became a reproach to them; when they looked upon me, they shook their heads.
Opposite	26Help me, O Jehovah my God; O save me according to your mercy, 27that they may know that this is your hand, that you, Jehovah, have done it. 28Let them curse, but you bless. When they arise, let them be ashamed; but let you, your servant rejoice. 29Let his adversary be clothed with shame, and let him cover themselves with their own confusion, as with a mantle. 30I will greatly praise Jehovah with my mouth; moreover, I will praise him among the multitude. 31for he shall stand at the right hand of the poor, to save him from those that condemn his soul.
Opposite	Chapter 2.2: Judas Iscariot betrayed Jesus his friend and went down into Hell (Psalm 55)
Opposite	1Give ear to my prayer, O God, and do not hide yourself from my supplication. 2Attend to me, and hear me; I mourn in my complaint, and make a commotion, 3because of the voice of the enemy, because of the oppression of the wicked: for they cast iniquity upon me, and in wrath they hate me. 4My heart is very painful within me, and the terrors of death have fallen upon me. 5Fearfulness and trembling have come upon me, and horror has overwhelmed me. 6And I said, “Oh that I had wings like a dove! For then would I fly away, and be at rest. 7Lo, when would I wander far off, and remain in the wilderness. Selah. 9I would hasten my escape from the thindy storm and tempest.”
Opposite	9Destroy, O Lord, and divide their tongues: for I have seen violence and strife in the city. 10Day and night they go around it upon its walls; mischief also and sorrow are in its midst. 11Wickedness is in its midst; deceit and guile depart not from her streets. 12For it was not an enemy that reproached me, then I could have borne it ; neither was it he that hated me that magnified himself against me, then I would have hidden myself from him; 13 but it was you: a man of my equal, my guide, and my acquaintance. 14We took sweet counsel together, and walked to the House of God in company. 15Let death seize upon them, and let them go down quickly into Hell! For wickedness is in their dwellings, and among them.
Complement	16As for me, I will call upon God; and Jehovah shall save me. 17Evening, and morning, and at noon, will I pray, and cry aloud; and he shall hear my voice. 18He has delivered my soul in peace from the battle that was against me: for there were many with me. 19God shall hear, and afflict them: even he that abides forever. Selah.
Complement	Because they have no changes, therefore they do not fear God. 20He has put forth his hands against such as are at peace with him; he has broken his covenant. 21 The words of his mouth were smoother than butter, but war was in his heart; his words were softer than oil, yet were they drawn swords.
Unique	22Cast your burden upon Jehovah, and he shall sustain you; he shall never allow the righteous to be shaken. 23But you, O God, shall bring them down into the pit of destruction. Bloody and deceitful men shall not live out half their days, but I will trust in you.

Complement	Chapter 2.3: False witnesses accused Jesus of blasphemy (Psalm 35)
§Unique	Introduction: Let them be disgraced and put to shame that seek after my soul
Unique	1Plead my cause , O Jehovah, with them that strive with me; fight against them that fight against me. 2Take hold of large shield and small shield, and stand up for my help. 3Draw out the spear also, and stop the way against them that persecute me; say to my soul, “ I am your salvation.”
Complement	4Let them be disgraced and put to shame that seek after my soul. Let them be turned back and brought to confusion that devise my hurt. 5Let them be as chaff before the wind; and let the angel of Jehovah chase them . 6Let their way be dark and slippery; and let the angel of Jehovah persecute them: 7for without cause have they hidden for me their net in a pit, which without cause they have dug for my soul. 8Let destruction come upon him by surprise; and let his net that he has hidden catch himself; into that very destruction let him fall.
Complement	9And my soul shall be joyful in Jehovah; it shall rejoice in his salvation. 10All my bones shall say, “Jehovah, who is like you, who delivers the poor from him that is too strong for him; moreover, the poor and the needy from him that plunders him?”
§Complement	Body: I prayed for my enemies, but they tore me and gnashed upon me with their teeth
Unique	11False witnesses rose up; they laid to my charge things that I did not know. 12They rewarded me evil for good to the bereavement of my soul.
Complement	13But as for me, when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth; I humbled my soul with fasting; and my prayer returned into my own bosom. 14I behaved myself as though he was my friend or brother; I bowed down heavily, as one that mourns for his mother.
Complement	15But in my adversity they rejoiced, and gathered themselves together; yea , the slanderers gathered themselves together against me, and I did not know it ; they tore me , and did not cease; 16with hypocritical mockers in feasts, they gnashed upon me with their teeth.
Opposite	17Lord, how long will you look on? Rescue my soul from their destructions, my darling from the lions. 18I will give you thanks in the great congregation; I will praise you among much people. 19Let not them that are my enemies wrongfully rejoice over me; neither let them wink with the eye that hate me without a cause. 20for they do not speak peace, but they devise deceitful matters against them that are quiet in the land.
Opposite	21Moreover, they opened their mouth wide against me, and said , “Aha, aha, our eye has seen it .”
Opposite	22You have seen it , O Jehovah; do not keep silence; O Lord, be not far from me. 23Stir yourself up, and awake to my judgment, even to my cause, my God and my Lord. 24Judge me, O Jehovah my God, according to your righteousness; and let them not rejoice over me. 25Let them not say in their hearts, “Ah, so would we have it ”; let them not say, “We have swallowed him up.” 26Let them be ashamed and brought to confusion together that rejoice at my hurt; let them be clothed with shame and dishonor that magnify themselves against me.
§Complement	Conclusion: Let those that favor my righteous cause shout for joy and praise Jehovah
Complement	27 But let them shout for joy, and be glad, that favor my righteous cause.
Complement	Yea, let them say continually, “Let Jehovah be magnified, who has pleasure in the prosperity of his servant.”
Unique	28And my tongue shall speak of your righteousness and of your praise all day long.

Complement	Chapter 2.4: The chief priests slandered Jesus as he hung on the cross (Psalm 22)
§Unique	Introduction: My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?
Unique	1My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? Why are you so far from helping me, and from the words of my crying? 2O my God, I cry in the daytime, but you hear not; and in the night season, and am not silent.
Complement	3But you are holy, O you that inhabit the praises of Israel.
Complement	4Our fathers trusted in you; they trusted, and you delivered them. 5They cried to you, and were delivered; they trusted in you, and were not ashamed.
§Complement	Body: Be not far from me while I am on the cross
Unique	6But I am a worm, and no man; a reproach of men, and despised of the people. 7All they that see me laugh me to scorn; they shoot out the lip; they shake the head, saying , 8“ He trusted on Jehovah that he would deliver him; therefore let him deliver him, seeing he delighted in him.”
Complement	9But you are he that took me out of the womb; you made me hope when I was upon my mother’s breasts. 10I was cast upon you from the womb; you are my God from my mother’s belly.
Complement	11Be not far from me, for trouble is near: for there is no one to help. 12Many bulls have surrounded me; strong bulls of Bashan have encircled me. 13They gaped upon me with their mouths, as a ravening and a roaring lion. 14I am poured out like water; and all my bones are out of joint; my heart is like wax; it is melted in the midst of my bowels. 15My strength is dried up like a potsherd, and my tongue sticks to my jaws; and you have brought me into the dust of death. 16for dogs have surrounded me, and the assembly of the wicked have enclosed me; they pierced my hands and my feet. 17I can count all my bones; they look and stare upon me; 18They part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture. 19But be not far from me, O Jehovah; O my strength, hurry to help me. 20Deliver my soul from the sword; my darling from the power of the dog. 21Save me from the lion’s mouth: for you have heard me from the horns of the wild oxen.
Opposite	22I will declare your Name unto my brethren; in the midst of the congregation will I praise you. 23You that fear Jehovah, praise him; all you the seed of Jacob, glorify him; and fear him, all you the seed of Israel: 24for he has not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted; neither has he hidden his face from him; but when he cried to him, he heard. 25My praise shall be of you in the great congregation; I will pay my vows before them that fear him.
Opposite	26The meek shall eat and be satisfied; they shall praise Jehovah that seek him; your heart shall live forever.
§Complement	Conclusion: They shall come, and shall declare his righteousness to a people that shall be born, that he has done this
Complement	27All the ends of the world shall remember and turn to Jehovah; and all the families of the nations shall worship before you: 28for the Kingdom is Jehovah’s; and he is the Governor among the nations.
Complement	29All the prosperous upon earth shall eat and worship. All they that go down to the dust shall bow before him; and none can keep alive his own soul.
Unique	30A seed shall serve him; it shall be accounted to the Lord for a generation. 31They shall come, and shall declare his righteousness to a people that shall be born, that he has done this .

Complement	2Jehovah will preserve him, and keep him alive; he shall be blessed upon the earth; and you will not deliver him to the will of his enemies.
Complement	3Jehovah will strengthen him upon the bed of languishing; you will make all his bed in his sickness.
§Complement	Body: My familiar friend has lifted up his heel against me
Opposite	4I said, “Jehovah, be merciful to me; heal my soul: for I have sinned against you.”
Opposite	5My enemies speak evil of me, “When shall he die, and his name perish?” 6And if he comes to see me , he speaks vanity; his heart gathers iniquity to itself; then when he goes abroad, he tells it .
Complement	7All that hate me whisper together against me; against me do they plot my harm. 8 They say , “An evil disease sticks fast to him; and now that he lies down he shall rise up no more.”
Complement	9Moreover, my own familiar friend, in whom I trusted, who ate of my bread, has lifted up his heel against me.
Unique	10But you, O Jehovah, be merciful to me, and raise me up, that I may repay them.
§Unique	Conclusion: I know that you favor me; you uphold me in my integrity and set me before your face forever
Complement	11By this I know that you favor me, because my enemy does not triumph over me.
Complement	12And as for me, you uphold me in my integrity, and set me before your face forever.
Unique	13Blessed is Jehovah God of Israel from Eternity past and to Eternity future . Amen, and Amen.

Greetings in the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ!

My name is Max Day, the editor and publisher of the Kingdom Study Bible version in both English and Spanish.

Before I explain the Golden Ratio design, I want to share my testimony of salvation with you, so that you will understand where I am coming from, because this information is unlike anything that you have heard before about the Bible, whether you have only been to Sunday School or whether you are a Ph.D graduate from Seminary.

I pay hundreds of dollars every month for advertisements on Facebook, so that I can share this information with people all over the world; but I do not ask for any money of any kind, and I will not and do not accept contributions of any kind, although I have been offered money.

I want everyone to know what God has shown me about the Golden Ratio design without anyone wondering about whether I just want to get rich, like so many other false teachers on TV and radio.

The only thing that I ask for is your careful attention for what I have to say, because it is of the Lord, and it is important, otherwise I wouldn't have spent the last twenty years of my life investigating the Golden Ratio design.

Thank you in advance for your patience, because it will take some time to give a very brief introduction to this topic.

My Testimony of Salvation

I was born in NW Oklahoma on a dairy farm in 1960, into a family of five other children, 10 1/2 miles west of Fairview.

I attended a small Southern Baptist Church west of town sporadically until I was about 13, but had no idea what it really meant to be a Christian.

One day (I believe in the early 1970s), I pedaled my bicycle over to the church (several miles from my home); and the thought came into my mind that I should go into the pastor's house and talk to him. But fear set in and I did not obey the impulse, which was from the Holy Spirit (although I did not know that at the time).

While pedaling back to my home, the head of the deacons of that church stopped to give me a ride. There was an opportunity there for me to hear the Gospel, but it didn't happen; not even a Gospel tract.

One day, while walking outside after dark, I looked up at the sky and asked if God was real or not. I don't remember whether it was before or after the previous incident; but I was searching, because I did not understand anything about God or the Bible.

Some of the "Christian" kids at church didn't like me, and said things that made me angry with Christians in general. I couldn't see much "Christianity" in these "christians". If they had instead shared the Gospel with me, things might have turned out differently.

Around that time, I also got mad (do not remember who or what it was all about-maybe at God), and I spoke to the sky and said that I would sell my soul to the devil if "such and such" (I don't remember what I said exactly). I said that in a moment of youthful frustration and anger. It was incredibly stupid, but I was totally ignorant of the consequences. But Satan and his demons were listening, even if I didn't really believe in him or them.

After that event, my life began to go in the wrong direction. My family got a Ouija board; and strange "spiritual" things began to happen around the house.

About the age of 13, I didn't want to go to church again; and I told my parents. From that time forward, my life began to spin out of control. And God let it happen to me, to show me how much that I needed Him in my life, and that I wasn't going to succeed at anything without Him.

Soon, I got involved with cigarettes and alcohol (stolen from my parent's cupboard), and then marijuana. That led onto harder drugs, including prescription pills, PCP, LSD, and even sniffing substances like ether. By the time I was 16, I had been convicted for possession of Marijuana (6 months probation).

Needless to say, my life was a mess; and it was all my fault. If only I had obeyed the impulse of the Holy Spirit to talk to the preacher, I might have accepted Christ as my Savior at that time, and avoided all of that trouble in my life that came afterward.

My real problem was that I was running from God! I didn't know what or who I was running from; but that was the reality. I just had lots of demons (literally) in my life, and I had no clue what to do about it. I was locked into the devil's "Matrix" world of unbelief and sin. Without the intervention of God the Holy Spirit in my life, my eternal destination was certainly going to be Hell; and later, the Lake of Fire.

Fortunately for me, my criminal record was erased after I turned 18, so I was able to join the Navy and study electronics and have a pretty good job there.

Unfortunately, although I had moved away from my sinner friends at home, I found plenty of other sinners in the Navy who were doing the same things that I had done back home, so my bad habits of drinking and smoking marijuana, mostly, continued, at great risk to my Navy job.

After I was assigned to a ship (USS Virginia, CGN-38) in 1980, my drinking got me into more and more trouble. I would go ashore on shore leave, and come back mostly in a blackout situation: I couldn't remember what I had said or done.

This led to me getting into more and more trouble with the command. Finally, I lost a stripe and was confined to the ship for 60 days in the summer of 1982.

About six months before that summer, I met a Christian in my berthing area; and he was unlike any Christian I had ever met before. He was always carrying a Bible and talking about Jesus, it seemed. He wasn't perfect (who is?), but at least he honestly tried to serve the Lord and be real.

While initially, I thought he was a nut, I had to respect him, because everyone else that I had known who claimed to be a Christian were inconsistent in their testimony: they cursed a little bit, chewed a little bit, and drank a little bit. Their hypocrisy was offensive to everyone, although not many would say that to their face; they would just talk about them behind their backs and laugh at them.

Not all, but most; and the ones that tried to be good Christians would never tell me about Jesus, not even a Gospel tract. So I had no idea what a real Christian was until that day.

This man, Jed Rosenthal, gave me Chick tracts and Christian books on prophecy. I read them and was interested, because I had also been studying politics, especially "conspiracy theory" books about one-world government like "None dare call it conspiracy" by Gary Allen.

The books on prophecy said very similar things to what I was reading about current plans for one-world government by powerful and wealthy people and groups such as the Council on Foreign Relations and the Trilateral Commission. So I could easily see how the prophecies of a one-world government in the letter of Revelation and Daniel were being fulfilled today.

On top of that, I found this text in Revelation to be very compelling:

"And when they shall have finished their testimony, the Beast that ascends out of the Abyss shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them. And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified. And they of the people and tribes and languages and nations shall see their dead bodies three and a half days, and shall not allow their dead bodies to be put in graves." Revelation 11:7-9

Notice that the text says, "They of the people and tribes and languages and nations shall see their dead bodies three and a half days."

Now keep in mind that the Apostle John wrote this text around 90 A.D., when the highest technology was swords, bows and keeping sheep, basically. He had no conception at all that one day the Earth would have satellites that would allow nearly instantaneous transmission of television images around the world, let alone the Internet. So John could not have written that text on his own; he would never have conceived the technology of satellite TV.

I remember thinking something like, "Wow, here in the Bible where it was written thousands of years ago, it predicts that one day people all over the world will be able to instantly view these two men for 3 and 1/2 days. So there must be a God, because only God could know the future like that; and if there is a God, there is a Heaven; and if there is a Heaven, there is a Hell, and I'm going there!"

The realization of this truth, that I was a sinner and going to Hell, made me very open to the Gospel of Christ. One day after six months of witnessing to me with words, tracts, and books, Jed asked me if I would like to accept Jesus Christ as my Savior, and I said yes. It was the best decision that I ever made!

My days of running from God were over; on August 31, 1982, I repented of my sins, and asked Jesus to forgive me and come into my life; and I met God in the Person of Jesus Christ my Savior, praise the Lord! Amen.

My calling to serve the Lord

After I trusted Christ, God began to work in my life about serving Him full-time in the ministry. One night I was standing on the O2 level on my ship at night, just looking at the stars, and the ocean as it flowed past; I became overwhelmed with what God had done in my life: my sins were forgiven, and I was going to Heaven instead of Hell! I told the Lord that night that I wanted Him to use me to do something “truly wonderful”. And God has answered that prayer in ways that I can’t even begin to explain.

The very first time I picked up a (KJV) Bible to read it as a believer, God showed me that while the text itself was the Word of God, the arrangement had serious problems, because the text of the Bible was chopped up into small pieces or “verses”, making it hard to see and understand the larger themes and groupings in the text.

Ezra 10:31-43, KJV:

- 31 And of the sons of Harim; Eliezer, Ishijah, Malchiah, Shemaiah, Shimeon,
- 32 Benjamin, Malluch, and Shemariah.
- 33 Of the sons of Hashum; Mattenai, Mattathah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh, and Shimei.
- 34 Of the sons of Bani; Maadai, Amram, and Uel,
- 35 Benaiah, Bedeiah, Chelluh,
- 36 Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib,
- 37 Mattaniah, Mattenai, and Jaasau,
- 38 And Bani, and Binnui, Shimei,
- 39 And Shelemiah, and Nathan, and Adaiah,
- 40 Machnadebai, Shashai, Sharai,
- 41 Azareel, and Shelemiah, Shemariah,
- 42 Shallum, Amariah, and Joseph.
- 43 Of the sons of Nebo; Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Jadau, and Joel, Benaiah.

Was there some special reason to divide the names into groups of 3? Obviously, the answer is no: it was a device intended to aid memorization of the Bible text; and it had absolutely nothing to do with helping the reader to understand the context of the text.

I could easily cite thousands of other examples of inaccurate text divisions in the traditional arrangement.

The noted Greek Scholar A.T. Robertson said,

“The first step in interpretation is to ignore the modern chapters and verses.”
An Introduction to the Textual Criticism of the New Testament (Nashville: Broadman Press, 1925), p. 101.

Von Soden comments,

“There is no doubt that the chapter divisions which we have inherited from Langton leave much to be desired. These divisions do not rest upon a comprehension of the literary structure of the Biblical books...”
(H. von Soden, Die Schriften des Neuen Testamentes (Goettingen: Vandenhoeck, 1912), I, page 482.)

Von Soden was a liberal; but he agreed with the conservative A.T. Robertson on this point; and his comment was correct.

This was a very strange thing that God had burdened my heart about; and I kept thinking, “This is too big for me alone; what can I do about it? And why am I the only one who seems concerned about it?”

I asked questions about the traditional arrangement in Bible college and Seminary; but strangely, even the most educated and wise men that I could find had no answers! No one seemed interested in solving the problem.

Even worse, those who believed that the KJV was perfect and could not be improved in the slightest were offended at the very suggestion that we needed something better, even if the only change were a different arrangement, and the KJV Old English were retained.

And if you were studying to be a preacher in an Independent, Fundamental, Baptist (IFB, for short) Bible college and seminary, as I was; and you want to be accepted among other IFB pastors and preachers, the last thing that they want to hear from you is that we need a better Bible version than the KJV, because even if you change the arrangement only, but not the words, it isn’t the KJV anymore!

So even though most IFB preachers will acknowledge in private that the traditional arrangement is a problem, they keep silent about it, for fear of losing their friends in the ministry, especially the KJV-only fanatics among the followers of Peter Ruckman.

Proverbs 29:25 “The fear of man brings a snare; but whoso puts his trust in Jehovah shall be safe.”

Now some other modern versions have recognized that the traditional arrangement was poorly done, and tried their own arrangements; but their problem is that they have no rhyme or reason for their arrangements; in the final analysis, the only one who knows why their text divisions were made where they are is the person who made the arrangement. Sometimes it makes sense; other times it doesn’t.

In other words, their authority for their arrangements comes from their own minds; not from an independent system that anyone can measure their arrangement against, such as mathematics (e.g. the Golden Ratio).

The same is true for the traditional arrangement of chapters and verses found in the KJV and other Protestant Reformation Bible versions. The authority for that arrangement (which originated with Robert Stephanus, who authored the “verse” numbering system found in almost all Bible versions) was also only in the mind of Robert Stephanus.

The fact that it is inconsistent and random is proof that it is only a device of man, and not from God, because God is neither random nor inconsistent; but we are often exactly that, even the best of us.

Romans 3:4: “Certainly not; indeed, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, “That you might be justified in your sayings, and might overcome when you are judged.”

Titus 1:2: “in assurance of Eternal Life, which God (that cannot lie) promised before the Ages began;”

Micah 7:4: “The best of them is like a brier; the most upright is sharper than a hedge thorn.”

After I finished my Bible education, the Lord led me to study software programming, so that I could become an engineer.

After my first job in software development, God miraculously opened the door to become a Systems Engineer. I say “miraculously”, because I was not trained in Systems Engineering, and I only had about 2 years of experience in engineering with only a certificate in computer programming at that time. No one would have thought that I was qualified for this job; but my manager was a Christian, and a few months afterward, he said to me, “God told me to hire you.”

I was stunned! So the only reason I was hired was because the Lord wanted me to have that job, and it wasn’t just to help me forward in my career, because I learned later that the principles of Systems Engineering were crucial to help me to understand the Golden Ratio design of the Bible.

It may be that, with the help of the Lord, I could have understood the Golden Ratio design without a Systems Engineering background; however, with hindsight, I am certain that it made the task a lot easier.

After several years, I returned to college and earned another Bachelors degree in Computer Science in 2013. Over time, my career moved from software engineering, to a combination of Systems engineering and Testing, to just Systems Engineering.

Currently, I am a Lead Staff Systems Engineer at Lockheed Martin where I have been working for almost 5 years, at this writing. I have over 14 years of experience in engineering in general, as of 2024.

The point is that God led me into a secular career in engineering so that I could learn the principles of Systems engineering (requirements) to help me to accomplish the work that is represented by the Kingdom Study Bible, which is uniquely arranged according to the Golden Ratio design. No other Bible version in history has ever had this arrangement.

What is Systems Engineering? It is the process of analyzing requirements that are created or approved by the customer for any particular engineering project: aircraft, train, car, bridge, building, etc, for the purpose of creating that same vehicle, aircraft, bridge etc, and maintaining it until the end of its useful life. The analysis must take into account the entire picture: the System of Systems, so that the individual pieces of the engineering puzzle can be understood, and so that each piece of that puzzle will come together into a complete working whole.

Any errors in understanding any piece of that puzzle could potentially result in the destruction of the vehicle, aircraft, bridge etc, along with the loss of human life; therefore, it must be as correct as possible!

To that end, hundreds of millions of dollars are often spent by customers on testing and simulation to verify that the proposed solutions to achieve the engineering goal will work as proposed. And, this process can take many years to complete.

Now let’s apply this to the Bible, the Word of God.

If we are going to understand the Bible correctly, we MUST understand the entire picture: from Genesis to the end of the Bible; and, we must understand how each part of the Bible relates to the other parts; because, if it is the Word of God (and it is), then every word of the Bible has a common origin in the one true Triune God of the Bible, and every word of the Bible has a definite purpose: it is not random, nor it is without meaning.

Hebrews 4:12-13: for the Word of God is living and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword; piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow; and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart; neither is there any creature that is not exposed in his sight, but all things are naked and opened to the eyes of him to whom we must give account.”

For the arrangement of the Bible to be correct, all parts of the Bible must work together harmoniously, on every level of the arrangement.

And, the arrangement must make Biblical sense! Any arrangement that contradicts orthodox, Biblical Christianity must be rejected. “Orthodox” in this sense has nothing to do with the Orthodox churches; but rather “orthodox” means the historic Christian faith as agreed by “the Fundamentals of the Faith”.

The fact that the Golden Ratio design demonstrates this is proof that the Traditional Canon all had the same Divine Author, the Holy Spirit.

2 Peter 1:20-21: “Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the Scripture comes of one’s own interpretation: for the prophecy came at no time by the will of man, but holy men of God spoke as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit.”

Also, in the same manner as an engineering project must undergo extensive testing and verification before it can be used as it intended, so also the Golden Ratio design of the Bible must also undergo extensive testing and verification before Christians at large will fully trust it.

This testing and verification is being done every time that I publish a new detailed Bible study on each Book of the Bible on Facebook. The average number of studies per book to date is about 70; this provides excellent coverage of every paragraph in each book; and I provide reasoning and explanation for the Golden Ratio design and how it works. I cannot cover every topic possible in these studies, but I try to ensure that my readers are trained in the correct use of the Scriptures and the applications thereof to their lives.

Thanks to the intense focus on the scriptures that is necessary to produce these studies each week, God has enabled me to amend the themes and arrangement for each subparagraph, paragraph, section, chapter, part, book, volume, and section in the Bible, so that the final arrangement of the Bible according to the Golden Ratio design comes more and more into focus.

This process reminds me of the first large engineering project that I was privileged to serve on in the late 1990s. It was a large US Army howitzer vehicle, nearly fully automated. Although there was a competitor German design, it wasn’t nearly as advanced.

The problem was that no one actually knew what this product would look like in the details. The Army knew what it wanted in broad terms; however, they had hired a large defense contractor to figure out how it should actually work and make it happen; and since no one had ever created such a complex machine before, we could not use the old Systems engineering processes, typical to what Microsoft did with their software at the time: design everything down to the details, code the software and test it in one big cycle: humorously called “The Big Bang”.

This process won’t work when you don’t actually know what the end product will look like in the details! So the contractor used a modern systems engineering approach, which was “iterative development”; and it works.

The process starts small with the design of the core features of the software; code and test it; and then the cycle restarts with one or more new features of the software added to the first iteration; code and test it; and then move on like that with new features added each time; until finally, the final product is created and handed over to the customer.

And even after that, it continues to undergo testing in the real world environments as the customer sends back requests for improvements or fixes for problems that are found.

And finally, years and sometimes even decades later, the product is fully matured and perfected as far as it can go; and probably it will be replaced by something much different. That is the typical lifecycle for almost any engineering product, not just military ones.

Well, amazingly enough, this is almost the exact same process that I used with the development of the Kingdom Study Bible version with the Golden Ratio design!

When the Lord helped me to understand the basic principles of the Golden Ratio design in 2003-2004 (over a period of about a year or so: see “The Golden Ratio design in the Fibonacci Sequence”), I began to think (because I knew that God had called me to find the true arrangement of the Bible), “What if this Golden Ratio design of one unique, two complements, and two opposites (or, UCC-OO) is how God wants the books of the Bible to be arranged?” I was only thinking of the highest levels of the Bible at that time. I had no clue about how this might impact the lower levels down to the text until much later.

And as I began to study the Bible with this new insight from the Lord, it quickly dawned on me that the Golden Ratio design was indeed the key to the Bible arrangement that I had been searching for.

With this in mind, I began to rearrange the books of the Bible the best I could into what might be the correct order, according to the UCC-OO design.

But after I had arranged the books of the Bible into what looked like a reasonable arrangement according to this design, I realized that it didn’t make sense that only the Books themselves would be arranged on their level into this design. No, if this design was from God, then the design should extend to every part of the Bible, on every level.

Over the years since the mid-2000s, God has led me, step by step, into his amazing Word, and how it should be arranged! Using the iterative system engineering process, layer by layer, book by book, the Lord has opened his Word to me to help me to create the final product, which is the Kingdom Study Bible with the Golden Ratio design.

I am amazed that God would want to use a sinner like me to do something so wonderful for his Name’s sake! I am completely unworthy of this privilege, to be entrusted by the Lord handle his Word in this way!

We know what the final product will be: the Traditional Canon of the Scriptures arranged according to the Golden Ratio design. But does the Kingdom Study Bible with the Golden Ratio design match perfectly the true Golden Ratio design, which only God knows in all its perfection and all of its nuances?

The answer, of course, is not yet! In the same manner as any product of human engineering, the Golden Ratio design of the Psalms and possibly the Proverbs. These are the two most difficult areas in the Scriptures to arrange, by far.

I still make small changes to the arrangement on the subparagraph level during the detailed Bible studies; and I am surprised, on occasion (thankfully much less than in the early years), that I must adjust the arrangement on the book level.

The details of all these things must remain with the Lord, because I cannot explain them all. God knows and that is all that matters in the final analysis! I must give an account to the Lord Jesus Christ for my work at his Bema Seat, so I’m doing my best as the Lord enables me, to complete this work.

Instead of trying to explain the process of how I arrived at the Golden Ratio design, I try to focus on the end result: why the Scriptures are arranged in the order that they are in the Golden Ratio design.

The Bible is very difficult to understand, but certainly not impossible; otherwise, why would God have given it to us, if He didn’t want us to understand it?

Important things to know

The great challenge with trying to explain something like the Golden Ratio design is the fact that most Christians do not know what is actually in the Bible; sadly, this is true even of many pastors and Bible teachers.

So while I'm trying to explain the Golden Ratio design and how it works, whether you get it or not really depends on how familiar you are with the Bible. If you haven't read the Bible even one time, then what I tell you will only sound like a theory, and you probably won't understand.

If you have only read the Bible a few times, or maybe "once a year", that will help your understanding, but not much.

The person who will most likely understand the Golden Ratio design is a person who fits this description:

"These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the Word with all readiness of mind; and they searched the Scriptures daily, to see whether those things were true. Therefore many of them believed in Christ; also of honorable women who were Greeks, and of men, not a few." Acts 17:11-12

The closer that you fit that description, the more successful that you will be in your quest to understand the Golden Ratio design of the Bible; and when you understand the Golden Ratio design, then you will also begin to truly understand the Bible itself.

Also, if you are more loyal to your denominational statement of beliefs rather than the Bible, this will be difficult for you, because learning the Golden Ratio design means that you must be willing to challenge traditions and widely-accepted beliefs. Many will turn away from the truth rather than risk losing their denominational pension plan or risk losing their friends in their Baptist fellowships.

However, if your first love and loyalty is to the Word of God as the Final Authority for all matters of faith and practice, regardless of the cost to you personally, then read on my friend: this is for you.

As for me, I want to follow the truth, wherever it leads, because Jesus Christ is the Way, THE TRUTH, and the Life: no man comes to the Father, but by Him (John 14:6).

Systems Engineering helped to solve the arrangement problem

Now Systems Engineering (SE for short) is based on the facts as they exist, not on tradition or opinions. Any project that is based on something other than reality and truth will inevitably fail.

One of the major principles of SE is the System of Systems concept; that is, everything in this world is a system within other systems that interact in some way.

The Bible is similar to other systems in that way, because the entire Bible can be considered as a complete system of other systems within it.

Within the entire Bible, you can easily organize the documents into five basic groups (outside of the Psalms): 1) The Law of Moses, 2) the Prophets, 3) the History of Israel, 4) the Gospels, and 5) everything else, which is mostly the apostolic writings, but includes Job and Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, the Song of Solomon, and Ruth.

So each of these subsystems are logical units that belong together. I will explain how this works in detail later on.

I also found that the concept of a "book" as found in most Bible versions was not accurate, to say the least.

Typically, documents such as Obadiah, Haggai, Philemon, 2 John, and 3 John (which are extremely short) are called "Books"; and extremely large documents such as Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel, the Law of Moses, and the Gospels are also called "Books".

How could this possibly be correct? Would you call a 1 page pamphlet a Book? Of course not! Any book will have large subdivisions, such as chapters, at a minimum. Those five small documents have only a few very small text subdivisions, and so they are not "Books".

What about somewhat larger documents such as Daniel & Zechariah, Joshua & Judges, Hebrews & Romans, 1 & 2 Corinthians, and Job & Proverbs? These documents, individually, are not as large as the extremely large documents that I previously listed; but they are also not in the category of the extremely small documents.

As I forensically studied the Bible from the perspective of a Systems Engineer who also believes in the complete integrity and inspiration of the Holy Bible, I realized that there are three different types of documents in the Bible:

1) Extremely large documents (the Law of Moses, Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel, Samuel, Kings, Chronicles, and the Gospels - 16 in all): These documents are always subdivided into two groups; and each group has 5 logical divisions. So the total number of subdivisions are always ten.

Within the major subdivisions are several smaller subdivisions which I will explain later. For this discussion, I want to focus attention on the large picture.

Let's call these extremely large documents "Books"; and let's call the two groups "Parts"; and let's call the subdivisions "Chapters". This makes sense and agrees with typical document structure systems used in the publishing industry. You could use other labels, but these labels make the most sense.

So, using these definitions, a Book in the Holy Bible has two parts with five chapters in each part, for a total of ten chapters for every Book.

For the Books listed so far, this adds up to 16 Books and 160 chapters.

2) Medium size documents (Daniel & Zechariah, Joshua & Judges, Hebrews & Romans, 1 & 2 Corinthians, and Job & Proverbs): These documents are always subdivided into five logical divisions (chapters); and their themes clearly show that they belong with another document of similar size. In other words, Daniel & Zechariah have five subdivisions (or chapters) each; and their themes clearly show that they belong together, because they complement each other, like two sides of the same coin. More on that later.

Now since these document pairs belong together, and both documents together have a total of ten chapters (exactly like the Books), let's assume that these pairs of documents constitute logical Books. This makes sense, because a Book has ten chapters and these pairs of documents also have ten chapters total.

An outlier is Revelation, which also has five chapters. It is a "Half-Book", similar to one of the pairs listed above, but the other half of the pair is a group of 5 small documents that complement it perfectly. I will get into the details of that later.

Added together with the totals from #1, we have 21.5 Books and 215 chapters.

3) Small size documents (the ten Minor Prophets, Esther, Lamentations, Ezra, Nehemiah, Haggai, Galatians, Colossians, 1 Timothy, 2 Timothy, Ephesians, 1 Peter, 2 Peter, 1 Thessalonians, 2 Thessalonians, Jude, Ecclesiastes, Philippians, Ruth, the Song of Solomon, Philemon, Titus, James, 1 John, 2 John, 3 John): These documents only have one major subdivision, and a number of smaller divisions within them.

Now, let us assume that each one of these 35 small documents constitute a chapter in a larger logical Book. This makes 3.5 Books + 21.5 Books = 25 Books in total; and 250 chapters in total.

But we still have one important group of documents left: the Psalms. Each one of these psalms (150 in total) are a perfect match for the small size documents in group 3 above, because of the way that their themes group them together. More on that later.

Let's assume that each one of the psalms is a logical chapter in a larger Book of ten chapters. Since we have 150 psalms, then that means we have an additional 15 Books + 25 Books for a total of 40 Books and 400 chapters.

Do the numbers 40 and 400 ring a bell for anyone? They should, because they are prominent and important numbers in the Bible:

It rained for 40 days and 40 nights during the Great Flood of Noah (Genesis 7:11-12).
Moses spent 40 days on Mount Sinai, receiving the Law from Jehovah (Exodus 24:18).
Jesus fasted for 40 days and 40 nights before Satan came to tempt Him (Matthew 4:2).
Israel was afflicted for 400 years in Egypt (Genesis 15:13)

I will explain these things in more detail later.

But without Jesus as my teacher, I would never have found the Golden Ratio design, nor could I have determined how it works

But let me make one thing abundantly clear: it was the Lord Jesus Christ, through the aid of the Holy Spirit, who helped me to discover and then develop the Golden Ratio design of the Bible.

ALL, and I mean all, of the glory belongs to God alone.

I don't mean that I received some kind of "inspiration" in the same manner as the Prophets and Apostles when they recorded the original writings of the Bible.

No, the guidance of the Holy Spirit that I received is the same guidance that every true man of God receives from the Lord when he seeks the aid of the Lord to give him a sermon message to preach each week in his church. It is exactly the same, and is not different.

This kind of guidance from the Holy Spirit does not guarantee inerrancy or infallibility, as spoken of in 2 Timothy 3:16-17 with reference to the original text:

"All Scripture is God-breathed; and is beneficial for doctrine, for rebuke, for correction, and for instruction in righteousness; that the man of God may be complete, and thoroughly equipped for all good work."

and 2 Peter 1:20-21:

"Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the Scripture comes of one's own interpretation: for the prophecy came at no time by the will of man, but holy men of God spoke as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit."

The type of Spirit-led assistance that I am referring to is typically called "Illumination". I like this explanation of the term (edited for grammar):

The "illumination of the Spirit" is directly related to the role of the Holy Spirit in and through the exegete. The Holy Spirit is not trying to confuse the reader of the inerrant and infallible Word of God, but this Spirit-inspired word (2 Tim. 3:16) is not necessarily easy to understand in all its parts with fallen minds.

The illumination of the Spirit, and other exegetical knowledge, is needful if the text and its propositions are going to be understood properly, and as God intended them. Christians should not think, however, that divine illumination is [only] a special intellectual paradigm for specially gifted teachers or pastors.

Illumination may be defined as the ongoing ministry of the Holy Spirit's supernatural help in clearly delineating the message of the inspired Scriptures to the reader. This does not mean that ever reader is able to clearly interpret the Scriptures, knowing that illumination is not osmosis and is given in degrees.

Illumination is a counterpart to reading, studying and exegeting the Scriptures, using tried hermeneutical principles upon the text to reach its proper meaning. Illumination presses the reader to bridge the cultural gap on the meaning of a given passage to their life-situation and translates the biblical message into the language of today.

It does not mean that the Holy Spirit changes or improves upon the truth in the Bible, but rather, He aids the student of the Word to properly understand the already orthodox position of the faith once delivered to the saints. In this sense there cannot be a dichotomy between orthodox history and orthodox theology.

The history of divine illumination for the church is wed to historical orthodoxy because it is the same Spirit illuminating the Word.

There is a confrontational illumination between the Word and reader. The illuminated text not only says something to the reader, but does something to him in conjunction with the text, and presses him to act.

Psalms 119:105 says, "Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path." Quoted in whole from <https://www.apuritansmind.com/westminster-standards/the-illumination-of-the-holy-spirit-theological-traditionalism/>

Sadly, most Christians have little or no experience with, or conception of, the illumination ministry of the Holy Spirit. This wonderful experience is available to all believers without limit, as long as you meet the requirements for receiving it:

1) You must be born again through repentance from sin and having received Jesus Christ as your personal Savior.

John 3:3: "Jesus answered and said to him, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless a man is born from above, he cannot see the Kingdom of God."

2) You must be in a state of repentance from all sin and personally committed to serve the Lord Jesus Christ and follow Him at all costs.

"And he said to them all, "If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me"" Luke 9:23

3) You should ask for wisdom from God to understand his Word:

"If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God, that gives to all liberally, and does not reproach; and it shall be given him. But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering (for he that wavers is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed): for let not that man think that he shall receive anything from the Lord. A double minded man is unstable in all his ways." James 1:5-8

If you meet these three requirements from the Word of God, you can ask, and receive, the illumination of the Holy Spirit.

Now, any believer, no matter your level of spiritual maturity, can receive the illumination of the Holy Spirit. The question is, how much illumination, not if. If you meet the three requirements, you will receive much more than if you are immature and walking in the flesh.

Now, for those who falsely imagine that I received the Golden Ratio design like a "revelation" or a "teletype" from Heaven, consider this: it took me about 4 years from the start of this ministry in 2001 to discover the basic principles of the Golden Ratio design of the Bible!

And it took me an additional 14 years or so to finally begin to truly understand the overall Golden Ratio design all the way down to the sub-paragraph level.

But even today, there are some parts of the Golden Ratio design that I still don't understand; it is very, very difficult, to say the least, to understand both the large picture on the scale of the entire Bible, and also to understand the micro-picture on the paragraph and sub-paragraph levels.

So yes, while the Lord has AIDED me and guided me along the right path over the last 20 years of study, He did NOT hand it to me on a silver platter, so to speak, through the mechanism of inspired revelation. That is impossible! Only the Prophets and Apostles have enjoyed that wonderful gift.

To look at it from another direction, without the aid and guidance of the Lord, I would have utterly failed to accomplish much of anything, especially with respect to the Golden Ratio design. All of my education, training and experience in systems engineering BY THEMSELVES would never have succeeded in assembling the Golden Ratio design/arrangement of the Bible.

Jesus said, "I am the Vine, you are the branches; he that remains in me, and I in him, the same brings forth much fruit: for apart from me you can do nothing." John 15:5.

Yes, we humans can do a great many things in this world; but if we ever want to do something of ETERNAL IMPORTANCE AND VALUE, we must seek the Lord and his will above all things, and allow his will to work through us with as little fleshly hindrance as possible.

Galatians 6:14: "But God forbid that I should glory, except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ; by whom the world has been crucified to me; and I have been crucified to the world."

I just want to give FULL credit and glory for anything that is correct and true in the Golden Ratio design to the true Author of the Holy Scriptures, who is God the Holy Spirit, and to God the Father and God the Son, who saved me and called me into the glorious ministry of handling his precious Word in this amazing way.

Romans 16:27 "to God only wise be glory through Jesus Christ into the Ages. Amen."

Truly, without HIM, I can do nothing of eternal value! Amen.

To summarize: System Engineering provided the tools, but God the Holy Spirit provided the wisdom and understanding to discover and to rightly divide the Word of God. Praise the Lord, from whom all blessings flow! Amen.

The Golden Ratio design in the Fibonacci Sequence

If you forensically study the Bible and use the principles of systems engineering alone, you can arrive at the information that I found above concerning the 3 basic types of Bible documents. But even with that information, you will not have the information that you need to put it all together into a structure that makes sense. For example, even if I know that there are five Books in the Law of Moses and five Books in the Gospels, how can I know the correct way to arrange them in order?

The same goes for the Prophets, the history of Israel, and the rest of the documents outside of the Psalms. And within the Psalms, how can I correctly arrange the individual psalms?

The answer is a combination of the THEME and the Golden Ratio design.

First, let's look at the Golden Ratio design. How did I find it?

The Lord led me to find it after many years of theological preparation and Bible study. About 2004 to 2005, the Lord led me in my studies to the Golden Ratio. I had heard of it many years before, but I had no clue that it had any relationship to the Bible at that time.

As I studied the Fibonacci Sequence of 1, 2, 3, 5, 8, 13, 21, 34 etc, I noticed that the first five numbers of this sequence had interesting characteristics:

- 1) The number 1 is UNIQUE. It is the sum of zero + 1. Zero is nothing, so 1 stands alone.
- 2) The numbers 2 and 3 COMPLEMENT each other.

a) Using only the numbers of the Fibonacci Sequence, 2 is the sum of 1 + 1; 3 is the sum of 1 + 2.

1 + 1 = 2

b) Both of these numbers use 1 as the first addend; but 2 uses 1 as the second addend, while 3 uses 2 as the second addend:

The numbers 2 and 3 are like two sides of the same coin; they both have "1" in common as the first addend. Also, they are right next to each other in the sequence; so they have a tight relationship with each other.

- 3) The numbers 5 and 8 OPPOSE each other:

a) Using only the Fibonacci Sequence, 5 is the sum of 2 + 3, while 8 is the sum of 3 + 5:

2 + 3 = 5

3 + 5 = 8

b) Both of these numbers use 3 as an addend, but 5 has 3 as the second addend, while 8 has 3 as the first addend.

So the characteristics of the numbers 5 and 8 in the Fibonacci Sequence are that they oppose each other in the way that they sum.

Also, 5 and 8 are greatly separated from each other as integers (whole numbers), which is much different than 2 and 3, which are next to each other.

So, the characteristics of the first five numbers of the Fibonacci Sequence are one Unique, two Complementary, and two Opposites, or "UCC-OO".

The Golden Ratio can be derived from the Fibonacci Sequence; therefore, "UCC-OO" is a Golden Ratio design.

The overall Golden Ratio design of the Bible

- Complement Division One: History and Doctrine
 - Opposite Volume 1: The Laws of the Old Covenant Kingdom of Zion
 - Opposite Volume 2: The Prophets of the New Covenant Kingdom of Zion
 - Complement Volume 3: The Past and Future History of the Kingdom of Zion
 - Complement Volume 4: The Past and Future History of the King of Zion
 - Unique Volume 5: The Saints of the Kingdom of God
- Complement Division Two: Prayers (Psalms)
 - Unique Volume 1: The Saints of the Kingdom of Zion
 - Complement Volume 2: The Past and Future History of the King of Zion
 - Complement Volume 3: The Past and Future History of the Kingdom of Zion

Now, this brief outline shows only the five Volumes within Division One: History and Doctrine; and the three Volumes within Division Two: Prayers (The Psalms)

I have omitted the lower level Books within each Volume to simplify this picture.

This is a preview of the content that I am going to share with you below, in which I will provide the "why" for what you see in this outline.

Before I continue, notice that I labeled the higher group of Books as a VOLUME. No, this label is not found in the Bible, but it makes perfect sense. We use the term "Volume" to denote collections of books in other contexts, so why not use it here?

The lower levels of the Golden Ratio design use Books, Parts, Chapters, Sections, Paragraphs, and Subparagraphs, in that order. I cannot go into details on those levels in this place, because I would have to write several books on the subjects. The detailed studies on my website are the place to learn and understand how the Golden Ratio design works in the lowest part of the arrangement.

I have found, through my studies over many years, that man has discovered many systems of things that work; and I believe that they work, because God gave us the common sense to discover these things that work (like terminology for libraries of books). In other words, these systems of good ideas work well, because they came from God, even though they are not recorded in the Scriptures.

"For the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth" Ephesians 5:9

Now we need to be extra careful in what we define as "from God", especially anything outside of the Holy Scriptures. I'm only stating a general principle.

After I have completed Volume 5, I will begin with Division Two, the Psalms.

Go to Main Table of Contents

The Golden Ratio design of Volume 1: The Law of Moses or, The Laws of the Old Covenant Kingdom of Zion

I am going to give you two very simple and clear examples of the Golden Ratio design in Volumes 1 and 4 (see above). The Golden Ratio design of these two Volumes are easy to understand, so this exercise will provide the basis for moving on to the two more difficult Volumes 2 and 3.

So we will have to jump around in the outline from Volume 1 to 4, then back to 2 and 3; and we will end Division one with Volume 5, and then go on to Division two: The Psalms.

This is where the THEME comes into the picture, and how it works together with the Golden Ratio design:

- 1) The Law of Moses has FIVE Books: Genesis, Exodus, Numbers, Leviticus, and Deuteronomy.
- Unique

The theme of Genesis is "Jehovah chose Israel out of all nations to rebuild the Kingdom of Zion that Adam and Eve lost"
- Complement

The theme of Exodus is "Jehovah led Israel out of Egypt to Mount Sinai to receive his Laws"
- Complement

The theme of Numbers is "Jehovah led Israel from Mount Sinai to Canaan to conquer it"
- Opposite

The theme of Leviticus is "Jehovah gave the Laws of the Old Covenant Kingdom of Zion to Moses and Aaron"
- Opposite

The theme of Deuteronomy is "Moses gave the Laws of the Old Covenant Kingdom of Zion to Israel"

2) The traditional arrangement of the Law of Moses puts Leviticus between Exodus and Numbers; but as we will see, that doesn't make any sense when we look at the themes of each Book and compare them to each other.

First of all, notice that the number of Books in the Law of Moses is exactly FIVE: the same as the first five numbers of the Fibonacci Sequence. That is not a coincidence.

Notice that the theme of Genesis is UNIQUE in this group of five Books. It has the Creation, the Flood of Noah, the call of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; the journey of Jacob to Padan-Aram (Syria) to get a wife and family with great wealth, and later, his journey to Egypt. It is mostly historical content.

3) Then notice that the themes of Exodus and Numbers COMPLEMENT each other: Exodus (from Egypt to Mount Sinai), Numbers (from Mount Sinai to Canaan). They are like two sides of the same coin, which is the journey of Israel from Egypt to the Promised Land.

Also, these Books are a mix of historical and doctrinal content, roughly half and half.

4) Then notice that Leviticus and Deuteronomy are much different in their contents to the first three Books:

- Opposite

The theme of Leviticus is "Jehovah gave the Laws of the Old Covenant Kingdom of Zion to Moses and Aaron"
- Opposite

The theme of Deuteronomy is "Moses gave the Laws of the Old Covenant Kingdom of Zion to Israel"

In other words, Leviticus is full of direct revelation with Jehovah speaking directly to Moses and Aaron about how to correctly offer an animal sacrifice to Jehovah; in other words, it is a SPEECH (or a series of speeches) BY JEHOVAH. There is very little historical content in this Book.

Deuteronomy, on the other hand, is a SPEECH (or a series of speeches) BY MOSES to the children of Israel. The first half is about "Remember" where they came from and what they experienced. The second half is "Do" the Law of Moses in the Promised Land or perish.

So, these two Books OPPOSE each other, in that Leviticus is a SPEECH BY JEHOVAH, or a series of speeches; and Deuteronomy is also a SPEECH (or a series of speeches) BY MOSES.

Volume 1: The Law of the Old Covenant Kingdom of Zion

- Unique

Genesis: almost all history
- Complement

Exodus: roughly half history, and half doctrine
- Complement

Numbers: roughly half history, and half doctrine
-
- Opposite

Leviticus: almost all doctrine by Jehovah to Moses and Aaron
- Opposite

Deuteronomy: almost all doctrine by Moses to all Israel

Notice that Genesis, Exodus, and Numbers are closely related in their themes and content, while Leviticus and Deuteronomy are both opposed to each other; and much different in their content than Genesis, Exodus, and Numbers.

This is the Golden Ratio design; and it always shows a separation between the UCC and the OO parts of the design, so I put a space between the two groups to show that difference.

The main theme of any UCC-OO group in the Bible is always found in the "CC" part.

Astonishing, isn't it? The parallel between the characteristics of the first five numbers of the Fibonacci sequence and the characteristics of the five Books of Moses is undeniable and real.

But it gets even better! Let's take a look at the five Gospels to see the exact same parallel.

I am building a case that will prove that every part of the Bible follows a similar parallel design with the first five numbers of the Fibonacci sequence, which is a Golden Ratio design.

And what makes this case so powerful is that fact that the Golden Ratio design is based on the themes of each Book (or Volume or Part or Chapter or Section or Paragraph or Subparagraph), which means that the Golden Ratio design is based on the actual content of the Bible, which cannot be changed or argued with!

This is not a theory that I have forced onto the Bible; but rather it is an expression of the Bible itself, finally released to the full view of all after being concealed behind a false matrix of a poor arrangement for thousands of years.

Why God allowed his Word to be that way for so long, and only in the Last Days before his Return to judge the world finally reveal this truth is something that I don't fully understand; but my theory is that God wanted the world to believe his Word by faith rather than showing all of his truth from the beginning.

Now that the true form of the Word of God has been revealed to the world, it serves to add yet more conviction to their own condemnation, because they are openly rebelling against the truth, and now there is no excuse for their unbelief.

Go to Main Table of Contents

The Golden Ratio design of Volume 4: The Gospels of Jesus Christ or, The Past and Future History of the King of Zion

Now that I have thoroughly explained the Golden Ratio design in the Law of Moses, this process will be easier for the Gospels, because now you are beginning to understand how it works; and it works the exact same way in every part of the Bible!

So I will provide a shorter explanation and go directly to the Golden Ratio design of these Books.

Matthew and Luke oppose each other in their themes

There are FIVE Gospels, the same as the first five numbers of the Fibonacci Sequence, which again, is not a coincidence: Matthew, Luke, John, Mark, and Acts, in order of the Golden Ratio.

Obviously, Matthew must be first: "to the Jew first, and also to the Greek (or Gentile)" (Romans 2:10b).

Matthew was written to the Jews, to explain to them how and why Jesus of Nazareth was their Messiah. He cites Scripture from the Law and the Prophets to show the fulfillment of these in the Life, Death, and Resurrection of Jesus Christ.

Luke, however, was written to the Gentile Christians, not to the Jews:

"It seemed good to me also (having had perfect understanding of all things from the very first) to write to you in order, most excellent Theophilus, that you might know the certainty of those things in which you have been instructed." Luke 1:3-4

Theophilus was a Gentile Christian who was a student of Luke.

So, Matthew and Luke oppose each other in their content and in their themes: Jews vs Christians; much different in almost every way.

John and Mark are very similar to each other

But John and Mark are substantially different than Matthew and Luke. Neither one of them includes the birth of Jesus Christ or John the Baptist.

They both start (or almost immediately start) with the baptism of Jesus by John.

They both show Jesus Christ as a witness or an evangelist:

John: Jesus is a personal witness to Nicodemus, the woman at the well, the man born blind, and his disciples in the upper room and on the way to the Garden, and after his resurrection to his disciples by the Sea of Galilee.

Mark: Jesus is a mass evangelist or a prophet in the style of a documentary about D.L. Moody or Billy Sunday: He went to this city, and healed many and cast out demons; He went to another city and did this or that, etc.

The Book of Acts is UNIQUE in this group of FIVE, because it shows the Apostles as both personal evangelists and as prophets or mass evangelists, which is like a combination of the Gospels of John and Mark.

So, when you use the themes and content of each Book and compare them to the Golden Ratio design of UCC-OO, or its reverse, OO-CCU, the obvious and only correct arrangement of the Gospels is

Volume 4: The Past and Future History of the King of Zion

Opposite Matthew: doctrine aimed at the Lost or incomplete Jews

Opposite Luke: doctrine aimed at Christian Gentiles

Complement John: Jesus is a personal evangelist

Complement Mark: Jesus is a mass evangelist

Unique Acts: The Apostles are both personal and mass evangelists

Do you see? Once again, the principles of the Golden Ratio design are clear: Matthew and Luke are in their own category: opposed to each other and quite different than John, Mark, and Acts.

John and Mark are closely related, like two sides of the same coin, while the Acts is a unique example of the same or similar content in John and Mark, but with the Apostles instead of Jesus Christ.

There is a very good reason that the Golden Ratio design is reversed from the the Law of Moses. I will explain that later.

Go to Main Table of Contents

The Golden Ratio design of Volume 2: The Prophets or, The Prophets of the New Covenant Kingdom of Zion

Now I started with the two strongest groups in the Bible, the Law and the Gospels, in order to lay the foundation of understanding for applying those same principles to much more difficult areas of the Bible: the Prophets and the History of Israel. Once those are mastered, then the "rest of the Bible" (except Psalms) can be mastered as well.

Psalms is a study all of its own.

First, let's define what documents actually belong in the category of the Prophets:

The Minor Prophets

(There are 10 in all for the Minor Prophets: Micah, Hosea, Zephaniah, Joel, Amos, Habakkuk, Obadiah, Jonah, Nahum, and Malachi; Haggai does not belong in this group, which I will explain later on), Jeremiah, Isaiah, Ezekiel, Daniel, Zechariah.

Using the information I provided previously about the three different types of documents in the Bible, the ten Minor Prophets are the smallest, so each one is a chapter in a larger logical Book: the Minor Prophets.

Also, the Minor Prophets fit perfectly into the design of a large Book, because they organize well into two groups of five Chapters: both with the Golden Ratio design. I cannot go into detail in this study, but you can study this on my website with the web version or with the PDF version of the Bible.

Jeremiah, Isaiah, and Ezekiel are Books, each one divides into two parts, with five chapters in each part, for a total of ten chapters in each Book.

Daniel & Zechariah are each 1/2 Books with five chapters in each document, combined together, they make up a logical Book with two parts and a total of ten chapters.

So again, just like the Law and the Gospels, we find that there are FIVE Books in the Prophets. If we apply the Golden Ratio design to this group, we easily arrive at the correct arrangement, as follows, generally in historical order from the past to the future:

1) Minor Prophets: most of these were written before the fall of Jerusalem to the Babylonians: Amos, Zephaniah, Joel, Hosea, Micah, Habakkuk, Jonah, Nahum (8).

The last two, Obadiah and Malachi, were written after the fall (Obadiah) and after the return of the Jews from Persia (Malachi).

The overriding theme of these documents (not Books, but one single logical Book of ten chapters) is fierce, merciless FUTURE Judgment upon Israel, Judah, Zion, Babylon, Nineveh, Edom and the tribe of Levi. This is the common theme that ties them all together.

The reason that Haggai doesn't belong with these documents is that Haggai principally preaches rebuilding the Temple, not Judgment. He is a prophet, but with a different job, of exhortation to his people to get busy for God and rebuild the Temple. That theme doesn't fit in with the Minor Prophets.

Jeremiah

This Book contains 2 parts with 5 chapters in each part: total of ten chapters. It is a whole Book. The theme of Jeremiah is also Judgment, but upon Jerusalem and the people of Judah, up to and including the fall of Jerusalem to the Babylonians; and beyond for some time after being carried into Egypt with the Jews who fled from the Babylonians.

The content of Jeremiah covers these events, but includes prophecies of Judgment upon Babylon; and these possibly (although not clearly in my opinion) may apply to the Babylon of Revelation.

So, historically, Jeremiah fits well into a timeline that follows the Minor Prophets.

Jeremiah is the Opposite of the Minor Prophets, because the Minor Prophets predicted Judgment upon Israel and Judah, while Jeremiah shows the fulfillment of those prophecies.

Ezekiel

This Book contains 2 parts with 5 chapters in each part: total of ten chapters. It is a whole Book. The theme of Ezekiel is the Temples of Zion: its destruction under the Old Covenant with Jerusalem (part 1), and its rebuilding under the New Covenant during the Millennial Kingdom (part 2).

So Ezekiel is complementary to Isaiah: Temples and Kingdoms of Zion, destroyed under the Old Covenant and rebuilt under the New Covenant. They are like two sides of the same coin.

Ezekiel begins a "sea change" in the content of the Prophets as you move toward the end of Volume 2.

Both Ezekiel and Isaiah have much content related to the New Covenant and the End Times in general, similar to the "Book pair" of Daniel & Zechariah. But Ezekiel should be placed before Isaiah, because it is a transitional Book from the destruction of Jerusalem and the Temple by the Babylonians in the Book of Jeremiah.

The entire first part of Ezekiel is a detailed explanation by Jehovah God as to why He is bringing fierce judgment upon the city of Jerusalem and destroying his own Temple. So, in this way, it is a logical Book to place after Jeremiah.

The second half of Ezekiel is dedicated to prophecies related to the End times and the restoration of his Temple during the Millennial Kingdom of Christ.

Isaiah focuses on the Kingdoms of Israel and Judah, and the restoration of the earthly Kingdom of David during the Millennial Kingdom of Christ.

Then Daniel and Zechariah are both focused on the future Kingdom and King of Zion, starting with the exile to Babylon of the Jews.

So, there is a clear historical progression in these Books from the Minor Prophets to Daniel & Zechariah, if we use the Golden Ratio design of the Bible.

The internal Golden Ratio design of these Books provides additional proof that this is the correct arrangement; but I will not go into that detail here, because it requires a detailed study to explain it. I'm trying to keep this explanation on a very high level.

Isaiah

This Book contains 2 parts with 5 chapters in each part: total of ten chapters. It is a whole Book.

The theme of Isaiah is the Kingdoms of Zion; the content of part 1 covers the reigns of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah. This is the Old Covenant Kingdom of Zion.

Part 2 extends from Isaiah 40 to the end of the Book; and the content of this text reaches far into the future through the first and second Comings of Christ, and even into the Millennial Kingdom. This is the New Covenant Kingdom of Zion.

Daniel & Zechariah

These two documents have complementary themes; each one has five chapters, so combined together, they make a perfect logical Book of ten chapters, with the same design and arrangement as any other full-sized Book.

The theme of Daniel is the coming of the future Kingdom of Zion, which is the Millennial Kingdom.

The theme of Zechariah is the coming of the future KING of Zion, Jesus Christ the Messiah.

The combined Book of these two documents is unique among the other Prophets, but it shares much with Isaiah and Ezekiel with its themes that look far forward into the future.

Here is the outline:

Volume 2: The Prophets of the New Covenant Kingdom of Zion
Opposite	Book 2.1 (Minor Prophets): The Day of Judgment is coming
Opposite	Book 2.2 (Jeremiah): The Day of Judgment has arrived
Complement	Book 2.3 (Ezekiel): The Old and New Covenant Temples of Zion
Complement	Book 2.4 (Isaiah): The Old and New Covenant Kingdoms of Zion
Unique	Book 2.5 (Daniel & Zechariah): The Future Kingdom and King of Zion

The major differences of these Books can be illustrated like this:

Opposite	Book 2.1 (Minor Prophets): Prophecies the future destruction of Israel, Judah, Assyria and Babylon
Opposite	Book 2.2 (Jeremiah): Chronicles the actual destruction of Judah and Jerusalem in detail, and prophecies the destruction of Babylon and other nations
Complement	Book 2.3 (Ezekiel): 50% focus on the present; 50% focus on the future
Complement	Book 2.4 (Isaiah): 50% focus on the present; 50% focus on the future
Unique	Book 2.5 (Daniel & Zechariah): 100% focus on the future

One of the major problems that modern Christians suffer is the lack of Bible reading in their personal lives. Most Christians have barely read more than a few pages of any of these great Books of Holy Scripture! That's what makes this task of explaining the Golden Ratio design so difficult; and why I must spend so much time explaining what is actually in these Books. I hope that you are beginning to understand.

I also hope that you can see how the Golden Ratio design works with the group of the Prophets, because this will lay the foundation for understanding the Golden Ratio design in the following Volumes.

Go to Main Table of Contents

The Golden Ratio design of Volume 3: The History of Israel and Judah or, The Past and Future History of the Kingdom of Zion

Now, let's continue our study with the documents in the Bible that fit into the category of the history of the nation of Israel: past, present, and future.

The list includes Joshua & Judges, Samuel, Kings, Chronicles, and another logical Book of documents similar to the Minor Prophets that includes all of the post-Exile writings: Esther, Lamentations, Ezra, Nehemiah, and Haggai PLUS the Revelation.

Each one of the Post-Exile documents constitute a single chapter; Revelation contains five logical subdivisions (chapters) within, so it is a "half-Book". Together, this group constitutes a logical Book that completes Volume 3, which is the history of Israel. I will explain why this makes sense further on.

Joshua & Judges, or The Beginnings of the Old Covenant Kingdom of Zion

These two documents are "half-Books": each one has five major subdivisions; and the themes of each document complement the other in every way, like two sides of the same coin. These two half-books make up a logical whole Book.

Many scholars have noticed that Joshua and Judges are closely related, so this is nothing new. What is new is the understanding that the Golden Ratio design under-girds this relationship.

Joshua is the history of Israel starting with Joshua leading Israel to conquer the Promised Land of Canaan. This occurs in the first two chapters.

The next two chapters cover the distribution of the land by lot to the 12 tribes; and the last chapter ends with the tribes going to their tents to settle and build the new nation of Israel.

Judges is the complement of Judges, because it covers the next several hundred years of the struggles of the tribes to continue to follow Jehovah their God as they continually backslide into idolatry and then return to serve Jehovah, over and over again. God brought other nations against them to punish them for their idolatry, and gave them judges to lead them back to Him.

The theme of this logical Book is " The Beginnings of the Old Covenant Kingdom of Zion".

Joshua and Judges are a unique Book in this Volume of Books of the history of Israel.

Samuel, or The Construction of the Kingdom of Zion

This Book is a whole undivided Book, notwithstanding that your Bible version almost certainly has two separate books called 1 Samuel and 2 Samuel.

Historically, Samuel was originally a single Book; but the Septuagint divided it into two scrolls; and this division was carried forward into probably all modern Bible versions, except for the Kingdom Study Bible, which has restored the original unity of this Book as God gave it.

The same is true for both Kings and Chronicles. To my knowledge, the Kingdom Study Bible is the only Bible version in existence with the original unity of these three Books.

Returning to Samuel, the Book is logically divided into two parts: the reign of Saul and the reign of David. The original arrangement of 1 and 2 Samuel recognized this; but the division was made in the wrong place.

Part 2 actually begins with 2 Samuel 5:1 "Then all the tribes of Israel came to David to Hebron...", when David became the king of all Israel. Up to that point, the son of Saul, Ish-bosheth, had ruled most of Israel until his death; so the house of Saul still ruled Israel. So why include the reign of the son of Saul in 2 Samuel with David? That doesn't make any sense.

The Golden Ratio design of Samuel works perfectly when this logic is used. I cannot include a detailed study of Samuel in this preface, but I invite you to study it on your own in this free PDF version of the Kingdom Study Bible.

Samuel details the construction of the Kingdom of Zion, which began with Saul and ended with the Kingdom of David.

Therefore, the theme of Samuel is "The Construction of the Old Covenant Kingdom of Zion".

Kings, or The Destruction of the Kingdom of Zion

This Book is a whole undivided Book, notwithstanding that your Bible version almost certainly has two separate books called 1 Kings and 2 Kings.

This Book is logically divided into two parts: part 1 details how Solomon began his kingdom with great wisdom and building the Temple of Jehovah, but ended with great apostasy from Jehovah. This spiritual treachery was punished by Jehovah with the division of the Kingdom into two competing kingdoms: Israel and Judah, under his son, Rehoboam.

The rest of part one details ongoing warfare between the kings of Israel and Judah, and ends with the rise of Ahab king of Israel, who married Jezebel, a wicked woman who brought Baal worship into Israel.

Part two of Kings begins with Jehoshaphat king of Judah making peace and an alliance with Ahab king of Israel. This resulted in the marriage of their sons and daughters with each other; and effectively destroyed the worship of Jehovah through the Temple in Jerusalem for many years, until Jehovah sent Jehu to execute judgment on the house of Ahab. Athaliah held onto the throne of Judah for a time, but was finally overthrown and the rule of the sons of David resumed and the alliance with Israel was broken for good.

The rest of part two details the increasing chaos, revolts, and revolutions that ended with first, the capture of Israel by Assyria; and then the capture of Judah and Jerusalem by Babylon.

So the theme of Kings is really about the kings of Israel, much more than the kings of Judah, although they are included. The Temple in Jerusalem is part of the story, but not the main theme.

Kings Part 1: The Kingdom is divided and ends with unity again, but in apostasy from Jehovah.

Kings Part 2: The Kingdom is united, but is divided again, with only Judah returning to Jehovah; and eventually both kingdoms are invaded and destroyed.

The original division of 2 Kings begins with the death of Ahab. But the real division begins with the alliance between Ahab and Jehoshaphat which healed the division between Israel and Judah. So the original division was not far from the truth, but not close enough.

Samuel and Kings are companion Books that complement each other. Kings continues and ends the story that began with Samuel the prophet, as far as the story of the kings of Israel and Judah are concerned.

Samuel details the construction of the Kingdom of David, which was the Kingdom of Zion. Kings details the destruction of the Kingdom of Zion.

Therefore, the theme of Kings is "The Destruction of the Old Covenant Kingdom of Zion".

Chronicles, or The Pre-Exile Temple

This Book is a whole undivided Book, notwithstanding that your Bible version almost certainly has two separate books called 1 Chronicles and 2 Chronicles.

This Book is logically divided into two parts: part 1 begins with the genealogies of the messianic line, starting with Adam and ending with the sons of David, listing his descendants and others into the post-Exile period. While there are other lines listed other than David, the overall intent of these genealogies is to trace the Messianic line.

After that, the text picks up with the death of Saul and the rise of David as king of Israel; and it focuses on his preparations for building the Temple and his appointment of Solomon as the king who would build the Temple of Jehovah. Included are detailed descriptions of his reorganization of the tribe of Levi to serve Jehovah through the Temple, and also a more powerful and centralized government of Israel to serve his son Solomon.

This part ends with the construction of the Temple and the glory of the kingdom of Solomon.

If you think of part one of Chronicles as a great crescendo from the beginning to the completion of the Temple, that is an accurate way to understand it.

Part two of Chronicles is the reverse of part one: it is a series of peaks of the kings of Judah trusting in Jehovah and winning great victories; and valleys of these same kings falling into idolatry or just backsliding from Jehovah, with corresponding defeats of their armies.

Eventually, the backsliding becomes permanent, and Babylon invades the land and deports the people to Babylon.

So Chronicles is really about the worship of the one true God Jehovah through the Temple before the exile to Babylon; it is not about the kings of Judah, although they are main actors in the story.

Part one: the Temple is planned by David and built by Solomon.

Part two, the Temple (where Jehovah was worshiped) was abandoned and restored several times, before it was finally destroyed by the Babylonians.

Therefore, the theme of Chronicles is "The Pre-Exile Temple of Jehovah"

"The Post-Exile Temples"

This group of documents is very special, because it answers the question that many Christians have asked since it was written ~90 A.D.: where does Revelation belong in the Canon of Scripture?

Under the traditional arrangement, Revelation is placed at the end of the "New Testament"; however, a number of Christian theologians in history have argued that Revelation didn't even belong in the Bible, and thought of it as apocryphal in nature rather than apostolic.

The content is so different than the rest of the "New Testament" that it seems out of place; and in fact, that is the truth: it is out of place there! And it should belong exactly as I have placed it, in the Golden Ratio design at the end of Volume 3. Allow me to explain.

First of all, let's look at these documents as they are properly arranged by the Golden Ratio design:

Book 3.5 (Esther -> Revelation): The Post-Exile Temples of Jehovah

Complement Part 1: The Temple of Jehovah was rebuilt after the Babylonian captivity

Opposite Chapter 1.1 (Esther): Jehovah protected the people of Old Covenant Zion from genocide in captivity

Opposite Chapter 1.2 (Lamentations): The Prophet Jeremiah lamented the destruction of Zion during the Babylonian captivity

Complement Chapter 1.3 (Ezra): The Temple was rebuilt and the people purified from marriages with unbelievers

Complement Chapter 1.4 (Nehemiah): The wall of Jerusalem was rebuilt and the priesthood purified from corruption

Unique Chapter 1.5: (Haggai): Jehovah's presence and blessing were restored to the Temple

Complement Part 2: The Final Temple of Jehovah (Jesus Christ) will return to permanently re-establish the Kingdom of Zion

Opposite Chapter 2.1: The Son of God revealed the 2000-year Interregnum between the Old and New Covenant Kingdoms

Opposite Chapter 2.2: The Lamb initiates the Great Tribulation with the opening of seven seals, followed by six trumpets

Complement Chapter 2.3: The two Beasts will arise to rule the world for a short time

Complement Chapter 2.4: The Great Whore of Babylon will be destroyed

Unique Chapter 2.5: The New Heaven and New Earth

Now, since you have learned about how the Golden Ratio design works in the Minor Prophets, that ten small documents can constitute virtual chapters within a large Book, this should be relatively easy to understand.

The only remaining Hebrew Bible documents that fit into the category of the history of Israel are Esther -> Haggai; Revelation doesn't fit anywhere else, but amazingly, it does fit perfectly into this group as the other half of a whole Book in the Golden Ratio design.

It has five internal divisions (chapters); so, matched together with the five post-exile documents Esther, Lamentations, Ezra, Nehemiah, and Haggai, they make a perfect logical whole Book.

And when you look at the content of Revelation, you find repeated mentions of the Temple (11 times), tribe(s) (21 times), prophet(s) or prophetess (12 times), and the Ark of the Covenant. All these kinds of words are almost exclusively used in the Hebrew part of the Bible.

In addition, there is a great deal of language that is very similar to the great prophet of Israel, Ezekiel, in Revelation 4:6-8; 10:9-10; 11:1, 2 and other places could be cited.

So, Revelation is a perfect match for a place at the end of the history of Israel!

Now the Golden Ratio design itself also supports matching Revelation with the five post-exile documents as a logical Book in far more detailed ways than I can explain here, because it goes into the internal Golden Ratio design going down to the subparagraphs.

Now let's look at the themes of these documents, which you can see in the outline of Book 3.5.

Book 3.5 (Esther -> Revelation): The Post-Exile Temples of Jehovah

Complement Part 1: The Temple of Jehovah was rebuilt after the Babylonian captivity

Opposite Chapter 1.1 (Esther): Jehovah protected the people of Old Covenant Zion from genocide in captivity

Opposite Chapter 1.2 (Lamentations): The Prophet Jeremiah lamented the destruction of Zion during the Babylonian captivity

Complement Chapter 1.3 (Ezra): The Temple was rebuilt and the people purified from marriages with unbelievers

Complement Chapter 1.4 (Nehemiah): The wall of Jerusalem was rebuilt and the priesthood purified from corruption

Unique Chapter 1.5: (Haggai): Jehovah's presence and blessing were restored to the Temple

Complement Part 2: The Final Temple of Jehovah (Jesus Christ) will return to permanently re-establish the Kingdom of Zion

Opposite Chapter 2.1: The Son of God revealed the 2000-year Interregnum between the Old and New Covenant Kingdoms

Opposite Chapter 2.2: The Lamb initiates the Great Tribulation with the opening of seven seals, followed by six trumpets

Complement Chapter 2.3: The two Beasts will arise to rule the world for a short time

Complement Chapter 2.4: The Great Whore of Babylon will be destroyed

Unique Chapter 2.5: The New Heaven and New Earth

Notice that a common theme in all but one of these Chapters is the "Temple" or the priesthood, which, of course, served Jehovah through the Temple.

Also, Revelation itself is about the Return of Jesus Christ to permanently re-establish the Kingdom of Zion. The Bible tells us that Jesus is the Living Temple of Jehovah:

John 1:14 "And the Word became flesh, and Tabernacled among us; and we beheld his glory: the glory as of the Only Begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth."

John 2:18 - 21: Then the Jews answered and said to him, "What sign do you show us, seeing that you do these things?" Jesus answered and said to them, "Destroy this Temple, and in three days I will raise it up." Then the Jews said, "This Temple was forty-six years in construction; and will you raise it up in three days?" But he spoke of the Temple of his body.

So, in agreement with the fact that Jesus is the Living Temple of Jehovah, and the theme of all but one of the previous post-exile documents prominently includes the Temple in Jerusalem, I believe that the theme of this logical Book is correctly stated as:

Book 3.5 (Esther -> Revelation): The Post-Exile Temples of Jehovah

Now there is a lot more evidence from the Golden Ratio design that I'm not discussing here, because it would require much more time.

A detailed study is the place for that; and in fact, I have already provided detailed studies of this collection of documents here on my website:

https://www.phibible.org/info/GoldenRatioBibleStudies/English/GoldenRatioPETemples/GoldenRatio_PETOC.html

These studies are under revision, so you will not be able to reach them from the regular menu links. I am providing a direct link for the purpose of this study.

Let's place each of these Books, both logical and real, in the Golden Ratio design:

Volume 3: The Past and Future History of the Kingdom of Zion

Unique Book 3.1 (Joshua & Judges): The Beginnings of the Old Covenant Kingdom of Zion

Complement Book 3.2 (Samuel): The Construction of the Old Covenant Kingdom of Zion

Complement Book 3.3 (Kings): The Destruction of the Old Covenant Kingdom of Zion

Opposite Book 3.4 (Chronicles): The Pre-Exile Temple of Jehovah

Opposite Book 3.5 (Esther -> Revelation): The Post-Exile Temples of Jehovah

Notice on the left side of each Book is a marker that indicates the Golden Ratio design: Joshua & Judges is unique in this group; and Samuel and Kings complement each other in their themes, because they are about the construction and destruction of the Kingdom.

But also notice that Book 3.4 (The Pre-Exile Temple of Jehovah) and Book 3.5 (The Post-Exile Temples of Jehovah) are a separate group, because their themes focus on the Temple rather than the Kingdom.

Chronicles is about the PRE-exile Temple (singular), while Book 3.5 is about the POST-exile TEMPLES (plural). So Books 3.4 and 3.5 oppose each other in their themes.

Thus, the Golden Ratio design works perfectly with these Bible documents as they are shown in this outline.

Why is Book 3.5 "Temples" plural? Because there are several Temples in this group:

- 1) The Temple in Jerusalem was rebuilt by the Jews after their return from captivity
- 2) The Living Temple of Jehovah, Jesus Christ
- 3) The restored Temple in Jerusalem during the Great Tribulation
- 4) You might even include the Temple in Heaven that is mentioned in Revelation 7:15

So, "The Post-Exile Temples of Jehovah" is a theme that accurately and appropriately summarizes the content of these documents.

There is one more point that I must make before moving on to Volume 5:

The Golden Ratio design of the Bible is based on LITERAL INTERPRETATION, not spiritualization or figures of speech.

Did you notice that each one of the themes of each Book compressed the content of each Book down into a short phrase? This is the power of the Golden Ratio design, and why it will endure.

Literal interpretation is powerful, because themes based on the actual content cannot be argued with. If the theme accurately and completely summarizes the entire Volume/Book/Part/Chapter/Section/Paragraph/Subparagraph, then you have a perfect "bird's eye view" of that Volume, Book or division of text.

And when these literally interpreted themes are assembled together correctly, they will show the Golden Ratio design, every single time!

My friend, we are only skimming the surface of the Golden Ratio design here. There is so much more; but I dare not go that deep in this study, because it would be like receiving a fire hose of information; and that would not help those of you who are just now learning this topic.

We need to keep this study as light as possible for now; and later, when you are ready, you can dive into the detailed studies of each Book, which are available on my website for much of the Bible.

I suggest that you take an extended break between each of these study sections to rest your spirit and mind. It would also benefit you to read this material more than one time, because most people do not have a photographic memory, and we need to think about the content. Amen.

The Golden Ratio design of Volume 5: The Saints of the Kingdom of God

Now the final Volume within the first division of the Bible (Psalms is the second division) is a logical collection of every other document, except Psalms, within the Traditional Canon that has not yet been included in one of the other Volumes:

- Unique Volume 5: The Saints of the Kingdom of God
- Unique Book 5.1 (Hebrews & Romans): The Door into the Kingdom of God
- Complement Book 5.2 (Job & Proverbs): Discipline and Wisdom in the Kingdom of God
- Complement Book 5.3 (Ecclesiastes -> 1 John): Fellowship and Works in the Kingdom of God
- Opposite Book 5.4 (1 & 2 Corinthians): The Way of Inward Spiritual Maturity
- Opposite Book 5.5 (1 Thessalonians -> Ephesians): The Way of Outward Spiritual Warfare

Since you have now studied how the Golden Ratio design works in every other part of the Bible, except Psalms, understanding how Volume 5 is organized according to the Golden Ratio should make perfect sense to you, especially if you have read through every document in the Bible at least a few times.

Book 5.1 (Hebrews & Romans)

Everyone who has read these documents knows that the main topic of both of them is Soteriology, or the doctrine of Salvation. For that reason alone, these two documents belong together; but it goes much deeper than that.

- U Book 5.1 (Hebrews & Romans): The Door into the Kingdom of God

In this study, I will only give you a description of the contents of these documents rather than the detailed outline, because I want to keep it on an "easy to digest" level. You can see the detailed outline of all of Volume 5, including Hebrews & Romans, here:

https://www.phibible.org/Bible_Pages/Volume5/Volume5TOCEngEsp.html#Volume_5:

Hebrews was written to explain to the Jews who were already saved under the Old Covenant before the crucifixion of Jesus Christ, that they must transfer their faith from the Old Covenant system of repeated animal sacrifices to the New Covenant system of one final Sacrifice for all time, never to be repeated, that was accomplished by the Lord Jesus Christ, who is also our great High Priest in Heaven.

This is very important to understand, because it is not the exact same message as Romans, which is about the Gospel of Jesus Christ (from saving faith to mature faith). Romans is tailored to Jews and Gentiles, but mainly Gentile Christians.

Hebrews is about "completion" for Jews under the Old Covenant who were already saved when Jesus was crucified, but now needed to transfer their faith to the Finished Work of Christ from the animal sacrifices in the Temple.

Romans is about the doctrines of Salvation "from [saving] faith to [mature] faith". It does not mention the High Priesthood of Jesus, except a passing reference to his intercessory work on our behalf (Romans 8:34).

These documents are a perfect complement for each other in their themes alone.

But the Golden Ratio design reveals also that each one has five chapters internally, so Hebrews and Romans are each a "half-Book"; which, when placed together, constitute a logical whole "Book".

The theme of Hebrews and Romans is "Salvation", "Soteriology", or "The Door into the Kingdom of God." So it is unique in Volume 5 with this theme. The other Books deal with different topics that may include discussion of the doctrines of Salvation, but not as their central themes.

Book 5.2 (Job & Proverbs): Discipline and Wisdom in the Kingdom of God

Job & Proverbs are another pair of 1/2 Books with five chapters in each document. When they are paired together in the Golden Ratio design, they make up a perfect whole Book.

Their themes complement each other as well:

- Complement Part 1 (Job): The discipline of Jehovah in the believer’s life
- Complement Part 2 (Proverbs): The wisdom of Jehovah for the believer’s life

Both Job and Proverbs were originally part of the Hebrew Bible, so a legitimate question might be: why are you mixing the Hebrew text with the Greek text (in the original languages)?

The answer goes to a deeper question of how the Bible overall should be arranged, so I will touch on it briefly here:

The "Old and New Testament" (so-called) is the typical way that most Bible versions are arranged; that is to say, the Hebrew Bible goes in one bucket, and the Greek Bible goes in another bucket.

The reasoning goes like this: The Greek part of the Bible was written after the resurrection of Christ, so it is the "New Testament"; and everything else was written before that, so it is the "Old Testament".

The presumed Scriptural foundation for this teaching is non-existent, even though it is widely taught in probably every church, Sunday school, Bible college and seminary that it is a fact.

The reality is that the terms "Old Testament" and "New Testament" were made up out of whole cloth by Tertullian, and they were adopted as a legitimate concept by the early churches as an easy and quick way to arrange the Bible documents, even though it was based on a theory rather than the Bible itself.

This is one of those theories that have been passed down to modern Christians as fact; when the truth is that it was always only a theory that was widely accepted, because they did not know about the Golden Ratio design of the Bible!

The Golden Ratio design of the Bible proves that the Bible should not be arranged by the original languages, but by their themes! When we do that, we find that the Books and documents of the Bible fit perfectly into the Golden Ratio design, which is powerful evidence that the Golden Ratio design is from God, and is not a man made concept that is forced on the Scriptures.

If the Golden Ratio design were not of God, then the Scriptures would not fit into it, and it would look forced and artificial; but, praise the Lord, this is not the case.

It is extremely important for all believers to understand that we have received a great deal of tradition from our past that is not in agreement with the Bible! We need to go to the Holy Bible to determine what is true and what is not true, rather than rely on the beliefs of Christians from the past. Some of these traditions are Biblically correct and others are not Biblically correct.

I have found that many Independent, Fundamental Baptists are relying on traditions from the past to guide their teachings, in spite of the fact that IFB Christians profess to be Bible Christians! This is not a good thing, and needs to change.

The point here is that Job and Proverbs fit perfectly into Volume 5: the Saints of the Kingdom of God, because they are not doctrinal documents in the sense of Romans or Ephesians, but instead they focus on philosophical topics that trouble many immature Christians in particular; but they can also vex mature Christians as well.

Job: Why do bad things happen to good people? A topic that Christians often struggle with.

Proverbs: The wisdom of Jehovah for our lives in almost any circumstance, expressed in extremely useful and timeless proverbs, no matter what Dispensation we live in.

- Proverbs 19:12 "The king’s wrath is like the roaring of a lion; but his favor is like dew upon the grass."
- Proverbs 16:5 "Every one that is proud in heart is an abomination to Jehovah: though hand joins in hand, he shall not be unpunished."

Yes, they do mention animal sacrifices on occasion, but the vast majority of both documents are focused on philosophical topics; and the references to animal sacrifices (which are few) can easily be understood in the context of the New Covenant; so this is not a problem.

Go to Main Table of Contents

Book 5.3: Fellowship and Works in the Kingdom of God (Ecclesiastes -> 1 John)

Similar to the Minor Prophets, this is another group of ten individual documents, that when grouped together by their themes, constitute another logical Book in the Golden Ratio design of the Bible.

Book 5.3 (Ecclesiastes -> 1 John): Fellowship and Works in the Kingdom of God

Complement Part 1: Fellowship in the Kingdom of God

Opposite Chapter 1.1 (Ecclesiastes): Fellowship with the world results in frustration and emptiness

Opposite Chapter 1.2 (Philippians): Fellowship with Jesus Christ results in peace and joy

Complement Chapter 1.3 (Ruth): Fellowship in Courtship

Complement Chapter 1.4 (Song of Solomon): Fellowship in Marriage

Unique Chapter 1.5 (Philemon): Fellowship with Christian Brothers

Complement Part 2: Works in the Kingdom of God

Opposite Chapter 2.1 (Titus): Adorn your faith in Christ with godly works

Opposite Chapter 2.2 (James): Demonstrate your faith with godly works

Complement Chapter 2.3 (3 John): Walk in Biblical truth in spite of the power-seekers in the Assembly

Complement Chapter 2.4 (2 John): Walk in Biblical truth in spite of the antichrists in the world

Unique Chapter 2.5 (1 John): Walk in obedience to his Commandments

Now this group will probably challenge you more than all of the other groups combined! But let me explain it to you first.

There is so much misunderstanding about these and other documents of the Bible; and it is all caused by the traditional arrangement that places Philippians with the other writings of Paul; and the reasoning for that assumes that because Paul wrote Philippians, Ephesians, Colossians, and Philemon while he was in prison (the prison epistles), this is a reason to group them all together; or at least to group the first three together.

You see, the manner in which our Bibles have been organized until now has been extremely lazy and poorly thought through. For example, Hebrews was placed with the "General Epistles" far away from Romans, which was placed immediately after the Book of Acts.

Now I have already proven that Hebrews and Romans belong together because of their themes; and in the Golden Ratio design, they make up two halves of a logical whole Book.

So the Golden Ratio design corrects many of these poorly conceived arrangement schemes with the truth.

God gave the Golden Ratio design along with the Holy Scriptures when they were originally inspired by the Holy Spirit thousands of years ago. The original arrangers of the Bible did not know about the Golden Ratio design; but now we do.

The themes of each document combined with the Golden Ratio design tell us how to properly arrange these Scriptures.

What is a theme? It is the entire content of the document (it could also be a Volume, Book, Part, Chapter, Section, Paragraph, or Subparagraph) boiled down into a single concise sentence, so that it correctly captures the literal content of that document and expresses it in a way that makes sense.

So if you look at the outline of Book 5.3 above, you can see that there are two themes in this logical Book: Fellowship and Works.

If you are familiar with the content of these documents, then my job of explaining it to you is much easier; if not, then this will only sound like a theory, but I can assure you that it is very much real and true.

Chapter 1.1 (Ecclesiastes): Fellowship with the world results in frustration and emptiness

The content of this document is, or should be, well understood. Solomon the king of Israel had everything that a man could possibly hope for in the time that he lived: hundreds of wives, gold and silver without measure, farms, orchards, servants, land etc. BUT he realized that his life was empty and meaningless without God! Material possessions and prosperity without God at the center of it all meant nothing in the long run.

Ecclesiastes 5:13-17: "There is a great evil which I have seen under the sun; namely, riches kept for its owners to their harm; but those riches perish by misfortune. And then he begets a son, and there is nothing in his hand to give him. As he came forth of his mother's womb, naked shall he return to go as he came, and shall take nothing of his labor, which he may carry away in his hand. And this also is a great evil, that in all points as he came, so shall he go. And what gain does he have who has labored for the wind? All his days also he eats in darkness, and he has much sorrow and wrath with his sickness."

The essence or theme of this document is that fellowship only with the world results in frustration and emptiness. Solomon used a lot of text to make this point; and ends with this statement:

Ecclesiastes 12:13-14: "Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: fear God, and keep his Commandments: for this is the whole duty of man: for God shall bring every work into Judgment, with every secret thing, whether it is good, or whether it is evil."

Chapter 1.2 (Philippians): Fellowship with Jesus Christ results in peace and joy

Philippians are the opposite theme from Ecclesiastes: if your heart and life revolves around the Lord Jesus Christ, and not the world, then you will have peace and joy!

Philippians 4:4-7: "Rejoice in the Lord always; and again I say, rejoice. Let your gentleness be known to all men; the Lord is near. Be anxious for nothing; but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which passes all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus."

Chapter 1.3 (Ruth): Fellowship in Courtship

Ruth and the Song of Solomon complement each other in their themes, because they are very similar.

Ruth is the story of a Jewish family who fled to Moab to escape famine. But during this time, the father died, and the two sons died also, leaving behind a widow and two daughters in law. One of them returned with the widow to Israel, and through a process of Divine guidance, the widowed daughter, Ruth, married Boaz, a wealthy landowner. These two were ancestors of king David.

So the theme of this document is DATING or COURTSHIP. It is not an allegory of the "church" and Jesus! This is a perfect example of the utter nonsense that we are often taught about the Bible, which comes to us from centuries past. We assume that we are hearing or reading truth, because it was written by some saint from long ago; and it sounds good on the surface, too.

But when we investigate the text and read it thoroughly and AT FACE VALUE, then we realize that the idea that this is an allegory of something else it completely false.

Ruth is a wonderful instruction manual for Christians today on how to find a spouse:

- 1) Ruth was trusting in the Lord for salvation
- 2) Boaz was trusting in the Lord for salvation
- 3) Both were walking by faith, and God guided them together in the circumstances of life according to his will; and they both recognized this and followed through, and the will of God was done in their lives, resulting in the birth of king David three generations later.

Chapter 1.4 (Song of Solomon): Fellowship in Marriage

The Song of Solomon complements Ruth, because it is about the trials and blessings of marriage within the will of God.

There is a lot of poetry within this story, but the basic outline is this:

§Unique Introduction: Solomon courted the Shunammite woman (1:1 - 6)

¶Opposite The Shulamite woman complimented Solomon (1:1 - 4)

¶Opposite The Shulamite woman was shy and withdrawn (1:5 - 6)

§Complement Body: The marriage of Solomon and the Shulamite woman had blessings and trials (1:7 - 6:12)

¶Opposite Solomon and the daughters of Jerusalem complimented the Shulamite woman (1:7 - 17)

¶Opposite The Shulamite woman recalled her relationship with Solomon (2:1 - 3:5)

¶Complement Solomon and his wife were united in marriage (3:6 - 5:1)

¶Complement Solomon and his wife were temporarily separated (5:2 - 16)

¶Unique Solomon wooed his wife with praise (6:1 - 12)

§Complement Conclusion: The marriage of Solomon and the Shulamite woman was strong (6:13 - 8:14)

¶Complement The Shulamite woman praised her husband before the daughters of Jerusalem (6:13 - 8:7)

¶Complement Solomon favored the Shulamite woman (8:8 - 14)

This document is also NOT an allegory about Christ and his "church"! It is literally about fellowship within marriage, and only marriage. Please stop reading things into the Bible that are not there!

Chapter 1.5 (Philemon): Fellowship with Christian Brothers

Finally, the last chapter in Part 1 is Philemon. This is also about fellowship, but about fellowship with Christian brothers in Christ.

Philemon 1:4-7: "I thank my God, making mention of you always in my prayers (hearing of your love and faith, which you have toward the Lord Jesus, and toward all saints), that the communication of your faith may become effective by the acknowledging of every good thing which is in you in Christ Jesus: for we have great joy and consolation in your love, because the affections of the saints are refreshed by you, brother."

So let's recap the chapters within Part one to understand the context of where we have been:

Part 1: Fellowship in the Kingdom of God

Opposite Chapter 1.1 (Ecclesiastes): Fellowship with the world results in frustration and emptiness

Opposite Chapter 1.2 (Philippians): Fellowship with Jesus Christ results in peace and joy

Complement Chapter 1.3 (Ruth): Fellowship in Courtship

Complement Chapter 1.4 (Song of Solomon): Fellowship in Marriage

Unique Chapter 1.5 (Philemon): Fellowship with Christian Brothers

There should not be any doubt within your minds at this point that fellowship is the obvious and clear thread that binds all of these documents together.

And notice that you have a mix of both Hebrew text and Greek text in this combination! This proves, yet again, that God the Holy Spirit inspired both Hebrew and Greek text in such a way that the Golden Ratio design of the Bible became possible, once it was all complete.

The same one, true God is the true Author of ALL of the Holy Scripture; and the Golden Ratio design is the proof of that statement.

The Golden Ratio design is NOT Scripture, per se: it is the correct FORM and ARRANGEMENT that only the true Scriptures of the Traditional Canon can fit into. You can think of it like "the fingerprints of God", as it were. We see the Golden Ratio design in the Holy Scriptures, and it is like a SIGN that points to one Divine Author of it all; as if to say (not literally), "This is my Word!"

It is the proof of Divine Inspiration!

Now, let's continue with the chapters in Part 2:

Part 2: Works in the Kingdom of God

Opposite Chapter 2.1 (Titus): Adorn your faith in Christ with godly works

Opposite Chapter 2.2 (James): Demonstrate your faith with godly works

Complement Chapter 2.3 (3 John): Walk in Biblical truth in spite of the power-seekers in the Assembly

Complement Chapter 2.4 (2 John): Walk in Biblical truth in spite of the antichrists in the world

Unique Chapter 2.5 (1 John): Walk in obedience to his Commandments

Chapter 2.1 (Titus): Adorn your faith in Christ with godly works

Titus contains instructions from the Apostle Paul to his missionary assistant Titus; thus, it is called a "pastoral epistle".

But when we examine the entire letter (I prefer "letter" to "epistle", it is the same thing), we find that "good works" or the concept thereof are mentioned over and over again:

Titus 1:16: "They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable and disobedient; and to every good work reprobate."

Titus 2:7-8: "in all things showing yourself a pattern of good works: in doctrine showing incorruptness, seriousness, and sincerity; having sound speech that cannot be condemned, so that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having nothing evil to say about you."

Titus 3:8: "This is a faithful saying; and these things I will that you affirm constantly, that they who have believed God may be thoughtful, and be leading in good works; these things are good and beneficial to men."

Titus 2:9-10: "Exhort servants to be obedient to their own masters, and to please them well in all things; not quarreling; not pilfering, but showing all good fidelity, that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Savior in all things."

This last text helps to construct an accurate theme for this letter: Adorn your faith in Christ with godly works.

Chapter 2.2 (James): Demonstrate your faith with godly works

This letter from James repeatedly emphasizes the need to "put shoes on your faith in Christ", as some preacher once said. In other words, don't just say that you believe in Christ, act like it too!

James 1:22-25: "But be doers of the Word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves. For if anyone is a hearer of the Word, and not a doer, he is like a man beholding his natural face in a mirror: for he beholds himself, and goes his way, and immediately forgets what manner of man he was. But whoso looks into the perfect Law of liberty, and continues in it (he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work), this man shall be blessed in his deed."

James 2:14: "What good is it, my brethren, though a man says he has faith, but has no works? Can faith alone save him?"

James 2:19-20: "You believe that there is one God; you do well; the demons also believe, and tremble. But will you know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead?"

So the theme of James is "Demonstrate or prove your faith [or, prove that you are saved] with godly works", which is the opposite of Titus "Adorn your faith with godly works".

In James, there is a command to prove that your faith is real; but in Titus, the faith is assumed, and good works are urged to be done; so the themes oppose each other.

Chapter 2.3 (3 John): Walk in Biblical truth in spite of the power-seekers in the Assembly

These two small letters from the Apostle John are almost identical in size (extremely small), and complementary in their content or themes:

3 John 1:4: "I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth."

3 John 1:9 -10 "I wrote to the Assembly to do this; but Diotrephes does not receive us, who loves to have the preeminence among them. Therefore, if I come, I will remember his deeds which he does: disparaging us with malicious talk."

3 John 1:11 "Beloved, do not follow that which is evil, but that which is good; he that does good is of God; but he that does evil has not seen God."

So the theme of 3 John is "Walk in Biblical truth in spite of power-seekers in the Assembly"

Chapter 2.4 (2 John): Walk in Biblical truth in spite of the antichrists in the world

2 John 1:4: "I rejoiced greatly, that I found of your children walking in truth, as we have received a Commandment from the Father."

2 John 1:6b-7: "This is the Commandment, that, as you have heard the doctrine of Christ from the beginning, you should walk in it: for many deceivers have entered into the world, who do not confess that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh: this is a deceiver and an antichrist."

So the theme of 2 John is "Walk in Biblical truth in spite of the antichrists in the world."

Chapter 2.5 (1 John): Walk in obedience to his Commandments

1 John is larger than 2 or 3 John, and contains a similar, yet unique theme: to walk in obedience to his commandments:

1 John 2:3-4: "And by this we know that we know him: if we do his Commandments. He that says, "I know him", but does not do his Commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him."

1 John 3:21-24: "Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, then do we have confidence toward God; and whatsoever we ask, we receive from him, because we keep his Commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight. And this is his Commandment, that we should believe on the Name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, as he gave us Commandment. And he that keeps his Commandments dwells in him, and he in him."

Conclusion: Now I spent a lot of extra time and effort with this particular book, because it will be very controversial among some who know little about the Bible. And you deserve an explanation as to "Why?", because it is important for all believers to know and understand the truth.

Here is the outline of this incredible logical Book once again. Amazing, isn't it? Praise the Lord! Amen.

Book 5.4 (1 & 2 Corinthians): The Way of Inward Spiritual Maturity

Now, let's take a moment to look again at the overall outline of Volume 5 so far:

- Volume 5: The Saints of the Kingdom of God
 - Unique Book 5.1 (Hebrews & Romans): The Door into the Kingdom of God
 - Complement Book 5.2 (Job & Proverbs): Discipline and Wisdom in the Kingdom of God
 - Complement Book 5.3 (Ecclesiastes -> 1 John): Fellowship and Works in the Kingdom of God
 - Opposite Book 5.4 (1 & 2 Corinthians): The Way of Inward Spiritual Maturity
 - Opposite Book 5.5 (1 Thessalonians -> Ephesians): The Way of Outward Spiritual Warfare

You should be able to detect an important trend in the progress of these Books, from saving faith to mature faith, exactly as Paul expressed it in his letter to the Romans.

After a person is saved, do they immediately begin studying letters like Galatians, Colossians, and Ephesians and learning all about the deep subjects of theology taught in those letters? No way!

In fact, like in Sunday school, the way to teach new Christians is with the basics: obedience, faith, prayer, good works, answering great questions like "Why do bad things happen to good people?".

These are the subjects being taught in the first three logical Books in this Volume! In fact, 1 John (the last chapter of Book 5.3) ends with this text:

1 John 5:21: "Little children, keep yourselves from idols. Amen."

So the first three Books are for "little children" in their faith in Christ, to help them become established and consistent in their new walk with Christ.

But the last two Books in this Volume are intended to help new Believers who are growing in their faith and want more than the basics.

1 and 2 Corinthians are a pair of documents with five divisions each (or, chapters); and it is obvious that they belong together; even in the traditional arrangement, these documents are placed one after the other in order.

But the Golden Ratio design shows us that they are two logical halves of a whole Book.

The theme of 1 Corinthians is "The Way of Inward Spiritual Maturity."

- I Corinthians 1:12: "Now this I say, that every one of you says, “I am of Paul”, and “I of Apollos”, and “I of Cephas”, and “I of Christ.”
- I Corinthians 4:14-15: "I do not write these things to shame you, but as my beloved sons I warn you: for though you have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet you do not have many spiritual fathers: for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the Gospel."
- I Corinthians 13:4-7 "Selfless love suffers long, and is kind; selfless love does not envy; selfless love does not vaunt itself, is not proud, does not behave itself unseemly, no busca lo suyo, no se irrita fácilmente, no piensa el mal; rejoices not in iniquity, but rejoices in the truth; bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, and endures all things."

I cannot do full justice to the content of this important letter of Paul in this space; but the essence of it is shown in the outline of the chapters that show the themes of each one in the Golden Ratio design:

- Complement Part 1 (1 Corinthians): Mature in your faith by glorifying God in the Assembly
 - Unique Chapter 1.1: Glorify God in the Assembly through selfless unity around Christ and the Gospel
 - Complement Chapter 1.2: Glorify God in your body through selfless love
 - Complement Chapter 1.3: Glorify God in the conscience of others through selfless love
 - Opposite Chapter 1.4: Focus your worship services on the edification of others rather than yourself
 - Opposite Chapter 1.5: Be abounding in the ministry of the Gospel because of the Resurrection

In this letter, Paul taught the Corinthian believers to glorify God through selfless love: in the Assembly, in their bodies, in the conscience of others, in their worship services, and to abound in the ministry of the Gospel.

Learning to focus on larger things than yourself and your own life is crucial to spiritual growth of believers in Jesus Christ. God cannot use anyone who refuses to rise above themselves.

In other words, 1 Corinthians is all about SPIRITUAL MATURITY.

2 Corinthians goes a step further than the spiritual maturity on the outside; it focuses on glorification of God in our spirits:

- 2 Corinthians 3:17-18: "Now the Lord is the Spirit; and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty. But we all, with unveiled face beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory into glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord."
- 2 Corinthians 4:5-6: "For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake: for God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, has shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ."
- 2 Corinthians 7:1: "Therefore having these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit; perfecting holiness in the fear of God."

This letter is intensely spiritual, and is difficult to read and understand for most Christians; but if read and understood, it is a great blessing!

Here is the outline that shows the themes of each chapter in the Golden Ratio design:

- Complement Part 2 (2 Corinthians): Mature in your faith by glorifying God in your life
 - Unique Chapter 2.1: Manifest the fragrance of Christ in your lives and forgive the brother who had sinned
 - Complement Chapter 2.2: Keep the eternal consequences of your life in constant view
 - Complement Chapter 2.3: Keep a light hold on the things of this world
 - Opposite Chapter 2.4: Do not follow false apostles of Satan
 - Opposite Chapter 2.5: Follow the teachings of the true Apostle, Paul

Book 5.5 (1 Thessalonians -> Ephesians): The Way of Outward Spiritual Warfare

Finally, we have arrived at the last logical Book in Volume 5!

This Book is the opposite of Book 5.4 (1 and 2 Corinthians), because it is about theology and the core doctrines of the Christian faith, rather than the basics of spiritual maturity.

You can learn good theology, but still be spiritually immature; it is far better to be spiritually mature AND have good theology to go with it and give it a strong "backbone". That is why God put Corinthians before this Book in the Golden Ratio design.

Now this logical Book includes all of the remaining documents of the Bible, except for Psalms, which has its own division in the Bible in the Golden Ratio design.

Chapter 2.5 (Ephesians): The Holy Position of the New Covenant Child of God in the Body of Christ

First of all, please notice how there is a progression in the themes of each Chapter from 1 Peter on to Ephesians, from external suffering to internal theology.

Also notice how the previous Book of the Corinthians (5.4) gave us a perfect lead-in to this Book with the final two Chapters. Do you see the parallel with the two Parts of Book 5.5?

- Chapter 2.4: Do not follow false apostles of Satan

Chapter 2.5: Follow the teachings of the true Apostle, Paul

- Part 1 (1 Peter -> Jude): Reject the theology of the false teachers

Part 2 (Galatians -> Ephesians: Follow the theology of the true Apostles and Prophets of God

Now, let's look at the individual Chapters of Part 1 of Book 5.5:

- Complement

Part 1 (1 Thessalonians -> 2 Thessalonians): Reject the theology of the false teachers
- Opposite

Chapter 1.1 (1 Thessalonians): Believers are appointed by God to suffer for righteousness' sake
- Opposite

Chapter 1.2 (1 Peter): Endure suffering to purify your faith in Christ
- Complement

Chapter 1.3 (2 Peter): The Day of the Lord will bring destruction upon the False Teachers
- Complement

Chapter 1.4 (Jude): The Lord will return with his saints to judge the false teachers
- Unique

Chapter 1.5 (2 Thessalonians): The Day of Christ will bring destruction upon unbelievers and rebels
- 1 Thessalonians

This letter teaches us that believers are appointed by God to suffer for the sake of righteousness and abstain from sexual sins:

1 Thessalonians 3:1-4: "Therefore when we could no longer forbear, we thought it good to be left at Athens alone; and we sent Timotheus, our brother, and minister of God, and our fellow-laborer in the Gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith; that no man should be moved by these afflictions. For yourselves know that we are appointed to this: for truly, when we were with you, we told you before that we should suffer tribulation: even as it came to pass, and you know."

1 Thessalonians 4:3-5: "for this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that you should abstain from fornication; that every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honor, and not in the passion of evil desire, even as the Gentiles that do not know God."

The themes of 1 Peter and 1 Thessalonians oppose each other: we must endure suffering to purify our faith in Christ vs. we are appointed to suffering for the sake of righteousness.

- 1 Peter

Part 1 of Book 5.5 " Reject the theology of the false teachers" is the complement of Part 2: "Follow the theology of the true Apostles and Prophets of God."

The Golden Ratio design could not be more clear in this arrangement.

This letter teaches us to endure suffering to purify your faith in Christ. It is the thematic opposite of 1 Thessalonians.

1 Peter 1:6-7 "In which salvation you greatly rejoice; though now for a season, if it is necessary, you are distressed through manifold temptations: that the trial of your faith (being much more precious than of gold that perishes, though it is tested with fire) might be found unto praise and honor and glory at the Revelation of Jesus Christ."

1 Peter 2:18-20: "Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the perverse: for this is acceptable, if a man for conscience toward God endures grief, suffering wrongfully. For what praise is it, if you sin and are being beaten for it, you shall take it patiently? But, if you do good and suffer for it, taking it patiently, this is acceptable with God."

- 2 Peter

This letter teaches us that the Day of the Lord will bring destruction upon the false teachers:

2 Peter 2:1: "But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you; who secretly shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction."

2 Peter 2:9: "then the Lord knows how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust to the Day of Judgment to be punished;"

2 Peter 3:10: "But the Day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night: in which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with intense heat, the earth also and the works that are in it shall be burned up."

- Jude

This letter teaches us that the Lord will return with his saints to judge the false teachers:

Jude 1:3-4: "Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write to you of the common salvation, it was necessary for me to write to you; and to exhort you, that you should earnestly contend for the Faith, which was once for all time delivered to the saints. For certain men have crept secretly into church leadership, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation: ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into licentiousness; and denying the only Lord God, even our Lord Jesus Christ."

Jude 1:17-21: "But, beloved, remember the words which were spoken before by the Apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ: how that they told you there would be mockers in the Last Time, who would walk after their own ungodly lusts. These are they who separate themselves; sensual: not having the Holy Spirit. But you, beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit: keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto Eternal Life."

2 Peter and Jude complement each other, like two sides of the same coin.

- 2 Thessalonians

This letter teaches us that the Day of Christ will bring destruction upon unbelievers and rebels against God:

2 Thessalonians 1:7-9: "And to you who are troubled rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from Heaven with his mighty angels; in flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ; who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power;"

2 Thessalonians 2:8: "And then shall that Wicked one be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the Spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming;"

2 Thessalonians is the unique document in this group.

- Galatians

This letter explains the theology concerning the Law of Moses and the Gospel of Christ, which Paul explains as the Finished Work and Divine Person of Jesus Christ.

I cannot do justice to the content of this letter here, but only provide a few passages to illustrate the Golden Ratio design:

Galatians 3:10-14: "For as many as are of the works of the Law are under the curse: for it is written, 'Cursed is everyone that does not continue in all things which are written in the Book of the Law to do them.'" But that no man is justified by the Law in the sight of God, it is evident: for it is written, "The just shall live by faith." And the Law is not of faith; but "The man that does them shall live in them."

Christ has redeemed us from the curse of the Law, having become a curse for us: for it is written, "Cursed is everyone that hangs on a tree"; that the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ, that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith."

Galatians 3:19a: "What then is the purpose of the Law of Moses?"

Galatians 3:21a: "Is the Law then against the promises of God? Certainly not..."

Galatians 4:4-6: "But when the fullness of the time came, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the Law, to redeem them that were under the Law, that we might receive the adoption of sons. And because you are sons, God has sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, "Papa, Father!""

The theme of Galatians is "The Finished Work and Divine Person of Christ vs. the Law of Moses."

- Colossians

This letter explains the theology concerning the Divine Person and Finished Work of Christ vs. the Gnostic Heresy.

I cannot do justice to the content of this letter here, but only provide a few passages to illustrate the Golden Ratio design:

Colossians 1:14-17: "In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins. Who is the image of the invisible God, the Firstborn of every creature: for all things were created by him: both those that are in Heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible (whether they are thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers). All things were created by him, and for him; and he is before all things, and in him all things are being held together."

Colossians 1:18-20: "And he is the head of the body, the Assembly, who is the Beginning, the Firstborn from the dead, that in all things he might have the preeminence: for it pleased the Father that all fullness of Deity should dwell in him; and, having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things to himself: by him, I say, whether they are things in earth, or things in Heaven."

Colossians 2:16-17: "Therefore, let no man judge you in food, or in drink, or in respect of a feast day, or of the new moon, or of the Sabbath days; which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ."

Colossians 2:20-22: "Therefore if you are dead with Christ from the elements of the world, why, as though living in the world, are you subject to [ascetic] ordinances (touch not; taste not; handle not; which all are to perish with the using), after the commandments and doctrines of men?"

The theme of Colossians is "The Divine Person and Finished Work of Christ vs. the Gnostic Heresy."

- 2 Timothy

This letter is another true pastoral letter, written by Paul to his preacher student Timothy, to give him specific guidance for his own walk with God.

2 Timothy 1:6-7: "Therefore I put you in remembrance that you stir up the gift of God, which is in you by the laying on of my hands: for God has not given us the spirit of fear, but the Spirit of power, of love, and of a sound mind."

2 Timothy 1:13: "Hold fast the form of sound words, which you have heard of me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus."

2 Timothy 2:1-2: "You therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. And the things that you have heard from me among many witnesses, commit the same to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also."

2 Timothy 2:15: "Study to show yourself approved unto God: a workman that needs not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the Word of Truth."

1 Timothy: "The Holy Design of the New Covenant Church of the Living God."

2 Timothy: " The Holy Design of the New Covenant Servant of the Living God."

- 1 Timothy

This letter is a true pastoral letter, written by Paul to his preacher student Timothy, to give him specific guidance in the qualifications of pastors, deacons, and those who receive assistance from the church.

1 Timothy 1:18-19: "And this same leadership responsibility I commit to you, son Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before on you, that by them you might war a good warfare; holding faith, and a good conscience."

1 Timothy 2:8-10: "Therefore I decree that the men of the Assembly pray in all places, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting. In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest clothing, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with braided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array, but (which is proper for women professing godliness) with good works."

1 Timothy 3:1-2: "This is a true saying: if a man aspires to the office of an Overseer, he desires a good work. An Overseer then must be blameless, a husband of only one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behavior, given to hospitality, able to teach; ..."

1 Timothy 3:8: "Likewise the Deacons must be serious, not double-tongued, not next to much wine, not greedy for dishonest gain; ..."

1 Timothy 5:3-4: "Honor widows that are widows in truth; but if any widow has children or grandchildren, let them learn first to show piety at home, and take care of their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God."

The theme of 1 Timothy is " The Holy Design of the New Covenant Church of the Living God."

You should be able to easily see the complementary nature of the letters of 1 and 2 Timothy.

- Ephesians

This letter focuses on the theme of the theology of the holy position of the believer, who is seated in Heaven with Jesus, and is also seated with other Jews and Gentiles in the Assembly of believers, which is his Body.

Ephesians 1:3-5: "Blessed is the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ: according as he has chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love; having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will,"

1:13-14: "in whom also after you believed in Christ, you were sealed with that Holy Spirit of promise, which is the down-payment of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, to the praise of his glory."

2:4-7: "But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love with which he loved us, even when we were dead in sins, has made us alive together with Christ (by grace you have been permanently saved); and has raised us up together; and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus, that in the Ages to come he might show the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us in Christ Jesus."

2:19-22: "Now therefore you are no longer strangers and foreigners, but fellow-citizens with the saints, and of the household of God; and are being built upon the foundation of the Apostles and Prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone; in whom all the building fitly framed together is growing into a holy Temple in the Lord; in whom you also are being built together for a habitation of God through the Spirit.

I can't possibly do justice to the magnificence of this amazing letter here; but just to show that it is unique in this group of five chapter of Book 5.5.

The theme of Ephesians is " The Holy Position of the New Covenant Child of God in the Body of Christ".

Now, having used the principles of the Golden Ratio design and combining them with literal interpretation (which is the safest method of interpretation, because the interpretation relies only on the content of the text, and not the mind of the interpreter), we have placed every document in the Traditional Canon in the Golden Ratio design of Division One of the Holy Bible, except Psalms.

The Biblical Design of the Golden Ratio in Nature

Psalms 139:13-16: "For you have possessed my reins; you have covered me in my mother's womb. I will praise you: for I am fearfully and wonderfully made. Your works are marvelous, and that my soul knows very well. My substance was not hidden from you, when I was made in secret, and skillfully formed in the lowest parts of the earth. Your eyes saw my substance, still being imperfect; and in your Book all my members were written, which in continuance were fashioned, when as yet there were none of them."

The Biblical Design of the Golden Ratio in the human body

Here is some additional information about the Biblical design of the Golden Ratio. This information will shock you, but it really should not be a surprise. If God went to all that trouble to build the design of the Golden Ratio into his own Word, the Holy Bible, how much more would He do it with his own Creation? I will show you how the Golden Ratio design of UCC-OO is literally built into the very fabric of our Universe and the design of our own bodies.

- Unique Volume 1: The Saints of the Kingdom of Zion
- Complement Volume 2: The Past and Future History of the King of Zion
- Complement Volume 3: The Past and Future History of the Kingdom of Zion

First of all, please notice the Biblical design of the Golden Ratio of the entire Bible: "OO-CCU || UCC"; or, two opposites, two complements, and one unique plus a second group of one unique and two complements.

There is one group of 5, plus a second group of 3: 5 + 3 (total of 8). The number 8 is very important in the design of the Golden Ratio, but it always occurs as a result of 3 + 5 or 5 + 3, never by itself.

I will make applications of this information later in the study. Then notice that every Book in the design of the Golden Ratio has two groups of five Chapters. Every Book is divided into two Parts, which both have five Chapters each. I have shown this before in previous studies. The design of the Golden Ratio reverses itself from Book to Book if the Books are arranged correctly.

The point is that each Book has two identical instances of "UCC-OO" or "OO-CCU". This is true throughout the entire Bible in every Book (with special exceptions).

For example, the Book of Matthew has "UCC-OO" || "UCC-OO" as the design for the five Chapters in Part one and five Chapters in Part two, on the Chapter level.

Now, I will show you how this very same design of "UCC-OO" is found throughout all nature, and even in our own bodies, which is where I will begin.

Remember that the "OO" means "Two Opposites"; the "CC" means "Two Complementary" (or like two sides of the same coin), and "U" means one Unique.

The Human Hand

Take a look at your own hands, how they are designed: First, you have FIVE fingers on each hand: two identical groups of FIVE. You have one BIG thumb, and one LITTLE finger: two Opposites, "OO". That leaves 3 fingers: of these, one is longer than the other two (mine is the middle finger). The other two are very similar to each other in length, and in most cases, the two similar fingers are on either side of the middle finger. One Unique, and two Complementary, or "UCC". So in both of your hands, you have the Golden Ratio design of "UCC-OO"; although, because it is a physical form and not the Bible, the design has the same characteristics, but not the same order: "O-CUC-O". It is the same Golden Ratio design of "UCC-OO". The Golden Ratio design in nature is typically not in the same order as the Golden Ratio design is found in the Bible, which is always "UCC-OO" or "OO-CCU", or some smaller piece of it: "UCC", "OO", or "CC".

The design of the human hand is "UCC-OO".

Other researchers into the Golden Ratio have noticed that the length of the bones in our fingers also follow the Golden Ratio of 1.618 to 1. <https://www.goldennumber.net/human-hand-foot/>

The Golden Ratio design of the Human Head

Now let's look at the design of our head, i.e. the holes in our head:

- One mouth - Unique
- Two nostrils (side by side) - two Complementary
- Two ears (on opposite sides of our head) - two Opposite
- (The eyes are not holes.)

The design of the human head is "UCC-OO".

The Golden Ratio design of the Human Body

Now let's look at the design of our entire body:

- One head - Unique
- Two legs (side by side) - two Complementary
- Two arms (opposite sides of the torso) - two Opposites

The design of the human body is "UCC-OO".

So I have given you four clear examples of the Golden Ratio design of "UCC-OO" in our bodies. It is so obvious that it cannot be denied.

This proves that humans were CREATED according to a specific DESIGN: the Golden Ratio design. It is mathematically impossible for order and design to come from random movement of atoms and molecules. A million monkeys typing on typewriters will never be able to create the Magna Carta or anything that approaches real communication.

And the fact that we see this same Golden Ratio design in the Holy Bible tells us one thing: The God who created us is the very same God who gave us the Holy Bible.

The Golden Ratio design of the Human Spine

This is a recent addition to this collection (2022), and it is quite amazing!

The human spine is made up of 5 different parts:

- Unique The Cervical (neck bones): it is straight, with the same types of bones as found in the Thoracic and Lumbar; however, those bones have curves; and the Cervical does not, so it is unique in this group.
- Complement The Thoracic (upper backbone): it has a curve in the opposite direction from the Lumbar.
- Complement The Lumbar (lower backbone): it has a curve in the opposite direction from the Thoracic.
- Opposite The Sacral: supports the weight of the body while sitting; but it is large and quite different than the Coccyx.
- Opposite The Coccyx (or tail bone); supports the weight of the body while sitting; but it is small and much different than the Sacral.

I am 100% sure that there are many other examples of the Golden Ratio in the human body! One that I believe will be a fruitful area of study is the human brain: it is divided into two halves with complementary functions.

The human heart also has two complementary halves.

Also, some examples of two complementary organs are:

- 1) The Lungs
- 2) The kidneys
- 3) The testicles (for men)
- 4) The ovaries (for women)

And so on. Lots to study there!

I was not trained in Human Physiology, but I will look into it and add more to this page in the future when I understand it better.

The Biblical Design of the Golden Ratio in the Solar System

Now, I want to cover several additional examples of the design of the Golden Ratio in nature. I hope that these will move you to deeper study on these topics, because I do not have space to go deeper into them in this study.

The inner group of the Solar System

It is composed of two groups of FIVE, divided by two asteroid belts:

In the inner group, Mars has a thin atmosphere, and is smaller than both Venus and Earth: one Unique.

The Earth and Venus are twins in size, and have thick atmospheres; but Earth is habitable, and Venus is not: two Complementary.

The Sun is HUGE, and Mercury is tiny, with no atmosphere: two Opposites.

The inner group has the Biblical design of the Golden Ratio of "UCC-OO".

Unique Mars
Complement Earth
Complement Venus

Opposite Mercury
Opposite Sol (the Sun)

The outer group

The outer group is composed of five planets: Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus, Neptune, and Pluto (we will assume for the sake of brevity that Pluto is a planet. Not everyone agrees with this conclusion, but it doesn't matter for this discussion).

Pluto is Unique in this group, because its oval orbit goes within the outer Kuiper Belt of asteroids, and also within the orbit of Neptune. Its orbit is tilted and is more elliptical than the orbits of any of the other planets in the solar system.

Pluto also rotates upside down with its North Pole below the plane of the solar system in the opposite sense of the Earth and most of the other planets.

Pluto is smaller than our own Moon and also denser than any of its neighbors in the outer solar system.

But, perhaps, its most fascinating property was uncovered only 12 years ago when a huge companion "moon" called Charon was detected from ground based photographs. Subsequent investigations have shown that Charon is about half the size of Pluto making it the largest known satellite relative to its planet in the solar system. In fact, because of this, Pluto is often referred to as a double planet.

<https://esahubble.org/images/opo9014a/>

Saturn and Jupiter both are composed of hydrogen and Helium, and they are similar in size. They complement each other.

Neptune and Uranus are called "ice giants"; they are smaller than Saturn and Jupiter and are composed of mostly heavier metals, and small rocky cores.

But these two planets are quite different from each other. In contrast with Uranus, Neptune radiates more than twice as much energy into space as it receives from the sun. Also, the rotational orientation of Neptune is similar to the other planets, in stark contrast to Uranus.

Uranus is called an "ice giant" because its temperature is much colder than Jupiter, Saturn, and even Neptune. It radiates hardly any excess energy into space; unlike Neptune, which radiates 2.6 times as much energy as it receives from the Sun (Ibid, Uranus).

The Uranian axis of rotation is approximately parallel with the plane of the Solar System, with an axial tilt of 97.77° (as defined by prograde rotation). This gives it seasonal changes completely unlike those of the other planets. Near the solstice, one pole faces the Sun continuously and the other faces away. Only a narrow strip around the equator experiences a rapid day–night cycle, but with the Sun low over the horizon. At the other side of Uranus's orbit the orientation of the poles towards the Sun is reversed. Uranus is the only planet in the Solar System to have such a radical orientation.

Uranus is also composed of methane and ammonia, in addition to hydrogen and helium, so it is quite different from Jupiter and Saturn.

<https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Uranus>

So Neptune and Uranus are Opposites to each other.

Unique Pluto
Complement Jupiter
Complement Saturn

Opposite Neptune
Opposite Uranus

The outer group of planets has the Biblical design of the Golden Ratio of "UCC-OO".

Now, let's arrange the planets of the Solar System in the entire Golden Ratio design:

Group 1: Inner planets + the Sun

Unique Mars
Complement Earth
Complement Venus

Opposite Mercury
Opposite Sol (the Sun)

Group 2: Outer planets

Unique Pluto
Complement Jupiter
Complement Saturn

Opposite Neptune
Opposite Uranus

Only God could have done that, amen and amen! If the secular scientists ever see this, it will drive them crazy!

"The heavens are telling the glory of God; and the expanse of the Universe shows the work of his hands." Psalm 19:1

"For the wrath of God is revealed from Heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who suppress the truth in unrighteousness; because that which may be known of God is manifest in them: for God has shown it to them. For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his Eternal power and Deity, so that they are without excuse." Romans 1:18-20

The Biblical Design of the Golden Ratio in the small and great of our Universe

The C Major musical scale

<https://signaturesound.com/the-major-scale/>

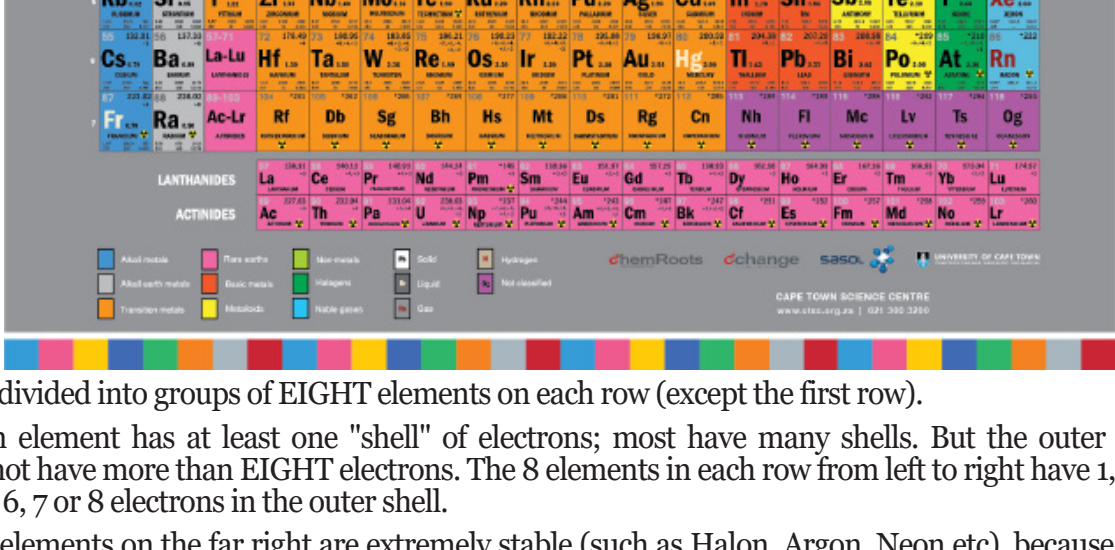

An Octave starts with C and ends with C: they are the same note harmonically. If you sing or play the scale, but leave out the second "C", it sounds incomplete, unless you include all eight notes.

Here is the pattern in the C major scale: "whole-whole-half|| whole-whole-whole--half-whole". I include the next "whole" from C to D to show the entire design.

Notice the amazing similarity to the Biblical design of the Golden Ratio for the entire Bible:

- Complement Division One: History and Doctrine
 - Opposite Volume 1: The Laws of the Old Covenant Kingdom of Zion
 - Opposite Volume 2: The Prophets of the New Covenant Kingdom of Zion
 - Complement Volume 3: The Past and Future History of the Kingdom of Zion
 - Complement Volume 4: The Past and Future History of the King of Zion
 - Unique Volume 5: The Saints of the Kingdom of God
- Complement Division Two: Prayers (Psalms)
 - Unique Volume 1: The Saints of the Kingdom of Zion
 - Complement Volume 2: The Past and Future History of the King of Zion
 - Complement Volume 3: The Past and Future History of the Kingdom of Zion

The Chemistry Table of Elements

It is divided into groups of EIGHT elements on each row (except the first row). Each element has at least one "shell" of electrons; most have many shells. But the outer shell cannot have more than EIGHT electrons. The 8 elements in each row from left to right have 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 or 8 electrons in the outer shell. The elements on the far right are extremely stable (such as Halon, Argon, Neon etc), because they have the maximum of EIGHT outer electrons. If an element has less than 8 outer electrons, it "wants" to combine with other elements so that the combination will have a total of eight electrons in the outer shell. For example, Salt is NaCL, which is Sodium combined with Chlorine, which is extremely stable, because it has 8 electrons in the outer shell. The elements on the left want to release their electron(s) to combine with the elements on the right side of each row; whereas the elements on the right side want to attract electrons from elements on the left, so that the combination has a total of 8 outer (or Valence) electrons.

Here is one possibility that I believe has merit, from row 2 of the Table, from right to left:

- Unique Neon (has 8 outer electrons - attracts none, gives up none except under extreme conditions)
 - Complement Fluorine (has 7 outer electrons - attracts 1 electron)
 - Complement Oxygen (has 6 outer electrons - attracts 2 electrons)
 - Opposite Nitrogen (has 5 outer electrons - attracts 3 electrons)
 - Opposite Carbon (has 4 outer electrons - either attract 4 or release 4)
-
- Complement Boron (has 3 outer electrons - can release 3)
 - Complement Beryllium (has 2 outer electrons - can release 2)
 - Unique Lithium (has 1 outer electron - can release 1)

Again, notice the amazing similarity between the outer shell of valence electrons in the Chemistry Table of Elements to the Golden Ratio design of the Bible. Given what we already know about the Solar System, the human body, and the G major musical scale that have the same design, is this really a surprise?

- Complement Division One: History and Doctrine
 - Opposite Volume 1: The Laws of the Old Covenant Kingdom of Zion
 - Opposite Volume 2: The Prophets of the New Covenant Kingdom of Zion
 - Complement Volume 3: The Past and Future History of the Kingdom of Zion
 - Complement Volume 4: The Past and Future History of the King of Zion
 - Unique Volume 5: The Saints of the Kingdom of God
- Complement Division Two: Prayers (Psalms)
 - Unique Volume 1: The Saints of the Kingdom of Zion
 - Complement Volume 2: The Past and Future History of the King of Zion
 - Complement Volume 3: The Past and Future History of the Kingdom of Zion

Notice that I didn't say that it was the same exact design, but rather similar: all of them have the same 5 x 3 or 3 x 5 design with the break between the "UCC" and the "OO", every single time. This cannot be a coincidence!

The 5 main types of galaxies

The Irregular and Peculiar types could easily be considered as one, so I believe that we can include these two types as one in our search for the Golden Ratio design of UCC-OO.

Here is what I believe could be the Golden Ratio design of the galaxy types:

- Unique Peculiar is a galaxy of unusual size, shape, or composition; An irregular galaxy is a galaxy that does not have a distinct regular shape, unlike a spiral or an elliptical galaxy. These are one and the same.
- Complement Spiral
- Complement Barred Spiral
- Opposite Elliptical is a type of galaxy with an approximately ellipsoidal shape and a smooth, nearly featureless image
- Opposite Lenticular is a type of galaxy intermediate between an elliptical and a spiral galaxy in galaxy morphological classification schemes

Notice that the Peculiar and Irregular types could be many shapes, so they are Unique as a type. The Spiral types are complementary (both are spiral, but has a bar in the center, and the other doesn't), like two sides of the same coin. And the Elliptical and Lenticular types oppose each other (Lenticular has a small hot center surrounded by a thin ghostly group of stars, and Elliptical is "full" looking, with no hot center).

I will admit that this is a little more speculative than the earlier examples; however, given the earlier examples are facts that may be denied, but not disproven, I strongly believe that this theory is strong and will hold up over time.

- It certainly agrees with the facts that we know:
- 1) The very elements of the Universe are designed according to the Golden Ratio design
 - 2) The Solar System displays the Golden Ratio design
 - 3) The human body displays the Golden Ratio design, in at least 5 different ways: fingers design, finger bones design, toes design, overall body design, face design.
 - 4) The way that we perceive musical tones also displays the Golden Ratio design
 - 5) The 5 general types of galaxies in the Universe agrees with the Golden Ratio design.

How many other things in nature (all created by the God of the Bible, the Lord Jesus Christ) also display the Golden Ratio design?

I don't know, but I would bet anything (figuratively speaking) that there are far more that are yet undiscovered than we know at this time.

Conclusion

Christian friend, I have only given you the very briefest of introductions to the Golden Ratio Design of the Bible. This is only the beginning of a great journey of spiritual growth and understanding for you as you study the precious, holy Word of God. I have barely scratched the surface of the "hows" and "whys" of the Golden Ratio Design of the Bible.

In order for you to be able to more fully grasp what the Golden Ratio Design is all about, I am preparing a series of detailed studies of each Book of the Bible. As of 2021, I have covered all of Volume 3 and most of Volume 4; that is to say, from Joshua up to Acts, I have prepared detailed studies that explain, Chapter by Chapter, and paragraph by paragraph, exactly how and why God gave his Word according to the Golden Ratio Design. [The studies in Volume 3 and some of Volume 4 are being reworked.]

I have also been adding YouTube videos as an additional way of explaining the Golden Ratio design of the Bible. These are growing in number, and can all be found at the link below.

If you truly want to grow in your Christian faith, I strongly urge you to read each one of these studies and watch the videos also, because they will help you a great deal in your understanding of Biblical theology and your walk with Christ.

You can find these detailed studies and videos on this page on my website:

<https://www.phibible.org/info/GoldenRatioBibleStudies/EnglishStudies.html>

I am regularly updating this section of my website with detailed studies of each Book of the Bible as they are published on Facebook. I am amazed and blessed to report that these studies on Facebook are receiving thousands of likes, loves, and wows every week.

To date, I have accumulated over 8,000 likes on my Facebook ministry page, all to the honor and glory of God! Tens of thousands of people all over the world are reading these studies in both English and Spanish, and learning about the Bible using the Golden Ratio design; and they get a clear presentation of the Gospel, too, Amen!

I am looking forward to the day when all Born-again Christian Believers will be using the Golden Ratio design of the Bible to grow in their faith and obedience to the Jesus Christ of the Bible (there is no other), because the Golden Ratio design is from God, not from me; therefore, it will endure forever, as long as God lives; and He will never die; Amen!

You may find these studies at this link on Facebook:

https://www.facebook.com/Spanishphibible?ref=aymt_homepage_panel:

However, since Facebook will only allow plain text in my Bible study posts, I recommend that you use the published studies on my website at the link above, because the experience will be much more meaningful and the text will be much easier to read.

Finally, let me add one more note before closing:

My friends, the hour of the Lord's return is very near. I think that every Believer is starting to realize this, because the signs of his Return are everywhere, especially in the United States.

There is great apostasy from the Bible in many formerly good churches, and the US Government is rapidly destroying the Constitution and corrupting the country from within. I believe that the Rapture will come very, very soon.

This is why I believe that the Lord did not want me to print the Kingdom Study Bible, but rather to provide a free version in PDF that can be easily spread throughout the world in a short amount of time.

WE MUST HURRY TO GET THE GOSPEL OUT BEFORE THE LORD RETURNS!

Please, share this free PDF Bible far and wide. You can make as many copies as you wish, free of charge. Email them to all of your friends, and ask them to do the same. Share it on your social media any way that you can.

Mark 13:28-37:

- Unique Conclusion: The time of the Return of Christ is known only to the Father, so be ready for his Return at any moment (13:33 - 37)
- Complement The day and hour of the Return of Christ is hidden to all but the Father in Heaven (13:28 - 32)
- Opposite 13:28 Now learn a parable of the fig tree: when her branch is still tender, and puts forth leaves, you know that summer is near; 13:29 so you in like manner, when you shall see these things come to pass, know that he is near, even at the doors.
- Opposite 13:30 Truly I say to you, that this generation shall not pass, until all these things are done.
- Complement 13:31 Heaven and earth shall pass away;
- Complement but my words shall not pass away.
- Unique 13:32 But of that day and hour no man knows: no, not even the angels which are in Heaven; neither the Son, but the Father.
- Complement Believers must be alert and ready for the Return of Christ at any moment (13:33 - 37)
- Opposite 13:33 Be discerning: watch and pray: for you do not know when the Time is.
- Opposite 13:34 For the Return of Christ is like a man taking a far journey, who left his house; and he gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the gatekeeper to watch.
- Complement 13:35 Watch therefore: for you do not know when the master of the house is coming: at evening, or at midnight, or at the rooster-crowing, or in the morning;
- Complement 13:36 lest coming suddenly, he finds you sleeping.
- Unique 13:37 And what I say to you, I say unto all: 'Watch.'"

May the Lord Jesus Christ richly bless you as you seek Him! Amen and Praise the Lord!
